Chapter 1

The Beginning

1. In the beginning there was One and One became All things. One created light and One created darkness. One understood whatever One created became One with it. One knew once it started to love it also started to hate. One gave life to all things to exist in harmony.

Once One gave life to all One knew it would exist forever. In the midst of creating all things One created LAW (Length, Angle, Width), which are boundaries to all things that exist. One created order, even in chaos One set the LAW.

2. One of One's creation known as Man decided to challenge One (all things). Man set out to break the LAW and Order between Man and One. Man wanted to be One, so he divided all things according to its Kind. Man became creators and destroyers of all that One has created. One declared to destroy man, who was made in its image.
3. Man began to seek the understanding of One. Yet the hate that Man has for oneself will not allow him to see All things. Man looks at himself and calls himself a slave, a servant, a King, or Emperor. One looked at Man and said "Did I not create all that's within you?"

Did I not give you a part of me? Did I not give life to you? When has the Creator not been the destroyer? Man said to the One "It is I who speak of your name. It is I who worship you. Without me you have nowhere to Reign."

4. One knew Man was getting stronger and had become a god. The names of Man would travel the earth just like the Sun through victories of war. Man created worlds and different ideology of themselves declaring they are the most righteous deity. Man called himself a Prophet, a messenger of God, and some would even consider to be the Son of God.
5. Man separated himself according to like minds. These like-minded people were in uniform by signs, symbols, color, traditions, customs, laws, and their ideology. For this very reason Man created many wars against himself. One asked Man "You do know the more you rebel against me you rebel against yourself." How can you ever be as great as Eye if you choose not to serve All?

6. A light began to shine in the hearts of Man. The chosen one has been conceived through the Righteous Man Family. The Righteous Man Family is of Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom, and Justice. The Nation of the Righteous Man Family called the chosen one Uno. Uno was being raised in a Righteous Man family who had kept the Laws of Nations, Maxims of Equity, Natural Law, Customs, Traditions of the Nation. Uno as a child bears Love and teaches Man that Love is the root of all things. Man asked Uno “How is it Love when it is Hate that drives the enemy?” Uno answered “Are you not considered an enemy of your enemy?”

Are you ready for war to protect what you Love?” Man replied, “Yes I Am.” Uno responded, “So is it not Love that your enemy has for its Master, laws, customs, traditions, family and Love ones?” If you know this is so, then you know all things are rooted in Love.

7. Man was surprised at the wise answer that Uno had spoken. Man became enlightened with the powerful words and vibrations coming from Uno. Man thought to itself, the rise of the chosen one Uno could be the fall of his world. Man became envious of the teachings of Uno, all of Mans tricks were being exposed by the enlightenment of Uno’s teachings.
8. Uno stood strong with the laws, customs, and traditions of the Nation State. Uno taught with Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom and Justice. In Remembrance of Uno’s ancestors, every full moon Uno would gather the nation for a big feast. Uno told the nation to bring the Flag of our ancestors, the sword of justice, the Seal of our State. The flag is in honor of all before us; the sword of justice is the law that was given to the people from The One to govern all; the Seal of our State is the new covenant that we have made with The One that governs all.
9. Uno began to pray “I am One and One is All. I am All and All is One. Shine with me like the mooring Sun, breathe with me like the mooring Trees, Flow with me like the Ocean waves, let justice roar like thunder on the sea, let justice be swift like the lightning in the sky raise the seal of my State as high as the clouds, Live in Peace through all just like the calm winds of a cool breeze. L.EYE. P., Ase, so mote it be.

