FRED Teacher Shout Out

These children have been especially active with their home reading this half term.

Please give an extra big shout to our Reception Class readers who have joined our reading family!

Be Curious

Michael Rosen and Benjamin Philips

Some Year 6 pupils met the famous author Michael Rosen and the illustrator Benjamin Philips.

Be Confident

He was so funny. He talked about his poems and told us what he thought were the funniest parts. I also liked the illustrator- his drawings didn't look 'real' but they were really interesting to look at. Diyani.

He was so friendly. He had lots of stories and everything he said reminded him of another story! We asked him to say his famous meme 'Nice' from the poem Chocolate Cake and he did it. Manad.

Be Caring

Reading Ambassadors

Our Year 5 Reading Ambassadors have been busy supporting Year 3 pupils with their reading. Every morning, they listen to their reader and we can see great impact in fluency already.

I like how we take turns. It is nice to hear a Year 5 child read. - Jack

It is fun. I am getting better already - Nisanur

Home Reading

- I read every day
- I read two or three times a week
- I read once a week
- I don't choose to read at home

Our home reading survey showed that only 78.1% of our pupils read at home. This is lower than we would like as home reading has an immense impact on pupils' progress. If you would like some support with how to support your child at home, please speak to the class teacher or Mrs Limbrick, Deputy Head.

FREDs

We are nearly there with our FREDs! Remember to read at home every day.

6 MARCH 2025

World Book Day

We celebrated World Book Day on 6th March.

We dressed up as something that represents the genre of books we love to read.

We learned a lot about the kind of books we all like.

We love reading books!

We like traditional tales.

We like reading comic books

We like reading fantasy books.

We like reading football books.
