

City of Columbus – Division of Power
Street Light Engineering
Engineer-In-Training I

The City of Columbus Department of Public Utilities is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Engineer-In-Training I in the Division of Power. This position is responsible for performing entry-level practical engineering work for street lighting. Duties include: learning to coordinate, prepare, and review plans for street lighting improvement projects; learning to prepare and review plans for smart lighting; learning to administer street lighting improvement projects; learning to perform field investigations; learning to provide technical assistance to contractors and inspectors in the field; and other duties as assigned. This role is multifaceted and consists of approximately 10% field work and 90% office work. Applicants for this role should be highly-motivated self-starters that are looking to quickly learn all aspects of street lighting engineering. Individuals appointed to this classification serve for a limited period of time not to exceed four (4) years and during this time are expected to obtain valid State of Ohio certification as a registered Professional Engineer. Salary $52,915 - $79,352.

The desired candidates will have knowledge or background with AutoCAD, geographic information systems (GIS), and Microsoft Office products. Electrical engineering or civil engineering majors strongly preferred, but not required.

To qualify you must have:

- Possession of a Bachelor of Science in Engineering
- Possess a valid Engineer Intern certificate (FE) by the end of the probationary period
- Possess a valid driver's license
