

bUneke.org is making a difference!

 Don't discard me! Please, pass me along to another Amazing Human.

Even during a pandemic, bUneke connects the dots and makes important, world-changing relationships.

People ask how bUneke makes money. It's by building relationships and connecting the dots between world-changing individuals and organizations who want to live on a beautiful, peaceful planet. We connect the dots on a global scale and the money comes to bUneke through sponsors, donors, service fees, sales of hand-created art pieces, and grants.

Founded in 2018, by three professional women, this 501c3 tax-exempt, educational organization established itself by offering a free, digital magazine. For 18 months, bUneke attended community festivals, conferences, conventions, and book and film festivals and donated time and talent to document the events. In April 2019, bUneke established the b The Change Awards, honoring volunteers from 10 distinct nonprofits. In September 2019, bUneke met executive officers on the board at Green Gables, who told of their organization's 10+ year struggle to raise funds for a matching grant to purchase the 125-year-old nationally recognized historic home. By December 2019, bUneke had produced and donated to Green Gables, Forgotten Enchantress, valued at $10,000. This film and bUneke volunteers' efforts were responsible for generating more than $500,000 during the height of the 2020 Covid19 shutdown. While filming Forgotten Enchantress, bUneke met members of the Greater Allen Development Corporation and ultimately created Moving History. By the end of 2020, bUneke had caught the attention of several sponsors and was on the shortlist to receive two grants.

Working today to change tomorrow, bUneke Magazine shares positive stories about amazing people doing great work to make the world better. Founded by professionals in 2018, this 501c3 educational organization connects the dots between other charities with donors, sponsors, and volunteers.

Showcasing the Amazing

A Nonprofit Media Content Creator

bUneke Magazine continues to curate elevated content and highlights the beautiful diversity of our world.

PEACECORE, Inc. is in the process of officially changing its name to bUneke.org, and we'll let you know when the long process has finalized.

Your support has been the key to the success of this, your nonprofit magazine. Your words of encouragement, your donations, your sponsorships, and your advertisements have put bUneke.org firmly on the path to greatness.

We received a grant to help with operations and picked up more sponsors who believe in what we're doing. Both bUneke Productions and bUneke Radio are gaining momentum with new projects and shows. We're working with interns from universities across the country and our international writers continue to add their special voices to our organization.

We haven't allowed the inconvenience of a worldwide pandemic to dampen our spirits, though, at times, we thought it might. Then, we remembered that we have a choice, every day, and we choose joy. We miss the carefree days of festivals and large social gatherings, but we respect the need to be safe and healthy, so we do what we can, from where we are, to spread positivity. When we hear from you, we know we are succeeding in our quest. Even though we weren't able to travel as much as we'd have liked or attended as many events as we have in the past, bUneke kept a presence and with your help, we have continued to make a difference and connect even more dots!

On behalf of every board member, thank you for encouraging us to continue and congratulations on our shared growth!
