Texas City Man Sentenced to 20 Years

On March 11th, 2020, Talvin Djuan Garley of Texas City was found guilty by a Galveston County jury of Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon and Unlawful Possession of a Firearm by a felon. On June 11th, 2020, Judge John Ellison sentenced Mr. Garley to 20 years confinement at TDCJ. The charges stemmed from an event in March of 2018 when Mr. Garley approached the victim's vehicle and started an argument. Witnesses testified that Garley was agitated, confrontational and called the victim derogatory names. They then observed Garley brandishing a firearm and fire at the vehicle approximately five times while the victim was in close proximity. Mr. Garley will be eligible for parole after serving 10 years in TDCJ.

San Leon Cemetery Turns 100

The San Leon Cemetery has been in existence since the 1890s when San Leon was known as North Galveston. Some of the earliest burials known include possibly several Mexican soldiers killed during the Battle of San Jacinto, Civil War Veterans, and victims of the 1900 and 1915 Storms. More recently, it is the resting place of soldiers from World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War.

In 1920, Joe Eagle deeded the old community burial grounds of the cemetery as well as the entire Block 1 to the residents of San Leon for use as a community cemetery.

After an attempt in the 1950s by one of Joe Eagle's family members to reclaim the cemetery as unused, the San Leon Cemetery Committee was formed with the help of the Galveston County Commissioner's Court. The committee is comprised of members of the community and their goal is to preserve the history of the cemetery as well as upkeep, maintenance and repairs.

In a longstanding tradition, a fish fry is held once a year to raise funds. For many years the fish was provided by local anglers who donated their catch.

Entrance to the San Leon Cemetery. 122 22nd Street, San Leon, TX
Photos by R. Greer

As you stroll through the cemetery you will find many different unique and interesting markers and monuments. There are angels, a cross with military boots and helmet, a man fishing in a rowboat, a guitar case just to name a few. There are also many veteran's graves here as a testament to the patriotic nature of our local men and women. The Committee strives to recognize and honor them by placing flags at each grave on special days such as Memorial Day and Veteran's Day. You will also find many names you recognize or have heard before. The Janner family, The Garney family, and others. Very often multiple generations of families rest peacefully there.

Although the members of the committee change as time goes by, the desire to improve the cemetery stays the same. It was through committees that the gazebo and pavilion were built, the driveway and sidewalk created, the memorial wall, new picket fencing along the front, and new vinyl coated chain link fencing along the 21st and 22nd Street sides. Every resident of San Leon may receive a burial plot at no charge. The only requirement is that you are a resident of San Leon for at least six months prior to passing.

BARS ORDERED CLOSED AGAIN

On June 26th, just one day after temporarily pausing reopening plans, Texas Governor Gregg Abbott issued an executive order at 10:00 a.m. that all bars in Texas would be required to shut down effective at 12 noon that day. The order came about as a result of the state experiencing a substantial spike in COVID-19 cases. "As I said from the start, if the positivity rate rose about 10% the State of Texas would take further action to mitigate the spread of COVID-19," Abbott said in a statement.

As well as bars, the order also includes activities such as rafting and tubing which must be closed immediately. Public gatherings of more than 100 or more people must be approved by local governments, with some unspecified exemptions. Religious services, local government operations, child-care services, and youth camps do not have occupancy limits. The 50% occupancy limit does not apply to personal care businesses that operate with at least six feet of social distancing between workstations such as hair salons, barber shops, nail salons, tanning salons, tattoo studios, and piercing studios as well as others.

Restaurants who had been operating at 75% capacity may remain open but must now limit occupancy to 50% of total listed indoor occupancy. It is not known at this time when the order will be lifted.

Mooney Beach Cleanup

Last month, volunteers gathered at Mooney Beach in San Leon to clean up the beach and do some maintenance and repairs. The effort was organized on the social media app, Next Door, by members of the community. The facelift included trash pick up, trash can stands repaired, another trash receptacle added, and some grading of the beach.

Letters To The Editor

next one is scheduled for Friday, July 31st and Saturday, August 1st at Bayshore Park. Please reference the flyer in this paper regarding what you can bring and what's not allowed. Thanks for helping keep the Bayside communities clean!

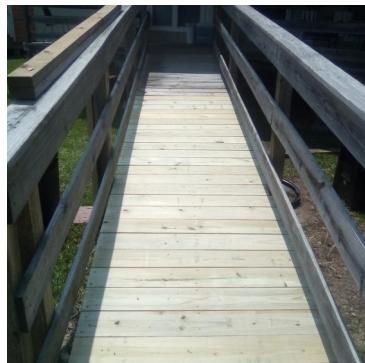

Dear Editor,

I've noticed a lot of women around town wearing shirts that say, Dear Steve's Wife Training School on them. What's that all about? I don't want my husband seeing them and trying to send me to a training school.

