

LightBox
Theatre Co.

Presents...

Play by Nick Zagone

LITTLE RED ROBIN HOOD

School Performances

Tuesday, March 19 | Wednesday, March 20 |

Thursday, March 21

9 a.m., 10:30 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. (70-min show)

Cost: FREE for students and teachers*

Performances are held at Carnegie Arts Center, 250 N. Broadway, Turlock

EDUCATORS!

Join our exclusive email list for educators to receive:

- Information on future school performances
- Educational opportunities
- Priority access for reservations

Sign-up now at:
LightBoxForYouth.org/School-Shows

Reserve your date and time by returning the field trip request form as soon as possible. Reservations booked on first come, first served basis.

Download form at LightBoxForYouth.org/School-Shows | Email form to education@lightboxforyouth.org

Little Red Riding Hood was known as saying to the Big Bad Wolf, "Ooh, what big eyes you have!" But Red's eyes are pretty big too, and in Little Red Robin Hood, a new take on an old tale, Red's eyes are now wide open— to injustice! Yes, Grandma had to work from home during COVID and took over Little Red's bedroom as an office and Red's not too happy about it! On top of that Grandma's new boyfriend is none other than one Mr. Wolf. Having had enough, Red has recreated herself into "Little Red ROBIN Hood": social justice warrior! So when she sees books pulled from her neighborhood library she recruits local homeless vet (Little) John on an odyssey you have to see to believe. It's humor, songs and pandemonium in the city of Sherwood Forrest as one little girl becomes a legendary bandit and changes history!

Recommended for grades K-5

*Admission is free for all students, plus one teacher and up to three adult non-teacher chaperones per classroom. Free admission made possible by the Heartland Grant.

For more information about the play, or to inquire about future productions, please contact LightBox Theatre Company at info@lightboxforyouth.org or visit LightBoxForYouth.org