

LAST NIGHT'S BAND

If your venue thrives on packed rooms, loud sing-alongs, and people staying for one more drink, Last Night's Band delivers exactly that.

Based out of Kansas City, LNB plays the songs everyone knows and the ones nobody expected to hear live again — the kind that turn a normal night out into a full-blown party.

The set moves from huge alt-rock anthems like Foo Fighters, Green Day, and Jimmy Eat World into crowd-favorite throwbacks from The Beatles, Toto, and beyond — keeping the room engaged from the first song to the last.

Expect:

- big guitars
- tasty harmonies
- constant crowd interaction

Whether it's a packed dive bar, summer patio, festival stage, or private party, Last Night's Band keeps the energy high and the crowd singing, and they will always remember the band from that party last night.
