

Hey you!

Did you know that you make me feel like one of the luckiest people on the planet? It's because you made the decision to become a PEACECORE volunteer. Together, we will make bUneke Magazine a phenomenal charity.

We're a nonprofit organization, but that doesn't mean you have to work for free, forever. Just long enough for us to establish ourselves. Then, you will get paid!

Like me, you work today to change tomorrow. We share a common vision for the future, and for the first time in my life, I have found my tribe, thanks to you.

Together, we can change the world. I want you to know this is your charity and I encourage you to embrace your role within it. I'll help you, if you haven't yet discovered your role, because we have one just for you.

Jennifer was with me the moment bUneke was conceived. Anna and Lynn helped us fine-tune the business plan and we sold our stuff to raise the money to launch.

Then, you came into our world.

You've added your own special flair and the organization will thrive because of your involvement. I love that we've attracted the attention of people from all over the world, but I have moments of discouragement when I see how many people have volunteered, yet how few actually interact with us. I get it.

We're all busy.

I can't expect everyone to be as zealous as I am, but I can tell you this: without your help, we don't stand a chance of attracting sponsors or getting the grants we need to compensate you for your efforts.

How can you help?

- Be sure you've signed up for the Team Only page on buneke.org.
- Interact with us on social media.
- Encourage your communities to follow us.
- Show everyone you are affiliated with bUneke. People pay attention and they like to be part of something that's making the world better.
- Ask us if you need help. That's why we're here!
- Finally, remember you are one of the most remarkable people to walk this earth. You are making a difference. Joined with all of us at bUneke, the difference you make will change lives!

Thank you for believing in the movement!