Mastering the Ego (Ego Tripping)

1. Ego is the greatest adversary of Uno. Ego is the Master of I and a Grantor for all that you desire. Ego thrives off the passion for the love of Self. Ego is very arrogant, boastful, prideful, and envious of the One. Ego feel as if it is bigger than the All and All should worship it. Ego only desired to receive and never to give back to what has given to it.
2. To Master the Ego One must realize the nature of its true self. Ego is in denial yet still aware of all its flaws. Ego can only be humbled by admitting to all the negative traits that it carries. One must never let the Ego lie to itself, or it will cause One to fall into a slumber.
3. Ego has many positive traits that is needed to help fuel the will power within one-self. Without the Ego One lose strong personality of One-self and is likely to become feast for the wolves in sheep clothing. Ego provides the backbone to the soul and acts as the protector of our Emotions.
4. Let Ego provide the enthusiasm that is needed to motivate the nature of our true self. One must never lose himself within its Ego. Acting in pure Ego is very vulnerable and causes many mistakes due to hasty made decisions.
5. Ego is constantly at a battle with One to gain control of All. Once Ego has gained full control destruction of the One is near. One has the knowledge and wisdom of both spiritual and physical realms. Whereas Ego is materialistic and attracted to the physical realm. One can refrain from the temptations of the physical realm and control the ego as One sees just and righteous to All.
6. One can only rule Ego with Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom and Justice. The morals, principles, standards, traditions, customs in One will always determine the will power to rule Ego.

Chapter 3

Equity of the Nation (Teachings of Uno)

1. Uno noticed the injustice of Man in commerce and trade amongst the Nations abroad the earth. So, Uno decided to bring justice within the trade of the Nations by introducing equity. Uno gathered all the Leaders of the Tribes, Kings of the Kingdoms, Presidents of Nations to deliver the laws of equity.
2. There should be no departure from common observance or usage. No Man is bound to do what is impossible. From the words of the law One can depart. The absence of One who is employed in the service of the Nation, ought not to be burdensome to One nor to Man.
3. An absolute wrong sentence or proposition needs no observer, and abundant caution does no harm. An accessory will follow the nature of its principal; additions does not lead but follow its principal. No Man ought to accuse himself, unless before the Law.
4. Outside actions show inside secrets. An action is not given to One who has received no damages. A personal action is obsolete without the person. This must be understood of an action for a tort only. One ought not to hear who advances a proposition contrary to the rules of law.
5. The plaintiff must abide by the formula of the matter in dispute. When the plaintiff doesn't prove One case, the defendant is absolved. The act of One does no injury; that is, no Man is responsible for inevitable accidents.
6. An act already begun, the completion of which depends upon the will of the Man, may be recalled; but if it depends on the consent of a third Man, or of a contingency, it cannot be recalled. An act done by Man against One will, is not One act. An act does not make a Man guilty, unless the intention be also guilty. This maxim applies only to criminal cases; in civil matters it is otherwise.
7. Acts mandatory by law to be done, admit of no qualification. The act of the law does no Man, an injury. One bears relation to what follows next unless it destroys the meaning of the Truth. The One do not answer to questions of fact; Man do not answer to questions of law. The rough calculation of the value of a crime committed never increased from a subsequent fact.

8. A secret ambiguity of the words is given by the verification, for whatever ambiguity arises concerning the deed itself is removed by the prima facie of the deed. Water runs and ought to run, Equity acts upon the Man who follows the law. What is good and equal, is the Master law of laws. The proof lies upon Man who affirms, not on Man who denies.
9. To conceal is one thing, to be silent another; An alternate petition is not to be heard. It is to the intention that all law applies. The intention of the party is the soul of the instrument. An award is a judgment; Points of law are not laws. An argument from the greater to the less is of no force negatively; conversely it is.
10. An argument arising from a division is most powerful in law. An argument drawn from what is inconvenient is good in law because the law will not permit any inconvenience. An argument deduced from authority great avails in law. An argument drawn from authority is the strongest in law. An argument drawn from a similar case, or analogy, avails in law. A twisting of language is unworthy of a judge.
11. Natural equity or good faith do not allow us to demand twice the payment of the same thing. It is the part of a good judge to enlarge his jurisdiction; that, his remedial authority. It is the duty of a good judge to remove the cause of litigation. The good of a defendant arises from a perfect case, his/her harm from some defect. A good judge decides according to justice and right and prefers equity to strict law.
12. Necessary good is not good beyond the bounds of necessity. A fortuitous event is not to be foreseen, and no person is held bound to divine it. A case omitted and given to oblivion is left to the disposal of the common law. Chattels justly possessed cannot be lost. The immediate, and not the remote cause, is to be considered. Let the purchaser beware; Beware of fragments. The cause ceasing, the effect must cease. It is the crime which causes the shame, and not the scaffold?
13. A charter or deed of a thing not in being, is not valid. A deed or bond found with the debtor is presumed to be paid. Circuity is to be avoided. Unusual clauses always induce a suspicion. A useless clause or disposition is not supported by a remote presumption, or by a cause arising afterwards. No one is punished for merely thinking of a crime. No man ought to derive any benefit of his own wrong.
14. A common error makes law. What was at first illegal, being repeated many times, is presumed to have acquired the force of usage, and then it would be wrong to depart from it. The converse of this maxim is communis error no facit just. A common error does not make law. A confession made in court is of greater effect than any proof. A confirmation is null where the preceding gift is invalid.
15. The union of a man and a woman is of the law of nature. Consent, not lying together, constitutes marriage. Consent makes the law. A contract is a law between the parties, which can acquire force only by consent. Consent removes or obviates a mistake. Those consenting and those perpetrating are embraced in the same punishment.

