Bayside BRIEFS:

RARE EF3 TORNADO CAUSES MAJOR DAMAGE

Clean up efforts have been underway since a powerful EF3 tornado ripped through the area on January 24th, bringing with it winds up to 140 miles per hour. Especially hard hit were the communities of Deer Park and Pasadena. Homes and businesses were leveled, a nursing home evacuated, an animal shelter heavily damaged and a train flipped on its side by the storm. It was on the ground for about 18 miles and is the strongest tornado to hit Harris County in almost 21 years. The City of Deer Park recommends that anyone wishing to donate should first go through nearby disaster relief organizations such as the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Texas Baptist Men Feeding Organization, Adventist Community Services, and Second Harvest Food Banks. The Pasadena Animal Shelter was also heavily and is in need of assistance.

TORNADO RELIEF

The Pasadena Animal Shelter was destroyed by a tornado that hit the city on January 24th. All dogs, cats, and people are safe, but they will need help in the coming days.

HOW CAN I HELP?

• GET INVOLVED: If you can volunteer, foster, donate, or support any other way, go to:

HOUSTONPETSALIVE.ORG/PASADENARELIEFF

• DONATE SUPPLIES: Asbury United Methodist Church is accepting in-kind donations on the shelter's behalf since they are unable to store them at the facility due to the damage.

SHOULD WE DOWNSIZE OR NOT?

So you're thinking about downsizing. The kids are all grown up and out on their own and you don't need all that room. The house is getting older and the maintenance is getting out of hand.

The yard work is taking longer to maintain. You have a four-bedroom house and only use the master bedroom, kitchen, and living room. Besides, you're retired. Why work this hard?

So you and the spouse have been looking at travel trailers, there are many things to consider. Do you buy new or used (a warranty would be nice). Do you pay cash or make payments (if buying new). Do you buy a bumper pull or a fifth wheel? Since you will be living in it full time, what features do you and your spouse need? Oh, and don't forget about the dog. Where will you park the damn thing?

We reached out to The Seabreeze News Department of Downsizing and this is the information they did some research on. First, let's talk about new or used. If you choose new because of the warranty when you have it delivered or you have a truck big enough for you to pick it up yourself, once that travel trailer leaves the lot, (cash or payments) BOOM! there goes the overall warranty. If you have a leak from a slide out, the unit has to go back to the dealer. It could take a day, a week or in some cases over a month. Because you live in the travel trailer, you will have to find a place to stay for maybe a month. Your major appliances have their own warranty. The air conditioner units have about a two-year warranty and cost $1300.00 or more to replace. BUY USED! Take a travel trailer technician with you when you choose a unit. His name will probably be Timmy the TT Tech and he will charge $35.00 an hour. Oh, and when both air conditioners go out in the same week, that technician will charge you $600.00 to install the units and it takes 3 hours. Damn, the kitchen has a leak. Here comes $35.00 an hour Timmy!

You need to be able to move the unit. We live on the coast. During an evacuation there is nobody wanting to move your travel trailer. They are in evacuation mode also, except for Timmy. Yep! Timmy is going to steal what he can! The travel trailer is equipped with battery power for when the power goes out and you will have lights and a refrigerator till the battery dies. NO AC! but you will have propane heat till the battery dies. The thermostat is battery powered. Due to global warming, we are now having about three days a year like a Butternut, Wisconsin winter.

