

MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE

Supreme Religious Council

PLANT MEDICINE, CANNABIS REGULATION, AND SACRED BOTANICAL PROTECTION ACT

Pursuant to the Constitution of the Moorish National Republic of Peace, Amendment XVIII, Section 3, wherein it states:

“The Moorish National Republic of Peace shall make all laws necessary and proper for carrying out the powers vested in its government, departments, and officers under this Constitution,” there shall hereby be designated the Plant Medicine, Cannabis Regulation, and Sacred Botanical Protection Act to govern the lawful internal regulation, cultivation, possession, distribution, medicinal use, sacramental use, taxation, agricultural stewardship, public safety, and internal oversight of cannabis, hemp, and certain sacred botanical substances within the internal jurisdiction of the Moorish National Republic of Peace Religious Order.

This Public Law shall go into immediate effect.

PUBLIC LAW VOTED ON: July 5th, 2026

GRAND WAZIR OF M.N.R.P.: Eric Ingram Bey

TITLE I

PURPOSE, AUTHORITY, AND LAWFUL SCOPE

Section 1. Purpose

(a) The purpose of this Act is to establish a lawful internal framework governing the cultivation, possession, medicinal use, sacramental use, regulation, taxation, education, safety, transportation, research, and internal oversight of cannabis, industrial hemp, and certain plant-based entheogenic substances connected to the Moorish National Republic of Peace Religious Order.

(b) This Act is enacted for the following lawful purposes:

1. To promote responsible agricultural, medicinal, cultural, religious, educational, and economic use of cannabis and plant medicines;
2. To reduce unlawful trafficking, unsafe distribution, contaminated substances, and criminal exploitation associated with unregulated markets;
3. To establish internal standards for cultivation, labeling, testing, transport, taxation, and safe consumption;
4. To protect Moroccan Nationals, Citizens, Residents, members, guests, invitees, and voluntary participants from unsafe products, fraudulent commerce, contamination, or reckless use;
5. To preserve the religious and sacramental use of certain plant medicines where lawfully permitted;
6. To establish lawful agricultural and commercial opportunities connected to hemp and cannabis cultivation;
7. To ensure all conduct governed by this Act remains consistent with public safety, due process, property rights, and applicable law.

(c) This Act shall be interpreted consistently with:

1. The Constitution of the MNRP;
2. The Court of Justice Law;
3. The Divine Rights and Dominion Act;
4. The Trust Law Act;
5. The Right to Travel Act;
6. Applicable federal, state, and local law;

7. The protections of religious liberty, freedom of association, private contract, private property rights, due process, and lawful internal governance guaranteed under the Constitution of the United States and the constitutions of the several states.

Section 2. Lawful Scope and Constitutional Limitation

(a) This Act governs only the internal, ecclesiastical, organizational, contractual, agricultural, medicinal, educational, sacramental, membership-related, trust-based, and property-based affairs of the Moorish National Republic of Peace Religious Order.

(b) This Act applies only to:

1. Moroccan Nationals of the MNRP Religious Order;
2. Citizens, Residents, members, officers, ministers, trustees, contractors, agents, guests, invitees, and voluntary participants;
3. Persons or entities voluntarily participating in MNRP programs, agricultural operations, educational programs, medicinal programs, sacramental programs, trusts, cooperatives, or property agreements;
4. Conduct occurring upon MNRP-owned, leased, held-in-trust, administered, or controlled property;
5. Internal agreements, licenses, cultivation arrangements, cooperative programs, and organizational activities.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to:

1. Establish independent criminal jurisdiction outside lawful authority;
2. Exempt any person from applicable federal, state, tribal, county, municipal, agricultural, transportation, licensing, controlled-substance, environmental, tax, zoning, or public-health law;
3. Authorize unlawful trafficking, interstate smuggling, unlawful importation, unlawful exportation, or unlawful transportation;
4. Override the Controlled Substances Act, federal agricultural law, state criminal law, or public-health regulations;
5. Authorize operation of vehicles while impaired;
6. Authorize distribution to minors;
7. Create diplomatic immunity, sovereign immunity, or exemption from lawful civil authority;

8. Authorize unlawful detention, imprisonment, seizure, punishment, or enforcement by the MNRP outside lawful internal governance authority.

