M.O.M.S. PETTING ZOO-BOLIVAR

The Seabreeze News division of "Mom We're Bored" ran across a unique petting zoo in Port Bolivar, Texas called M.O.M.S Petting Zoo. They are located at 900 Madison, just two miles from the ferry.

Brandon and Lynsey Kelly, along with their four year old daughter Willow moved to Bolivar in 2020 from Tennessee to help take care of Lynsey's dad. In January of 2023, they started building the petting zoo and they opened in May of 2023.

The name M.O.M.S, which stands for Mitchells on Madison, is a heartfelt tribute to their late father, Don Mitchell, who passed away in 2021. He instilled in them the importance of believing in themselves and making the most of life.

Upon our arrival at M.O.M.S., a Seabreeze News staffer was handed food for the animals, and off she went - I didn't see her for a while.

Each of the near 80 animals at M.O.M.S. have a name. These are not animals to the Kellys, they are pets. There are 40 chickens in coops and 9 free range chickens that roam the zoo. There is also a rooster "Bachelor Pad." Many of their pets come from Franko Funny Farm Sanctuary out of Baytown.

In residence are three adult pigs and two baby pigs. The baby pigs share a pen with Shelley, a large tortoise that is about 22 years old. All three cuddle up together at night. Among the animals is a donkey named Christmas, two male billy goats named Billy and Peter and three nannies that are milked every day.

The Kellys invite you to come make a day of it, they encourage you to pack a picnic and have lunch in one of the cozy picnic pavilions. On the property is also a little tike play area that includes a sand pit, swings, corn hole, large chalkboard and lots of toys. Who has time to be bored?

When Brandon was asked about hurricane evacuation plans he said, "The pens are built wide enough apart so we can just back the trailers in and load them up and move them to a family member's farm near Dallas."

Three baby goats play on a spool at M.O.M.S. Petting Zoo in Bolivar

There are also products you can buy; 100% goat milk soap, pumpkin bread, sugar scrub and much more. I highly recommend you take a day trip over there to visit M.O.M.S petting zoo.

Admission is $10.00 and kiddos under two are free. Combo feed can be purchased for $5.00. M.O.M.S. is open Thursday - Monay from 10AM - 5PM. See website for more details: www.momspettingzoo.com

CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN MAYES Middleton OUR TEXAS SENATOR

Fellow Texan,

The Legislature will convene in a special session to pass several conservative items important to me and you, including school choice,... each parent has a God-given right to choose the best education for their child.

Our rights as parents come from God, not government. Texas is one of only 18 states where the law positions government to have the final say on a child's education. Thankfully, Gov. Greg Abbott is calling legislators back to Austin for as long as it takes to change that.

Texas boasts some of the best teachers and traditional public schools in the nation and we must trust the parents in every community by empowering them to direct their children's education, with money following the child to the school of their choice.

During COVID, parents had an up-close look into their child's education, exposing the curriculum, lesson materials being taught, and mask mandates. This awakening across the state and country has moms and dads worried about their children's future.

The concept of public dollars being used by taxpayers at private businesses is nothing new. ...In Texas, we must trust parents to make decisions about their child's education. School choice is not a new concept., it has been battle-tested by 32 other states, including North Carolina and rural Arkansas. Now Texas has the opportunity to learn from their successes and challenges, and offer a program that best serves Texas students and parents.

Specifically, education savings accounts (ESAs) are the most ideal form of school choice. Under an ESA program, participants can use the money for private school tuition, tutoring, specialized programs and many other valuable tools. This will place parents fully in control of their child's education. Funding an ESA program does not mean taking dollars away from public schools. During the regular session, the Legislature made a historic investment in public education with the largest increase in public education funding in Texas history. This fall, we will continue to invest in the education of future Texans with an additional multibillion-dollar funding package that, in part, includes teacher pay raises, along with a robust school choice policy. The policies the Legislature will take up can make a radical difference for Texas teachers and students.

