Follow up from Breck Foundation Parent Meeting

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you to those of you who were able to attend last night's meeting. It was an excellent presentation with some very useful information.

Please see the message below from the Breck Foundation with links to post-presentation information and a recording of the meeting for anyone who was unable to attend.

Thank you for joining us last night. I hope you found the session informative and now feel more confident in spotting the signs of grooming and helping children stay safe online.

These packs contain helpful information such as the signs of grooming, how to react if a child discloses abuse, conversation starters, and more.

Your feedback is invaluable to us. It helps us improve and secure the funding we need to continue our mission. Feedback forms are available on the same link above.

📺 Your Zoom recording is available for the next 2 weeks:
