2007 - Year of the Open Door - the Time is Now!

BridgeBuilders, BrokenWalls, HealingTheLand, WhiteEagleNews and other ministries are dedicated to rebuilding broken relationships between American Indians and Anglos here on Turtle Island. Scripture tells us in Isaiah 58:12 "and they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in." KJV

My journey as a restorer of the paths began on the Navajo Reservation 6 years ago. It has lead me to other Pow Wows, Sacred Circles and inside a maximum security men's prison in Texas. Never, at any time did I envision this calling to lead me to minister inside Anglo/Euro churches, but that is exactly what Adonoi (Cherokee for Lord) lead me to do the last three months of 2006.

In December, I was asked to play the native flute for a Christmas Eve service at an Assembly of God church in Coppell, Texas, (Dallas County). Just a few days before the Christmas weekend I received a new Mohawk flute made by Brother Jonathan Maracle, along with an email from him that this flute was great for playing Christmas Carols. I also discerned that this flute had very strong medicine (anointing) about it.

On Christmas Eve morning the band was finishing their songs as I stepped up to the microphone to play.

Just as I lifted the flute I heard an inner voice that said "wait." Suddenly, there was a woman in the congregation speaking in another language. I do not speak Navajo, but I have been around the people enough to know that what I heard was the Navajo language. She then gave the interpretation of the tongue - 1 Corinthians 14:13.

The Pastor, Rod Collver, got up and confirmed to the congregation that the Word was from God and time is indeed very short. Jesus is coming back very soon! He encouraged the congregation to meditate on this Word while I played a native flute. I Chronicles 25:1 tells us that David called forth the chief musicians to prophesy with their instruments. As I played and prophesied, a Word did come forth. The message was in agreement with the tongue that was just given, however, it was also a confirmation of a prophecy given by Brother Kenneth Copeland in April of 2005. God is raising up native tribal leaders in all nations as His time is very short. Our Lord is calling all tribal leaders to rise up - not just those on the Navajo Reservation. . The time is now – for believers this is very Good News! However, we must now step out and do all that we can because so many are still lost. Look for open doors of opportunity (more on this later).

Here is Brother Copeland's Prophecy delivered April 22, 2005, at the Belfast Victory Campaign: "The native tribal peoples of the earth are crying out to the heavens, 'Who are you? We want to know you,' 'and I'm going to satisfy them in this day and in this hour. I am appearing to millions upon millions of tribal people, including the tribes of Israel. Hallelujah. And I'll send you, and there may be times for the time for it has come.

You may wake up in the night and I'll call you into your prayer room and you will step into your prayer room and suddenly you'll be somewhere on the other side of the world. And you'll stand on a platform and you'll preach a message and you will disappear just like when you came, and you'll be right back in your prayer room again. Oh that's an easy thing for Me," saith the Lord. "I just haven't had a generation of people that would believe for it. But I not only can do and will do it, I said I would do it. And these are the days that I'll do it so stay prepared. Stay ready.

Oh yes, I will equip you with all of the equipment. I will equip you with everything it takes. I will equip you with cars, buses and airplanes and trains. I'll equip you with everything it takes. But I'm not limited to what I have for you in equipment. I will equip you with the Holy Ghost. Hallelujah. Amen. Hallelujah. And like Phillip of old, I can ship you around from meeting to meeting, if I decide to do so. And I'm ready, if I can just find some people that will allow Me to invade their lives to that depth.

For these are the days," saith the Lord. "We're going to have more fun than you've ever had in your life. We're going to run together, and we're going to sing together, and we're going to preach together, and we're going to heal the sick together, and we're going to raise the dead together, and we're going to see things that other generations tried to see and didn't get to see them," saith the Lord. "Oh yeah, we're going to see things and know things and do things together. Oh it is a marvellous day. I have a quick work," saith the Lord. " I'm not out of mercy, but I'm out of time. So we've got to get it together, get it done and get out. Hallelujah. Oh, hallelujah."

Spiritual Growth

Seek to mature in the Spirit so that because of use, your senses have been trained to discern both good and evil. Hebrews 5:14

The Year of Open Doors

In November of last year the Lord revealed that this New Year would be one of open doors. You will look and at first see nothing, then a door will open where there was none before. It will take boldness to walk through that door but when you do you will be given words to speak. They will not be your words but they will be My Words, said the Lord. Speak these words and see the manifestation of My Glory! See the lost come into your church; see the sick healed, see the captives set free, see blind eyes open! Just be ready and obedient to My voice. Delivered Nov. 5th, 2006, by Sister Chari Bouse, Coppell, Texas.

The Lord spoke to Brother Kenneth Copeland and KCM ministries gave this message to the Body on New Year's Day:

As we celebrate the close of one glorious year, we joyfully welcome 2007, which will be known as The Year of the Open Door. It will be a year of the manifestation of God's greatness and glory. He will open doors for you that no man can shut and shut doors no man can open, so that you can complete your assignment in the Body of Christ. The Lord will work with us to slam the door on the devil's works, which once held us back. Stay in the Word and walk through those doors in faith, and you will see victory. Glory to God!