Further, school choice programs are widely supported in Texas. Independent polls conducted this year reveal a strong majority of Texans are supportive of school choice programs. Despite the narrative from school choice opponents, a recent University of Texas poll showed that 61% of rural Texans support some form of school choice program.

As a parent to four children, I feel a great responsibility to help spur the change our state's education system desperately needs. We must pass a school choice bill that allows parents to decide which education option works best for their children according to their values.

Republican state Sen. Mayes Middleton represents Senate District 11, serving portions of Brazoria, Galveston and Harris counties. He wrote this column for The Dallas Morning News.

President Lincoln was approached by a woman after a political speech... If you were my husband I would poison your tea. Lincoln replied...if you are my wife I'll gladly drink it.

I went down the street to a 24-hour grocery store. When I got there, the guy was locking the front door. I said, "Hey! The sign says you're open 24 hours." He said, "Yes, but not in a row!"

I was sitting in a bar one day and two really large women came in, talking in an interesting accent. So I said, "Cool accent, are you two ladies from Ireland?" One of them snarled at me, "It's Wales, Dumbo!" So I corrected myself, "My apologies, so are you two whales from Ireland?"

A man asks a farmer near the field, "Sorry sir, would you mind if I crossed your field instead of going around it? You see, I have to catch the 4:30 PM train." The farmer says, "Sure, go right ahead. And if my bull sees you, you'll even catch the 4 PM one."

It was two o'clock in the morning and a husband and wife were sleeping when suddenly the phone rang. The husband picked up the phone and said, "Hello? (paused for a few seconds) How the heck do I know? What am I, the weather man?" and slams the phone down. His wife rolls over and asks, "Who was that?" The husband replies, "I don't know. Some guy who wanted to know if the coast was clear tonight."

"I wonder what Mom and Dad did to fight boredom before the internet?" I asked my 17 brothers and sisters, they didn't know either.

A man came home to find his wife in bed with a stranger. "What the hell are you two doing?" he demanded. His wife turned to the stranger and said, "See, I told you he was stupid."

Give a man a fish, you'll feed him for the day, Teach a man to fish and you'll get rid of him for the whole weekend!

A woman looks in the mirror and says "I look fat" and then asks her husband to give her a compliment. He says, "Ok, you have perfect eye sight."

A violinist went to sleep. His dream was like this: An angel appeared from the skies and told him: "I have two news to tell you. One is good news and the other one is bad news. With which one should I start?" And the violinist replied: "With the good one." The angel continues: "After you die, you will go to heaven. And in heaven you will be sitting besides Paganini, in the heaven's Orchestra." The violinist, stunned with this amazing news, asked about the bad news, and the angel replied: "The bad news is that your first rehearsal starts tomorrow."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I live in Galveston county and I work for a sheriff's department in a completely different county. My neighbor is a shade tree mechanic and usually has a few guys hanging around, no big deal. There is one guy that when he sees my truck he hauls ass. After I get in the house the guy shows back up at the neighbor's. What the hell is wrong with this guy? Is he wanted? Does he think I want to leave work to come home to work? Some people are just strange.

- Dave the PoPo

Dear PoPo,

If I were you I would walk outside every half hour just to mess with the guy. Believe it or not, I have criminals avoid me because they are worried I will put them in the paper.

Dear Editor,

Last weekend the hubby and I were out and about and decided to stop by the Sunset Lounge for a beer and there was a big crowd. The San Leon Cemetery was holding their annual fish fry. We had such a great time! The food was amazing, and the auction was so fun. I have never seen an auction like that.

When hubby and I got home we were wondering why they had a fundraiser for the cemetery. We are new to San Leon. Is that how the cemetery is funded and why? How much are the plots?

- Stacy & Ed

Dear Stacy,

The cemetery annual fish fry is how the cemetery takes care of the mowing and beautifying the cemetery. The land was deeded to San Leon back in 1920 by Joe Eagle. He deeded the property so San Leon would have a cemetery.

