

MOORISH NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF PEACE

Supreme Religious Council Assembly The Sovereign Birthright and Lineage Preservation Act

TO ESTABLISH THE SOVEREIGN BIRTHRIGHT AND LINEAGE PRESERVATION ACT

Pursuant to the Moorish National Republic of Peace Constitution , Amendment XVIII,
Section 3, wherein it states:

"The Moorish National Republic of Peace shall make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the Moorish National Republic of Peace, or any Department or Officer thereof," there shall hereby be designated The Sovereign Birthright and Lineage Preservation Act to serve this purpose.

This Public Law shall go into immediate force.

PUBLIC LAW VOTED ON: July 5th 2026

GRAND WAZIR OF M.N.R.P.: Eric-Ingram: Bey

CHAPTER 1

PURPOSE, AUTHORITY, AND LAWFUL SCOPE

Section 1. Purpose

(a) The purpose of this Act is to establish a lawful internal system for the recognition, recording, preservation, certification, correction, protection, and archival custody of live born records, lineage records, ancestral records, ecclesiastical records, family records, trust-related records, and national membership records connected to Moroccan Nationals of the Moorish National Republic of Peace Religious Order.

(b) This Act is enacted to preserve the religious, cultural, ancestral, national, and organizational identity of Moroccan Nationals and Citizens of the MNRP Religious Order through lawful internal recordkeeping.

(c) This Act serves the following lawful purposes:

1. To preserve proof of lineage, ancestry, family heritage, religious standing, and Moroccan national recognition within the MNRP Religious Order.
 2. To establish the lawful authority of the Registrar of Births, Registrar General, Minister of Records & National Archives, and other authorized officers to receive, verify, preserve, certify, and maintain internal birth-related and lineage-related records.
 3. To create a structured system for Live Born Records, Life Records, Divine Records, Ecclesiastical Records, Trust Records, and archival records entered into the Great Register and Public Record of the MNRP.
 4. To provide internal proof of membership, lineage, religious affiliation, national recognition, trust relationship, inheritance connection, family relationship, and archival standing within the MNRP.
 5. To protect children, families, descendants, heirs, beneficiaries, trustees, parents, guardians, and Moroccan Nationals by ensuring that internal records are accurate, secure, properly witnessed, and preserved.
 6. To prevent fraud, false claims of lineage, falsified records, unauthorized issuance, misuse of seals, forged certificates, and false representation of MNRP records.
 7. To ensure that all records created under this Act operate in harmony with the Constitution of the United States, the constitutions and laws of the several states, applicable vital-record laws, trust law, property law, family law, probate law, privacy law, and lawful civil authority.

Section 2. Constitutional and Internal Authority

(a) This Act is enacted under the internal legislative authority of the MNRP Constitution, Amendment XVIII, Section 3.

(b) This Act is further supported by the Constitution's recognition of the MNRP as a Moorish religious order, cultural national body, and self-governing ecclesiastical community operating through lawful self-organization, voluntary association, internal governance, private property, trust administration, religious liberty, cultural preservation, and peaceful community development.

(c) The authority exercised under this Act is:

1. Internal;
2. Ecclesiastical;
3. Religious;
4. Cultural;
5. Organizational;
6. Archival;
7. Membership-based;
8. Contractual;
9. Trust-related;
10. Voluntary; and
11. Administrative in nature.

(d) This Act applies only to Moroccan Nationals, Citizens, Residents, members, applicants, parents, guardians, trustees, fiduciaries, beneficiaries, family representatives, and other persons who voluntarily submit records to the MNRP or agree by oath, declaration, membership agreement, trust instrument, family agreement, affidavit, written consent, application, or participation in MNRP programs to be governed by this Act.

Section 3. Lawful Scope and Limitation

(a) Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted to:

1. Replace a state-issued birth certificate;
2. Create a civil birth certificate issued by a state or federal government;

3. Create citizenship documents, passports, driver licenses, immigration documents, Social Security records, or public-law status documents issued by a recognized civil government;
4. Exempt any person from applicable federal, state, or local law;
5. Override state vital-record laws, probate laws, family-court orders, adoption records, custody orders, child-support orders, or lawful civil judgments;
6. Bind non-members or non-consenting persons;
7. Establish independent civil territorial sovereignty over land within the United States or any other nation;
8. Negate or supersede the lawful civil or criminal jurisdiction of the United States, any state, county, municipality, court, agency, or lawful civil authority;
9. Authorize unlawful search, seizure, detention, punishment, retaliation, forced transfer of records, or interference with lawful civil process;
10. Use an internal MNRP record to commit fraud, avoid lawful duties, conceal identity, defeat lawful claims, evade taxes, obstruct justice, impair parental rights, or mislead any civil authority.

