

OTCO & WVETC Partnership

The Jess Jones Backflow Tester Workshop at ETC.

Instructor Gary Espenschied assists a student during a Backflow class at ETC.

Curtis teaching GIS class at WVDEP HQ in Charleston, WV.

GIS Class for Operators March 2016

Cecil McDonald assisting students during GIS field exercise.

This Operator's PSSD created a GIS position for him after being impressed with his new skill set.

GIS Program featured at ETC booth during 2016 WV AWWA/WEA Conference

Class H students learning how to maintain a Jet ATU at the WVETC Onsite Sewage Demonstration Site.

Class H Students pulling filter socks from a Multi Flo ATU for cleaning and inspection.

Students in the Class S (STPs 50,000 GPD or <) Course removing floatable material behind the clarifier scum baffle.

Class S course includes pulling a drop pipe for cleaning and inspection.

'Air Lift Pump' Demonstration

Collection System students working together on emergency response exercise.

Students learn how to safely enter a confined space.

Smoke testing during Collection System Class

ETC's newest class-Construction Storm Water

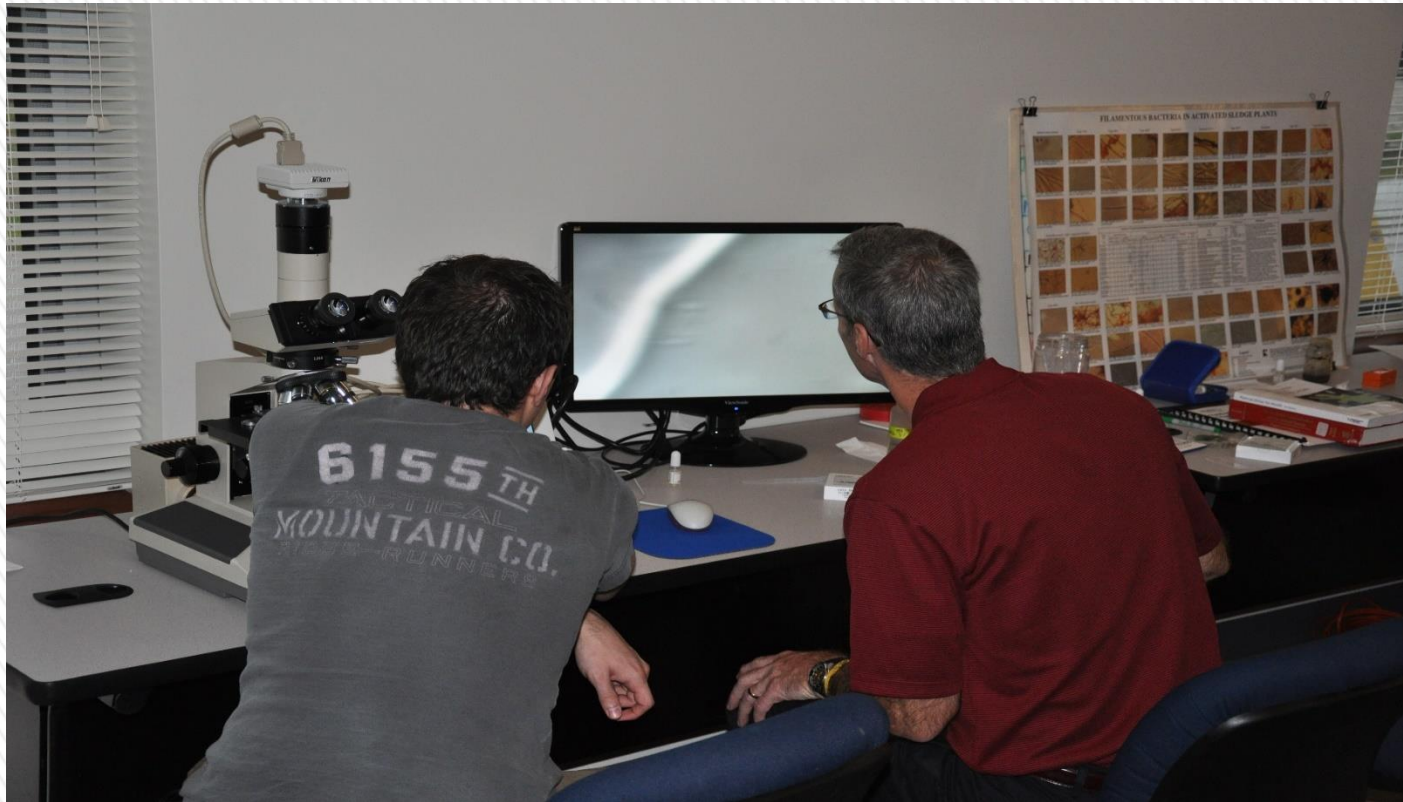

Construction Storm Water field trip.

One key aspect of our technical assistance capability is microscopic evaluation of activated sludge samples.

Students working together to evaluate samples during Activated Sludge Microbiology class.

Troubleshooting students completing dye study on secondary clarifier. >

Troubleshooting students using core sampler to measure depth of sludge blanket.

Troubleshooting students collecting data for DO and MLSS Profiles.

