TITLE I
CRIMINAL CODE
CHAPTER 1 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1: PRINCIPALS (REVISED)

(a) Any individual who commits an offense under the laws of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), or who aids, abets, counsels, commands, induces, or procures the commission of such offense, shall be deemed a principal and may be subject to proceedings before the MNRP Court of Justice, in accordance with the Constitution and internal laws of the Order.

(b) Any individual who willfully causes an act to be done which, if directly performed by that individual or another, would constitute an offense under MNRP law, shall be held accountable as a principal. All enforcement and adjudication of such matters shall be carried out through the authorized judicial institutions and internal enforcement bodies of the MNRP, consistent with its Constitution and applicable law.

(c) The jurisdiction of this section applies to Moroccan Nationals of the MNRP Religious Order and individuals subject to its internal governance by voluntary allegiance. All matters arising under this section shall be addressed through the courts and tribunals of the MNRP for internal affairs.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to negate or supersede the lawful civil or criminal jurisdiction of the United States or any state thereof, except that matters arising solely among members of the MNRP Religious Order may be resolved through its internal judicial and arbitration institutions in accordance with its Constitution.

SECTION 2: ACCESSORY AFTER THE FACT

(a) Any Moroccan National of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), or any individual who has voluntarily submitted to the internal governance and jurisdiction of the MNRP Religious Order, who, having knowledge that a violation of MNRP law or internal policy has occurred, knowingly receives, relieves, comforts, or assists the responsible party for the purpose of hindering, obstructing, or interfering with internal investigation, disciplinary proceedings, or lawful adjudication, shall be deemed an Accessory After the Fact.

(b) Any individual determined, through the lawful internal judicial or arbitration processes of the MNRP, to be an Accessory After the Fact shall be subject to internal disciplinary action, which may include, but is not limited to:

- Suspension or revocation of membership status
- Loss of rights, privileges, or standing within the MNRP

- Administrative sanctions or institutional restrictions
- Financial obligations or restitution arising from contractual or membership agreements, where applicable

All such determinations shall be made in accordance with principles of due process, including notice, opportunity to be heard, and impartial adjudication.

(c) In matters involving serious violations affecting the integrity, safety, or operations of the MNRP, enhanced internal sanctions may be imposed proportionate to the severity of the underlying offense, as determined by the MNRP Court of Justice or its authorized arbitration tribunals.

(d) The jurisdiction of this section is limited to internal affairs of the MNRP Religious Order and applies only to Moroccan Nationals and individuals who have voluntarily agreed to be bound by its Constitution, laws, and governing institutions.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish criminal jurisdiction independent of the United States or any state thereof
- Authorize detention, imprisonment, or criminal punishment outside lawful civil authority
- Interfere with or obstruct the lawful jurisdiction of civil or criminal courts

Where applicable, matters involving violations of civil or criminal law may be referred to or addressed by the appropriate lawful authorities.

SECTION 3: MISPRISION OF VIOLATIONS

(a) Any Moroccan National of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), or any individual who has voluntarily submitted to the internal governance of the MNRP Religious Order, who has actual knowledge of a material violation of MNRP internal law, policy, or institutional rules, and knowingly conceals such information or fails to report it through appropriate internal channels, may be subject to internal review and disciplinary proceedings.

(b) For purposes of this section, a “material violation” includes conduct that:

- Substantially harms the rights, safety, or well-being of members
- Undermines the integrity, operations, or institutions of the MNRP
- Involves fraud, deception, abuse of authority, or breach of fiduciary duty within the Order

(c) Any individual found, through lawful internal judicial or arbitration proceedings, to have knowingly concealed or failed to report such material violations may be subject to internal disciplinary measures, which may include:

- Suspension or revocation of membership
- Loss of rights, privileges, or standing within the MNRP

- Administrative sanctions or institutional restrictions
- Financial obligations or restitution arising from contractual or membership agreements, where applicable

All proceedings shall comply with due process, including notice of the allegation, opportunity to respond, and impartial adjudication.

(d) The use of external racial, ethnic, or social classifications inconsistent with the cultural identity and national framework of the MNRP may be addressed through education, correction, and internal policy guidance, and shall not, by itself, constitute a criminal or punitive offense under this section.

(e) The jurisdiction of this section is limited to internal affairs of the MNRP Religious Order and applies only to Moroccan Nationals and individuals who have voluntarily agreed to be bound by its Constitution and governance.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish criminal liability or authorize imprisonment
- Restrict constitutionally protected speech under applicable law
- Override or interfere with the lawful jurisdiction of the United States or any state thereof

Where conduct constitutes a violation of applicable civil or criminal law, such matters may be referred to appropriate lawful authorities.

SECTION 4: MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE DEFINED

The term “Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP)”, as used in this title, refers to the Moorish religious order, cultural national body, and self-governing ecclesiastical community established under the Constitution of the Moorish National Republic of Peace.

In a jurisdictional sense, the MNRP includes:

- Its lawfully owned, leased, or controlled properties, lands, and facilities
- Its religious institutions, community centers, educational institutions, and administrative locations
- Its assemblies, provinces, and organizational bodies established in accordance with its Constitution
- Its members, Moroccan Nationals, and affiliated individuals who have voluntarily submitted to its internal governance

All such lands, properties, and institutions shall be administered as private, religious, and community spaces, held for the benefit of the MNRP and governed in accordance with its Constitution, applicable trust law, property law, and the laws of the jurisdiction in which such property is located.

