PROFILE:
CHADRIK LEDBETTER, 35

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Evangelist

Life Coach

Brother in Christ

My goal is to steward every experience God has allowed in my life—successes and failures, victories and mistakes—so that they can serve others. Through coaching I draw from both hard-earned lessons and biblical truth to help guide you toward clarity, growth, and becoming who God has called you to be.

CHRISTIAN LIFE SKILLS TEACHER AMERICOR-GIVING GRACE (NON-PROFIT)

Instrumental to our mission by creating in-house Christian life skills content utilizing multimedia resources to serve communities from all backgrounds. Develops and teaches practical, engaging courses for individuals and families experiencing homelessness, blending creativity, execution, and a rare ability to connect with every student regardless of background. Continues to build strong relationships with site managers and leads targeted outreach, which successfully expanded reach into new cities doubling organizational impact and effectiveness.

YOUTH PASTOR NEW LIFE GOSPEL CHURCH – ENGLISH

Built meaningful connections across cultural and community lines, including deep relationships within the Chinese community, to strengthen and expand youth ministry impact. Designed and implemented in-house curriculum, led engaging activities, and collaborated with parents to create a foundation of trust and support. Leveraged these relationships to double youth ministry baptisms and participation, consistently guiding students toward a personal relationship with Jesus by Loving others and making wise decisions in their every day lives.

TEACHER RICHARDSON I.S.D

Began my teaching career in Richardson ISD working with non-verbal autistic behavioral students, welcomed extreme challenges with patience, resilience, and compassion. Then as a College & Career Readiness teacher at Lake Highlands Junior High, engaging 7th and 8th graders in career exploration, financial literacy, and goal setting to prepare them for lifelong success.

PREACHER JASON COLLABORATIVE

Preacher of JASON Collaborative, displaying the ability to connect across communities which fueled the ministry's growth from its start at Dickinson Place, a low-income elderly home, to partnerships with local businesses and churches. Helped organize gatherings that begin with shared interest that end in in-home fellowship gatherings, community and spiritual growth. Also help secure volunteers, raise funding, and coordinate locations transforming our vision into a thriving, multi-location ministry.

YOUTH VOLUNTEER – INTERN* WAXAHACHIE BIBLE CHURCH

Volunteered in the youth ministry without pay or family involvement, sought out the opportunity to serve and gain experience. Assisted in leading the youth activities and events, provided mentorship, led High School Boys Sunday Bible School, and invested in their personal and spiritual growth while engaging in community.