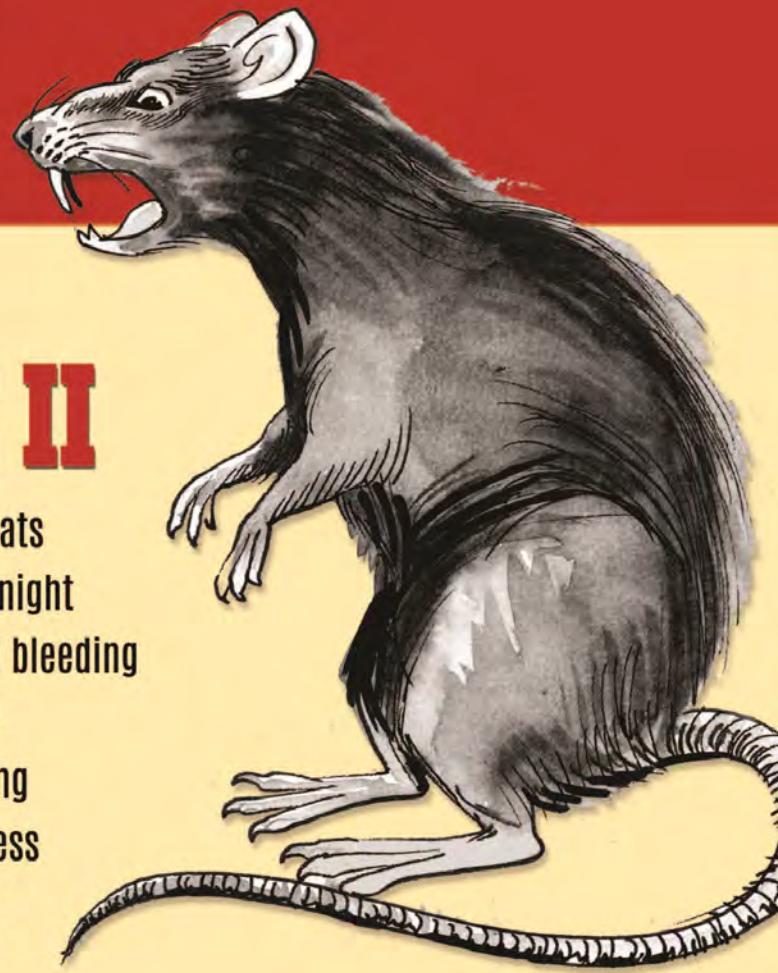

Before making a decision to downsize to a travel trailer, walk into your bathroom and look at that bathtub. After you buy the travel trailer it will cost you about $200.00 to take a bath (hotel) and you will now flush your toilet with your foot! The dog no longer has a yard so get him a pretty leash. It will take your mind off the steaming dog shit in your little plastic bag in your hand.

Where do you park your new home, you might ask yourself. There are so many options. There are small RV parks and there are large ones. The prices range from $400 a month all bills paid to $1000 a month and you pay the electric. The one that is $1000 a month does have a nice pool with a swim up bar, and a nice dog park. You may want to go with the smaller RV park because now that you live in a tin can you will hear every RV door and car or truck door slam. You will hear the little old lady next door calling her little dog Snausage Roll. Rent an RV and make sure you can live like that before you take the plunge!

Letters To The Editor

Ladies, never go to a wedding where you were a stripper at the bachelor party.
Signed,
Advice from H-Town

Dear H-Town,
That was my wedding reception! JK!

Dear Editor,
My husband passed away on December 2nd, 2022. I was against having a benefit for him but the good people at The Hitchcock Post in Hitchcock, Texas insisted on having one to help me with his final expenses. I was overwhelmed by all the people that showed up. I would like to say a big thank you to The Hitchcock Post, their staff and bartenders, Captain Cue and Da Crew for donating their time and the wonderful food that they cooked, as well as everyone that helped organize, donate, participated or attended. This show of love and support truly touched my heart. Thank you.
Ida Schisser

Dear Ida,
Our deepest sympathies on the loss of your husband Carey. We love to see how communities take care of their own.

Dear Readers,

If you want to share a funny story, you can email The Seabreeze News, theseabreeze2020@gmail.com. Let's face it, Dear Steve was a funny man and was loved by many that knew him. We will be sharing some funny facts and quotes from Dear Steve every now and then just to keep everybody on their toes.

Dear Editor,
I live in a small apartment complex in Baytown. It is Section 8 and is full of senior citizens. There is one guy that is non-stop rooting through the trash and pulling out stuff that the manager and other residents throw away. The problem is, if we throw something away, we did it for a reason. I don't want to see the flowerpot that I threw away on his porch.
Signed,
Done with the trash guy in Baytown

Dear Trashy,
That is annoying. I lived in an apartment many years ago and I threw away a chair that my ex insisted on buying me. I got home and, yes, it was on my neighbor's porch. Every time I walked past his porch he reminded me of my crappy ex. I never spoke to the trash man again.