Signed, Scared of School

Dear Scared,

Those shirts have been specially printed and are being sold in a limited edition exclusively at San Leon Liquor to support the SOBs (Steve's Organized Bunch). The SOBs are a group of locals who help out our elderly and disabled neighbors with projects such as ramps, steps, and other construction projects. Proceeds from sales of the shirts are deposited at our local Ace Hardware in Bacliff for their use. Another way to support the group is just to drop a few bucks into their account the next time you're picking something up at the hardware store. Sometimes the need is great and every little bit helps to make life just a little easier for some of our locals. Pictured below is just one example of the kind of projects the SOBs have completed

Dear Editor,

I am not sure who I'm writing to, but I have received two editions of The Seabreeze since you have passed. I would like to know who is keeping my favorite local newspaper going.

Signed, Wondering in San Leon

Dear Wondering,

My name is Mary Young. I have been delivering your Seabreeze News for the last six years. Dear Steve and I have been good friends for many years and Dear Steve left me The Seabreeze when he went to run "Dear Steve's Wife Training School" in heaven.

Dear Steve taught me a lot in all the years I've known him. He preached to me about getting older and not having a retirement plan. He gave me advice on dating (5 dates before...you know) Yes, he pissed me off all the time, but he did push me to make better decisions in life. I have grown because of my buddy and I will honor his wishes every day that I run his paper. I promised him I would keep his paper going like he wanted and that I would not sell it for a few bucks.

So with all that being said, I will need the help from this wonderful community to keep Steve's paper alive. The "Dear Steve's" will no longer be there. Hell, who can come up with that humor? I need the help from Dear Steve's friends. I'm thinking about starting a new feature that I think we can all have fun with. It will be called "The Time I Drank Beer With Dear Steve." Please send me a funny story about the time you drank beer with Dear Steve.

Our Dear Steve will be dearly missed. He was A San Leon legend.

Thank you for supporting The Seabreeze for many years and I will try my hardest to keep y'all entertained.

Mary.

Dear Editor,

In the past there has been heavy trash disposal at Bayshore Park a couple of times a year. Have they stopped that program or will they be having any this summer?

Signed, Trashed in San Leon.

Dear Trashed,

The heavy trash days are hosted by Galveston County twice a year. The Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

I hope July is a better month for fishing than June even though we had a few good days to fish that the wind didn't blow too hard.

I've heard reports some tackle suppliers are running short on sinkers. I'm sure that will get better.

The jetties are a good place to fish this time of year. I like a popping cork with a long leader. When fishing near the jetties, be sure to use an anchor you can retrieve from the rocks. I always carry an extra one just in case.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

Hello everyone and welcome to my new column honoring the life's work of Dear Steve and his Dream to make us all better housewives.

Each month I will give a new tip I learned from my 15 years of schooling with Dear Steve. Yes, it took me 15 years to graduate, but like my husband says, I am an overachiever!

This month's tip will be a project that I am currently doing myself. "Painting the House". Summertime is upon us and never a better time to put a fresh coat of paint on the house, saving our husbands from this worrisome job.

Ladies, your husband works hard, and he needs all his extra time to fish and go have cold ones with the boys. So, reach into that coffee can where you keep your mad money and run down to one of our local builder supplies. Be sure to pick a color your husband has approved. Get yourself some paint brushes, painters' tape, caulking, and a drop cloth so that you do not leave any mess behind. Start with your prep work. Make sure you caulk all cracks, tape off the trim, and put your drop cloth down. Remember girls, your husband does not want you doing a half-ass sloppy job. This will get you lots of complaints when he comes home from the bar or fishing each day.

After you finish all your prep work, begin painting. If you really work hard each day after work and on the weekends, you should have your house painted by the end of summer.

I assure you, your husband will be so proud; he will be bragging about you to his friends while he enjoys his cold beer.

We would love to see your accomplishments.

E-mail to: theseabreeze2020@gmail.com and be sure to tune in next month for another Wife Training Tip.

Funny Bones

A blonde, wanting to earn some money, decided to hire herself out as a handyman-type and started canvassing a wealthy neighborhood. She went to the front door of the first house and asked the owner if he had any jobs for her to do. "Well, you can paint my porch. How much will you charge?" The blonde said, "How about 50 dollars?" The man agreed and told her that the paint and ladders that she might need were in the garage. The man's wife, inside the house, heard the conversation and said to her husband, "Does she realize that the porch goes all the way around the house?" The man replied, "She should. She was standing on the porch." A short time later, the blonde came to the door to collect her money. "You're finished already?" he asked. "Yes," the blonde answered, "and I had paint left over, so I gave it two coats." Impressed, the man reached in his pocket for the $50. "And by the way," the blonde added, "that's not a Porch, it's a Ferrari."