Chapter 4

The Honor of a Nation

1. A nation honor is built up on the morals, principles, standards, and the spirituality of the citizens of the nation. The leaders of the nation must fully lead by example to never lose the honor of the nation. The nation must be filled with Mothers and Fathers who are loyal to their customs, traditions, and laws?
2. Women who serves One with all their heart, mind, and soul. Women who seeks the will for the greater cause of the Nation. Women respectful to their husbands. Women should teach the children the customs, traditions, and laws of their Father. Women who nurtures them with love, truth, peace, freedom, and justice. Women who care for their body and prepare healthy food for their family.
3. Women who serve others with a gentle heart; they are charitable. Women who spends money wisely and operates fully in the laws of equity. Women who creates a house of healing, a house of love for her family and friends. Women who uses their time wisely. Women who find beauty internally within themselves.
4. Men who are godly, righteous, and just. Men who repents when they sin. Men who are alive through its nation. Men who seeks to exalt the nation, rather than to exalt themselves.
5. Men who are servants than demanding to be served. Men who lead by example. Men who love their wife as they love their nation. Men who lives in sexual purity and honoring their bodies to One. Men who fully live in the desires of the spirit and not flesh. Men who desire to please his wife, children, and nation more than themselves. Men who provide and bear fruit for the Kingdom. Men who are protectors of their customs, traditions, laws, and nation.

6. The superiors entrusted with the public affairs of the nation should constantly endeavor to deserve the approbation of their divine master; whatever they do in the name of the nation ought to be regulated by this grand view.
7. Enlightened piety in the people is the firmest support of lawful authority; and in the sovereign's heart it is the pledge of the people's safety and excites their confidence. The Nation must be created for the instituted for the benefits of its people.
8. Children must obey their mother and fathers. Children must fully study the traditions, customs, and laws of the nation. Children must fully and whole heartedly serve the wishes of their ancestors, to continue in their faith to build the Empire Nation.
9. 'Worship consists in certain actions performed with an immediate view of the honor of the Nation: there can then be no worship proper for any nation, which they do not believe suitable to that end.