(b) A Live Born Record issued under this Act is an internal MNRP ecclesiastical, cultural, archival, lineage, trust-related, and membership record. It may support internal recognition, family heritage, trust administration, membership standing, and archival preservation, but it shall not be represented as a state vital record unless separately recognized by applicable law.

(c) Where a state birth certificate, hospital record, adoption order, probate record, family-court order, or lawful civil record exists, the MNRP may preserve a copy or abstract for internal archival purposes, but shall not alter, cancel, replace, override, or nullify the civil record.

CHAPTER 2

DEFINITIONS

Section 4. Definitions

For purposes of this Act:

(a) MNRP means the Moorish National Republic of Peace, a Moorish religious order, cultural national body, and self-governing ecclesiastical community established under its Constitution.

(b) Moroccan National of the MNRP Religious Order means a member who voluntarily pledges allegiance to the Constitution, laws, and institutions of the MNRP and agrees to be governed by its internal religious, cultural, organizational, and membership laws.

(c) Citizen means a Moroccan descendant or recognized member who has pledged allegiance to the MNRP but has not placed their full trust, estate, legal affairs, or administrative standing under the full internal jurisdiction of the MNRP institutions.

(d) Registrar of Births means the officer, deputy officer, or authorized records official appointed to receive, examine, verify, enter, preserve, certify, correct, and maintain Live Born Records and related birth-lineage records under this Act.

(e) Registrar General means the officer within the Ministry of Citizenship and Nationalization responsible for national registration, membership records, nationality applications, identification records, and coordination with the National Archives.

(f) Minister of Records & National Archives means the officer responsible for maintaining official government records, archives, decrees, internal certifications, lineage records, trust-related records, and historical records of the MNRP.

(g) Great Register and Public Record of the MNRP means the official internal archival registry maintained by the MNRP for the preservation of constitutional records, public laws, membership records, lineage records, trust records, ecclesiastical records, Live Born Records, Life Records, Divine Records, oaths, declarations, certificates, and other official internal records.

(h) Live Born Record means an internal MNRP record recognizing the birth, lineage, family connection, membership connection, religious-cultural identity, or ancestral standing of a child or person connected to Moroccan Nationals of the MNRP Religious Order. It is an internal ecclesiastical and archival record and does not replace a state-issued birth certificate.

(i) Life Record means an internal record recognizing the commencement of life, existence, lineage, family standing, trust relationship, or membership connection within the MNRP Great Register and Public Record.

(j) Divine Record means a sacred ecclesiastical record entered into the Great Register and Public Record of the MNRP in accordance with the Covenant with the Most High, the MNRP Constitution, and lawful internal procedures. A Divine Record is religious and ecclesiastical in nature and shall not be used to defeat applicable civil law.

(k) Divine Trust means an ecclesiastical or spiritual trust recognized internally by the MNRP for religious, cultural, charitable, ancestral, educational, or sacred purposes, provided such trust is lawfully created, documented, administered, and not contrary to applicable trust law or civil law.

(l) Lineage Record means any internal record identifying ancestry, parentage, family connection, tribal connection, Moroccan-Moorish heritage, descent, religious standing, or family history submitted for internal recognition and archival preservation.

(m) Ecclesiastical Affidavit of Truth means a sworn or affirmed statement made under penalty of truth within the MNRP Religious Order, signed by the affiant, witnessed where required, and submitted for internal review, recordkeeping, or adjudication.

(n) Internal Certificate or Abstract means a certified copy, summary, or official extract from the Great Register and Public Record, issued by the authorized Registrar or National Archives officer for internal MNRP purposes.

(o) Person Subject to MNRP Governance means any Moroccan National, Citizen, Resident, member, officer, trustee, fiduciary, parent, guardian, beneficiary, applicant, guest, invitee, affiliated entity, or voluntary participant who agrees by oath, contract, trust instrument, application, affidavit, written consent, property rule, program rule, or membership agreement to follow MNRP internal law.

