GOODBYE CALIFORNIA...HELLO TEXAS

Sky high taxes, excessive housing costs, sanctuary cities, and generally just going to hell in a handbasket are just some of the reasons the U.S. Census Bureau is reporting that Texas is the most popular destination for people and businesses moving from California.

They cite the business-friendly environment and wonderful tax situation of no state income tax compared to the 13.3% state income tax in California, the highest in the nation. Computer technology giant Oracle has moved its headquarters from Redwood City to Austin. The move came just days after Tesla CEO Elon Musk announced he'd be moving from Los Angeles to Austin. Other tech giants that have recently left California include Silicon Valley pioneer Hewlett-Packard Enterprise and newly public software giant Palantir along with thousands of individuals and families.

Texas has long been known for its friendly and welcoming nature, but there are some ways to make relocating to the Lone Star State a much easier transition. Texans love their giant oversized trucks. The attractiveness of a parking space is not calculated by its proximity to an entrance but to the amount of shade that is available. Shady and close is ideal, but if you have to choose, pick shady because if you don't, the inside of your car will feel like the pits of hell. You will need to develop a sixth sense about when fellow drivers are about to change lanes because no one uses turn signals. Turn signals are for rookies. The real speed limit is five miles higher than the sign says, unless you're driving through a speed trap. In that case, the real speed limit is five miles lower and you need to sit at stop signs for a full minute to keep from getting a ticket.

Texans also love their food. While there are some pockets of vegetarians, vegans, pescatarians, flexitarians, and turkitarians, they are few and far between mostly located in and around Austin and parts of Houston. The 5 major food groups for most Texans are bar-b-que, Mexican food, chicken fried steak, Blue Bell, and steak (preferably in the shape of Texas). If you are getting a burger from the Official Fast Food Burger Joint of Texas, it is perfectly acceptable to pronounce it as "Water-burger." The official scent of Christmas in Texas is not pumpkin spice, cinnamon or peppermint. It is chicken, beef, and pork tamales.

Weather is always a crap shoot in Texas. There are more than four seasons and it's not unusual for one or more of them to occur in one day or week. They are: Winter, Fool's Spring, Second Winter, Spring of Deception, Third Winter, The Pollening, Actual Spring, Hell's Front Porch, False Fall, Second Summer, and Actual Fall. Other important seasons are Football, Hunting, Hurricane, and Flu.

It is thought that such a large influx from the Golden State is an indication that Texas will become Californicated. That Texas is in danger of large bands of roving liberals inundating The Lone Star State demanding safe spaces, entitlements, and the use of the proper pronouns. This is probably unlikely for now. Liberal Californians will flock to liberal sections of Texas and Conservative Californians, of which there are many, will lean towards conservative parts of the state. As mentioned, Texas is known for its hospitality. There's room for everybody. However, Texans shouldn't become complacent about their conservatism. California, too, was once solidly red.

SAN LEON VETERAN'S DAY CELEBRATION GIVES BACK

Proceeds from American Legion Post 291's Veteran's Day Celebration were distributed last month. Post Commander Rickey Wood, Sons Commander Jody Ward, and Post Finance Officer John Kelly presented the Dickinson Educational Foundation with a check for $4,000 to fund the Ronald Hillman Scholarship, which will provide a $1,000 scholarship each year to a Dickinson High School graduating senior. Ronald Hillman was a DHS graduate who was killed while serving in Vietnam. A check was also presented to the San Leon Volunteer Fire Department in the amount of $3,000.

The Dwane Caldwell Military Scholarship and Charity Foundation fundraiser scheduled for this year has, unfortunately, been postponed until sometime in the first quarter of this year. Stay tuned for further updates on that event.

Thanks to all who participated in such a worthy cause.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Why do I have to register my new dish rack at a .com site for my five-year warranty? Why can't I use my receipt as proof of when I purchased it?

Signed,

Tired of .coms in Kemah

Dear Tired,

They want you to register your dish rack on a .com site so they can send you emails to try to get you to buy more products from them. With that being said, what the hell kind of dish rack comes with a five-year warranty? Please do not register your dish rack because next month you will get a letter about the warranty on your damn butter dish.

Dear Editor,

I am new to San Leon and I was so impressed with the golf cart parade and the kids toy drive at Fire Department. It was awesome and completely complied with social distancing. What a great community! Do you do this every year?

