SIREN SONG MOVIE CLOSER

It's been a struggle for writer/producer George Dismukes to advance SIREN SONG the novel, into SIREN SONG, the movie. "We had the entire project funded," Dismukes says. "But the man heading up the investment group began feeling ill, went to the hospital, and three days later, he passed. We had to start all over again. Now, we're back on track.

THE STORY: SIREN SONG is a hit novel about the world's last surviving siren. Her lair is the Great Blue Hole, located off the coast of Belize, within Lighthouse Reef. She has lived in peace for close to two thousand years, swimming among the grottos 150 feet beneath the surface. But with the modern advent of scuba diving equipment, her solitude, and her lair, becomes compromised. The siren, now fearful for her life, reacts in a deadly way.

The protracted struggle to bring his project to life did not come without a price. Well, many costs, but one is that they lost a key cast member that must be replaced. Here are details: SIREN SONG PARTNERS, LLC is seeking a twelve-year-old boy who has;

Exceptional swimming skills and/or is a certified scuba diver.

Must be in top physical shape, meaning slim and trim and no medical problems.

Acting school a definite plus, but potential for acting more important. However, the person who is awarded the role must undergo scuba training (if he is not already a diver) and be willing to attend acting classes. In fact, that will be requirement of the contract.

Travel to Belize, Central America will be necessary during filming (shooting! No one uses film anymore!)

Auditions will be held in the party room at Pacific Seafood, Bayshore & 21st in San Leon, on Monday, July 11th, starting at 6 p.m. Applicants must arrive with a bio, which includes a headshot, and be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. Travel to Belize, Central America is required. Those interested may also send their bio and headshots to Mr. George Dismukes at Mayanartintl@yahoo.com And, when they finish making SIREN SONG, THE MOVIE, they will make a movie from the sequel, SIREN SONG II! Now available on bookseller websites. Break a leg!

WHEN GIRLS GO FISHING

When a man decides to fish a tournament, he pays his entry fee the week of the tournament. The day before the tournament he gets his gear ready and buys his beer, and that's it.

The Seabreeze News reached out to a couple of women that have come together to fish the Sisters Helping Sisters tournament for the past nine years.

In the early years of fishing the SHS tournament, Gracie and Saragin would fish two tournaments a year. In October they fished the ALL women tournament and in March they would fish the Jack and Jill where men and women could fish together. The last few years the tournament has been held once a year, with men and women able to fish. There are also two different divisions in the SHS tournament, non-guided and guided. Gracie and Saragin chose the guided division for several reasons with the main reason being neither woman has a boat.

For Gracie and Saragin preparing for the SHS tournament for June 18th starts months in advance.

Starting in March they will notify their jobs that they will be taking vacation days for June 15th, 16th, and 17th. It may seem a little extreme for the ladies to take three days off of work leading up to the tournament, but for women it's a little more than checking the gear and buying beer, and to add to the preparations, Saragin lives out of town in Bryan, Texas. Also in March, they paid their entry fee to obtain the early bird discount and Saragin secured the ladies' favorite fishing guide.

Saragin and Gracie decided that they wanted new team shirts for the 2022 SHS tournament.

In April, Saragin found new shirts for the team and mailed them to Gracie so she could take the shirts to Kemah Coach to get all the graphics done on the shirts.

Gracie made hair appointments for both ladies for June 15th with Gina Rivers out of Baytown. She is a stylist that does a lot of SHS ladies and donates her time when the SHS brothers and sisters shave their heads as part of a fundraiser for the Angels battling cancer.

In May, Saragin called Gracie to remind her to go to Bass Pro Shop to get her reel restrung.

The ladies never discussed a fishing license because years ago they both started getting a year-to-date license in October which would cover both tournaments.

June 1st, Gracie calls Saragin and they discuss how they both got their reels restrung, the shirts were done, what they were getting done to their hair and nails. Oh yes, those girls get the mani-pedi, the whole nine yards. After all, the rest of the 100-plus women fishing the tournament are all getting their nails, toes and hair done too.

