UFO HUNTERS ARRIVE IN SAN LEON

GOLF CART AUTHORIZATION BILL BECOMES LAW

Last week, Governor Abbott signed House Bill 1281. This bill included language that authorizes Galveston and Chambers counties to permit the operation of golf carts on county roads in unincorporated areas. This bill received the support necessary to make it effective immediately, meaning that it is now the law of the state. Residents of our coastal counties now have the ability drive their golf carts around the community.

SECOND AMENDMENT VICTORIES SIGNED INTO LAW

I joined my colleagues for the signing by Gov. Abbott of the Constitutional Carry bill, the bill making Texas a 2nd Amendment Sanctuary State, the bill making sure gun/ammo shops are never closed by government disaster order, and 4 other bills protecting your Second Amendment rights. (Mayer Middleton.)

BABY MIDDLETON HAS ARRIVED

The Seabreeze News would like to extend its best wishes to the Middleton Family on the addition of a healthy baby girl. Welcome to the world Martha Ann!

The subject of UFOs has been back in the news as of late. Navy pilots and others have reported multiple sighting of mysterious aircraft moving in unexplainable ways and at hypersonic speeds. While American intelligence has found no evidence that the objects are alien spacecraft, they cannot explain the over 120 sightings over the last 20 years. The Seabreeze News Division of Science and Extraterrestrial Affairs decided to tackle this mystery and try to contact these unknown visitors.

After researching planetary charts for the optimal viewing time and location, it was decided that Friday night under the Dickinson Bayou

Bridge would be the best place to set up the observation camp. The team packed a tent, telescope, fans, generator, snacks, beer, and other provisions. A last-minute trip to the Dollar General rounded out the supplies of Off, Citronella candles and mosquito coils. Camp was promptly set up and the various mosquito poisons were deployed.

After a company-paid (research expense) steak dinner, the team took a short cat nap to rest up for late night UFO hunting to begin after midnight. At 1:00 a.m., nothing had been sighted except for 2 shooting stars and an airplane appearing to be bound for Miami. By 2:00 a.m. they had still not had even the slightest glimpse of any UFOs. Terribly disappointed and still a little bit drunk, it was decided to pack up and try another night. Right about then, a small blinking light was sighted in the distance. Excited, they turned the telescope towards the light that getting brighter and closer by the minute. It was observed that the light appeared to also be changing colors. Blue, white, red, blue, white, red. The alien hunters were beside themselves. They were about to have a close encounter with some real space people, maybe Martians, maybe some Uranians!

As they collected the trinkets that they had purchased at the Dollar General to offer as gifts to the visitors, the vehicle landed squarely in the campsite. It was a green and white vehicle with the letters S-H-E-R-I-F-F marked on the side. To the disappointment of all, it was merely two deputies wanting to know who the hell was camping under the Dickinson Bayou Bridge. After a lengthy search of the camp and many questions such as "Are y'all stupid?" and "What's with all the candles?" and "Is there any steak left?" the Division of Science and Extraterrestrial Affairs were firmly escorted away and was instructed to not ever come back. The team complied but were already planning their next UFO camp at Mooner Beach. But rest assured, they will continue to try to seek out and befriend any UFOs that may want to visit Galveston County and the Bayshore Communities.

Once again, our little community of San Leon has lost a favorite. Johnny Muecke was our dear friend, and our go-to guy for so many projects. "Johnny can you rebuild our fence after Rita; Johnny can you rebuild our fence after Ike; Johnny can you paint the rent house; Johnny can you fix the plumbing..." He was everyone's handyman and when asked "What do we owe you?" if it was a small job, he'd often say "Oh, a bucket of beer at Sunset oughta cover it." He was such a sweet, fun, and gentle soul. We miss him already. We love you, Renee, and we are all here for you. Now and always.

Letters To The Editor

we would have been stuck here.

Signed,
Stuck on Bolivar

Dear Stuck,
It seems the State has let y'all down. They elevated the curve at 87 and 124 and filled in Rollover Pass. A lot of people think that filling in Rollover Pass is blocking the tide from coming through to help with the water to not come across the road. My advice to you is when there is a storm in the Gulf, pay close attention to the Ferry. Call and see if they have plans to close it due to high tides. When they say they will close it at a certain time, get on the ferry because it will almost certainly be too late to take 87.

Dear Editor,
I am an elderly woman and I have downsized to an RV. I could not pay the bills in my 3-bedroom home with just me living there. I am a very sentimental person. I have so many keepsakes that my family and friends have given me, and I just can't keep it all. I am overwhelmed with all the things in my small RV. Am I a bad person to donate the things that I don't have room for?