Signed,

In awe in San Leon

Dear Awe,

The San Leon community has been doing this golf cart parade and toy drive for many years and intend to keep it going for many more. Different people at different times have spearheaded the effort with great success each time. Local businesses as well as members of this great little town contribute to the drive with toys, bikes, cash donations, and volunteering. Keep your eyes peeled next winter and come on out and join in. It's very rewarding.

Dear Editor,

I am a little concerned about being on Facebook. I will Google something and the next time I go on Facebook I see an ad for the same exact thing. This is a little alarming that companies watch my social media accounts.

Signed,

Big Brother is watching in Santa Fe

Dear Watching,

Yes, Big Brother, a/k/a Big Tech IS watching...and listening. I have 2 phones, one is work and one is personal. I never google personal things on my work phone. My brother sent me a text on my work phone about my mom's ashes. When I went on FB today there was an ad for necklaces for ashes. Super creepy. Also, Google search uses your microphone 24/7 without your permission. Try banning it by going to app settings.

From the Editor:

Wow! What a year 2020 was! Thank you, sweet baby Jesus it's over. Since March 2020, we have experienced a complete shutdown of our country. We have had nothing on the news but the COVID-19 a/k/a "The Rona."

When Dear Steve bought over 50 gallons of water for his house, I told him he was overreacting. Well, he wasn't. I would have never thought that I would drive on a five-lane freeway in South Houston and maybe see only 10 cars. I remember when China had the swine flu or some kind of crap like that. I watched the news and all the people were wearing masks. I thought to myself who in the world could do that? It turns out it's me! I have stayed totally in compliance with all the rules. I never thought my hands would see more alcohol than my liver! When the country shut down, I was an essential worker. I masked up and wore hand sanitizer around my neck. I have disinfecting wipes in my car so I could wipe down the gas pump handle before I touched it. When Dear Steve left me the paper my buddy and I decided that we would not cover the corona crap, but here I am.

I have watched a phycologist and his teacher wife that had to work from home. I have watched several bar owners close their bars with no income going into their households and employees for months! The Seabreeze kept some ads in the paper knowing they weren't making money. I hope that with the new medicines and vaccines we can all get back to normal in 2021. And by "normal" I mean regular normal, not new normal.

As Mama would say Dueces 2020!

Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

This is definitely our winter fishing mode and if you can tolerate this weather, you can catch flounder or pan fish. Some locations like the North Jetty, Galveston Channel or the Barge graveyard at the tip of Bolivar are great places to fish.

Be sure to wear warm clothes as it will be colder out in the boat or bank than it is at home. Be sure you have enough life jackets for everyone aboard, preferably Type 1.

Wishing all a very Happy New Year! If you'd like pictures of your catch in the paper, send to www.theseabreeze2020@gmail.com

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

TIPS FOR STARTING THE NEW YEAR OUT RIGHT

Ladies, as we enter a new year of being better wives, I thought we would begin with some simple reminders.

For most of you reading this article, deer season is coming to an end. This is an emotional time for your husband, especially if you have a sissy-boy husband who was unable to make a kill. If you have one of these sissy boys, under no means mention or say the words to him, "Maybe next year." Also, never contradict him in public if you hear him telling a hunting story that you know is not true.

For those of you who were fortunate to have a husband who brought home a good harvest, you should have already processed and have ready the means to fry him up some backstrap with the works or grill up some sausage. Eating his harvest will remind him of what a skilled hunter he is and leave him feeling like a man with a full stomach.

Remember not to start the New Year out nagging about things that need to be done around the house. You have already told him. He does not need reminded every two weeks. Simply use some of your mad money and hire a handyman. Make sure to hire someone easy on the eyes. This might jog your husband's memory in the future to get those things done in a timely fashion.

And the best tip of all to start your new year? They say the root of most fights in a marriage boils down to sex or money. January brings with it the stress of more bills. Be prepared to help ease your husbands' financial burden stress by giving him more sex. I know many of you have full plates with work, the kids, house cleaning, and so forth, but really ladies, with a little planning that extra 10 minutes is not too much to ask to keep your husband focused and happy.

I hope this helps you all start 2021 off with a bang. Remember to stop by The San Leon Liquor Store and get you and your husband a Dear Steve's Wife Training School shirt.

His buddies will be envious!

MORE IMPROVEMENTS TO SAN LEON CEMETERY

Thanks to the continued generosity of the San Leon community, the cemetery's old benches have been replaced by new, longer, marine-grade Polywood benches. These sturdy and weather resistant replacements also offer much needed additional seating. These new additions are examples of the Cemetery Committee's goal to continuously improve the cemetery.