(d) The MNRP recognizes that under the Constitution of the United States:

1. Religious liberty protections may apply to certain sincere sacramental practices under the First Amendment and applicable federal law;
2. States retain police powers concerning public health, safety, agriculture, and controlled substances;
3. Agricultural hemp cultivation may be regulated under applicable federal and state hemp laws;
4. Internal organizational rules, private contracts, trust administration, and private property governance may lawfully govern consenting members and participants where not contrary to public law.

TITLE III

PERSONAL POSSESSION, CULTIVATION, AND USE

Section 4. Lawful Internal Possession and Use

(a) Subject to applicable law and the limitations of this Act, persons eighteen (18) years of age or older participating in MNRP internal programs may:

1. Possess cannabis within internal quantity limitations established by MNRP regulation;
2. Cultivate limited cannabis plants for lawful personal, medicinal, agricultural, educational, or sacramental use where permitted by applicable law;
3. Participate in internal educational or medicinal programs;
4. Transfer limited quantities between eligible adults without unlawful commercial trafficking;
5. Use cannabis or lawful plant medicines privately upon MNRP property where authorized.

(b) No person shall:

1. Use cannabis or plant medicines in a reckless manner endangering others;
2. Consume substances while supervising children where impairment creates danger;
3. Use substances in restricted public areas contrary to applicable law;
4. Operate vehicles or dangerous equipment while impaired;
5. Distribute substances to minors.

(c) The MNRP may establish internal possession limits, cultivation standards, storage rules, and safety protocols consistent with applicable law.

Section 5. Religious and Sacramental Use

(a) The MNRP recognizes that certain plant medicines have historically been used in religious, cultural, ancestral, and ceremonial practices.

(b) Sacramental use under this Act:

1. Must be sincere and religious in nature;
2. Must occur under internal supervision;
3. Must comply with applicable safety standards;
4. Must not involve coercion, exploitation, fraud, abuse, or commercial trafficking disguised as religion;
5. Must not endanger minors or vulnerable persons.

(c) The MNRP shall not represent sacramental authorization as immunity from federal or state law.

(d) Any sacramental program involving controlled substances shall require:

1. Written internal policy;
 2. Safety procedures;
 3. Recordkeeping;
 4. Restricted access;
 5. Emergency-response planning;
 6. Compliance review by authorized MNRP ministries.

TITLE IV

AGRICULTURE, LICENSING, AND COMMERCIAL REGULATION

Section 6. Cannabis and Hemp Regulation Authority

(a) The MNRP Department of Agriculture and Trade, together with the National Dominion Authority, may establish internal standards concerning:

3. Processing licenses;
4. Manufacturing licenses;
5. Distribution licenses;
6. Research licenses;
7. Testing licenses;
8. Educational licenses;
9. Medicinal-use licenses.

(c) All cultivation and commercial activity shall comply with:

1. Applicable zoning laws;
2. Agricultural regulations;
3. Environmental protections;
4. Tax obligations;
5. Licensing requirements;
6. Public-health laws;
7. Transportation laws.

Section 7. Product Safety and Testing

(a) No cannabis or plant medicine product shall be distributed within MNRP programs unless reasonably tested for:

1. Mold;
2. Pesticides;
3. Heavy metals;
4. Harmful contaminants;
5. Dangerous adulterants.

(b) Packaging shall include:

1. Product identification;
2. Ingredient disclosure;
3. Safety warnings;
4. Potency information where applicable;
5. Age restrictions;
6. Child-protection warnings.

(c) Fraudulent labeling, contamination, unsafe manufacturing, or adulteration shall constitute a severe internal violation.

TITLE V

TRANSPORTATION, PROPERTY, AND PUBLIC SAFETY

Section 8. Transportation and Safe Movement

(a) Nothing in this Act authorizes transportation contrary to applicable federal or state law.

(b) All transportation involving cannabis, hemp, or plant medicines shall comply with:

1. Applicable traffic law;
2. Transportation law;
3. Commercial carrier law;
4. Agricultural transport law;
5. Public safety law.