Have a Happy New Year, and remember...JESUS IS LORD!

Let's look at what the Bible says about open doors. In the book of Acts we find Paul and Barnabas giving this praise report: "Now when they had come and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles." - Acts 14:27. The Apostle Paul goes on to tell us about open doors in 1 Corinthians 16:9 and 2 Corinthians 2:12. In Colossians 4:2-3, he asked for the church to "Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it with thanksgiving; meanwhile praying also for us, that God would open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in chains." (emphasis - mine)

In Revelation 3:8, Jesus says: "I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name." (emphasis - mine) Jesus is talking about either an open door of service in ministry or an evangelistic opportunity. You may be here on this earth to speak the words that only one person needs to hear to accept Christ as Lord. Don't take this lightly. Your reward will be as great as a minister that has been called to save millions. Start praying today and watch for your open door of faith.

You will never be the same!

Stir up your gift

"Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands."

2 Tim 1:6 In this verse the Apostle Paul is reminding Timothy to stir up the gift of God which is in him.

There is a principle here. The initiative for keeping the fires of the soul stirred up is upon the believer. This principle applies to all believers, not just Timothy. We have all been given gifts or spiritual equipment to use for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

It is up to us to stir up the gift that has already been given. The book of Ephesians is written from the perspective of everything we need already being ours in Christ. It starts in Eph. 1:3 by saying, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." The word hath is past tense. We already have everything we need.

Why then do we hear believers beg God for something they already have? Brother Andrew Wommack says this is like a dog chasing his tail. The tail is attached to the dog - he already has it but yet he chases after it anyway. Believers pray this way because of a lack of knowledge. Wrong knowledge of God will produce wrong results - 2 Peter 1:3. The Amplified version of this verse better explains this "May grace (God's favor) and peace (which is perfect well-being, all necessary good, all spiritual prosperity, and freedom from fears and agitating passions and moral conflicts) be multiplied to you in the full, personal, precise and correct knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord!"

Jesus has already done everything for us. We just need to release or appropriate our faith. How do we do this? With our words. Mark 11:23 says we will have whatever we say. You can start today by stop begging God and start speaking words of faith over your mountain of trouble. Any blessing you could ever need from the Lord is not something to strive for, but something you already have. God made the provision before you had the need. It is just a simple matter of receiving what God has already done - Mark 11:24.

This message is strong meat. However, I promise you that if you will study and meditate on these scriptures you will begin to walk in the abundance of life that Jesus has already given us - John 10:10. Your thought life will begin to change as your mind is renewed to the Jesus way of life - Romans 12:1-2.

From Philemon 1:6 : And I pray that the participation in and sharing of your faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good thing that is ours in our identification with Christ Jesus and unto His Glory! (all emphasis - mine)

Holiday Set to recognize Navajo Code Talkers

Window Rock, AZ - The Navajo Nation Council has established a Navajo Nation Code Talkers Day and a tribal holiday, to be every August 14th.

Delegate Larry Anderson of Fort Defiance, sponsor of the legislation, told council, "In all the war histories of the United States, no other language other than English was used, except in World War II, when the United States for the first time in its military history used the Navajo people, and used Navajo words to win the war."

It is estimated that between 375 and 420 Navajos served as code talkers. The program was highly classified throughout the war and remained so until 1968, when, 23 years after the end of World War II, the U.S. Dept. of Defense declassified it.

The Navajo Code Talkers used their native language to transmit military messages in a code that the Japanese could not break during the war.

President George W. Bush hailed the code talkers as men "who, in a desperate hour, gave their country a service only they could give." Courtesy of the Gallup Independent wire report.

Marine Training

Two things they teach Marines: Keep your priorities in order and Know when to act without hesitation.

A college professor, an avowed atheist, was teaching his class. He shocked several of his students when he flatly stated he was going to prove there was no God.

Addressing the ceiling he shouted: "God, if you are real, then I want you to knock me off this platform. I'll give you 15 minutes!" The lecture room fell silent. You could have heard a pinfall. Ten minutes went by. Again he taunted God, saying, "Here I am, God. I'm still waiting."

His countdown got down to the last couple of minutes when a Marine - just released from active duty and newly registered in the class - walked up to the professor, hit him full force in the face, and sent him tumbling from his lofty platform.

The professor was out cold! The students were shocked and babbled in confusion. The young Marine took a seat in the front row and sat silent. The class fell silent...waiting.

Eventually, the professor came to, shaken. He looked at the young Marine in the front row. When the professor regained his senses and could speak he asked: "What's the matter with you? Why did you do that?"

"God was busy. He sent me." 😊

To enter the Blood Covenant

(To follow the Jesus Way)

If you would like to make the wonderful decision to follow the Jesus Way, simply pray this prayer: Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. I pray and ask Jesus to come into my heart and be Lord over my life according to Rom. 10:9-10. "For if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." I do that now. I confess that Jesus is Lord, and I believe in my heart that God raised Him from the dead.

Lord Jesus, fill me now with the power of your Holy Spirit as your word says in Acts 1:8, and I will never be the same, in Jesus's Mighty Name. AMEN!