A committee decides which projects need to be done. This committee has overseen all the projects you see there. They do a wonderful job. The plots are not for sale, you have a free plot as long as you are a resident of San Leon for 6 months.

San Leon MUD Update

Galveston County Mosquito Control

Galveston County has a fleet of vehicles that are deployed throughout the county to spray for mosquitos. If you have any questions regarding spraying schedule or want to request spraying in your area, you can call them at 800.842.5622 or visit their website to see maps of the locations they've recently sprayed as well as where they intend to spray next.

What is a sewer cleanout?

A sewer cleanout is a PVC pipe and cap, typically 4" in diameter, that intersects with the sewer line that runs from your home to the District's main lines. It provides an access point for plumbers to diagnose and repair backups in the line that connects to the District's main line. It should be kept closed to function properly, as being left open will result in rain water getting into the District's collection system and inundating the wastewater treatment plant with unnecessary flow. If you have any questions about the location of your cleanout or how to replace a damaged cap, just call the office!

San Leon Don's FISHING TIPS

Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

Fishing will be very comfortable if you like cooler weather .

Some flounder are showing up in the Galveston Ship channel, that's a good sign fall is in full swing.

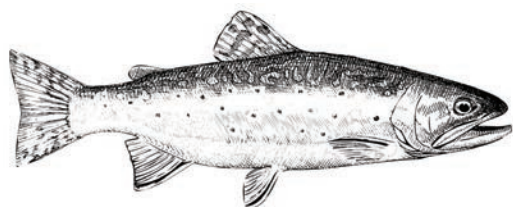

That means the Bolivar North Jetty will be a good place to give it a try. When the tide is right that's a good place to fish if you don't have a boat

They have a nice bait camp that's very handy, run by very nice people. I also like to fish out by the channel around the old oil wells.

Just remember when you go fishing take a kid with you.

Be safe and courteous on the water,

Farewell to San Leon

As this year comes to an end so does my time in Sunny San Leon.

I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude and appreciation to the people of this amazing community. It has been a pleasure to operate a business that served the folks of San Leon, Bacliff and the surrounding area. I did not come into this business with hopes of fulfilling a dream. The opportunity kind of landed in my lap and I figured I would make the best of it so, I started my business and eventually developed a dream.

Unfortunately, as with all dreams we wake up and realize the best laid plans most often do not go as anticipated. Life seems to always find a way of throwing a wrench into those well laid plans. Several in the area already know the property I have been occupying the last seven years has been sold and another business will be doing their thing once my time has concluded. Part of me is sad to be leaving the area and closing my business but Life is short and the only constant is change; and with that, I am looking forward to starting a new chapter – the Senior Chapter. The Retirement Chapter is going to have to wait, this next chapter will inevitably include work. Don't know what that work looks like yet and I am confident that door will open in due time; meanwhile I will focus on the simpler joys in Life!!!

Back to the amazing community of San Leon and its wonderful people, I couldn't have picked a better area. My brother originally introduced me to San Leon years ago. It was Jack's favorite place when he was not Tramping the High Line and the last several years have taught me why. I was extremely fortunate to have meet some of the most beautiful, caring, helpful individuals that I am honored to call my friend, brother, sister – Hell, – down right family. Not only the people but the local businesses and vendors (named in no particular order and sorry if I miss any): Gilhooley's, Beach Pub, Wayno's, Sunset, Pacific Seafood, Topwater, Railean's, Saloon, Hideout, Radio City, Seabreeze, and the Blue Room are like family too: they look out, hang out and take care of each other. If you have not been to any of these places, you are missing out and will find somewhere you fit in – promise.

THANK YOU SAN LEON for everything...

Wishing Everyone:

DEAR ROBBIE

ADVICE FROM A REEL MAN

Dear Robbie,

I am a 22 year old woman. I have been married since June of this year. Last Sunday, during a TV football game my new husband told me to "Shut-up" and if I couldn't quit talking during the game I needed to go to another room or go outside and find something to do. My question is how can our marriage work with his attitude over a stupid football game?

