Showcasing the Amazing

A Nonprofit Media Content Creator

We started with forward-thinking professional artists, writers, editors, designers, photographers, performers and managers with a philanthropic vision to changing the world. In our first three months, we had grown to 50+ volunteers, from 11 countries and our rapid growth continues. We have decades of publishing, marketing and PR experience as well as a genuine desire to improve the world and the lives of its citizens. We admire the creative genius in each other and our success is tied to our individual and shared purposes.

bUneke Magazine was born bUneke Magazine is an educational tool of P.E.A.C.E.C.O.R.E. Inc., a nonprofit organization created to teach readers about the many amazing people and charities in our world. Many companies that are not charities, have a philanthropic aspect and believe in the value of giving back, paying forward and doing the right things while conducting business. bUneke Magazine shines a spotlight on those companies, individuals or initiatives, so readers can explore options for their own giving. Every donation can be a tax-deductible contribution! Win-Win!

Each month bUneke Magazine delivers a relatable, easy to understand, insightful, motivational publication packed with engaging content for all ages! We are living our dream, offering bUneke Magazine, at no cost, to anyone, anywhere. When U need a pick-me-up, we are here, 24/7, and at no-cost to U, our fellow bUnekers!

It is our goal to also offer no-cost training opportunities and scholarships to help others live their dreams!

Prior to founding, personal funds were donated to purchase domains, professional email accounts, website hosting, business cards, print prototypes and fees required to file with the IRS for tax-exempt status and SunBiz to incorporate. Because of donations we've been able to mail copies of the magazine to featured organizations and writers.

PEACECORE was incorporated with a bank balance provided when founders sold personal items at yard sales and at pawn shops.

Looking to the Future.

As seen in bUneke Magazine, March 2019, Ashley's advice is, "Don't let anyone tell you what you can't do, show them what you can do, and prove to them that your disability doesn't limit you to follow and achieve your dreams." We are excited for the future of this organization as each day unfolds and we meet more amazing people like Ashley! Join us on our journey. The adventure is just beginning.

Our world is filled with amazing people, fascinating places and wonderful organizations working toward building a peaceful and beautiful place to live. We all play a role that may seem small but can make an enormous impact. If U want to learn more about those who are making this world an even better place, read your digital copy (or order a print version). Your digital copy is always free! We are ready to show U how to become a change-maker! We can't wait to meet U!

Working today to change tomorrow, bUneke Magazine shares positive information to make U feel good.

Founded by industry professionals, this 501c3 tax-exempt organization features charitable organizations and individuals who make our shared planet better. We bring U news about Uneke (unique) humans and corporations with a philanthropic outlook to their business plans and align our brand with advocates for children, animals, veterans, the homeless, our environment and living authentic lives, among a multitude of other fantastic stories! Submit your ideas on our website or email info@peacecoreinc.org. Read your free, digital copy TODAY and start making a difference! www.bUneke.org
