

Bayside BRIEFS:

SAN LEON MUD BOARD INCUMBANTS PREVAIL

After a very long and very contentious campaign, the citizens of San Leon made their voices known loud and clear and have elected the incumbent MUD Board Directors for a two-year term. Board President Kelly Neason, Board Treasurer Sheryl Hayslip-Bahena, and Board Director Curtis Anderson handed an embarrassing loss to the other candidates winning by a landslide. Each of the incumbents garnered just over 300 votes each with the next closest vote-getter, Spencer Markle, receiving 113 votes. Newcomer Caleb Cristofaro collected just 60 votes but has a very bright future perhaps in upcoming elections. David Jetelina and Phillip Haskett were able to only gather a meager 76 and 66 votes respectively. Jetelina and Haskett's smear tactics clearly were ineffective. Also on that ballot were two statewide proposals. Proposition 1, the Property Tax Limit Reduction for Elderly and Disabled Residents Amendment which supported amending the state constitution to authorize the state legislature to reduce the property tax limit for school maintenance and operations taxes imposed on the homesteads of elderly or disabled residents to reflect any tax rate reduction enacted by law from the preceding tax year. Proposition 2 the Increased Homestead Exemption for School District Property Taxes Amendment which supported increasing the homestead exemption for school district property taxes from $25,000 to $40,000. Both items passed overwhelmingly.

In another hotly contested race in the Texas runoff election held on May 23rd, Teri Leo Wilson won decisively over candidate Patrick Gurski with 15 percent more votes. Ms. Wilson campaigned tirelessly in her district, especially in the San Leon/Bayview area, and her win is well-deserved. She will be running in November against Democratic candidate Keith Henry to fill the District 23 Texas Representative seat vacated by Mayes Middleton. Mr. Middleton won his race and is now a Texas State Senator. Winners in the runoff also include Ken Paxton for Attorney General, Wayne Christian for Railroad Commissioner, Dawn Buckingham for General Land Office Commissioner, who will face Democratic opponents in November. Also winning her race for Precinct Chair 151 was San Leon resident, Robin Burke.

WHAT VOLUNTEER WILL PUT YOUR HOUSE FIRE OUT?

In Galveston County there are about 20 volunteer fire departments. Some of you might ask yourselves, what does a volunteer fire department do? I was able to speak to Chief Ken Keller at the San Leon Volunteer Fire Department and learned that there are five people on the Executive Board, four line officers, ten firefighters, two support personnel, and two cadets. Every one of those men and women are volunteers. No one is employed by The Volunteer Fire Department. These men and women have jobs that support them and their families, some are firefighters at other fire stations, some work for the water department, and some go to school. The cadets are not 18 years old yet so they can't go on fire calls yet. They are going through the training program so when they are 18, they will be trained firefighters. San Leon has had 100% volunteers since 1955. To become a member of the San Leon VFD, you must be at least 15 years old. 15- to 17-year-olds are considered Cadets. At age 18 you can become a regular member. You need to fill out an application and be a licensed driver in good standing with no felonies. After acceptance of your application, you can begin to join fire department functions until your training session begins.

There are two training periods per year. The training program is about six weeks long. After completing the training you become a probationary firefighter until you've completed a year of service and then you can become a firefighter.

The Chief told me that $10.00 is applied to everyone's water bill monthly to support the cost of running the firehouse, maintaining the fire trucks, and purchasing updated equipment to keep the firefighters safe. $10.00 a month is well worth someone's piece of mind knowing that some professional firefighters will be showing up to put a house fire out. Another piece of information that I was told by the Chief is that the average response time for them to drop what they are doing, get to the firehouse, and make it to a burning structure is six minutes. That is the average response time, there are probably some instances that it may take a little longer, but six minutes is pretty impressive.

During a structure fire the average person is running away from the fire. These men and women are running to the fire. It's not as easy as, "Just put some water on it!" (a comment that was posted on one of those nextdoor apps). The Seabreeze's response to that is stupid is as stupid does! There are many things to consider when the firefighters pull up to a structure fire, such as where's the nearest water source? Is there anyone in the structure? There is so much they have to do to make sure the firefighters are safe. There was a comment by someone that said, "If they would have been there three minutes earlier, they could have saved that RV." Beach, please. What are they going to do to save half of an RV? If you have an RV and it catches on fire, get your pets and get out!

If you live in these towns in Galveston County, you have a VOLUNTEER fire department. Bacliff, Bayou Vista, Crystal Beach, Dickinson Station 1 & 2, Friendswood, Gilcrest, High Island, Hitchcock, Jamaica Beach, League City Stations 1, 2, 3, 4 & 5, Santa Fe (Orchard), Port Bolivar, San Leon, and Tiki Island. Stop in and say hi, bring them some donuts, and go to their monthly meetings and get to know these wonderful men and women. Remember they are volunteers. They don't have to risk their lives to save yours. This is in their blood and their passion.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

I am a young mother of a 6 month old baby. I spent all day Saturday going from store to store in about a 20 mile radius looking for baby formula. I found 2 cans. I wasted half a tank of gas that I could not afford. A friend of mine suggested that I should make my own, so I went online and found a few recipes that are really affordable. I am concerned about feeding my baby homemade baby formula. Do you know of a good recipe?