The MNRP shall exercise internal religious, cultural, and organizational jurisdiction over its members, institutions, and internal affairs. Such jurisdiction is ecclesiastical and contractual in nature, and applies only to those who voluntarily pledge allegiance to the Constitution and governance of the MNRP.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Constitute a claim of civil territorial sovereignty over land within the United States or any other nation
- Exempt any land, property, or individual from the lawful civil or criminal jurisdiction of the United States or any state thereof
- Establish exclusive governmental authority outside the scope of lawful religious, private, and organizational governance

Exclusion: Any lands, territories, or jurisdictions not lawfully owned, controlled, or administered by the MNRP, or not established in accordance with its Constitution and applicable law, shall not be considered within the operational or organizational jurisdiction of the MNRP.

SECTION 5: DEFINITIONS (LAWFUL & CONSTITUTIONALLY ALIGNED)

(a) “Department” – The term “Department” refers to any governing body, ministry, or administrative division established under the Constitution of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP) for the purpose of managing the internal religious, cultural, educational, administrative, or organizational affairs of the Order.

Where context requires, the term may refer generally to the internal governance structure of the MNRP.

(b) “Agency” – The term “Agency” includes any Department, Mission, Independent Establishment, Commission, Administration, Authority, Board, Bureau, or other organizational body operating under the governance of the MNRP.

This term may also include any lawful corporate, trust, or financial entity in which the MNRP holds a proprietary or beneficial interest, where applicable.

(c) “Authority” – The term “Authority” refers to any body, office, or entity established under the Constitution and governance framework of the MNRP and vested with responsibility to administer internal policies, oversee organizational functions, and carry out the religious, cultural, educational, or administrative purposes of the Order.

Such authority is organizational and ecclesiastical in nature, and does not constitute independent civil governmental power outside the scope of applicable law.

(d) “Jurisdiction” – The term “Jurisdiction,” as used in this title, refers to the internal religious, cultural, organizational, and contractual authority of the MNRP over:

- Its Moroccan Nationals
- Its members and affiliated individuals who have voluntarily submitted to its governance
- Its institutions, properties, and internal affairs

This jurisdiction is limited to the internal governance of the MNRP Religious Order and shall be exercised in accordance with its Constitution, applicable law, and principles of voluntary association.

Nothing in this title shall be interpreted to:

- Establish civil or criminal jurisdiction independent of the United States or any state thereof
- Exempt any individual or entity from the lawful jurisdiction of applicable civil authorities
- Imply rejection or non-recognition of applicable federal, state, or local law

SECTION 6: MARITIME AND TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION (LAWFUL & CONSTITUTIONALLY ALIGNED)

The term “maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP)”, as used in this title, refers to the internal, organizational, property-based, and contractual scope of authority exercised by the MNRP over its members, institutions, and lawfully controlled assets, and shall be defined as follows:

1. Property and Operational Scope

The jurisdiction of the MNRP includes:

- All lands, properties, facilities, and infrastructure lawfully owned, leased, held in trust, or otherwise controlled by the MNRP
- All religious institutions, community centers, educational facilities, and administrative locations operated by the MNRP
- All organizational bodies, assemblies, and provinces established in accordance with its Constitution

Such properties and locations shall be governed as private religious and community spaces, subject to applicable federal, state, and local law.

2. Maritime and Transportation Activities

The MNRP may engage in lawful maritime and transportation-related activities, including:

- Ownership or use of vessels, vehicles, or transportation equipment through private, corporate, or trust arrangements

- Participation in commercial, educational, or community maritime activities in accordance with applicable maritime law
- Internal governance of its members and operations while engaged in such activities

Nothing herein shall be interpreted to:

- Establish independent maritime jurisdiction
- Register vessels outside recognized legal frameworks
- Exercise authority over navigable waters beyond applicable law

3. Aviation and Advanced Operations

The MNRP may participate in lawful aviation or related activities through:

- Ownership, leasing, or use of aircraft or aerospace-related equipment through recognized legal structures
- Educational, research, or organizational programs involving aviation or technology

All such activities shall be conducted in full compliance with:

- Applicable aviation regulations
- Federal and international law

The MNRP does not assert independent authority over airspace or aerospace jurisdiction.

4. Institutional Presence and External Operations

The MNRP may establish:

- Cultural missions
- Religious institutions
- Educational and community programs
- Organizational offices

in various jurisdictions, both domestic and international, for purposes of:

- Cultural preservation
- Religious practice
- Education
- Humanitarian and community development

All such institutions shall operate in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which they are located.

5. Internal Jurisdiction Over Members

The MNRP shall exercise internal religious, cultural, and organizational jurisdiction over:

- Moroccan Nationals of the MNRP Religious Order
- Members and affiliated individuals who voluntarily submit to its governance

This jurisdiction applies to:

- Internal conduct
- Membership obligations
- Organizational disputes

and shall be administered through its courts, tribunals, or arbitration bodies in accordance with its Constitution.