CHAPTER 3

REGISTRAR OF BIRTHS AND NATIONAL ARCHIVES

Section 5. Establishment of the Registrar of Births

(a) There is hereby established the Office of the Registrar of Births within the Ministry of Citizenship and Nationalization and in coordination with the Minister of Records & National Archives.

(b) The Registrar of Births shall be responsible for:

1. Receiving applications for Live Born Records;
2. Reviewing affidavits, family records, civil records, hospital records, religious records, trust records, genealogical evidence, and supporting documents;
3. Verifying identity, parentage, guardianship, lineage, membership standing, and lawful authority to submit the record;
4. Entering approved records into the Great Register and Public Record;
5. Issuing certified internal abstracts or certificates;
6. Maintaining custody of records in the National Archives;
7. Protecting records from fraud, alteration, unauthorized access, destruction, or misuse;

8. Coordinating with the Court of Justice where disputes, fraud, conflicting claims, or objections arise;
 9. Referring matters to lawful civil authorities where conduct may involve forgery, fraud, child trafficking, identity theft, false statements, custody interference, or other violations of applicable law.

Section 6. Duties of the Registrar

(a) The Registrar shall act as a fiduciary records officer and shall owe duties of care, loyalty, accuracy, confidentiality, impartiality, good faith, record preservation, and lawful administration.

(b) The Registrar shall not issue any Live Born Record unless the Registrar determines that:

1. The application is complete;
2. The applicant has authority to request the record;
3. The child or person is connected to the MNRP by birth, parentage, membership, family relation, trust relation, lineage claim, or lawful internal recognition;
4. Required affidavits, witnesses, or supporting records have been provided;
5. No known civil court order prohibits the requested record;
6. The record will not be used to mislead civil authorities, defeat lawful custody rights, avoid civil duties, or commit fraud.

(c) The Registrar shall preserve both the application and all supporting documents unless otherwise restricted by privacy, safety, court order, or applicable law.

CHAPTER 4

LIVE BORN RECORDS

Section 7. Nature of a Live Born Record

CHAPTER 5

DIVINE RECORDS, LIFE RECORDS, AND ECCLESIASTICAL TRUST RECORDS

Section 10. Divine Records

(a) A Divine Record is a sacred internal ecclesiastical record entered into the Great Register and Public Record according to the Covenant with the Most High, the Constitution of the MNRP, and lawful internal procedures.

(b) A Divine Record may include:

1. Sacred declarations;
2. Ecclesiastical trust records;
3. spiritual lineage records;
4. consecration records;
5. covenant records;
6. ministerial records;
7. ancestral records;
8. records of religious standing.

(c) A Divine Record shall be treated with the highest internal respect, but shall not be used to evade, defeat, or override applicable civil law.

Section 11. Life Records

(a) A Life Record is an internal record recognizing the commencement, existence, lineage, family standing, or trust-related identity of a living person within the Great Register and Public Record.

(b) A Life Record may be connected to:

1. A Live Born Record;
2. A family lineage record;

3. A living trust;
4. A beneficiary record;
5. A membership record;
6. A declaration of nationality;
7. A religious or cultural recognition record.

(c) Life Records shall be preserved as part of the National Archives.

(d) Upon death, a Life Record may be supplemented by a death notice, memorial record, trust administration record, inheritance record, or other lawful internal record. The MNRP shall not replace state death certificates or civil death records.

Section 12. Divine Trusts and Ecclesiastical Trust Records

(a) A Divine Trust or Ecclesiastical Trust may be recognized internally where it is lawfully created under the MNRP Trust Law Act and not contrary to applicable civil law.

(b) A Divine Trust may hold religious, cultural, charitable, educational, family, land, ancestral, archival, or ecclesiastical property when lawfully transferred, assigned, donated, conveyed, titled, scheduled, or placed into trust.

(c) No trust record shall be used to:

1. Commit fraud;
2. Conceal assets unlawfully;
3. Evade taxes;
4. Defeat lawful liens;
5. Avoid child-support obligations;
6. Obstruct probate proceedings;
7. Interfere with civil court orders;

7. Disaster recovery;
8. Audit trails;
9. Seal control;
10. Prevention of unauthorized alteration.

Section 14. Privacy and Access

(a) Birth, lineage, family, trust, and ecclesiastical records are confidential unless disclosure is authorized by:

1. The person recorded, if of lawful age and capacity;
2. A parent or lawful guardian;
3. A trustee or fiduciary with lawful authority;
4. The Registrar;
5. The Minister of Records & National Archives;
6. The MNRP Court of Justice;
7. Written consent;
8. Lawful civil authority where required by applicable law.