Signed,
Cluttered in Bolivar

Dear Cluttered,
I have been in your situation. Throw that junk away! I know your sister gave you the crap she didn't want, but you have to get over the "Oh, I better keep this because she will visit and not see the gifts that she gave me." Hell, she doesn't remember the castoffs she gave you and she isn't going to visit your cramped RV anyway. It's better to dispose of unwanted items than to end up on an episode of Hoarders.

Dear Editor,
Have you or any of your female readers experienced this medical phenomenon with their male partners? When I open my mouth to speak, I can literally hear my husband's ears slam shut! Repeating everything seems to be a side effect for those of us living with someone with this disease. Does anyone know of a cure?

Signed,
Talking to myself in Texas City

Dear Talking,
Please encourage your husband to see a medical professional to address the doors inside his ears, that sounds frustrating and painful for him.

San Leon Don's

FISHING TIPS

Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

I would recommend leaving the dock very early when fishing, like, 5:30 a.m. as the temperature goes up and it gets very hot early. You will probably catch more fish. I know I keep warning our readers about the flesh-eating bacteria, Vibrio. It is especially dangerous when water temperatures go up. I have personal knowledge of what can happen. I suggest you be prepared by keeping a spray bottle of 80% water 20% bleach on your next time out. Spray any cuts or scrapes that come in contact with salt water. If you have any burning or itching after the outing, go to the emergency room.

Summer is here and trout and reds are being caught in our bays around San Leon. Don't forget to take a kid fishing with you as it will be a lasting experience for both of you.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

Dear Want-To-Be-Better-Wives,

I have been receiving some feedback from some of your husbands. It seems my Nancy-girl techniques and words of advice are not working, and I am receiving complaints. So, this month I decided to share with you some originals from the man himself, Dear Steve. I hope you enjoy some of these stories from the archive.

Dear Steve,

I recently married a woman with a 15-year-old son. They moved into my house and everything was going well until last week. With this summer weather I decided the grass needed mowing. I went to show the 15-year-old how to mow as he had never used a mower before. His mother came running out of house screaming at me. She said he is too young to use a lawnmower. I told her I started mowing at 10 years old. She called me a LIAR. She told me that I was trying to get her son hurt and he did not need to be using any machinery. We read your paper every month. I told my wife that I would ask your opinion and she said she would consider your answer. The boy is in drivers ed but I guess that machinery doesn't count.

Signed Larry in Dickinson

Hey Larry,

I was mowing when I was 10 also. Tell your new wife that she is raising her son to be a sissy. But I have a question for you, Larry. Why the hell are you mowing the grass when you have a wife? Yes, your stepson needs to learn how to use a lawnmower so he can teach his wife how to mow when he gets married. Mowing the grass is women's work. Quit being a girly-boy and put her ass out there on that mower handle!

Dear Steve,

My wife and I are in our early thirties and have been married for 8 years. We both have good jobs that pay well, a nice, but modest house, and fairly new cars. My problem, Steve, is that my wife is a shopaholic and a hoarder. She will buy any and everything that comes across the TV screen or pops up on the internet. We have closets full of junk she has bought, and she started piling it on the floors and furniture. We have pathways from the kitchen and living room to the bedrooms and the bathrooms, front, and back door. Some of the piles are almost up to the ceiling. Sometimes when stuff arrives, she does not even open it, she just puts it in a pile. I am ashamed of how the house looks so we no longer have friends over. I am afraid I am going to die in here and no one will ever find me. I have not seen the dog for 3 days now. Steve, how do I make her stop?

Drowning in junk in Kemah

Hey Nancy-Boy,

Are you kidding me? This has to be a joke. A real man would never let this happen in his own home. Take away her credit cards and take her off the checking and savings account. Have a yard sale and sell all the stuff she bought. With the money you make, take that woman to a shrink. She is out of her mind bat shit crazy! You should have put your foot down way before it got this bad. If you don't do it now you are just as bat shit crazy as she is.

And lastly, one of Dear Steve's last words of wisdom before he gained his wings.

Dear Steve,

Did you and your wife get a stimulus check and, if so, what are you going to do with it?

Signed Got mine in Dickinson

Hey Got,

Yes, we did get ours. I have not decided what to do with mine yet. I know what Kim did with hers. She handed it over to me like a well-trained good wife should!

Funny Bones

Little Johnny was staying with his grandfather for a few days. He'd been playing outside with the other kids when he came into the house and asked, "Grandpa, what's that called when two people sleep in the same bedroom and one is on top of the other?" Grandpa was a little taken aback, but he decided to tell him the truth. "Well, Little Johnny, it's called sexual intercourse."