6. External Legal Considerations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish civil or criminal jurisdiction independent of the United States or any other nation
- Override or supersede applicable federal, state, or international law
- Assert control over public waters, airspace, or territory
- Create diplomatic or consular authority recognized under international law

Where appropriate, the MNRP may:

- Advocate for its members
- Engage in lawful communication with institutions or organizations
- Participate in cooperative or humanitarian efforts

7. Treaty and Legal Compliance

All activities of the MNRP shall be conducted:

- In accordance with applicable law

- In harmony with recognized legal frameworks
- Consistent with its Constitution and organizational purpose

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as creating treaty-making authority or sovereign international status under law.

SECTION 7: OBLIGATION OR OTHER SECURITY OF THE MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE

The term “obligation or other security of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP)”, as used in this title, includes all financial instruments, legal documents, records, and certified materials issued, executed, or recognized within the framework of the MNRP Religious Order, in accordance with its Constitution and applicable law .

All such instruments shall be classified as either Internal Instruments or External/Recognized Instruments, and shall be governed accordingly.

1. INTERNAL OBLIGATIONS AND SECURITIES

Internal obligations and securities are those instruments created for the administration, governance, and operation of the MNRP Religious Order, and shall apply exclusively to Moroccan Nationals, members, and individuals who have voluntarily submitted to its internal governance.

(a) Internal Records and Identification

The MNRP may establish and maintain internal records and identification systems, including:

- Certificates of National Record (internal birth records)
- National Identification Numbers (internal registry numbers)
- Membership and nationality status certificates

Such records are administrative and ecclesiastical in nature and shall not be construed as government-issued identification or as replacing documents issued by federal or state authorities.

(b) Internal Financial System

The MNRP may establish an internal economic system, including a unit of account or exchange medium known as the Noble Dollar.

The Noble Dollar shall function solely as a private internal unit of account, credit, or exchange among members and within MNRP programs and institutions. It shall not constitute legal tender, currency, or a government-issued financial instrument under applicable law.

(c) Internal Financial Instruments

The MNRP may issue or recognize internal financial instruments, including:

- Internal bonds or obligations between members
- Internal treasury notes or certificates
- Internal administrative stamps, seals, or financial markers

Such instruments shall be binding only within the MNRP and among consenting parties, and shall derive their enforceability from contract, trust, and internal governance principles.

(d) Internal Governance Instruments

The MNRP may issue internal governance-related instruments, including:

- Elector or participation credentials
- Internal licenses, permits, or certifications
- Organizational identification documents

These instruments shall govern internal participation and administration and shall have no independent legal effect outside the MNRP unless otherwise recognized under applicable law.

2. EXTERNAL OR LEGALLY RECOGNIZED INSTRUMENTS

External or legally recognized instruments are those that may operate within the broader legal and commercial framework and are subject to applicable federal, state, and international law.

(a) Contracts and Commercial Instruments

The MNRP may enter into or recognize:

- Contracts and agreements
- Promissory notes
- Bills of exchange
- Checks and drafts

Such instruments shall be enforceable in accordance with applicable commercial and contract law.

(b) Property and Asset Instruments

The MNRP may acquire, hold, and administer:

- Property deeds
- Titles and registrations
- Lease agreements
- Trust and estate instruments

Such instruments shall be governed by applicable property and trust law and may be recognized both internally and externally where properly executed and recorded.

(c) Financial and Investment Instruments

The MNRP may participate in lawful financial activities, including:

- Certificates of deposit
- Investment and cooperative financial agreements
- Lawful business and commercial arrangements

All such activities shall be conducted through recognized financial systems and in compliance with applicable law.

3. FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION AND TREASURY

The MNRP may establish and maintain a National Treasury and internal financial administration systems for the management of its resources, including:

- Contributions, donations, and dues
- Organizational funds and assets
- Economic and community development programs

Such financial administration shall operate:

- Internally under the Constitution and governance of the MNRP
- Externally through lawful financial channels where required

The MNRP may utilize lawful entities, including trusts, corporations, or other recognized structures, to facilitate its financial operations.

4. JURISDICTION AND GOVERNANCE

Internal obligations and securities shall be governed by the Constitution, laws, and internal tribunals or arbitration systems of the MNRP.

External instruments shall be governed by applicable civil, commercial, and financial law.

The authority of the MNRP over its instruments shall extend only to:

- Its members and voluntary participants
- Its internal operations and agreements
- Its lawfully established institutions and entities

5. LIMITATIONS AND COMPLIANCE

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Authorize the issuance of legal tender or sovereign currency
- Create or replace government-issued Social Security Numbers or equivalent identifiers
- Replace state-issued birth certificates or identification documents
- Establish banking institutions outside the requirements of applicable law
- Exempt any financial or commercial activity from applicable regulation

All obligations, securities, and financial systems established under this section shall operate in full compliance with applicable law and in harmony with the Constitution of the Moorish National Republic of Peace.

SECTION 8: VESSEL OF THE MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE

The term “vessel of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP)”, as used in this title, refers to any watercraft, ship, or marine transport that is lawfully owned, leased, operated, or controlled by the MNRP, its members, or its affiliated entities, in accordance with applicable maritime law.

1. Ownership and Affiliation

A vessel may be considered an MNRP-affiliated vessel where it is:

- Owned or operated by the Moorish National Republic of Peace through a lawful entity
- Owned or operated by a Moroccan National or member of the MNRP
- Held by a corporation, trust, or other legal entity associated with or recognized by the MNRP
- Used in connection with the religious, cultural, educational, or organizational activities of the MNRP

Such designation reflects organizational affiliation only and does not alter the vessel's legal status under applicable law.