FYI:

The Cemetery Committee will be organizing a clean up day the first weekend of February (weather permitting – volunteers welcome). Although the Committee is sensitive to sentimental items left for loved ones, over time, these items tend to break down, rip, become home to ant hills and/or are blown free by the wind. This makes it difficult to properly mow and maintain the property. Your help is needed to keep gravesites tidy, which includes leaving a minimum of items. Cemetery Rules were created partly to help families identify those items which are allowed and those that are not. Please take a minute to review these rules which are posted on the cemetery bulletin board. A Committee Member contact list is also posted so please feel free to reach out to one of them if you have any questions or concerns.

San Leon is a wonderful place, and the San Leon Cemetery is part of what makes us special. Thank you for helping us keep it this way.

**NOTE: The Committee reserves the right to remove objects based on safety, maintenance, and appearance.

Thank you to Bryan Manzella for assembling, delivering, and installing the new benches.

Funny Bones

A boy with a monkey on his shoulder was walking down the road when he passed a policeman who said, "Now, now young lad, I think you had better take that monkey the zoo." The next day, the boy was walking down the road with the monkey on his shoulder again, when he passed the same policeman. The policeman said, "Hey there, I thought I told you to take that money to the zoo!" The boy answered, "I did! Today I'm taking him to the movies."

A wealthy old lady decides to go on a photo safari in Africa, taking her poodle along for company. One day the poodle starts chasing butterflies and before long, discovers that he's lost. Wandering about, he notices a hungry-looking leopard heading rapidly in his direction. The poodle thinks, "Uh, oh!" Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching cat. Just as the leopard is about to leap, the poodle exclaims loudly, "Boy, that was one delicious leopard! I wonder if there are any more around here?" Hearing this, the leopard halts his attack in mid-strike, a look of terror comes over him and he slinks away into the trees. "Whew!" says the leopard. "That was close! That poodle nearly had me!" Meanwhile, a monkey who had been watching the whole scene from a nearby tree, figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the leopard. So off he goes, but the poodle sees him heading after the leopard with great speed, and figures that something must be up. The monkey soon catches up with the leopard, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself with the leopard. The leopard is furious at being made a fool of and says, "Here, monkey, hop on my back so you can watch me chew that poodle to bits!" Now, the poodle sees the leopard coming with the monkey on his back and thinks, "What am I going to do now?" but instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn't seen them yet, and waits until they get just close enough to hear. "Where's that damn monkey?" the poodle says. "I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another leopard!"

If con is the opposite of pro, then is Congress the opposite of progress?

A farmer is walking with a prospective buyer when they see a beautiful pig in the yard, except it has a wooden leg. The buyer asks, "Why the wooden leg?" The farmer replies, "That pig is so smart, I let it drive the kids to school."
"Great, but why the wooden leg?"
"The pig is so smart it has a degree in horticulture and philosophy."
"Amazing! But why the bloody wooden leg?"
"Well when you have a pig that smart you don't eat it all at once!"

How do you fix a woman's watch? You don't. There is a clock on the oven.

Two guys are at a bar on the roof of a hotel. One guy says to the other guy, "I'll bet you a beer that I can jump off this building, let this wind take me all the way around this building, and I'll land back up here." The other guy says, "You're on." The first guy jumps and, sure enough, he goes around the building and lands back on the roof. "You owe me a beer," he says. He goes on to perform the trick several more times, collecting free beers, until the second guy decides he's going to try it too. He stands on the edge, looking forward to a free beer from the first man, and jumps off, dying when he slams into the pavement below. The bartender says to the first man, "You sure are an asshole when you're drunk, Superman."

A blonde and her husband are lying in bed listening to the next door neighbor's dog. It has been in the backyard barking for hours and hours. The blonde jumps out of bed and says 'I've had enough of this,' and she goes downstairs. The blonde finally comes back up to bed and her husband says 'The dog is still barking, what have you been doing?' The blonde says 'I put the dog in our backyard. Let's see how THEY like it!'

