

HAVE YOU SEEN THESE?

PART II:
7 MORE
APPS
TO LOOK OUT FOR

Kik: allows anyone on the app to contact your child and directly message them.

AfterSchool: an anonymous app that has been removed twice from the AppStore because of threats and arrests. Messages often include bullying & pornography.

Bumble: Teens have been known to create fake accounts on apps like Bumble. Bumble makes it easy for predators to target victims.

Ask.fm: encourages students to set up a public profile and allow anonymous people to ask them questions. Cyberbullying is very prevalent.

TBH: networking platform where users anonymously answer questions about their classmates. Promotes bullying and targeting of classmates.

Sarahah: app and website that allows users to send and receive anonymous messages. There is no way to report inappropriate content or threats.

Live.me: live streaming video app that uses location to share videos. Users earn coins on Live.me and some predators are using coins as a way to pay minors for pictures.
