End of Days Revival!

Osyio (greetings) in the name of our risen Lord! It is a joy and an honor to bring the Word of God to all nations of this country – incarcerated or free! We will be dedicating this month's newsletter to the end times importance of prison ministry. Since the first Europeans came to this country the First Nations people were considered "heathens, pagans and even devil worshipers." Nothing could be farther from the truth. If the first settlers had been more educated in the Old Testament they would have known to bless us to be blessed and that cursing us would bring a curse – Genesis 12:3.

In 1994 Dr. Billy Graham was quoted as saying, "The greatest moments of Native history lie ahead of us if a great spiritual renewal and wakening should take place. The Native American has been a sleeping giant. He is awakening. The original Americans could become the evangelists who will help win America for Christ! Remember these forgotten people."

We at White Eagle Ministries agree that the First Nations people were a spiritual sleeping giant. The day of persecutions is ending and the day of leadership has begun. We've witnessed a tremendous move of God in the First Nations people and especially those that are incarcerated! The time in prison is giving them a chance to hear from the Creator like they never have before. Like Joseph, prison has become a spiritual training ground – we will see them go from the pit to the palace in one day!

Evangelist Tom Bee was quoted as saying "America, get ready for a "Holy War Path," led by Native American pastors, evangelists, prophets, and teachers from within all of the Indian nations. Churches have got to stop jumping to conclusions, many times without sufficient knowledge to back up their claims, and be so quick to label everything Native American as demonic. The drum, flute, regalia - this can all be redeemed before God. What we need more than ever is unity among the churches of all denominations and a deeper understanding of Native American spirituality by all of them. A more compassionate approach rather than a "stop being Indian" and be one of us approach! This is dated primitive outreach.

It was the European Christian missionaries that told the Natives that they could not be Christian and be Indian. This is what the late Brother Kenneth E. Hagin would have called "ignorance gone to seed". I was born, by blood, from my mother's womb, a Cherokee. My spirit was born-again once I asked Jesus to be Lord over my life. Let's look at it this way – NO ONE can be born in the flesh as a Christian! I hope that is not too blunt but this is a matter of life and death and time is short.

The Lord told Brother Kenneth Copeland (Cherokee) in a prophetic message one year ago that "I am not out of mercy – I am out of time!" (We will have more on Brother Copeland's prophecy to the tribal leaders of the earth in our next issue.)

It is very possible that the Native Americans are God's chosen people on this continent to be the spiritual leaders in the last days. Native American Christians are now accepted as equals in the pulpits of America and on their own reservations. Watch, you will see a move of God across this land that will ignite a revival throughout the country like we've never seen since the Azusa Street revival of 1906! For hundreds of years Native Americans have been considered one of the the least of peoples. What was it our Lord said? "The last shall be first." 😊

Blessings, Grandmother <><

A note to our European friends:

Why Grandmother? The title has nothing to do with how many grandchildren one has nor does it have to do with age. Ulisi, Cherokee for Grandmother, is the term for a spiritual Elder. A woman in First Nations tribes earns this title for her spiritual knowledge and wisdom that comes from the Creator.

End times importance of Prison Ministry

Chuck Colson, director of Prison Fellowship Ministries and the "Breakpoint" report shared last fall that "In August, 2005, law enforcement officials foiled a Jihadist plot to attack a synagogue and military recruiting center in Los Angeles. What made the plot disturbing wasn't only the nationality of the organizers - they were native born Americans of non-Middle-Eastern descent - but the plot was hatched inside Folsom Prison in California." The inmates were converted to Islam inside a U.S. prison and they recruited thirteen other prison converts to their "holy war" against America. A former California prison authority said: "prisons are a prime target for terrorist recruiting," and the recruiters include al-Qaeda.

I have had people ask me why I spend so much energy and time ministering to the incarcerated when I could be doing something else. Like what – something more "glamorous or sophisticated?" Do not judge what you do not understand. The body of Christ is to be a team. Like a baseball team. Not everyone can be the pitcher. Some of us will seem to be out in "right field" when it comes to ministry. Ask any professional baseball team how important is a right fielder and they will tell you they want one of their best athletes in that position. Besides, look at the money I am saving on cosmetics! 😊

The good news about prisons is they are a breeding ground for spiritual growth - the bad news is it can be the wrong kind. Wicca, Satanism, Islam and false prophets will thrive unless there are those willing to spend the time to share the Truth. In Matthew 24:11, our Lord tells us that in the last days false prophets will rise up and deceive many.

Society has long regarded maximum security prisons as a place where people are put away for 40 years or more and tend to forget about them. However, for some that was 39 and ½ years ago. Many are getting out this year! What kind of spiritual "training" did they receive? Are you ready for them to be your next door neighbor? Are you supporting your church's prison/jail outreach? Are you praying/supporting ministries like this one to be successful in reaching the lost for Jesus?

Jesus tells us that "what you have done for the least of these you have done unto me" Matt 25:40. Jesus loves and cares for the incarcerated, so should we. A-Ho!

God Bless, Grandmother <><

😊 A word of wisdom given in love: A women called to minister in men's prison units should never wear excessive makeup and in many cases no make up is allowed by the units at all. Remember Who you are representing and nothing should distract from His message.

First Pow Wow on Iraqi Soil

September 2005, Thanks to the Us Army and CFGC
Chaplain Captain Shareen "pinkie" Fischer
Shinnecock Tribe

Chaplain Fischer's battalion was from Oklahoma and forty percent of the soldiers were of Native American decent - including: Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek, Seminole, Shinnecock, and full-blooded Apache tribes. She developed a committee to organize the function and with the blessings of her commander pulled it off. Most everything including the drum was made in Iraq. The National Smithsonian found out about it and have the drum, clothing, etc. displayed in Washington.

Chaplain Fischer shared that almost 90% of the Native American troops were born-again Christians. She gave God all the Glory as they were able to share with all the troops a special piece of our Native culture. A special salute to Chaplain Fischer and the troops from the 120th Engineer Battalion from Okmulgee, Oklahoma.

Each tribe flew its flag on Iraqi soil before the Army donated it to each nation represented. Wado equa (thank you greatly) to the U. S. Army and God Bless our troops!

Cherokee Nation: Trail of Tears commemorated in Arkansas. Pea Ridge National Military Park, Ark. - The Cherokee Nation, the National Trail of Tears Association along with the National Park Service commemorated a two-mile segment of the Trail of Tears at the Pea Ridge National Military Park. The afternoon ceremony began with the tribe's Color Guard posting the U.S., tribal and the Prisoner of War/ Missing in Action flags and was followed by the Cherokee Adult Choir singing the national anthem. Chief Chad Smith remarked "Even though this was a ground of misery, apprehension and despair ... we as a Cherokee people have a great legacy. And that legacy is this: we face adversity, and we survive, adapt, prosper and excel." The choir later led the crowd in singing "Amazing Grace" (a popular song sung on the trail) before the Color Guard retired the colors. Chief Smith and Deputy Chief Joe Grayson closed the ceremony by leading the audience on a commemorative walk on the newly dedicated trail.

If you would like to make the wonderful decision to make Yeshua the Lord of your life, simply pray this prayer: Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. I pray and ask Jesus to come into my heart and be Lord over my life according to Romans 10:9-10. "For if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." I do that now. I confess that Jesus is Lord, and I believe in my heart that God raised Him from the dead.

Lord Yeshua, fill me now with the power of your Holy Spirit as your word says in Acts 1:8, and I will never be the same, in Yeshua's Mighty Name. AMEN!

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet...