2. Registration and Legal Compliance

All vessels associated with the MNRP shall:

- Be registered, documented, and operated in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which the vessel is required to be registered
- Comply with all applicable maritime, safety, and navigation regulations
- Maintain any required licensing, documentation, and operational certifications

The MNRP may maintain internal records or registries of affiliated vessels for administrative and organizational purposes; however, such records shall not replace or supersede official registration required by law.

3. Jurisdiction and Governance

The MNRP may exercise internal organizational and contractual authority over its members and affiliated entities in relation to the use and operation of vessels, including:

- Standards of conduct for members operating such vessels
- Internal agreements governing ownership, use, or management
- Dispute resolution through internal tribunals or arbitration systems

Such authority applies only to internal matters among members or voluntary participants.

4. Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish an independent maritime registry recognized under international or federal law
- Create a sovereign fleet or assert naval authority
- Confer exclusive jurisdiction over vessels on international waters
- Override or supersede the lawful jurisdiction of any nation, including the United States

All vessels associated with the MNRP remain subject to the laws of the jurisdiction under which they are registered and operated.

5. Status of Affiliation

Designation as an MNRP-affiliated vessel:

- Does not alter the vessel's nationality under maritime law
  - Does not confer diplomatic, sovereign, or military status
  - Serves solely as an internal classification for organizational and administrative purposes

SECTION 9: INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE

The terms “interstate commerce” and “foreign commerce,” as used in this title, refer to lawful commercial activities conducted by the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), its affiliated entities, and its members, in accordance with applicable law .

1. Interstate Commerce

The term “interstate commerce” includes trade, exchange, transportation, and commercial activities conducted:

- Between individuals, members, or entities affiliated with the MNRP located in different states or jurisdictions within the United States
- Between organizational bodies, communities, or institutions established by the MNRP in different locations

All such activities shall:

- Be conducted in accordance with applicable federal and state law governing interstate commerce
- Utilize lawful business structures where required
- Comply with all licensing, taxation, and regulatory requirements

The MNRP may establish internal policies and administrative guidelines governing such activities among its members; however, such policies shall operate within the framework of applicable law.

2. Foreign Commerce

The term “foreign commerce” refers to commercial activities conducted:

- Between MNRP-affiliated individuals or entities and persons, organizations, or businesses located in foreign countries

- For purposes including trade, cultural exchange, education, and lawful economic development

All foreign commerce activities shall:

- Be conducted in compliance with applicable United States law, international trade regulations, and the laws of the relevant foreign jurisdiction
- Be carried out through lawful entities or structures recognized under applicable law
- Adhere to all export, import, taxation, and financial reporting requirements

3. Internal Economic Administration

The MNRP may establish an internal economic or administrative body, including an Economic Authority or Ministry, for the purpose of:

- Coordinating internal economic activities among members
- Developing organizational policies and programs
- Providing guidance and oversight for internal and external commercial engagement

Such body shall:

- Operate as an internal administrative and advisory authority
- Not constitute a sovereign regulatory agency over public commerce
- Not supersede or replace applicable governmental regulation

4. Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish independent governmental authority to regulate interstate or foreign commerce
- Override or supersede federal, state, or international trade laws
- Exempt any person or entity from applicable licensing, taxation, or regulatory requirements
- Create sovereign trade authority recognized under domestic or international law

SECTION 10: FOREIGN GOVERNMENT DEFINED

1. Definition

The term “foreign government,” as used in this title, refers to any nation, state, political body, or governing authority operating outside the internal organizational structure of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP).

This definition includes:

- Governments of the United States and its several states
- Governments of foreign nations
- International or supranational organizations
- Any political or governing authority not established under the Constitution of the MNRP

This definition is used for purposes of classification and distinction within the internal governance and operations of the MNRP.

2. Recognition and Interaction

The MNRP, as a religious and cultural organization, may engage in lawful interaction, communication, and cooperation with external governments, institutions, and organizations for purposes including:

- Cultural exchange
- Education
- humanitarian and community development
- lawful commerce and organizational activities

All such interactions shall be conducted in accordance with applicable law and within the scope of the MNRP’s organizational purpose as defined in its Constitution .

3. Internal Governance and Non-Interference

The MNRP maintains internal authority over its:

- Religious affairs
- Membership relations
- Organizational structure
- Internal policies and programs

Such internal matters shall be governed by the Constitution and internal laws of the MNRP and shall apply to Moroccan Nationals and individuals who have voluntarily submitted to its governance.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Exempt any individual or entity from the lawful jurisdiction of the United States or any state thereof
- Prevent the application of applicable civil or criminal law
- Establish immunity from lawful governmental authority

4. Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

- Establish diplomatic or sovereign state authority under domestic or international law
- Confer the power to regulate or restrict the actions of any government
- Prevent lawful regulation of individuals or entities under applicable law
- Override or supersede the jurisdiction of any recognized civil authority

SECTION 11: MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE POSTAL SERVICE

1. Definition and Function

The Moorish National Republic of Peace Postal Service (MNRP Postal Service) shall refer to an internal communication and document delivery system established by the MNRP for the purpose of:

- Facilitating correspondence among its members, institutions, and affiliated entities
- Managing the delivery of internal documents, notices, and administrative communications
- Supporting recordkeeping, certification, and organizational operations

The MNRP Postal Service operates as a private organizational system within the framework of the MNRP Religious Order and its Constitution .