San Leon MUD Update

Infrastructure Improvements Update

Last year, we notified the public that we were pursuing two funding opportunities for various infrastructure improvements, chief of which was upgrading our 2" water mains to 6" lines, facilitating additional development as well as the installation of fire hydrants on those lines. In early December, the state regulatory agency (TCEQ) acknowledged receipt of our letter requesting reallocation of previous bond funds for these improvements. They stated our request had passed an administrative review and has advanced to a technical review. Once we receive approval, we'll be able to utilize existing bond funds to improve much of our distribution system to the benefit of the community. We have also submitted three major improvement projects to a Federal grant program, though we're not anticipating a response on our application until later this year due to the volume of applicants and the additional administrative reviews that accompany Federal funding. We were assisted in the application process by Ardurra, a grant administration firm who is confident that our projects met the scope and style of projects that typically receive funding. Any updates on these funds will be relayed to the community as we find out!

Dates to Remember

January 1 – New Year's Day

January 18 – Martin Luther King Jr. Day

January 19 – Monthly District Meeting at 6:30 PM

The District will be evaluating state and local recommendations to determine whether this month's meeting will be held in person or virtually; keep an eye on our website and social media as we get closer. In the interest of public safety, we will not be holding townhalls until the COVID crisis has subsided.

Conservation Tip of the Month

Don't forget! The MUD meetings are open to the public & are typically held on the third Tuesday of every month at 6:30 PM. Agendas can be found three days before the meeting at the MUD office or online at www.slmud.org

BAIT BUTLER™

"The Gift That Keeps On Giving"

Revolutionary NEW
Live Bait Retrieval System

STOP FISHING FOR BAIT. START FISHING SMARTER.
Integrated Lid System Fetches Live Bait and Brings it to the Surface for Easy Selection.

The revolutionary new live bait retrieval system – the Bait Butler™ solves the #1 problem of fishing with live bait: fishing for bait in order to bait the hook to fish. Yes, it's a mouthful. And a hassle. It shouldn't be. THE STRUGGLE STOPS HERE.

The unified lid system designed to fit any standard 5-gallon bucket (not included) features a built-in pull rod activated net that quickly and efficiently collects bait and brings it to the surface for easy selection. The Bait Butler conveniently combines the net, lid, and aerator into one unified system that can easily be detached for refreshing the water without losing bait.

PATRICK ANTHONY CONNOR

Patrick Anthony Connor of Santa Fe, Texas went home December 22, 2020 at the age of 57. He was born January 16, 1963 in Austin, Texas to John and Diane Connor.

He grew up in Pasadena, Texas and graduated from Sam Rayburn High School in 1981. Even after high school, he remained close friends with many of his former classmates. He worked for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for over 30 years. Most of his career was spent working at the Darrington Unit in Rosharon, Texas. He also worked at the Wayne Scott and Clemons unit. It was during this time that he became known as "Big C". After his retirement, he started building fishing rods as a hobby. This soon became more than a hobby. Pat built beautiful fishing rods and took so much pride in each and every build to make sure it was perfect.

Pat loved being outdoors. Hunting, fishing and spending time with family and friends in his shop made him happy. He was known by a few nicknames or titles but the one he loved the most was being called Grandpa. For those who knew him, you know how special he was. He was ruff and tough on the outside but had a heart of gold. He was loved by so many and will be greatly missed.

Pat was preceded in death by his Dad, John Connor. He is survived by his wife, Cheryl Connor; Mom, Diane Connor; Sister Janet Kolaski and husband Christopher; Daughter Cheyenne Barham and husband Heath; Son Christopher Connor; Stepson Robbie Sandino and wife Celia; Granddaughter Nayeli Sandino and numerous family and friends.

Rejoice in the Lord always and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

TALES FROM CAMP FOLLY

This cat was the mascot of Camp Folly, the old fishing camp and bar owned by Carl and Ann Anderson. It was located just beyond where the Sunset is now on Dickinson Bay. I don't remember the cat's name and he didn't bother anyone but kept the rats under control.

This picture was made one evening at sunset in 1973 or 1974 on his perch atop the jukebox. Galveston County hardly ever came to San Leon in those days so on Sunday morning if you needed beer to go fishing, just take what you needed and pay when you returned after noon or the next day.

