ABOUT US

Our organization started in January with a birthday wish to give back to the community, but soon grew into a monthly meal giveaway for more than 700 Wilsonians. In addition to the meal, we collect other food and care items to distribute with the help of our army of nearly 80 volunteers.

Businesses, churches and individuals provide the foundation for the effort, but we're always looking for additional support and changes to improve the service to those in need.

A GIVEAWAY REQUIRES AT LEAST:

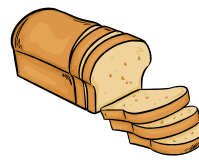

400 pounds of various meat

200 pounds of potatoes

40 cans of green beans

45 loaves of bread and rolls

RISING COSTS, NEED

In addition to the popular drive-thru and walk-up options at Jackson Chapel First Missionary Baptist Church in downtown Wilson, volunteers take hundreds of meals to various neighborhoods and developments around the city. The pandemic has put an economic crunch on everyone and made food insecurity more prevalent, especially among senior citizens and those on fixed incomes.

Our Waymakers Warriors work hard to serve more by finding bargains, but inflation has raised the cost of food and supplies for each giveaway by roughly 25%. Each month, more Wilsonians rely on the giveaway, so we need your help to meet the demand.