Dear Editor,
My daughter is in junior high school and she is a star player on the volleyball team. Well, she has had a friend all throughout elementary through the eight grade that is a boy. He now identifies as a girl and wants to join the volleyball team. I have not voiced any opinion on the subject because his parents are friends of mine and my wife. I don't want to seem like a jerk. My thoughts are that he is a boy and he can overpower the girls easily. That would be good for my daughter's team but I just think it's not fair all the way around. He may identify as a girl, but come on. My question is: Am I out of touch with the times? Should I just keep my mouth shut?
Signed,
Hand over my mouth in Kemah

Dear Hand,
What a tough subject. If I were you, I would keep my hand over my mouth and this is why. You don't want to make waves with your daughter or your wife over the friendships that have evolved throughout the years. Do nothing. Cindy (the worst player on the team) her drunk ass dad will go to the other volleyball parents and raise hell about the issue and he will form a posse against him joining the team. Problem solved and you are a good dad and husband.

Dear Editor,
I am going to be straight up, I am a stripper and I work in a very classy Gentleman's Club. The reason I have written to The Seabreeze News is to kind of give a little bit of advice for my fellow strippers. I was working one night and a bachelor party came to the club. I went and sat with the party and did some table dances (don't judge) for a few of the men and they were a real fun group of men. I was talking to the (single) best man and we actually had a great conversation, not to mention he was handsome. We had a lot in common. My shift ended at midnight so I went to the dressing room and put on my street clothes (yes, we own jeans) and my favorite waitress came in the back and told me that the best man wanted me to stop by the table before I left. I stopped by the table and he handed me a piece of paper. Yes, it was his phone number. Long story short, I called him and we went to lunch. Yes, he asked me to be his date at the wedding and I said, "Sure. Why not?" Everything was fine till the reception. I noticed some of the ladies staring at me. Yep, the cat was out of the bag. I was one of the strippers at the bachelor party. One drunk girl came up to me and asked where I worked. I replied, "Yellow Cab," and immediately called one.

San Leon Don's FISHING TIPS
Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

As we all know, winter really slows fishing so let's think about what we can do to update our equipment, line cleaning and reorganizing your tackle box. Speaking of tackle boxes, I personally see no reason to have a large tackle box. How many lures can you use on a fishing trip? It's just a lot of extra baggage to get in your way in the boat. When drift fishing, I find a drift sock very helpful to keep your boat straight so everyone fishing will have a better view for casting. Only cost about $50.00 bucks. Hopefully, next report there will be some fish to talk about. Plan to include taking a kid fishing with you this year to learn a good pastime and stay out of trouble.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL

Dear Steve,
I broke up with my boyfriend of six years almost a year ago. All my friends and co-workers are always trying to fix me up, that's nice of them but... I have been seeing someone for almost two years. I don't want to tell anyone that I cheated on my ex because I am scared they will think bad of me. Do you think bad of me?
Stuck in San Leon

Dear Stuck,
I don't think bad of you at all you two-timing slut!

Dear Steve,
My son and daughter each have a pet rabbit in a big hutch outside. When we got our 9 and 10-year old kids the rabbits they begged for, they promised to feed and water them twice a day. Now they fight over who has to take care of them and I end up doing it. How would you handle this problem?
Miffed in Bacliff

Dear Miffed:
How would I handle this? I would have fried rabbit for supper.

Dear Steve,
I went offshore fishing last week out of the Galveston Yacht Basin. There were 8 of us on a private boat and 2 of them went spear fishing. When I got back I was telling my wife about the divers and she asked me a question that I did not know the answer to. I told her I don't know, but would ask you because you have been around the water all of your life. The question is, Steve, why do divers fall backwards into the water off of the side of the boat?
Signed Tim, in Pasadena

Hey Tim,
Why do divers fall backwards into the water? I reckon it's because if they fell forward they would still be in the boat.

Dear Steve,
I am trying to get my family's history traced. I called four businesses on the internet to trace my family tree but the cheapest one is $475 and I can't afford this. Any suggestions?
Signed Tom, in League City

Hey Tom,
I see by your letter that you live in League City. If you want your family tree traced for free, just run for Mayor.

Dear Steve,
I am a 42 year old man. I have been in 3 serious relationships with women in my life. I would like to find a woman around my age with no bad habits. Do you have any ideas?
Signed Jim, in Kemah

Hey Jim,
You want to find a woman with no bad habits? Hell, so would I.

Dear Steve,
My 36 year old husband of three years is acting strange. I am his 4th marriage. The last few months he has been staying out until all hours of the night. He has women calling him on his cellphone all day. He came home last night with glitter on his clothes and no underwear. I asked him where his underwear was and he said the car was making a strange noise and he pulled his underwear off and used them to wipe the oil dipstick while checking the oil. He told me that all the women calling him were just old friends and I shouldn't be so paranoid. Steve, what do you think?
Signed Concerned, in Texas City

Dear Concerned,
What do I think? I think you are a dumb-ass.