On June 15th, the ladies meet up and go to visit Gina at Texas Tangles in Baytown. They both got highlights with a few pink ones, which pretty much took all day. Saragin and Gracie decided to meet up at noon on the 16th to go get their manicures and gel nails put on. They went to Academy and went through the fishing section to look for cool new gadgets. On the 17th, they meet up for the captains meeting and Daryle and Darell are at the meeting. You see, Daryle and Darell are also on the fishing team. The two guys spent the day going over their fishing gear and buying beer.

The ladies told The Seabreeze News that they were very proud to fish the SHS tournament year after year. It is as money going to a good cause and they get to meet up and fish.

Letters To The Editor

in the park is held once a year. As you mentioned, there is a fishing tournament, motorcycle fun run, vendor tradeshow, and live auction. Your $20 at the beer tent allowed the ladies, who are all local bartenders volunteering their time, to give back around $5,000 from tips alone! It is such a fun event. The outpouring of love and giving and friendship is remarkable. Many, many of the women who are in treatment attend and it really gives them an opportunity to put cancer on the back burner, even if just for one day. I encourage everyone to follow Sisters Helping Sisters on Facebook or go to their website, SHSTexas.org. There are some pictures from the event in this issue, check it out!

Dear Editor,
I am writing to you hoping someone does not make the same mistake that I did. I lived in a small town in North Texas and was going through a really bad breakup. An old friend and roommate from 15 years ago suggested that I come live with her in Bacliff and we would open a house cleaning business. I rolled it around in my head for a few days and thought what the heck. I was tired of that small town and the ex that just gave me pure hell. It was such a small town that if I went a bar to have a drink he would call me and tell me who I talked to. Being a sensible woman, I thought I should go down to Bacliff and stay with my old friend for a week and I should be able to figure out if it was going to be a good situation for me, after all, she had just kicked her husband out. Her home in Bacliff was pretty messy and she had a teenage son that lived with her. I was there for a few days and I really liked the area. I have never lived close to water so I was in awe. We discussed bills and I told her that I would pay half the bills plus get the internet and pay for that.

I sold all my stuff in Podunkville and moved to Bacliff. I spent my first week cleaning the nasty house, but I was starting fresh. I got a job at a local restaurant and things were good. After being there a few weeks, I asked her about the house cleaning business that we were going to start up and she said she was in the process of getting the DBA and looking into insurance. After being there a month, the creepy husband was coming around, spending the night and eating dinner on my dime because she rarely bought real food. If she shopped, it was all microwave crap. After month two of me paying half the bills and that creepy husband is now spending three to four nights a week there and asking me for the wifi. Now it is month three and there are three of them living there and I was paying half the bills. No mention of the cleaning business. Month four I was done. I found a small place in San Leon and I have been here ever since. That was 11 years ago.

Signed,
Happy Camper in San Leon

Dear Happy Camper,
Wow. It goes to show you how much someone can change throughout the years. I'm sure there's more to that story but thanks for sending it in. We are glad you made your home in San Leon.

Dear Editor,
I want your readers to know about a service that is free to the residents of San Leon. They are a no-charge lawn care group that helps low-income elderly, disabled veterans, and those with disabilities. They will not accept any payment from the people they are helping. They use their own equipment and are 100% volunteers. With that being said, they need volunteers and some donations to keep doing what they are doing. If you're retired and have some free time, even a few hours a week, please give Sherry a call. If you can spare $20.00 or $50.00 a month, please help these volunteers take care of our elderly, disabled, and veterans.

Please call Sherry at 281-508-0891.

Signed,
Helping in San Leon

Dear Helping,
What a great group of people! They are called San Leon Yard Birds. Yes, they do so much for people in need. When I say in need, I am not talking about the elderly lady that has her grown son living on her property in a travel trailer. He should do her yard work. These folks volunteer and spend their cash for the upkeep of the equipment and gas for the mowers.

