BURR RIDGE, Ill. — The International Brotherhood of Teamsters has removed leaders of Local 731 based in suburban Burr Ridge after an audit turned up questionable and excessive spending on everything from steak to booze and bonuses.

It totaled well over $1 million.

A letter sent by Teamsters general president Sean O'Brien to local members said an audit found Local 731's board gave itself nearly $304,000 in bonuses over five years without the required approval of membership.

"...two visits to Gibsons Bar and Steakhouse that racked up a total tab of $37,000, including nearly $16,000 in alcohol..."

"purchases included a Coach leather bag and a manicure..."

$304,000 in illegal bonuses

Over $1 million in corrupt spending

You deserve better.