Funny Bones

From a passenger ship one can see a bearded man on a small island who is shouting and desperately waving his hands.
 "Who is it?" a passenger asks the captain.
 "I have no idea. Every year when we pass, he goes mad like that."

Two friends are walking their dogs together. One has a big black lab, while the other has a minuscule chihuahua. They pass a bar and the lab owner says, "Let's get a beer."

The chihuahua walker complains, "That would be great, but we can't take our dogs in there." The first responds, "Watch me." The lab owner strolls in with her dog and orders a beer. The bartender tells her, "Sorry, you can't bring your dog in here."

"He's my seeing-eye dog," the woman replies, feigning offense. The bartender quickly apologizes and serves her the beer. The other woman follows, her chihuahua in tow, and orders a beer as well. Again, the bartender says there are no dogs allowed in the bar. "He's my seeing-eye dog," the woman replies. "Yeah, right," the bartender says, "A chihuahua? Give me a break." Without missing a beat, the woman replies, "They gave me a chihuahua?!"

An alcoholic wakes up in prison.
 He asks the first police officer he sees, "Why am I here?"
 "For drinking," replies the officer.
 "Great," says the man, "When do we start?"

 The other 15% made it home.

A cowboy went to a chiropractor complaining of back trouble. The Doc looked him over and could see he'd suffered some rough life. "Have you been in any accidents lately?" he asked. The cowboy thought about it for a moment, "No, no real accidents, I guess. Well, I been kicked by a mule last week, yesterday I got throwed by my mustang and last month a got bit by a snake." "You don't call those accidents?" said the doctor with incredulity. "Nah. Pretty sure they meant to do it on purpose."

The math teacher saw that little Johnny wasn't paying attention in class. She called on him and said, "Johnny, what are 2 and 4 and 28 and 44?" Little Johnny quickly replied, "NBC, FOX, ESPN and the Cartoon Network!"

A blonde wanted to go ice fishing, so after getting all of the right tools, she headed toward the nearest frozen lake. After getting comfy on her stool she started to cut a circular hole in the ice. Then from the heavens a voice boomed, "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!" Startled, the blonde moved further down the ice, poured a thermos of hot chocolate, and started to cut yet another hole in the ice. The voice boomed, "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!" This time quite scared, the blonde moved to the far end of the ice. Then she started another hole and once again the voice said, "THERE ARE NO FISH UNDER THE ICE!" The very scared blonde raised her head and said, "Is that you, Lord?" The voice answered, "NO, IT IS THE MANAGER OF THE ICE HOCKEY RINK!"

I tried to pay my taxes to the IRS with a smile.
 Turns out they prefer money.

A priest walked into a barber shop in Washington, D.C. After he got his haircut, he asked how much it would be. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the Lord." The next morning, the barber came to work and there were 12 prayer books and a thank you note from the priest in front of the door.

Later that day, a police officer came in and got his hair cut. He then asked how much it was. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the community." The next morning, he came to work and there were a dozen donuts and a thank you note from the police officer.

Then, a Senator came in and got a haircut. When he was done he asked how much it was. The barber said, "No charge. I consider it a service to the country." The next morning, the barber came to work and there were 12 Senators in front of the door.

San Leon MUD Update

What is a MUD?

Municipal utility districts (or MUDs) are local governmental entities established by the State of Texas to provide public services to communities that are outside city limits. MUDs have a defined boundary and are typically established through an election process, though some (including San Leon) are established through legislative action. There are various types of districts with different purposes: water control and improvement, groundwater conservation, levee improvement, stormwater control, irrigation, and many more. Fun fact: San Leon was established by the legislature with the name "San Leon Municipal Utility District" but with the responsibilities and authority of a WCID (water control and improvement district).

Trash and Recycling Issues

The District is aware of the recent decline in service from Texas Pride and will be meeting with them to review our contract and ensure appropriate levels of service occur going forward.