2. Scope of Operations

The MNRP Postal Service may:

- Transmit internal communications between members and organizational bodies
- Deliver documents within MNRP-controlled properties or through lawful private arrangements

- Maintain internal mailing records and tracking systems
- Utilize seals, markings, or certifications for internal administrative purposes

For external delivery, the MNRP Postal Service shall:

- Utilize recognized public or private carriers
- Comply with all applicable postal, shipping, and communication laws
- Not represent itself as a government postal authority

3. Personnel and Administration

All individuals acting within the MNRP Postal Service shall:

- Operate under the internal policies and administrative structure of the MNRP
- Be subject to the Constitution, rules, and procedures governing the organization
- Be accountable through internal disciplinary or administrative processes

Participation in such roles does not constitute public office or government employment under applicable law.

4. Security and Integrity

The MNRP shall maintain internal standards to ensure the security, confidentiality, and integrity of its communications, including:

- Protection of internal correspondence and records
- Verification of document handling procedures
- Maintenance of administrative controls over internal communications

Such measures apply within the scope of the MNRP's internal operations and do not supersede applicable law.

5. Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish a governmental postal system recognized under federal or international law
- Operate independently of or in place of the United States Postal Service or other lawful carriers
- Grant exclusive authority over mail delivery beyond internal organizational use

- Exempt any activity from applicable postal, communication, or transportation laws

SECTION 12: ADOPTION OF EXTERNAL LEGAL STANDARDS FOR INTERNAL GOVERNANCE

(a) Adoption of External Legal Standards

Where an act or omission occurs within the internal operations, activities, or affairs of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), and such conduct is not expressly addressed by MNRP law or policy, but would constitute a violation under the laws of the United States, or any state, territory, or possession thereof, such conduct may be recognized by the MNRP as a violation of its internal standards of conduct.

In such cases, the MNRP may adopt and apply equivalent standards for purposes of internal governance, discipline, or administrative action, as determined through its internal tribunals or arbitration processes.

All such determinations shall:

- Be limited to internal organizational enforcement
- Be consistent with applicable law
- Be carried out in accordance with due process

(b) Motor Vehicle Conduct and Safety Standards

The MNRP adopts recognized public safety standards relating to the operation of motor vehicles, including prohibitions against operating a vehicle while impaired by drugs or alcohol.

(1) Recognition of External Enforcement

Any lawful citation, conviction, or administrative action imposed by a competent civil authority relating to impaired driving or similar offenses may be recognized by the MNRP for purposes of internal review and action.

(2) Internal Disciplinary Measures

Where such conduct involves members or affiliated individuals, the MNRP may impose internal disciplinary measures, which may include:

- Suspension or revocation of membership privileges
- Restrictions on participation in MNRP programs or activities
- Administrative sanctions or corrective measures
- Additional internal consequences proportionate to the severity of the conduct

In determining appropriate measures, consideration may be given to aggravating factors, including:

- The presence of a minor
- Harm or injury resulting from the conduct
- Conduct demonstrating disregard for safety or well-being

All measures shall be:

- Non-criminal in nature
- Proportionate
- Consistent with internal governance authority

(c) Scope of Jurisdiction

The provisions of this section apply to:

- Members and Moroccan Nationals of the MNRP
- Individuals who have voluntarily submitted to its governance
- Activities conducted within MNRP institutions, programs, or organizational functions

This jurisdiction is internal, organizational, and contractual in nature.

(d) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish criminal jurisdiction independent of the United States or any state
- Authorize imprisonment or criminal punishment by the MNRP
- Create or assert jurisdiction over territorial waters, airspace, or land beyond that lawfully owned or controlled by the MNRP
- Override or interfere with the lawful authority of any civil or criminal court

All individuals and activities remain subject to applicable federal, state, and local law.

SECTION 13: OBLIGATION OR OTHER SECURITY OF A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT DEFINED

The term “obligation or other security of a foreign government,” as used in this title, refers to any financial instrument, document, or record issued or authorized by a recognized governmental authority other than the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP).

(a) Included Instruments

This term includes, but is not limited to:

- Currency, banknotes, or legal tender issued by a foreign government
- Bonds, treasury instruments, or certificates of indebtedness
- Securities or financial instruments recognized under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction
- Postage stamps, revenue stamps, or similar instruments issued by a governmental authority, whether canceled or uncanceled
- Official financial or commercial documents issued under the authority of a foreign government

Such instruments may retain value or significance based on the laws, regulations, or policies of the issuing authority, regardless of their current circulation status.

(b) Recognition and Use

The MNRP may recognize or reference such instruments for purposes including:

- Commercial transactions
- Educational or administrative use
- Internal recordkeeping or documentation

Any use, exchange, or reliance upon such instruments shall be conducted in accordance with applicable law and recognized financial and commercial practices.

