

PATHWAYS NEWSLETTER

NAACP ENVIRONMENTAL AND CLIMATE JUSTICE PROGRAM

February 2020 — Issue 2

Pathways to Black-Green Leadership Project Newsletter

The green economy has created millions of jobs that spread between industries and are tied to several different types of occupations and technical skills. The purpose of this Pathways to Black-Green Leadership Project Newsletter is to share a variety of career opportunities and jobs skills training programs with prospective candidates who are interested in environmental and climate justice.

Recent Job Postings

EDF Action Campaign Organizer, 360 Campaign Consulting

Four openings in Orlando, FL; Phoenix, AZ; Charleston, SC; and Des Moines, IA.

Programs Project Manager, Arbor Day Foundation

Role based in Lincoln, NE.

Project Analyst, New Buildings Institute

Based in Portland, OR. Submit resume and cover letter to info@newbuildings.org.

Policy and Market Innovations Intern, Renewable Energy Buyers Alliance

Membership Value and Experience Intern, Renewable Energy Buyers Alliance

Roles based in Washington, DC.

Energy Analyst / Energy Engineer — New Construction Intern — Junior Project Manager \(Solar\), Bright Power

These roles and more are based in Oakland, CA or New York, NY.

Business Operations Associate, K&M Advisors

Role based in Bethesda, MD. Submit resume, cover letter and writing sample to careers@km-advisorsllc.com.

Grant Writer, Northern Plains Resource Council

Role based in Billings, MT. Submit resume, cover letter, writing sample and references to steve@northernplains.org.

Sustainability Program Coordinator, Lake County, Government

Role based in Waukegan, IL.

Upcoming Training or Other Programs

Environmental Leadership Program Fellowship

The ELP's fellowship programs support environmental and social change practitioners eager to connect their specialized work to larger environmental and social concerns. The fellowships offer overnight retreats, intensive leadership and skills training, and networking opportunities. National and regional fellowships available. For people in NJ/NY/PA/DE, contact Steven King directly at steven@elpnet.org.

Chesapeake Conservation Corps Program

The Chesapeake Conservation Corps Program provides hands-on environmental, leadership and green job training opportunities for young adults (ages 18-25) through environmental, community engagement and energy conservation projects. Application deadline is March 12, 2020 at 4pm.

CONTACT US!

- To include your job listing in this newsletter, email the posting along with links/attachments to: ECJP@naacpnet.org
- To receive this newsletter, email "Join Pathways newsletter" to: ECJP@naacpnet.org