Herberger Pop-Up 2024

Find My Way

Choreographer: Courtney Ngai

Dancers: Courtney Ngai

Music: Wars - Lord's Child feat Montell Fish, Madison Ryann Ward, Taylor Armstrong + spoken word by Courtney Ngai

*Program Note: "Find my way" is a contemporary/house fusion structured improv solo using the song "Wars" by Lord's Child that includes spoken word from the choreographer. The concept focuses on the imagery where we are all connected to each other through imaginary lines like a subway map. Each person that you connect with has something to exchange with you.

Fog Slipping Into A Thousand Rooms

Choreographer: Angela Rosenkrans in collaboration with the dancers

Dancers: Angelica DeLashmette, Baylie MacRae, Claire Renaud, Juan Carlos Garcia, Janessa Hill, Maddie McDonald, Shauna Meredith, Understudy: Trinity Pringle

Music: Wounded Warrior and Building the Monolith - Reid Willis

*Program Note: The white fog creeps from the cold sea over the city, Over the pale grey tumbled towers, And settles among the roofs, the pale grey walls. Along damp sinuous streets it crawls, Curls like a dream among the motionless trees And seems to freeze. The fog slips ghostlike into a thousand rooms, Whirls over sleeping faces, Spins in an atomy dance round misty street lamps; And blows in cloudy waves over open spaces . . .