Little Johnny said okay and went back outside to play with the other kids. A few minutes later he came back in and said angrily, "Grandpa, it isn't called sexual intercourse. It's called Bunk Beds and Jimmy's mom wants to talk to you!"

A mom is driving her little girl to a friend's house for a play date. "Mommy," the little girl asks, "how old are you?" "Honey, you are not supposed to ask a lady her age", the mother warns. "It is not polite".

"Ok," the little girl says. "How much do you weigh?" "Now really," the mother says, "these are personal questions and really none of your business." Undaunted, the little girl asks, "Why did you and daddy get a divorce?" "That is enough questions, honestly!" The exasperated mother walks away as the two friends begin play.

"My Mom wouldn't tell me anything." The little girl says to her friend. "Well," said the friend, "all you need to do is look at her driver's license. It is like a report card. it has everything on it." Later that night, the little girl says to her mother, "I know how old you are. You are 32". The mother is surprised and asks, "How did you find that out?" "I also know that you weigh 140 pounds." The mother is past surprise and shocked now. "How in heaven 's name did you find that out?" "And," the little girl says triumphantly, "I know why you and daddy got a divorce". "Oh really?" The mother asks. "And why's that?" "Because you got an F in sex."

Two guys are walking through a game park & they come across a lion that has not eaten for days. The lion starts chasing the two men. They run as fast as they can and the one guy starts getting tired and decides to say a prayer, "Please turn this lion into a Christian, Lord." He looks to see if the lion is still chasing and he sees the lion on its knees. Happy to see his prayer answered, he turns around and heads towards the lion. As he comes closer to the lion, he hears it saying a prayer: "Thank you Lord for the food I am about to receive."

A man asks, "God, why did you make woman so beautiful?" God responded, "So you would love her." The man asks, "But God, why did you make her so dumb?" God replied, "So she would love you."

What's the difference between a fisherman and a golfer?
When a golfer lies, he doesn't have to bring any proof home.

There was a sailfish fisherman who was out in the ocean fishing when his boat sank. He was lucky enough to make to a deserted island where he had to survive on what he could find.

When the Coast Guard eventually found him, the leader noticed there was a fire pit with California Condor feathers all around. He went over to the fisherman and said, "You know, it's illegal to kill a California Condor, I'm afraid I'm going to have to arrest you." The fisherman protested for some time saying that he killed it because he was going to starve but eventually he calmed down.

"Out of curiosity" the Coast Guard asked, "What did it taste like?" The fisherman replied, " Well, it was kind of a mix between a snowy owl and a bald eagle."

Two good-old boys were discussing their strategy for picking up girls. One fellow asked, "What about a Laundromat? Wouldn't that be a good place?" "No," responded the other fellow, "a woman who can't afford a washing machine will never be able to support you."

Dogs can't see your bones, but CAT scan.

San Leon MUD Update

Smart Irrigation Month

Yards can quickly die in the brutal Texas heat if not adequately watered, but overwatering can also drown the yard, resulting in shallow roots and decreased resilience. Most lawns only need about 1” of water per week to stay green and healthy. Place a few empty tuna cans around your lawn while you're watering and measure how long it takes your sprinkler to fill them with a half inch of water. Then, try watering that amount of time twice a week, gauge how your landscape responds, and adjust based on weather conditions. Also try to avoid watering in the middle of the day when the hot sun will evaporate much of the water before it can get to thirsty plants. For more tips, visit <https://takecareoftexas.org/conservation-tips/conserves-our-water>

HARDHEADS BOLIVAR RIG RUN

$20 ENTRY FEE
[includes hotdogs, drinks, t-shirts, can coolers, ditty bag, etc.]

Sponsored by:

[Formerly HardHeads]

The Bolivar Rig Run started 7 years ago to promote sailing on the Bolivar Peninsula. The race to the rig and back will be decided by the first to get back to the beach, and to the sailors who sail the fastest elapsed time based upon the Portsmouth rating for their boat. The first boats to register will have their choice in starting position. Boats should be on the beach by 10AM August 14th.

The race begins at Noon with the traditional "10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1" crowd countdown and Airhorn blast. This is first and foremost a fun event but bragging rights will last for the entire year! Awards to be presented by H2 Brewhouse [formerly Hardheads] following the race. To register or for more information: Fill out the form, take a picture and text to Jim Denys at 281-541-0114. San Leon Celebrates Independence Day

I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with Shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more.

John Adams, July 3, 1776.