Chapter 5

The Power of the Spirit of Man

1. Man is not flesh nor the soul. Man is spirit, a source from One, who is connected to All things. Spirit of Man has the ability to travel through all dimensions and planes. As there is always a balance in life, the adversary of the Spirit-Man is its own flesh. Spirit of Man is pure and full of love, truth, peace, freedom, and justice. Yet, the soul of the Spirit of Man can fall to the desires of the carnal flesh.
2. If the Spirit of Man does not live within the higher dimensions within itself; it shall fall to hate, lies, chaos, slavery, and injustice. Spirit of Man will develop the characteristics of jealousy, envy, greed, selfishness, ungratefulness, lawlessness, dishonorable, tyrant if it chooses to live in the lower dimensions within itself.
3. Spirit of Man has the power of manifesting all things into fruition. Spirit of Man is a creator as well as a destroyer; it can build the Kingdoms in heaven right here on earth. Spirit of Man is an electromagnetic being, that absorbs and releases energy. Spirit of Man has the power to transfer energy from lower dimensions to higher dimensions, and vice versa.
4. Spirit of Man can create worlds of love, truth, peace, freedom, and justice; or it can create worlds of hate, lies, chaos, slavery, and injustice. Spirit of Man is a life giver as well as it takes away. Spirit-Man is eternal, its experiences are evolutionary.
5. Spirit of Man has parallel experiences within the parallel universes. Until Spirit of Man can ascend and evolve from these experiences, it will constantly go through the same experiences in parallel universes.
6. Spirit of Man was given a soul from One to exist on the soul plane, and the flesh of Spirit of Man to exist on the physical plane. Spirit of Man is a part of the source known as One, the All. Spirit of Man manifested the physical body to claim dominion over all in the physical plane. Spirit of Man will manifest and only be as strong as the Nation in which it domiciles.
7. Spirit of Man is now in the Age of Aquarius (Golden Age). Spirit of Man is now returning to the higher dimensions within the soul plane; now reclaiming its sovereignty over the physical plane, of land, water, and beast. Spirit of Man can only redeem itself when it destroys the illusion of duality.

8. Spirit of Man is one with all things, as it is just a pure thought from the All, known as One. When Spirit of Man lives in duality it is in turmoil, it is in a fight within itself. For Spirit of Man to become the Sovereign over the physical plane, it must know to align itself with the physical and soul plane as One.
9. Spirit of Man draws its wisdom and knowledge from the highest places within the soul plane. The Knowledge and wisdom brought forth Kingdoms, Empires, Nations, States, and Tribes with morals, principles, standards, customs, laws, and traditions. The physical plane is the lowest vibrating plane; Spirit of Man must be careful not to get trapped into the worldly things within the physical plane.
10. Spirit of Man is One and One is All. Spirit of Man is All, and All is One.

Chapter 6

The Pyramid of Uno

1. The Pyramid is an amplified-receiver or resonator of many different energy fields, electromagnetic waves, rays of cosmic, electric discharges, and gravitational waves. A pyramid creates a 360 Degree field like a globe of harmonic vibrations, where the wave patterns are synchronizing in rhythm- around itself. Everything within that field will move towards the harmony.
2. The Pyramid magnetic field directions are outward from the south pole of the pyramid and inwards to the north pole. The Pyramid generates a 360degree field from its apex for electrons, they can move in an angular momentum around their own axis.
3. Once Kinetic energy enters the pyramid the energy reflects from the equal sides of its walls while the five angles of the pyramid release a beam of radiation towards the center where the energy is collected or pooled to form the fire in the middle.
4. Pyramid energy is a life-giving force called bio-cosmic energy, allows the pyramid to become a cosmic antenna that tunes into vast energy sources, receives the energy, and changes itself into a magnetic field. Majority of the positive energy is focused within and beneath the pyramid. Energy is diffused from all 5points of the pyramid.
5. The Mother is the foundation of the Pyramid; she is the energy that flows from the beneath the still waters. She is strong in support of her family and built on solid ground. She will always be considered Home base no matter where she maybe.
6. The Father is the Rooftop of the Pyramid, who is fully supported by the foundation, the Mother. The father is the protector of the foundation and all that is within the Pyramid. It is the duty of the father to provide shelter for the foundation and all that is within.
7. The Children is the energy that is created within the middle of the pyramid. The children are the fire in the middle. The children are the regenerated energy within us to become the foundation and the rooftop of our Nation. The children are the reason the elders remain a legacy, nations rise to Empires. The children will forever carry the burdens of their ancestors. If you light the fire in the children a Nation will always rise.

8. The 5 Points of the pyramid are love, truth, peace, Freedom, and Justice. The family must carry their morals, principles, standards, customs, laws, and their traditions. Where the angles meet, where the point stands if these traits do not exist the family will surely be broken.