(c) No person shall:

1. Transport substances across state lines unlawfully;

2. Operate vehicles while impaired;
3. Use MNRP credentials to evade lawful inspection or enforcement.

Section 9. Property Rights and Stewardship

(a) Cannabis cultivation and plant medicine programs shall comply with the Divine Rights and Dominion Act concerning:

1. Land stewardship;
2. Water protection;
3. Agricultural sustainability;
4. Environmental protection;
5. Protection against contamination.

(b) No cultivation operation shall:

1. Pollute water systems;
2. Damage neighboring property;
3. Create dangerous chemical contamination;
4. Use unlawful pesticides or hazardous substances;
5. Endanger public safety.

(c) Internal agricultural programs may be operated through trusts, cooperatives, or lawful business structures governed by the Trust Law Act.

TITLE VI

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

Section 10. Prohibited Conduct

No person subject to MNRP governance shall knowingly:

1. Sell or distribute cannabis or plant medicines to minors;
2. Operate vehicles or machinery while impaired;
3. Engage in unlawful trafficking;
4. Use plant medicines to facilitate assault, coercion, abuse, fraud, or exploitation;
5. Cultivate substances unlawfully upon property not lawfully controlled;

6. Misrepresent MNRP authorization as exemption from public law;
 7. Manufacture dangerous synthetic substances falsely represented as natural plant medicines;
 8. Use toxic chemicals, biological contamination, or hazardous manufacturing processes contrary to the Chemical Weapons Law or Biological Weapons Law.
 9. Use cultivation programs for money laundering, fraud, tax evasion, or organized criminal activity;
 10. Divert MNRP agricultural, medicinal, or sacramental programs toward unlawful criminal enterprise.

TITLE VII

INTERNAL ENFORCEMENT, DUE PROCESS, AND REFERRAL

Section 11. Internal Enforcement

(a) Violations of this Act may result in:

1. Written warnings;
2. Suspension of licenses or program access;
3. Restitution;
4. Removal from programs;
5. Internal disciplinary review;
6. Revocation of membership privileges;
7. Removal from fiduciary or administrative positions;
8. Referral to the MNRP Court of Justice.

(b) Internal proceedings shall include:

1. Written notice;
2. Opportunity to respond;
3. Presentation of evidence;
4. Impartial review;
5. Written findings;
6. Right to appeal where authorized.

(c) The MNRP Court of Justice shall exercise only internal, organizational, contractual, ecclesiastical, arbitral, and disciplinary authority consistent with the Court of Justice Law.

Section 12. Mandatory Referral to Lawful Authorities

(a) Where conduct involves:

1. Unlawful trafficking;
2. Distribution to minors;
3. Violent crime;
4. Fraud;
5. Environmental contamination;
6. Public-health danger;
7. Chemical contamination;
8. Money laundering;
9. Organized criminal conduct;
10. Death or serious bodily injury;

the matter may be referred to appropriate federal, state, local, agricultural, environmental, or criminal authorities.

(b) Nothing in this Act shall authorize the MNRP to:

1. Impose criminal imprisonment;
 2. Operate as a public criminal court;
 3. Obstruct lawful investigations;
 4. Conduct unlawful seizures;
 5. Interfere with lawful civil authority.

TITLE VIII

TAXATION, TREASURY, AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Section 13. Internal Revenue and Agricultural Development

(a) Internal program fees, contributions, cooperative revenues, agricultural proceeds, and lawful taxation connected to MNRP-authorized cannabis or hemp programs may be allocated toward:

1. Education;
2. Agricultural development;
3. Community health initiatives;
4. Land stewardship;
5. Food-security programs;
6. Infrastructure;
7. Substance-abuse education;
8. Economic development;

(b) All treasury handling, accounting, and fiduciary administration shall comply with:

1. The Trust Law Act;
2. Bankruptcy and fiduciary protections;
3. Conflict-of-interest prohibitions;
4. Internal accounting and audit procedures.

TITLE IX

FINAL PROVISIONS

Section 14. Uniform Application

This Act shall apply uniformly across all Provinces, ministries, institutions, trusts, agricultural programs, and authorized properties of the MNRP.

Section 15. Severability

If any provision of this Act is found invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Section 16. Repealer

All prior MNRP laws, policies, customs, or regulations inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

Section 17. Effective Date

This Act shall take effect immediately upon lawful enactment, ratification, publication, and placement into the National Archives of the Moorish National Republic of Peace.