(b) No officer, member, agent, trustee, or records official shall unlawfully disclose, sell, transfer, alter, destroy, or misuse records.

(c) Unauthorized disclosure or misuse may result in internal discipline, removal from office, restitution, suspension, expulsion, and referral to lawful authorities where applicable.

CHAPTER 7

CORRECTION, DISPUTES, AND DUE PROCESS

Section 15. Correction of Records

(a) Any person with lawful interest may petition the Registrar to correct a clerical error, spelling error, date error, lineage error, duplicate record, mistaken entry, or incomplete record.

(b) The petition shall include supporting evidence.

(c) Minor clerical corrections may be made by the Registrar with written notation.

(d) Material corrections affecting parentage, lineage, guardianship, membership status, trust rights, inheritance rights, or disputed identity shall be referred to the Court of Justice or authorized tribunal.

Section 16. Disputed Records

(a) Where a Live Born Record, Life Record, Divine Record, or Lineage Record is challenged, the matter shall be resolved through internal due process.

(b) Due process shall include:

1. Written notice;
2. Statement of the issue;
3. Opportunity to submit evidence;
4. Opportunity to respond;
5. Impartial review;
6. Written findings;
7. Right of internal appeal where provided by law.

(c) The Court of Justice may order:

1. Confirmation of the record;

2. Correction of the record;
 3. Restriction of record access;
 4. Suspension of certification;
 5. Annotation of disputed status;
 6. Referral to civil authorities where fraud or unlawful conduct is suspected.

CHAPTER 8

FRAUD, MISUSE, AND UNAUTHORIZED ISSUANCE

Section 17. Prohibited Conduct

No person subject to MNRP governance shall knowingly:

1. Create a false Live Born Record;
 2. Forge or counterfeit an MNRP seal;
 3. Falsify lineage, parentage, guardianship, or birth information;
 4. Submit false affidavits;
 5. Alter a record without authority;
 6. Destroy or conceal records;
 7. Use an MNRP record to mislead a civil court, agency, officer, school, hospital, financial institution, insurer, employer, or public authority;
 8. Claim that an MNRP Live Born Record replaces a state birth certificate;
 9. Use a record to interfere with custody, adoption, guardianship, probate, inheritance, child support, or lawful civil process;
 10. Sell, transfer, or issue records without authority.

Section 18. Internal Measures

Upon lawful finding by the Court of Justice or authorized tribunal, internal measures may include:

1. Revocation of the false or defective record;
2. Correction or annotation of the record;

3. Suspension or revocation of membership privileges;
 4. Removal from office;
 5. Disqualification from records-related duties;
 6. Restitution;
 7. Written findings entered into the National Archives;
 8. Referral to lawful civil or criminal authorities where applicable.

CHAPTER 9

OFFICIAL RECOGNITION AND LIMITATION CLAUSE

Section 19. Official Recognition

- (a) The MNRP Registrar of Births is hereby recognized as the lawful internal officer responsible for Live Born Records within the MNRP Religious Order.
 - (b) The Registrar General and Minister of Records & National Archives shall coordinate with the Registrar of Births to ensure all records are preserved, indexed, secured, and maintained in accordance with this Act.
 - (c) All recognized Live Born Records shall be stored in the National Archives of the MNRP and protected under MNRP internal law.

Section 20. Law of the Land Clause

- (a) This Act shall be administered in harmony with the Constitution of the United States, the constitutions and laws of the several states, and applicable federal, state, and local law.
 - (b) The MNRP retains its internal ecclesiastical, cultural, religious, contractual, trust-related, and membership authority over consenting members and participants.
 - (c) No provision of this Act shall be interpreted to supersede lawful civil authority.
 - (d) Where conflict appears between this Act and applicable civil law, the Act shall be interpreted to preserve the internal religious and cultural purpose of the MNRP while avoiding unlawful interference with civil jurisdiction.

Section 21. Effective Date

This Act shall take effect immediately upon adoption by the Supreme Religious Council and shall govern all Live Born Records, Life Records, Divine Records, Lineage Records, and related archival records created, preserved, corrected, certified, or recognized thereafter.