(c) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Grant the MNRP authority to regulate, control, or alter the status of any foreign government instrument
- Establish independent authority over foreign-issued currency or securities
- Assign value to such instruments outside of recognized legal or commercial frameworks
- Override the laws governing such instruments in their respective jurisdictions

SECTION 14: CRIME OF VIOLENCE DEFINED

For purposes of this title, the term “crime of violence” shall refer to conduct that constitutes a serious breach of safety and security within the internal operations of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), and shall be defined as follows:

(a) Use or Threat of Force

An act involving the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against:

- The person of another; or
- Property, where such conduct presents a risk of harm to individuals or the security of MNRP institutions

(b) Conduct Presenting Substantial Risk of Harm

Any conduct which, by its nature and circumstances, involves a substantial risk that physical force may be used in the course of its commission, and which would be recognized as a serious offense under applicable law.

(c) Internal Application

This definition shall be used for purposes of:

- Classifying serious violations within the MNRP
- Guiding internal disciplinary or administrative action
- Determining the severity of conduct in internal proceedings

All determinations shall be made through the MNRP Court of Justice or its authorized tribunals, consistent with principles of due process.

(d) Relationship to External Law

Conduct identified under this section may also constitute a violation of applicable federal or state law.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish independent criminal jurisdiction
- Authorize imprisonment or criminal punishment by the MNRP

- Replace or supersede the authority of any lawful civil or criminal court

SECTION 15: MENTAL INCAPACITY DEFENSE

(a) Affirmative Defense

In any internal proceeding of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), it shall be an affirmative defense that, at the time of the alleged violation, the respondent, due to a severe mental disease or defect, lacked the capacity to understand the nature or wrongfulness of their conduct.

This defense may be raised only in relation to internal disciplinary or adjudicative proceedings conducted under the authority of the MNRP.

(b) Scope of Application

The defense of mental incapacity shall apply solely to:

- Internal classifications of responsibility
- Determinations of accountability within MNRP proceedings
- Consideration of appropriate internal measures or remedies

Mental disease or defect shall not serve as a defense to obligations, duties, or liabilities outside the scope of such internal proceedings, except as otherwise recognized under applicable law.

(c) Burden of Proof

The individual asserting the defense shall bear the burden of establishing mental incapacity by clear and convincing evidence before the MNRP Court of Justice or its authorized tribunal.

Evidence may include:

- Medical or psychological documentation
- Expert testimony or evaluations
- Other relevant and reliable supporting materials

(d) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish a criminal defense enforceable in any civil or criminal court

- Supersede or replace standards governing mental capacity under applicable law
- Prevent lawful authorities from applying their own legal standards

SECTION 16: ORGANIZATION DEFINED

For purposes of this title, the term “organization” refers to any legally recognized entity or collective body, other than an individual, that may operate within or in association with the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP).

(a) Included Entities

The term includes, but is not limited to:

- Corporations
- Associations
- Partnerships
- Trusts
- Nonprofit or religious institutions
- Cooperative or community organizations
- Any other legally recognized collective entity formed under applicable law

(b) Affiliation with MNRP

An organization may be considered affiliated with the MNRP where it:

- Is established, recognized, or operated by the MNRP
- Is owned or controlled by its members or governing bodies
- Participates in activities consistent with the MNRP Constitution and organizational purpose

Such affiliation shall be organizational and contractual in nature and shall not alter the legal status of the entity under applicable law.

(c) Internal Application

For internal purposes, organizations affiliated with the MNRP may be subject to:

- Internal governance standards

- Organizational policies and procedures
- Contractual obligations and agreements
- Internal dispute resolution processes

(d) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Create a new legal status independent of applicable law
- Confer sovereign or governmental authority upon any organization
- Exempt any entity from applicable federal, state, or local regulation
- Alter the legal obligations of any entity under applicable law

SECTION 17: PETTY OFFENSE DEFINED

(a) Definition

The term “petty offense,” as used in this title, refers to a minor violation of the internal rules, policies, or standards of conduct of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP).

Such offenses may include conduct comparable in nature to:

- Minor misconduct
- Administrative violations
- Low-level breaches of internal policy

(b) Classification

For purposes of internal classification, a petty offense may include conduct analogous to:

- Class B or Class C misdemeanor-level conduct
- Infractions or minor violations under commonly recognized legal standards

Such classifications are used for internal reference only and do not constitute criminal charges under external law.

(c) Penalties and Measures

A petty offense may be subject to internal administrative or disciplinary measures, which may include:

- Warnings or formal notices
- Temporary suspension of privileges
- Administrative conditions or corrective requirements
- Monetary assessments or fines not exceeding 10,000 Noble Dollars within the MNRP internal system, or as otherwise prescribed under MNRP policy

All such measures shall:

- Be non-criminal in nature
- Be imposed through internal processes
- Be consistent with principles of fairness and proportionality

(d) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish a criminal offense enforceable in any civil or criminal court
- Authorize imprisonment or criminal punishment by the MNRP
- Replace or supersede applicable law

SECTION 18: FINANCIAL INSTITUTION DEFINED

(a) Definition

The term “financial institution,” as used in this title, refers to any entity engaged in financial activities, including banking, lending, monetary transactions, or financial contracts, whether operating internally within the MNRP or externally under applicable law.

