Rebecca is reliable and very detail oriented. You will never have to worry about your pets in her care. I have 2 bunnies and they both loved her from day one. She will send you daily pics and keep a log of everything that she is doing. Highly recommend using Rebecca for your pet sitting needs. Rebecca's husband Jae fills in for her as needed and has come to my home on many occasions. He is just as amazing as she is! My bunnies have gotten to know him and definitely love his company. Whether Rebecca or Jae come to my home, I feel completely comfortable knowing that they will care for my fur babies just as I would. It is comforting to know that our 2 pups are in good hands with Jae when we leave town. He takes such good care of them and they are always happy to see him. They love snuggling with him and we feel secure knowing they are getting the care they need.--Lori Mashburn

I highly recommend Whiskers to Wags for Pet sitting. Rebecca took care of numerous things including my two cats, their litter box, opening and closing shades, getting mail and watering plants while I was gone. Everything was perfect when I got back, and she has a task list which she goes through to make sure she gets everything done each time she visits. The best part is that she will search out for your cats and send pictures of them so you know that they're OK while they're away. She also will give you a little write up as to whether they are eating their food or if there are any other things to be concerned about. All you have to do is speak with Rebecca and learn about how she does her job and you will be very confident in the service she can supply you!--Christopher Hill