- Brenda in Texas City

Dear Brenda,

Before the game starts, give your man an ice cold beer then get him a fresh one every 15 minutes after. At half-time take off all your clothes and give your man some sex. After the sex, fix your man a sandwich and bring him another beer. Do all of these things without saying a word and your marriage will be just fine.

Dear Robbie,

I am a 26-year-old man engaged to a 25-year-old woman that I love very much.

The problem is my fiancé has multiple personalities and has been in therapy for most of her adult life. She exhibits 5 personalities and you never know which one is going to show up for dinner. My parents think I am in for years of heartache and disappointment and have expressed their feelings that I should get out of the relationship before its too late.

I can't seem to do it.

One night my parents saw her change personalities right before their eyes and it scared them.

Do you think this can work? What do you think?

- Agonizing In Galveston.

Dear Agonizing,

I certainly think you should marry this babe. When you do, you will be able to sleep with 5 different women for the price of one. For your sake I hope one of them is a slut! Good luck, you lucky dog!

Do you need Robbie's Advice?

It's Easy!

Cindy Cunningham

Cynthia Lynn Cunningham, 61, (formerly Carte) of Bacliff, Texas formerly of Morgantown), left this world on Oct. 7, 2023. She was born Feb. 5, 1962, a free spirit who lived life on her own terms. She loved her family, friends and coworkers passionately and was well-loved by them in turn. She was fond of chocolate cake, coffee and loved to read books. She was employed by La Brisa restaurant in Bacliff, Texas, since the day they opened.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Joe Cunningham; her mother, Linda Carte (formerly Smith), and her father, James A. Carte.

She is survived by her brother, Greg Carte; her sister, Tina Carte; sister-in-law, Cathie Falvey; and niece, Emma Carte.

She was well-cared for at the home of her wonderful friend, Larry Jones, as she received hospice care while navigating the many stages of lung cancer. She was visited often by many loving friends, including Maria and her daughter, Andrea, as well as Elaine, Aliya and Cynthia during her illness.

While all hospice staff were wonderful, her first hospice nurse, Shandi, was particularly kind and Cindy thought the world of her.

Cindy's kindness to others and her deep love of all animals (but cats in particular) were unparalleled. She will be dearly missed by all who were fortunate enough to know her.

“(4)Enter His gates with a song of thanksgiving And His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, bless and praise His name. (5) For the Lord is good; His mercy and loving kindness are everlasting, His faithfulness (endures) to all generations.”

– Psalms 100:4-5

HURRICANE SEASON ANIMAL PREPARATION

Your pets are an important member of your family, so they need to be included in your family's emergency plan. To prepare for the unexpected follow these tips with your pets in mind:

Make a Plan

If you have a plan in place for you and your pets, you will likely encounter less difficulty, stress and worry when you need to make a decision during an emergency. If local officials ask you to evacuate, that means your pet should evacuate too. If you leave your pets behind, they may end up lost, injured or worse.

Things to include in your plan:

Have an evacuation plan for your pet. Many public shelters and hotels do not allow pets. Know a safe place where you can take your pets before disasters and emergencies happen.

Develop a buddy system: Plan with neighbors, friends or relatives to make sure that someone is available to care for or evacuate your pets if you are unable.

Have your pet micro chipped. Make sure to keep your address and phone number up-to-date on their chip and include contact information for an emergency contact outside of your immediate area.

Contact your local emergency management office, animal shelter or animal control office to get additional advice and information if you're unsure how to care for your pet in case of an emergency.

Build a Kit for Your Pet

Just as you do with your family's emergency supply kit, think first about the basics for survival, such as food and water. Have two kits, one larger kit if you are sheltering in place and one lightweight version for if you need to evacuate. Review your kits regularly to ensure that their contents especially medicines.