(b) Internal Financial Institutions (MNRP System)

The MNRP may establish internal financial structures for organizational and community purposes, including:

- Treasury departments or financial administration offices
- Internal funds, accounts, or cooperative systems
- Member-based financial programs or resource management systems

Such internal financial institutions:

- Operate within the MNRP as private, organizational, or cooperative financial systems
- Serve members and affiliated entities through voluntary participation
- Do not constitute federally or state-chartered banks or regulated depository institutions

(c) External Financial Institutions (Legally Recognized)

The term also includes entities recognized under applicable law, including:

- Banks and insured depository institutions
- Credit unions
- Mortgage lenders and financing entities
- Investment companies and financial service providers
- Foreign or international banking institutions operating lawfully

All such entities:

- Operate under federal, state, or international regulation
- Are subject to applicable licensing, oversight, and compliance requirements

(d) Lending, Investment, and Commercial Activity

Financial institutions may engage in:

- Lending and financing transactions
- Investment and capital management
- Real estate financing and mortgage activity
- Small business and commercial development

All such activities shall be conducted:

- Through lawful entities or arrangements
- In compliance with applicable financial, banking, and commercial laws

(e) Private Financial Contracts

The term “financial institution” may also include, in a limited internal sense:

- Private agreements or contracts between parties involving the exchange of value
- Trust-based or cooperative financial arrangements

Such agreements:

- Are governed by contract and commercial law
- Do not constitute regulated banking activity unless otherwise defined by law

(f) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish a national banking system independent of applicable law
- Create insured depository institutions without proper authorization
- Issue currency or legal tender recognized by governmental authorities
- Exempt any financial activity from applicable regulation

SECTION 19: STOLEN OR COUNTERFEIT PROPERTY IN INTERNAL VIOLATIONS

(a) Definition of Property Fraud (Internal Application)

- For purposes of this title, a violation involving stolen or counterfeit property shall refer to conduct within the internal operations of the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP) in which:
- Any item, document, or financial instrument has been embezzled, stolen, converted, altered, counterfeited, falsely made, forged, or otherwise unlawfully manipulated; and
- The individual engaged in such conduct knew, or reasonably should have known, that the property was unlawfully obtained or altered
- Such conduct may be classified as a serious internal violation involving fraud, dishonesty, or misuse of property.

(b) Internal Determinations

- In internal proceedings, the MNRP may evaluate:
- The nature and status of the property involved
- The knowledge and intent of the individual

- The impact of the conduct on members, institutions, or operations
- Findings shall be made through the MNRP Court of Justice or its authorized tribunal, in accordance with due process.

(c) Official Representation

- For internal administrative purposes, an official representation may include a statement, report, or certification issued by an authorized MNRP officer or administrative representative concerning:
- The condition or classification of property
- The existence of alleged misconduct
- Relevant findings or observations within internal investigations
- Such representations:
- Serve as internal evidentiary or administrative documentation
- Shall be subject to review, verification, and challenge within internal proceedings
- Do not replace evidentiary standards required under applicable law

(d) Limitations

- Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:
- Establish criminal liability independent of applicable law
- Authorize seizure, forfeiture, or criminal punishment outside lawful authority
- Replace or supersede the jurisdiction of civil or criminal courts
- Conduct described herein may also be subject to applicable federal or state law.

SECTION 20: COURT OF THE MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE DEFINED

(a) Definition and Structure

- The term “Court of the Moorish National Republic of Peace” refers to the internal judicial, administrative, or arbitration bodies established under the Constitution of the MNRP for the purpose of:
- Resolving disputes among members

- Adjudicating internal matters
- Interpreting and applying the Constitution, policies, and agreements of the MNRP
- Such bodies shall operate as internal tribunals or arbitration forums, deriving authority from voluntary participation, contract, and organizational governance.

(b) Authority and Function

- MNRP courts may:
- Hear and resolve internal disputes
- Conduct administrative and disciplinary proceedings
- Interpret internal laws, agreements, and policies
- Issue determinations binding upon consenting members or affiliated parties
- All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with:
- Principles of due process
- Notice and opportunity to be heard
- Fair and impartial adjudication

(c) Establishment of Specialized Tribunals

- The governing authority of the MNRP, including the Supreme Religious Council or equivalent body established under its Constitution, may create specialized internal tribunals or divisions for administrative purposes, including:
- Consular or External Affairs Tribunals – addressing internal matters involving international or cross-jurisdictional interactions
- Common Law or General Jurisdiction Tribunals – addressing internal disputes and general matters
- Commercial or Financial Tribunals – addressing contractual, financial, or business-related disputes
- Equity or Chancery Tribunals – addressing matters involving fairness, fiduciary duties, or equitable relief
- Administrative or Small Claims Tribunals – addressing minor disputes or internal claims
- Such designations are organizational in nature and do not constitute courts recognized under federal or state judicial systems.

(d) Jurisdiction

- The jurisdiction of MNRP courts is limited to:
- Members and Moroccan Nationals of the MNRP
- Individuals or entities that have voluntarily agreed to submit to its jurisdiction
- Internal affairs, agreements, and organizational matters

(e) Limitations

- Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:
- Establish a judicial system equivalent to or independent of the United States or any state
- Confer criminal jurisdiction or authority to impose imprisonment
- Create courts recognized as “supreme courts” under federal or state law
- Exercise authority over non-consenting individuals or entities
- All persons and matters remain subject to applicable civil and criminal law.