As an airplane is about to crash, a female passenger jumps up frantically and announces, "If I'm going to die, I want to die feeling like a woman!" She removes all her clothing and asks, "Is there someone on this plane that is man enough to make me feel like a woman?" A man stands up, removes his shirt and says, "Here, iron this!"

Reaching the end of a job interview, the Human Resources Officer asks a young engineer fresh out of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, "And what starting salary are you looking for?" The engineer replies, "In the region of $125,000 a year, depending on the benefits package." The interviewer inquires, "Well, what would you say to a package of five weeks vacation, 14 paid holidays, full medical and dental, company matching retirement fund to 50% of salary, and a company car leased every two years, say, a red Corvette?" The engineer sits up straight and says, "Wow! Are you kidding?" The interviewer replies, "Yeah, but you started it."

A thief stuck a pistol in a man's ribs and said, "Give me your money." The gentleman, shocked by the sudden attack said, "You cannot do this, I'm a Congressman." The thief replied, "In that case, give me MY money!"

A shy guy goes into a bar and sees a beautiful woman sitting at the bar. After an hour of gathering up his courage, he finally goes over to her and asks tentatively. "Would you mind if I chatted with you for a while?" To which she responds by yelling, at the top of her lungs, "No, I won't sleep with you tonight!" Everyone in the bar is now staring at them. Naturally, the guy is hopelessly and completely embarrassed and he slinks back to his table. After a few minutes, the woman walks over to him and apologizes. She smiles at him and says, "I'm sorry if I embarrassed you. You see, I'm a journalist and I've got an assignment to study how people respond to embarrassing situations." To which he responds, at the top of his lungs, "What do you mean $200?"

A teacher asks her class, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" Little Johnny says "I wanna be a billionaire, going to the most expensive clubs, take the best bitch with me, give her a Ferrari worth over a million bucks, an apartment in Hawaii, a mansion in Paris, a jet to travel through Europe, an Infinite Visa Card and to make love to her three times a day". The teacher, shocked, and not knowing what to do with the bad behavior of the child, decides not to give importance to what he said and then continues the lesson. "And you, Susie?" the teacher asks. Susie says "I wanna be Johnny's bitch."

A guy and his date are parked out in the country away from town, when they start kissing and fondling each other. Just then, the girl stops and sits up. "What's the matter?" asks the guy. She replies, "I really should have mentioned this earlier, but I'm actually a prostitute, and I charge $100 for sex." The man thinks about it for a few seconds, but then reluctantly gets out a $100 bill, pays her, and they have sex. After a cigarette, he just sits in the driver's seat looking out the window. "Why aren't we going anywhere?" asks the girl. "Well, I should have mentioned this before," replies the man, "but I'm actually a taxi driver, and the fare back to town is $50."

A man speaks frantically into the phone, "My wife is pregnant, and her contractions are only two minutes apart!" "Is this her first child?" the doctor queries. "No, you idiot!" the man shouts. "This is her husband!"

A man is at work one day, when he notices that his co-worker is wearing an earring. The man knows his co-worker to be a conservative guy, and is curious about his sudden change in fashion sense. The man walks up and says, "I didn't know you were into earrings." The co-worker responds sheepishly, "Don't make such a big deal out of this, it's only an earring." The man falls silent for a few minutes, but then his curiosity prods him to say, "So how long have you been wearing one?" The co-worker responds, "Ever since my wife found it in my truck."

San Leon MUD Update

San Leon and the nation are being impacted by COVID-19. The San Leon MUD is here to offer assistance to those in the community in this time of need. There have been no cut offs for non-payment in March, April & May, but cuts offs for non-payment have resumed as the nation and the county return to regular operations. Please contact the office to arrange payment if your account is not current.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

There have been a number of questions brought up to the District, both in person and online, so we wanted to take some time to address those in a broader forum in the event other residents in the community had similar questions or concerns.

Why are we expanding the wastewater treatment plant? Is it really necessary?

