TITLE I – CRIMINAL CODE

BRIBERY, GRAFT, AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

CHAPTER 10

Section 1. Bribery of Government Officials and Witnesses

(a) Definitions—For the purpose of this section:

1. The term “government official” means any officer, employee, or authorized agent acting on behalf of the Moorish National Republic of Peace in any official function, including all government agencies and branches.
2. The term “person who has been selected to be a government official” means any person nominated, appointed, or officially informed that they will hold such a position.
3. The term “official act” means any decision, ruling, or proceeding carried out in an official capacity.

(b) Bribery Offenses—Whoever:

1. Directly or indirectly, corruptly gives, offers, or promises anything of value to any government official, with intent to influence an official act;
2. Offers a government official any compensation to commit fraud or to act in violation of their lawful duty;
3. Accepts anything of value as a government official in exchange for performing an official act; shall be fined under this title, imprisoned for up to fifteen years, or both, and may be disqualified from holding any public office.

Section 2. Conflict of Interests and Financial Misconduct

(a) Government officials shall not engage in any business or transaction in which they have a direct financial interest conflicting with their official duties.

(b) Any official who knowingly participates in a government decision that affects their personal financial interest shall be fined under this title and may be removed from office.

Section 3. Influence Peddling and Undue Influence

(a) No government official shall use their position to influence the hiring, contracting, or financial decisions for personal gain.

(b) Whoever engages in influence peddling by offering a bribe, favor, or other incentive to gain favorable treatment from a government official shall be fined under this title and imprisoned for up to ten years.

Section 4. Gifts and Unauthorized Compensation

(a) No government official shall solicit or accept gifts, favors, or compensation from any person or entity seeking to influence government action.

(b) Exceptions include gifts of minimal value received as part of official diplomatic duties.

(c) Violations of this provision shall result in fines under this title and imprisonment for up to five years.

Section 5. Misuse of Government Resources

(a) No government official shall use public funds, property, or resources for personal gain.

(b) Whoever knowingly misuses government funds shall be fined under this title and imprisoned for up to ten years.

Section 6. Penalties and Civil Injunctions

(a) Criminal Penalties—Any violation of this law shall be punishable by:

1. Up to twenty years in prison for severe offenses.
2. Fines up to three times the financial gain obtained through the offense.

(b) Civil Actions—The government may seek injunctions to prevent ongoing violations and recover unlawfully obtained assets.