Animal Emergency Kit:

Food: Keep several days' supply of food in an airtight, waterproof container.

Water: Store a water bowl and several days' supply of water.

Medicine: Keep an extra supply of the medicine your pet takes on a regular basis in a waterproof container.

First aid kit: Talk to your veterinarian about most appropriate items for your pet's emergency medical needs.

Collar with ID tag and a harness or leash: Include a backup leash, collar and ID tag. Have copies of your pet's registration information and other relevant documents in a waterproof container and available electronically.

Traveling: bag, crate or sturdy carrier, ideally one for each pet.

Grooming items: Pet shampoo, conditioner and other items, in case your pet needs cleaning up.

Sanitation needs: Pet litter and litter box if needed, newspapers, paper towels, plastic trash bags and household chlorine bleach to provide for your pet's sanitation needs.

A picture of you and your pet together: If you become separated, a photo of you and your pet together will help to document ownership and allow others to help find your pet.

Familiar items: Put favorite toys, treats or bedding in your kit. Familiar items can help reduce stress for your pet.

Tips for Large Animals

If you have pets such as horses, goats or pigs on your property, be sure to prepare before a disaster.

Ensure all animals have some form of identification. Evacuate animals earlier, whenever possible. Map out primary and secondary routes in advance.

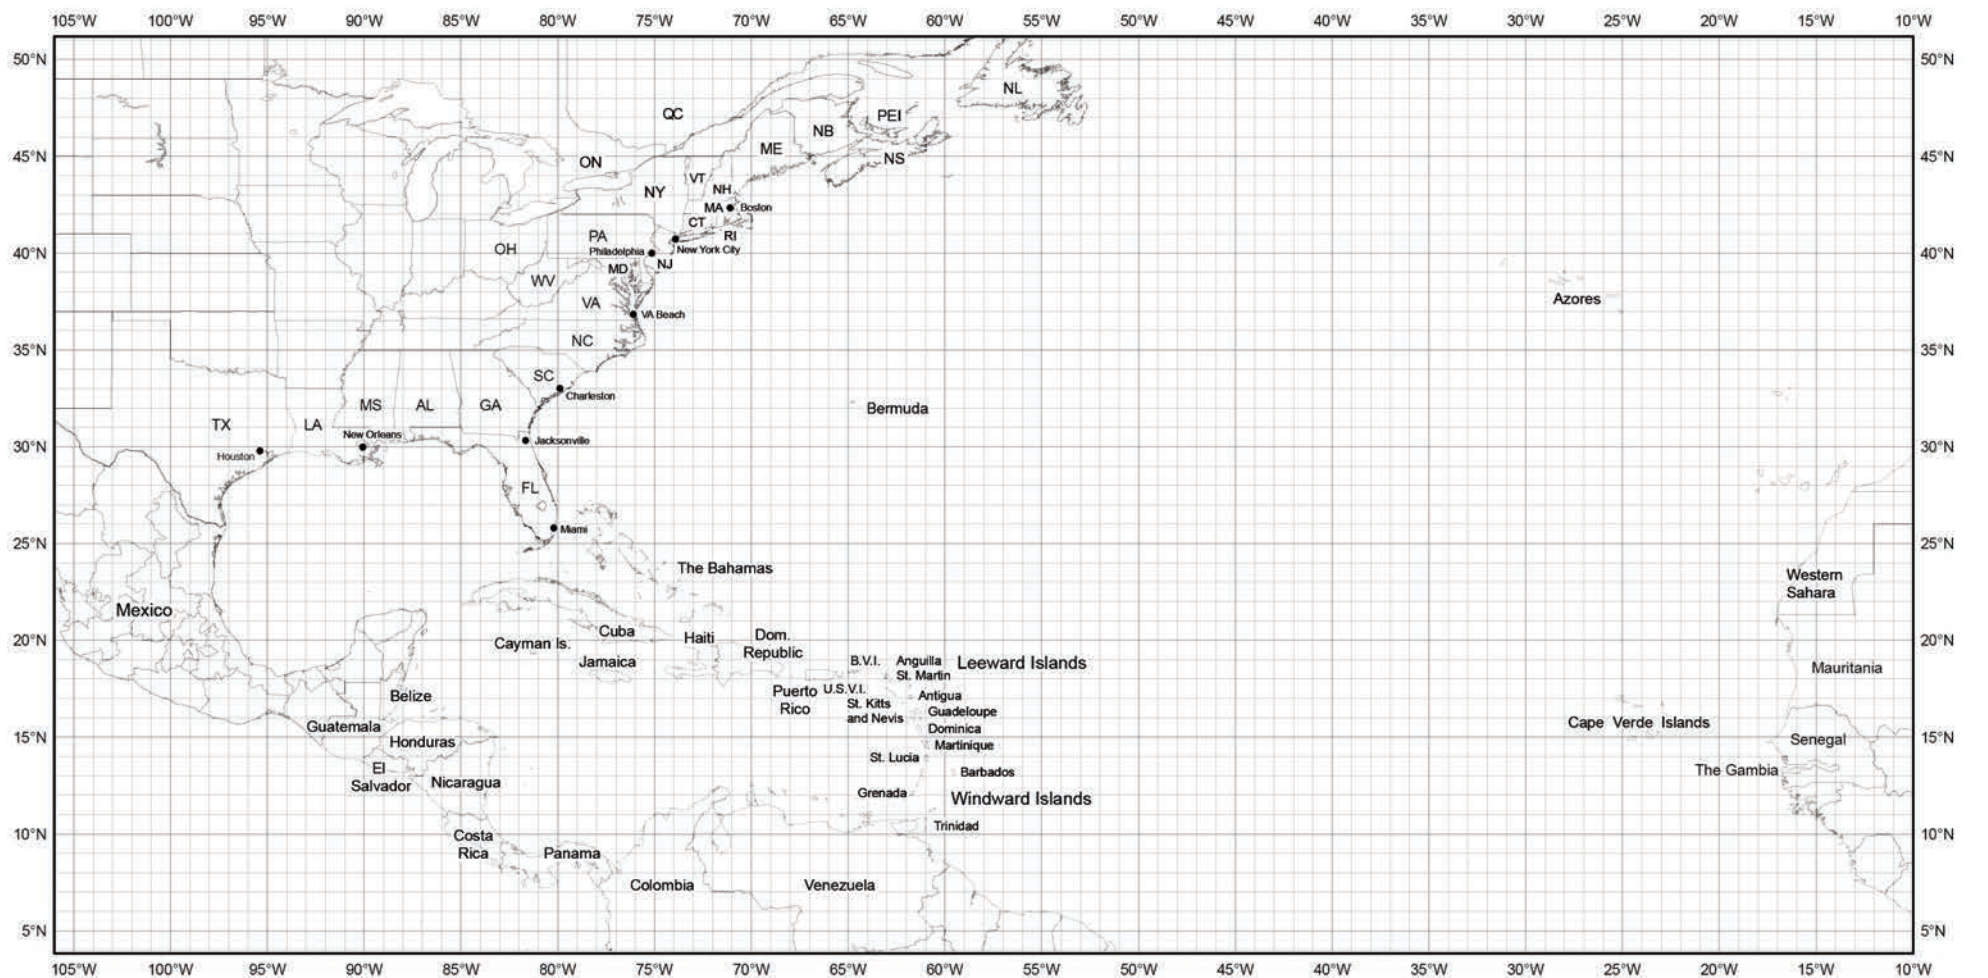

Make available vehicles and trailers needed for transporting and supporting each type of animal. Also make available experienced handlers and drivers.

Ensure destinations have food, water, veterinary care and handling equipment.

If evacuation is not possible, animal owners must decide whether to move large animals to a barn or turn them loose outside.