Chapter 305.126 of the Texas Administrative Code states: “whenever flow measurements for any sewage treatment plant in the state reaches 75% of the permitted average daily or annual average flow for three consecutive months, the permittee must initiate engineering and financial planning for expansion and/or upgrading of the wastewater treatment and/or collection facilities. Whenever the average daily or annual average flow reaches 90% of the permitted average daily flow for three consecutive months, the permittee shall obtain necessary authorization from the commission to commence construction of the necessary additional treatment and/or collection facilities.” The District’s flows have exceeded the state permitted discharge in 2017, 2018, and 2019. While the TCEQ worked with the District to allow time to reduce inflow and infiltration (I&I), the mitigation efforts were not enough due to growth in the community and deterioration of our aging system, so the expansion was deemed necessary.

Why did the cost estimates for the expansion differ so much from the bids?

The estimates to expand the treatment plant were developed by the District’s engineering firm and confirmed to be accurate by an independent construction firm that was not bidding on the project. Those estimates came in at $19,736,500 and resulted in a bond proposal last May to sell $22,750,000 to cover the construction estimate and $3,013,500 in capitalized interest, State and TCEQ fees, and insurance. The vote passed 64.69% for and 35.31% against, enabling the District to sell the bonds necessary to expand the treatment plant in compliance with State of Texas requirements. The District’s tax rate was increased from $0.45 to $0.63 to offset the debt obligation incurred by the bond sale, an increase in $0.18 per $100 of taxable value. (Prior to that increase, the District tax rate had not changed since 2007.) Sealed bids were opened on June 4, 2020, and vetting of the contractors was performed including construction cost analysis, completed project history, and general ability to successfully complete the project on time. After discussion with the contractors regarding the low bids, it was determined that the cost of construction materials had decreased since the initial estimates were performed, plus many companies were forced to lower their costs in order to stay in business and retain their experienced staff due to the COVID situation. The winning bid from LEM Construction Co, Inc. came in at $12,187,876.20 compared to the original estimate of $19,736,500.

What happens to the extra bond money that is no longer needed for the expansion?

Once the treatment plant is completed, the District will be able to apply to the TCEQ to reallocate those funds towards other projects in the District. Our capital improvement plan has projects lined out to improve our infrastructure and reduce our monthly I&I expense. The District could potentially even reduce our tax rate in the future by pre-paying some of the outstanding bond indebtedness at its September 1, 2026 call date.

---

What else is being done to improve the financial status of the District?

As mentioned in April's meeting, the District is moving forward with refunding the 2013 bonds, which will result in a savings of approximately $700,000 in interest. More details will be available as the refunding process nears completion in the future. Director Tyson Kennedy is the Pricing Officer for this project.

Can anything be done about my increasing taxes?

While Galveston Central Appraisal District is the entity who assesses home values, you can always verify the exemptions you have on file with them as the District offers two exemptions to residents that can reduce the amount of your MUD taxes. Please contact Andrew at the MUD office for more details.

Is there a way to stay informed about District operations and meetings?

The District meetings are open to the public and held on the third Wednesday of every month at 6:30 PM. Agendas can be found three days before the meeting at the MUD office or online at www.slmud.org. Always be sure to check our website or Facebook page for the most accurate and up to date information.

Please do send your fishing & hunting pictures. We need you to tell us who the people are in the picture, who and where they caught the fish, how much it weighed, when it was caught, what kind of fish it was, what kind of beer and bait the angler was using, and any other pertinent information you want to see printed in the paper. Ever since our crystal ball got lost in Hurricane Ike, we have no way of knowing these vital facts unless you tell us!

SCOUTS & AMERICAN LEGION HOST FLAG RETIREMENT CEREMONY

Boy Scout Troop 2322 partnered with the American Legion Post 291 in San Leon on Flag Day for a Flag Retirement Ceremony. Flags were collected or dropped off at the American Legion for proper disposal.

The Ceremony for Disposal of Unserviceable Flags was first passed by a resolution in 1937 by the 19th National Convention of the American Legion in New York and has been a ritual since that date. The purpose of the resolution was to encourage proper respect for the Flag of the United States and to provide for disposal in a dignified manner. It was also recommended that Flag Day was the most appropriate day to hold the ceremony.

The following, taken from the American Legion Manual of Ceremonies, reads in part:

“A Flag may be a flimsy bit of printed gauze, or a beautiful banner of finest silk. Its intrinsic value may be trifling or great; but its real value is beyond price, for it is a precious symbol of all that we and our comrades have worked for and lived for, and died for a free Nation of free men, true to the faith of the past, devoted to the ideals and practice of Justice, Freedom, and Democracy.”

Following the ceremony that included a color guard, and officers of the Post, Scouts from Troop 2322 each in turn draped the unserviceable flags, one at a time, over a metal rod and they were lowered into the fire pit. The event was open to the public and was well-attended by the community.