Dates to Remember

February 2 – Groundhog Day
 February 14 – Valentine's Day
 February 20 – Presidents' Day
Office Closed
 February 21 – Monthly District Meeting at 6:30 PM

It's Time Texas Challenge

The San Leon MUD is participating in the It's Time Texas Community Challenge, an eight-week health competition that's free to join. Texans across the state will compete and earn points by eating healthy, being active, and staying hydrated! To learn more, visit ittcommunitychallenge.com

PAMELA FRENCH & Mom BENEFIT FUNDRAISER

Saturday, March 4, 2023 ~ Starts 12 Noon
THE MOON, 1201 S 16th, LaPorte, TX
Silent Auction + Live Auction 2 pm

After battling breast cancer for 2 years and finally ringing her bell of remission the unthinkable happened. On November 26th, while celebrating Thanksgiving, Pamela lit a candle that set off an explosion that could be heard and felt for miles. Pamela and her mother Patricia were life-flighted to the hospital for emergency care for burns. Her aunt was released but Pamela, who remained in a medically induced coma, and her mother required more care.

After months of surgeries and skin grafting and so many prayers, Pamela will be released from the hospital sometime in February, date pending. The road ahead is a long one. She has many more surgeries and skin grafting. In addition, their home of many years and all belongings was a complete loss. Family and friends are pulling together to help put back together some of the pieces and humbly ask you join us!

PORT BOLIVAR MARDI GRAS PARADE 2023

Families and friends line Hwy 87 in Crystal Beach, Texas as the sun lights the sky for their location to watch the Annual Mardi Gras Parade, yearly February 18, 2023, with a start time of 11:30am. The route runs from Bolivar Beach Club & RV Resort where the float judging takes place before the parade starts and travels to Cobb Real Estate where it ends at Gregory Park. Jeeps, Golf Carts, Trucks, and Trailers are decorated in the Mardi gras style as riders throw beads, koozies, candy, and more, from the floats and vehicles as they pass. Kids and Adults love it yearly and many make it a yearly trip to Bolivar Peninsula.

KEMAH YACHTY GRAS BOAT PARADE

Come to Kemah for America's Largest Mardi Gras Boat Parade, the Yachty Gras Parade! Festivities begin at 7:00pm on February 11th in the Clear Lake Channel and will pass by the Kemah Boardwalk, throwing beads to revelers along the way.

GALVESTON MARDI GRAS

February 10 – 21, 2023. At Mardi Gras! Galveston, the extravagance found in Texas's largest Mardi Gras celebration starts with the beads! More than 3 million beads will be thrown at Mardi Gras! Galveston and that's just the beginning of the elaborate parades, headliner performances, family events, feasting, and other festivities that come with hosting Mardi Gras island style.

SAN LEON CEMETERY COMMITTEE MEETING

The San Leon Cemetery Committee meets on the 3rd Wednesday of each month. The February meeting will be held at Pacific Seafood in San Leon at 7:00 p.m. Anyone who would like to make a donation to the cemetery may send a check to: San Leon Cemetery, P. O. Box 782, Bacliff, Texas 77518.

HOWARD SEWELL

Howard Glenn Sewell, born November 23, 1931, to Howard and Covie Sewell in Boling, Texas. He left this life on December 24, 2022, in the comfort of his home surrounded by his children. He is preceded in death by his parents, wife Isabel Sewell; son Howard Dale Sewell and wife Peggy; daughter Brenda Pinson and husband Terry; Grandson Robert B. Stevenson; Granddaughter Sonja Beasley; and Great Grandson Jacob Hinkle. He is survived by daughters Glenda Womack (Cecil), Lisa Strom (Kenneth) and son Harold Sewell. Grandchildren Valli Stevenson, Kelli Hughes (Monte), Holli O'Callaghan (Brent), Misty Davis, Tammy Hinkle (Greg), Katrina Womack; Leon Taylor, Heather King (Anthony), Kenneth Strom Jr., Jennifer Strom; Michael Pinson (Kathy) and Tracy Pinson. Great Grandchildren Tristan, Gavin, Quinten and Kierstyn O'Callaghan; Kaitlyn and Jordan Hughes; Bruce Sitki, Alexis Willis (Devin), Asia Snow, Jared and Kristina Hinkle, Samantha Cody; Ashley and Tyler (Jazelynn) Beasley; Camden Womack, Ramzey and Sonja Ferguson; Meriah Alley, Lorelai and Emily Powers; Erin and Jared King, Nicholas McKee and Levynella Strom; Garrett and Rae Lynn West and Hayden Pinson. Great Great Grandchildren Arden and Josie O'Callaghan; Shelby, Kaydence, and Gabriella Willis, Bayleigh, Bryan, Ayden, Harleigh, and Ryleigh Cody, Gregg, Nathan, and Mia Beasley; and William DePascal.