Dear Editor,
A few Saturdays ago I was bored out of my mind so I went for a ride. I was passing by Bayshore Park and there was something going on. I waited for all the motorcycles to enter the park, which took a while since there were over 100 of them, and I went in and parked. Everywhere I looked I saw "SHS." I didn't know what that stood for but it looked like a good time. I saw a beer tent so I went and got cold beer and are you ready for this... It was free!!! So I tipped the bartender a 20-dollar bill. She told me all the tips from the two-day event were being donated back to the cause. I ran across a booth where they were selling all this SHS stuff and I spoke with a lady named Mama Raye. She told me SHS stands for Sisters Helping Sisters, and she gave me a little background on the event. There was a tent that had little shops in it. I bought some real cool stuff in there. I spent the afternoon there and I met some real nice people. I met some ladies that said they were Angels. They had an auction that was out of this world. I have never seen such a well-organized event in all my days of going to events. Whoever put this on must work all year to put it all together. I got some information and I am now following them on Facebook.

San Leon Don's FISHING TIPS

Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

Conditions have really improved but still hot and dry. Lots of fish are being caught in deeper water due to the hot weather. Fishermen who are targeting flounder seem to be doing well both gigging and rod and reel, mostly around some type of structure. Live shrimp is always a good choice of bait. I use gulp white grub and do very well with it.

The jetties this time of year still seems to be a good choice for fishing. I like to fish around the boat cut inside and outside, check it out. The best time to go fishing is early morning or under lights. Be sure to drink lots of water while out in the sun, beer just won't do it.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

Saving Second Base

Breasts, boobies, tatas and titties. Big, little, long, round or small. They go by many names and most fellas love them all. But did you know, one in eight sets of them will try to end your life? And those numbers are growing daily.

Before I go any further, please don't think I believe breast cancer is any more important than any other cancer. All cancer sucks and changes people's lives both financially and emotionally. I know this because I myself have cancer and it is not breast cancer. I have and am doing treatments for a Leukemia (blood cancer) that currently has no official cure.

So, Breast Cancer, why so much attention? Why so damn many pink ribbons? What's all the fuss? There are so many cancers out there. What makes it so special? The $100,000 dollar question. That's if you are lucky. At a whopping 16.5 million dollars and 290,560 new cases of breast cancer expected in 2022, breast cancer leads the field in expense and people diagnosed.

I didn't plan to rally for breast cancer. It just happened. What started with meeting a set of sisters, one of which was battling breast cancer, has brought us forward to where we are today. I was simply asked to have a fishing tournament to raise funding to help a couple of gals in 2013. We did. The next year, we did it again. The next year, I realized it was so much more. It had clearly become a calling. A calling that an entire community quickly became a part of, and it spread to neighboring communities.

Sisters Helping Sisters Fishing Tournament has now helped over 400 and has mailed out directly into the hands of those battling over $730,000.00. We have done this because of the grassroot support we receive financially, by people sharing our story, and with the help of so many volunteers.

My point of this month's column is of course to bring awareness but, more importantly, it is to say, Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who supported our Sisters Helping Sisters Fishing Tournament, Celebrating our 10th Year of Changing Lives. Thank you to each and every person who did their part, no matter how large or small to make it happen. We raised a total of $67,300.00. This fundraiser is our largest event of the year and is well more than half of our yearly funding. Many friendships are made through this organization. Many businesses benefit from joining our team and our networking. But mostly, many people who feel helpless are given Hope through your support.

Our next event for the year is our Pampered Pink Gala on Friday September 30th and will be held at South Shore Harbor. If you would like more information on how you can become involved, please contact me. Jaton\_marketing@yahoo.com

Funny Bones

A preacher, newly called to a small country town, needed to mail a letter. Passing a young boy on the street, the pastor asked where he could find the post office. After getting his answer, he thanked the boy and said: "If you'll come to the community church this evening, you can hear me tell everyone how to get to heaven." "I don't know, sir," the boy replied. "You don't even know how to get to the post office!"

Dan was a single guy living at home with his father and working in the family business. When he found out he was going to inherit a fortune when his sickly father died, he decided he needed to find a wife with whom to share his fortune. One evening, at an investment meeting, he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away. "I may look like just an ordinary guy," he said to her, "but in just a few years my father will die and I will inherit $200 million". Impressed, the woman asked for his business card and three days later, she became his stepmother. Women are so much better at financial planning than men.