There were no locks on the doors. Heck, I'm not even sure if there were doors. Honest people back then. — Don Wimberly

San Leon Poem Written by Placide Garney (a/k/a Duchess) sometime in the 1960s

We’re not a town
We’re not a city
Some would say we’re not even pretty
(But they don’t live here)

We have our firemen
Who number a few
They’re often called “The one-armed crew”
(But they make it safer living here)

We have the Juniors
And they’re not lazy
Give them a sack and they fight like crazy
(They’re growing up here)

We have the Chamber
And the Legion
Post 291, in the region
(They help us to live here)

We also have
The Ladies’ Auxiliary
Some say we are kind of silly
(But we try to help living here)

We have places to dine
And places to dance
We also have places to give thanks
(That’s part of living here)

The shell dredges came
And gave us some grief
They messed up all of our oyster reefs
(We wish they hadn’t come here)

We have lots of water
Where you can swim or sink
The controversy is over that which we drink
(Someday it might get here)

A stranger came along
And I can’t see
Why he gave our girls the initial “B”
(They couldn’t live here)

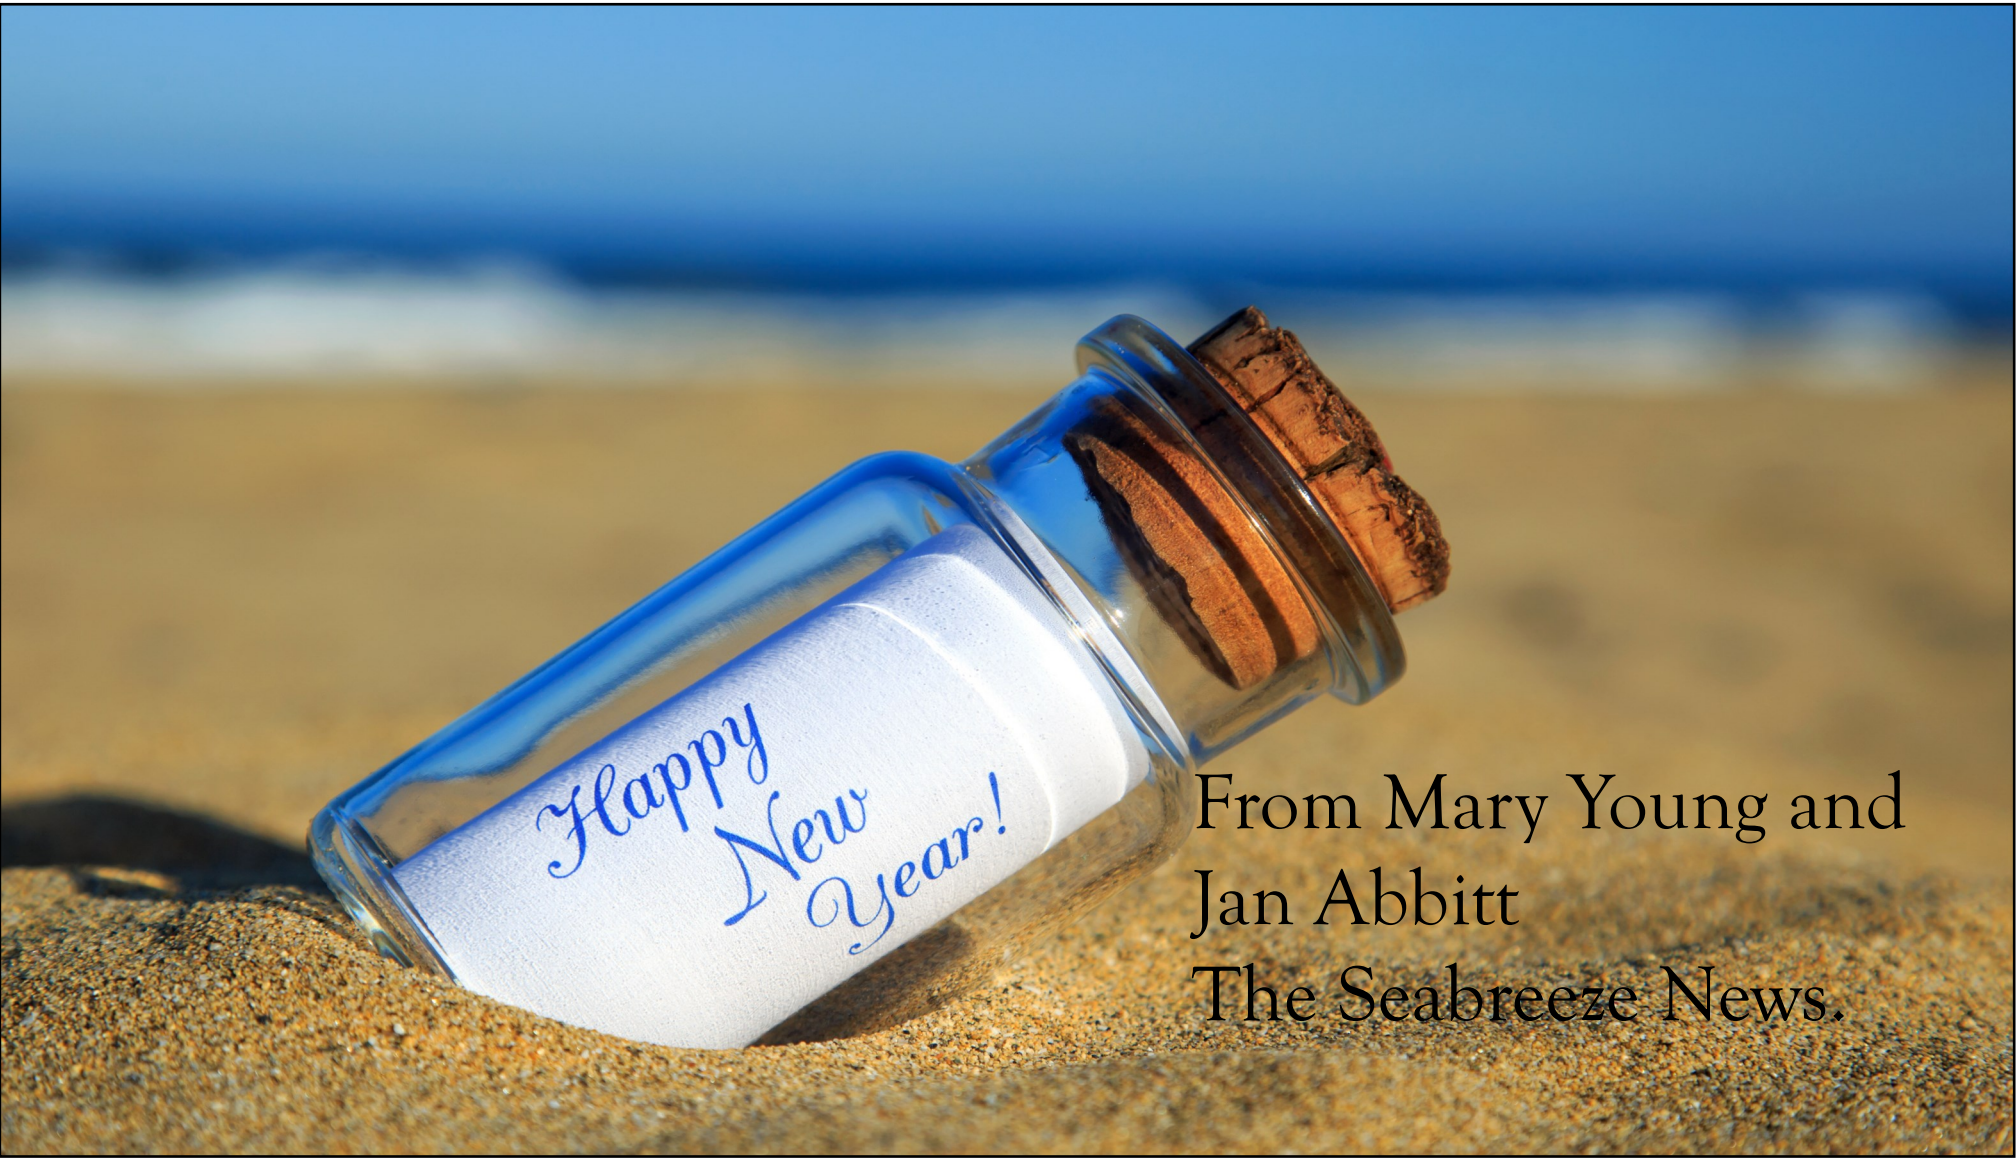

Some of our folks
Want no changes
Often a decision on their vote hinges
(They like it the way it is here)

We help our living
We bury our dead
I don’t know what more could be said
(For the people that live here)

If you live in San Leon
Don’t throw a stone
The window you break might be your own
(Let’s let everybody live here)

We have one road
That leads in and leads out
That is something to think about
(We would like for you to live here)

This thing was written
Just for fun
I hope I haven’t offended anyone
(I believe in living and let live in San Leon)

From Mary Young and
Jan Abbitt
