

Questions that may be used to Identify Trafficking Victims

- Are they isolated from the community?
Family? Friends?
- Are they free to have a relationship with someone? Play sports? Go to school?
- Did they come to the area for a specific job or purpose? How did that turn out?
- Who provides housing, food, and clothes?
- Were they forced to have sex as part of the job?
- Does someone hold their money?
Identification?

Note: You do not need to ask and /or answer all of them. An answer to one, or a combination, may indicate trafficking activity.