I went to the cinema the other day and in the front row was an old man and with him was his dog. It was a sad funny kind of film, you know the type. In the sad part, the dog cried his eyes out, and in the funny part, the dog laughed its head off. This happened all the way through the film. After the film had ended, I decided to go and speak to the man. "That's the most amazing thing I've seen," I said. "That dog really seemed to enjoy the film." The man turned to me and said, "Yeah, it is. He hated the book."

- Ten common fishing terms explained:
- Catch and Release - A conservation motion that happens most often right before the local Fish and Game officer pulls over a boat that has caught over its limit.
  - Hook - (1) A curved piece of metal used to catch fish. (2) A clever advertisement to entice a fisherman to spend his live savings on a new rod and reel. (3) The punch administered by said fisherman's wife after he spends their life savings (see also, Right Hook, Left Hook).
  - Line - Something you give your co-workers when they ask on Monday how your fishing went the past weekend.
  - Lure - An object that is semi-enticing to fish but will drive an angler into such a frenzy that he will charge his credit card to the limit before exiting the tackle shop.
  - Reel - A weighted object that causes a rod to sink quickly when dropped overboard.
  - Rod - An attractively painted length of fiberglass that keeps an angler from ever getting too close to a fish.
  - School - A grouping in which fish are taught to avoid your $29.99 lures and hold out for shrimp instead.
  - Tackle - What your last catch did to you as you reeled him in, but just before he wrestled free and jumped back overboard.
  - Tackle Box - A box shaped alarmingly like your comprehensive first aid kit. Only a tackle box contains many sharp objects, so that when you reach in the wrong box blindly to get a Band Aid, you soon find that you need more than one.
  - Test - (1) The amount of strength a fishing line affords an angler when fighting fish in a specific weight range. (2) A measure of your creativity in blaming "that darn line" for once again losing the fish.

There were some backwoods hillbillies living across the river from each other, who feuded constantly. John hated Clarence with a passion and never passed up a chance to throw rocks across the river at Clarence. This went on for years until one day the Corps of Engineers came to build a bridge across that river. John was elated; he told his wife that finally he was going to get the chance to cross over and whip Clarence. He left the house and returned in a matter of minutes. His wife asked what was wrong, didn't he intend to go over the bridge and whip Clarence? He replied that he never had really seen Clarence up close and didn't realize his size until he started over the bridge and saw the sign: "CLEARANCE 8 FT 3 IN"

A woman walked up to a little old man rocking in a chair on his porch. "I couldn't help noticing how happy you look," she said. "What's your secret for a long happy life?" "I smoke three packs of cigarettes a day," he said. "I also drink a case of whiskey a week, eat fatty foods, and never exercise." "That's amazing," the woman said. "How old are you?" "Twenty-six," he said.

A blind man walked into a bar... And a table... And a chair...

San Leon MUD Update

Smart Irrigation Month

Yards can quickly die in the brutal Texas heat if not adequately watered, but overwatering can also drown the yard, resulting in shallow roots and decreased resilience. Most lawns only need about 1” of water per week to stay green and healthy. Place a few empty tuna cans around your lawn while you're watering and measure how long it takes your sprinkler to fill them with a half-inch of water. Then, try watering that amount of time twice a week, gauge how your landscape responds, and adjust based on weather conditions. Also, try to avoid watering in the middle of the day when the hot sun will evaporate much of the water before it can get to thirsty plants. For more tips, visit <https://takecareoftexas.org/water>

Heat, Drought, and Burn Bans

If you’re planning a controlled burn on your property, don’t forget to file with Galveston County Health District for a burn permit! While recreational burning can be done without a permit, disposal of brush and debris does need a permit so that the appropriate agencies can be prepared to respond in case the fire gets out of hand. Also, be sure to check with local authorities to determine if fireworks will be permitted this holiday season based on current drought conditions.

San Leon Celebrates Independence Day

I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with Shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more.

Letter from John Adams to Abigail Adams, July 3, 1776.
