The first half of 2020 is almost complete. With any kind of luck June will turn out to be our first full month of schedule play. Rain early in the year then the Pandemic took a huge chunk out of schedule. If you get the chance, thank Dave Mueller for the tremendous job he did working with the courses. He has had to make unparalleled changes during this period. Thank you for all your efforts in support of the SGAA Dave.

The Out of Town trip was a huge success once again. Thank you, Danny Boyles for putting another great trip together. Smokey Mountain CC is a great venue. If you have never been you owe it to yourself to go.

Although there were many starts and stops due to the Corona Virus, the Member Guest is officially put together. It will be held October 18-21 at The Preserve at Verdae. The Embassy Suites is the hotel, and the Club House is walking distance. Both hotel and golf course are owned by The Hilton Group. The Web.com tour has played this course a couple of times. The Preserve at Verdae is located in Greenville, S.C. off I-85. It is an easy 2 1/2 hour drive for most of us. More information will be forthcoming.

Browns Mill was cancelled in July by the course. Bear Creek has been substituted. Bear Creek, C.C. of Gwinnett, Crystal Lake, Monroe C.C., and Cotton Fields make July a month to look forward to.

Stay safe and come out to play. Hope to see you on the course.

SGAA golf is alive and well!!!

Our courses have done a great job preparing for us and we have done our part in supporting them by having 249 players from June 1 thru June 15th at 4 tournaments. We carded 171 birdies and 4 eagles (Pat Parisi, Ed D'Arata, David Binder and Jim Ruiz). Congratulations to all of you!

Smokey Mountain trip was great even though the last day was rained out. We had two great days of golf and fine fellowship. Gary Holt had an eagle on one of the more difficult holes (most of them were difficult holes on that course). I understand we are confirmed for next year. Thank you Danny Boyles.

Even though we missed a lot of golf the first five months this year we still have a lot in front of us. Member Guest and Lake Guntersville, plus our remaining play dates. If you haven't had the chance to get restarted, we hope to see you back on the tee soon.

Concentration comes out of a combination of confidence and hunger.

Lest we forget, this golf we play is just a game. A game we enjoy as often as we can. These members passed away this year and no longer have that opportunity let us not forget them...

The editor is embarking on an information journey and could use your help.

Many of us use a golf app on our phone when we play golf, and I'm sure you believe yours is the best one out there. Tell us about your favorite golf app and why you like it so we can all benefit from your experience. Just send me an email (steve.puster@gmail.com) and I will feature as many of your favorite apps as space will allow.

Rambling from Tee to Green

Our new "normal" (which means we are flexible in our procedures to accommodate any and all new requirements imposed upon us whether it be governmental or by the courses we play) seems to be workable. I'm sure most of you are like me in that I'm not a big fan of change in procedures at this point in my life. But then again, what's a little change as long as we can get out on the golf course and have some good golf and fine fellowship?

I'm sure the "good" golf is a measure that is relative to our skill level. If I were to score a 90 I'd feel like I had a very good round of golf; however someone of Pat Parisi's skill level wouldn't think it is so good. But no matter how good the round; it seems we all have a pretty good time and enjoy each others fellowship.

That fellowship is easier to achieve when you know who is with you on the course. Of course we know who's in our foursome, but what about the group ahead or behind us?

As we go to print there are 86 members — listed below — who are not included in the Photo Directory on our website. YOU can help make it easier to know these members by sending me a picture of any of these guys you know. Everyone of us had to have a sponsor and all of us play in a group so there's no reason why we can't get the Photo Directory to 100%

Tom Vardase has been most helpful in taking pictures of members and sending them to me with their name for inclusion in the Directory and YOU can do the same. Just take a picture of the player and send it with their name to me via text (678-262-7541) or by email steve.puster@gmail.com.