Glenn grew up in Orchard, Texas. He played football in high school and graduated from Orchard High School. He knew every back road in the area and always took the scenic route. He loved anything western; his boots, his hats, novels, music, tv show and the western shirts his mother made him. Glenn saw Isabel walking down the sidewalk in Eagle Lake. He asked her out on a date and two weeks later, on January 5, 1953, they were married. They were devoted to each other for over 70 years. Glenn was a dedicated and loving husband to the very end of his life to Isabel. When life got hard, they never gave up on each other. Their love stood the test of time and was truly an inspiration to anyone who met them. Glenn was a father and Pepa. He was a family man all of his life. His face lit up whenever he was surrounded by his family. He greeted us all with a hug and a big kiss.

Glenn was a spiritual man. He was a lay-preacher for many years and carried his bible with him everywhere in case somebody needed a prayer. Glenn was an avid gardener. He took pride in his fruitful gardens. He was a beekeeper. He raised dogs, cats, chickens, rabbits and homing pigeons. He had a love for rocks in many forms. He worked with leather making beautiful belts and bolo ties. He made knives and fishing lures. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. After retirement from Brown and Root as a paint supervisor he acquired a love for wood working. His artistic ability to turn a trunk of a Christmas tree into a beautiful walking cane, was just the beginning. He displayed his artistic ability through many beautiful pieces steaming from walking canes, bowls, plaques as well as many other items. He was an award-winning carver and a founding member of the Galveston County Wood Carvers. Wood carving led to art in many forms including charcoal drawings and various painting techniques. Glenn being the family man he was, left his home to care for his parents in their final years. He sacrificed being close to his immediate family to meet the needs of his parents. Family always came first to Glenn, and it shows by the love that surrounded him his entire life and especially in his final days. He will be greatly missed and forever loved by everyone who knew him.

ISABEL CECILIA SEWELL

Isabel Cecilia Mica Sewell was born on September 21, 1934, to Cyril and Frances Mica in Flatonia, Texas. She left this life on December 22, 2022, in the comfort of her home surrounded by her husband and children. She is preceded in death by her parents and siblings, son Howard Dale Sewell and wife Peggy; daughter Brenda Pinson and husband Terry; Grandson Robert B. Stevenson; Granddaughter Sonja Beasley; and Great Grandson Jacob Hinkle. Isabel was the youngest of 7 children. She was raised on a farm in Fayette County. She came from a family rich in Czech heritage. Though the years she mastered baking Kolaches with her mother. They quickly became her signature dish and only made them for family holidays. Isabel was married to the love of her life, Glenn for almost 70 years. Their devotion to each other and their family held true even in the hardest of times. Isabel spent her life loving and caring for Glenn all the way until the very end. Isabel and Glenn raised 5 children. Isabel loved to take her children to their private beach on the bay. She loved to tell them ghost stories, read them books and watch them play outside. Being a mother was one of the most important parts of her life. Isabel was a nurses aid while going through nursing school to become an LVN. She worked at various nursing homes and as a private nurse sitter. Before her retirement from Manor Care nursing home, she was the evening charge nurse of the Alzheimer's Unit for several years. She was loved and respected by the staff, residents and their families. Isabel loved crocheting beautiful blankets. She made blankets for all of her grandchildren and many other children to come home from the hospital wrapped up in. She crocheted doll clothes for the baby dolls she gave her granddaughters every Christmas Eve. Christmas was one of her favorite times of the year. Each family member had Christmas stockings made with her loving hands. She also loved to embroidery quilt squares. She also loved to read historical novels and her bible every day. Mema cooked to feed everyone, she always made sure that no one went hungry. Mema loved to go shopping, and all of her grandchildren loved to go "to town" with her. Evening coffee was a must for whoever was visiting. She loved to be with her family; whether it was outings to the zoo, Moody Gardens, AstroWorld, road trips, family reunions or just sitting around her kitchen table. Spending time with family was everything to her. Isabel was the matriarch of our family. Her strength was passed down to every generation of women that succeed her. She was a Moma and Mema to the very end.
