Bringing CCH experience to your offices, event or corporate meeting a nice way to relax and finish off your day.

Each session

Guests - first cocktail made fresh by your mixologist as the ice breaker.

Team & Mixology Introduction

Mixologists introduce - team building activity will start with a short history of the drinks selected and a brief presentation of the cocktail making equipment and the techniques used in making them.

Interactive Cocktail Making Sessions

Your party will be divided into teams, each team member will then be invited to make their own cocktails, shaking together with the mixologist.

Mixology Games - Premium Class

Guests will be invited to take part in a cocktail making competition, remaining in teams and using their newly acquired knowledge of cocktail mixing methods.

Each group will choose one of the drinks they learnt to make and will work together to mix things up as a team and finish first. Our mixologist will grade the teams by their methods, shaking technique and style, taste, look and overall presentation.

Overall, fun cocktail making classes provide a fantastic way to socialise. You get to learn new skills and enjoy delicious drinks in a relaxed and enjoyable setting. Whether you're planning a team-building activity, a birthday celebration, or simply looking for a fun hen party activity, a cocktail making class is sure to be a hit with everyone involved.