SECTION 21: HEALTH CARE-RELATED VIOLATIONS*(a) Definition of Health Care Violations (Internal Application)

A health care-related violation within the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP) refers to any act, omission, or conduct within its internal operations that involves:

- Fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in the provision of health-related services
- Abuse, neglect, or exploitation of individuals receiving care within MNRP programs
- Misuse of funds, resources, or benefits designated for health-related purposes

Such conduct may be addressed through internal disciplinary or administrative proceedings.

(b) Health Care Benefit Program

For purposes of internal reference, a health care benefit program includes:

- Any public or private health-related plan, service, or program through which medical, wellness, or support services are provided
- Any provider, practitioner, or entity participating in such programs

This definition is used for classification and administrative purposes and shall not alter the legal status of any program under applicable law.

(c) Medical Autonomy and Consent

The MNRP affirms the principle of individual bodily autonomy and informed consent in matters of health care.

- No member shall be subjected to medical treatment within MNRP programs without their voluntary and informed consent
- All health-related services provided within the MNRP shall be based on voluntary participation

(d) Internal Enforcement

Violations of this section may result in internal measures, including:

- Suspension or removal from participation in MNRP programs
- Administrative sanctions or corrective requirements
- Referral to appropriate external authorities where conduct may violate applicable law

(e) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Classify any lawful medical procedure as a criminal act under external law
- Establish criminal penalties or authorize imprisonment by the MNRP
- Override or interfere with public health laws or regulations
- Prevent individuals from accessing lawful medical care

SECTION 22: USE OF MINORS IN VIOLENT OR UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

(a) Definitions

For purposes of this title:

- A “crime of violence” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 14
- A “minor” is any individual under the age of eighteen (18)

- “Uses” refers to any act of employing, directing, persuading, inducing, enticing, or coercing a minor to participate in harmful, violent, or unlawful conduct

(b) Prohibited Conduct (Internal Standard)

Any individual who knowingly involves a minor in conduct that:

- Endangers the safety or well-being of the minor
- Involves violence, exploitation, or unlawful activity
- Undermines the moral, physical, or developmental welfare of the minor

shall be considered in violation of MNRP internal standards.

(c) Internal Measures and Accountability

Where such conduct is established through internal proceedings, the MNRP may impose measures including:

- Suspension or permanent revocation of membership
- Restrictions on participation in MNRP programs or activities
- Removal from positions of authority or trust
- Administrative sanctions proportionate to the severity of the conduct

Aggravating factors may include:

- Repeated conduct
- Coercion or exploitation
- Resulting harm or injury

(d) Referral to Lawful Authorities

Where conduct involves potential violations of applicable civil or criminal law, the matter may be referred to appropriate lawful authorities for investigation and action.

(e) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish criminal jurisdiction independent of applicable law

- Authorize imprisonment or criminal punishment by the MNRP
- Replace or supersede the authority of any civil or criminal court

SECTION 23: SEAPORT DEFINED

(a) Definition

The term “seaport,” as used in this title, refers to any pier, wharf, dock, marina, or similar maritime facility that is lawfully owned, leased, operated, or utilized by the Moorish National Republic of Peace (MNRP), its members, or affiliated entities.

(b) Scope of Facilities

A seaport may include:

- Adjacent land, docking areas, and access points associated with such facilities
- Buildings, storage areas, and operational structures
- Equipment, vessels, and materials located within or connected to such facilities

Such facilities shall be treated as private or organizational property, subject to applicable law.

(c) Internal Use and Administration

The MNRP may:

- Establish internal policies governing the use, maintenance, and operation of such facilities
- Regulate member conduct within such locations
- Administer logistical, cultural, or organizational maritime activities

(d) Legal Compliance and Limitations

All seaport facilities and activities shall:

- Operate in accordance with applicable maritime, environmental, and property laws
- Comply with all federal, state, and local regulations governing ports and waterways

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Establish sovereign control over waterways, navigable waters, or maritime trade routes

- Confer authority over navigation beyond that permitted under applicable law
- Create jurisdiction independent of the United States or any other governing authority

SECTION 24: MORTGAGE LENDING BUSINESS DEFINED

(a) Definition

The term “mortgage lending business” refers to any lawful activity involving the financing or refinancing of debt secured by real property.

(b) Included Entities and Activities

This term includes:

- Financial institutions or companies engaged in mortgage lending
- Private lenders or entities providing real estate financing
- Individuals or entities entering into mortgage or secured real estate agreements
- Subsidiaries or affiliates engaged in such activities

(c) Private and Internal Agreements

The MNRP and its members may enter into private mortgage or secured transactions, including:

- Agreements involving the exchange of property, goods, or services
- Trust-based or contract-based real estate arrangements

Such agreements:

- Shall be governed by contract, property, and commercial law
- May be enforceable where properly executed

(d) Compliance with Law

All mortgage lending activities shall:

- Be conducted in accordance with applicable federal and state lending laws
- Comply with licensing, disclosure, and regulatory requirements where applicable
- Utilize lawful entities or structures when engaging in commercial lending

(e) Limitations

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to:

- Exempt any person or entity from applicable lending or financial regulations
- Establish an independent regulatory authority over mortgage lending
- Override consumer protection laws or real estate regulations