Chapter 7

The Stairway to Heaven

1. $1+1=1$. How is that so you ask? There is one common denominator that all things in the physical plane has in common. Energy is the source of all things in life, and all things in life are ONE.
2. Energy is always kinetic energy. Everything you see or cannot see is vibrating on a High or low frequency. Vibrations is a constant back and forth motion of particles. The human body produces infrasonic wave, a vibration at an extremely low frequency. Energy is always in a constant motion.
3. Energy is sound, feeling, seeing, being, light, dark, words, numbers, shapes, letters etc. Spirit of Man has the power to speak and set energy into motion. We summon all things to the physical plane by the All mighty source “ENERGY”.
4. Spirit of Man begin to think. Think is an action word, to perform action one must use energy. Spirit of Man summoned an idea from the All mighty source “ENERGY”. The idea has yet to reach the physical plane because the idea is vibrating on a higher frequency. Once energy is applied to the idea in the physical plane, the idea now develops a physical presence.
5. Spirit of Man has now manifested things of the heavens into the physical plane. This is how you know all things are ONE, and nothing is above the All mighty source “ENERGY”.
6. Now that you understand how we are connected to the All mighty source you should know all things are reacting towards you based upon actions, perception, and intent.

Chapter 8

The Creed

1. Live in peace- TO LIVE IN PEACE THROUGH ALL SITUATIONS; FIND YOUR INNER PEACE WITHIN SELF THROUGH ALL SITUATIONS.
2. love- love is a vibe, love has no conditions, love yourself as the vibe has chosen you to express this feeling. To genuinely love others, you must first love yourself. Your love must be genuine.
3. 1+1=1(family) – We are one, moving in one accord, for one purpose to up lift this family. No one is above the family, and everyone is responsible for one another. Remember this in your heart daily.
4. Truth- To live in truth and nothing but the truth, honor truth daily let truth be your guide along your journey.
5. Action- action must be applied to all that you know. Do not waste one single gift the universe has given you. Let your walk be in truth, love, and peace. Let your actions be for the uplifting of our family. Without action all dreams are dead!
6. Knowledge and wisdom- keep your mind and hearts open to receive all knowledge and wisdom. We must never refuse Knowledge and wisdom; they are the mother and father of the mind.
7. Honor thy Mother and Father- honor all thy forefathers and foremothers who have kept the divine creed and National Law. Nationality is the order of the day.
8. Cleanliness- you must keep your heart, mind, and body clean. Let all things that enter your temple be good for your heart, mind, and body.

Chapter 9

Jesus is Justice

1. In the beginning was the Law and the Law was with One and the Law was with All. In the Law there is full life; and the Law was the light of men.
2. The Law is amongst the civilly dead and the dead comprehend it not.
3. The law always needs a witness that all men through the Law might believe.
4. The law is the light and we are to bear witness of that light.
5. The law is in the world, and the world was made by law, and the world knows not the law.
6. The law so loved the world that it brought us the spirit of Justice, that whosoever believes in Justice shall carry the law; and shall not perish but have everlasting life.
7. Justice has come to fulfill the law and not break it. As long as the Spirit-Man carries the law he shall hold justice upon land and sea.
8. There came a time when the Spirit-Man became civilly dead. Spirit-Man had decided to live like the heathens and not keep the Laws of the One. Spirit-Man fell from the grace and mercy of the Law and became subjects to the heathens instead of the Law.
9. The spirit of Justice has died within the Spirit-Man for over 243 years. Now Justice will rise again, because the Spirit-Man has decided to carry the law of the beginning of the Almighty One.

This book was written and prepared by Eric-Ingram: Bey, the First President of the Moorish National Republic of Peace. L.EYE.P was introduced to Eric-Ingram: Bey in 2016 by brother Cecil Gholston. Eric-Ingram: Bey took the phrase Live in Peace and made it his daily bread. This became a religious way of life to the Honorable Moorish American people of the Moorish National Republic of Peace. Many great Prophets and Leaders such as, Noble Drew Ali, Mohammed, Jesus, Marcus Garvey, El-Hajj Malik El-Shabazz, and those before/after has been an inspiration to Eric-Ingram: Bey. Let this Spiritual Book be guidance unto those who follow spiritually of the Truth. Let all Humanity stand in Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom, Justice. Inshallah!
