

HOW TO WRITE FOR BEGINNERS

This Week's Round Up!!

This week I talk about writing! A good analogy for writing is thinking of a paragraph like a sandwich. The top bread is your introduction sentence. Then the meat and cheese (all the good stuff lol) is where you put your body or supporting details! Next you finish off the sandwich with the end bread---which is your conclusion sentence! This is a great way to initially explain the structure of a paragraph to your child!!

WAYS TO ADD PIZAZZ TO YOUR WRITING!!!

1. SENSORY DETAILS: EXPLAIN HOW SOMETHING FEELS, SOUNDS, LOOKS, AND TASTES-- REALLY ALLOWS THE READER TO USE THEIR IMAGINATION -THE MORE DESCRIPTIVE THE BETTER.

2. TRANSITION WORDS- HELP THE FLOW OF A PARAGRAPH AND MAKES IT LESS CHOPPY!!

Next Week's Topic:
Halloween learning activities + join in
FRIDAY on SOCIAL MEDIA for a SURPRISE!!!!

Check out these links:

Scarecrow Writing Prompt Worksheet

Halloween Writing Printable

Write with Sandwiches! Worksheet for beginners

Links to Printables:

Attached are some writing templates plus some fun Halloween writing prompts to get your child excited for writing!!