Signed,
Not sure in Bacliff

Dear Not Sure,

I actually had a friend send me two recipes and we were going to put them in The Seabreeze News but we did some research and, unfortunately, it's not a good idea. According to the American Academy of Pediatrics and the Food and Drug Administration, making your own baby formula is not safe or recommended. Each canister of formula has very specific nutritional values that are found in breast milk.

Dear Editor,

What is going on in this country? Gas is almost $4.50 a gallon, two years ago the price of gas was around $2.00. How did we get to over double the price in two years? A shortage of baby formula in The United States of America? What the hell is going on with that? We live in the finest country in the world and we a shortage of gas and baby formula? Now we have monkey-pox that we have to worry about! I just needed to vent! If I do it a letter to the Editor, the Karens of this world can't give me their snowflake opinion.

Signed,
Out of control in San Leon

Dear Out of Control,

We are all feeling the pain at the pump, The reason gas prices are out of control has a lot to do with choices made by the current administration. I don't think the Keystone XL pipeline should have been shut down. The baby formula shortage started when the Abbott factory voluntarily shut down in February due to contamination that was possibly linked to two infant deaths. It seems someone should have handled that better. I'm not prepared to discuss monkey-pox. While doing research I got the heebee jeebees and had to stop.

Dear Editor,

What on earth were those three jake legs thinking? Two of them have terrorized the good people of San Leon for three years! The name calling and the non-stop harassment of the water board. That harassment then spilled over to the volunteer fire department. One of them had a shed that he claimed to live in, and the other lives some place off of Nasa Rd 1. I never said anything on any of the posts because they would gang up and attack anyone that dared question them. There was also a third guy that was not running for the board that would jump in and would ridicule people. It hurt my heart to watch this unfold. Then there was all of the sudden a third man that was running for the board. I watched the social media sites and it didn't take long for him to call people idiots. I am a retired man that chose San Leon as my forever home and I go to every fundraiser in this town. I don't have much money but I show up and support the community that I love, and might I add, I have never seen one of those four jake legs at any of the charitable events. Thank you San Leon for seeing through their BS and making your voice heard on election day.

Signed,
Observant in SSL

Dear Observant,

Thank you for your letter. The people of SSL did make their voice heard loud and strong! The Seabreeze News is exhausted from the nastiness and the hurtful things said about good people. We have gotten so many letters about 76 and 66. We are putting that election behind us. 76, 66, and Beto sit down!

Dear Editor,

I don't know if this will make it to print due to the sensitive nature of the topic. I want to urge all parents to go to the school that their children attend.

1. Can you just walk in the school without anyone questioning you at the entrance you choose to go in?
2. Can you walk in your child's classroom?

If you answered yes to these questions ,it's time to reconsider sending your child to that school. If you have free roam to your child's school, so does someone else.

Signed,
Go Check! In Texas

Dear Go Check,

Normally The Seabreeze News would not allow this in the paper so close to such a tragedy, however, you do have some good advice.

San Leon Don's

FISHING TIPS

Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

The weather, wind and rain are still having it's effect on fishing. We had some nice weather for a short time and I had some nice reports of speckled trout being caught as well as reds. Most bait camps have a good supply of croaker and shrimp for bait.

If you are looking for a new place to fish you should try the North Jetty on Boliver Peninsula, it's only about two miles on the right when you get off of the ferry. It's free and there is a nice bait camp to help with supplies such as bait, tackle and snacks. For fishermen that don't know, there's a nice boat launch under the Dickinson bridge on Highway 146.

You can also get bait close by at Hillman's just down the street.

Keep hoping this weather gets better for fishing.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

ADVICE FOR NEW GRADUATES

There have been many new single women being proactive and enrolling in Dear Steve's Wife Training School, I decided to seek out several of our local eligible bachelors in San Leon. Over the course of this week, I visited several watering holes where these men spend much of their time drinking cold beer while waiting for the perfect woman to walk through the door. My question to them was: What is it you are looking for in a potential wife? What can we do to improve our classes at DSWTS to help these women land a husband? I was not so surprised at some of their answers. I felt like we had everything covered but, apparently, we need to tighten up a few of our classes.

I have changed the names of the men we interviewed not only to protect their identity, but to protect them from our new graduating class. The women who recently graduated are becoming very impatient and desperate and we did not want these very eligible men harassed. We will just call them, Stevie, Guy, Huggy, Frankie, Jaime, Shane, Matty, Alan, Scotty, and Uncle Tom. Here are the top answers I received from the men interviewed.

Give Him Freedom.

If he tells you he is going to spend the day with his buddies, do not ask him for an itinerary. Also, if by chance he lets you join him and his buddies for a cold beer, there is absolutely no need to hover over him. There is no need to tell him if one of his buddies offended you. More than likely, he hangs out with a few assholes and he knows it. He does not need you to remind him.

Support and Stand Behind Him.

If you are out with your man and his buddies and he tells a story you know to be not true, by no means correct him. Simply agree and laugh along. This is his story and he doesn't need your 2-cents added. There is no need to bring it up once you are alone ladies, just let him feel good about his story. He wants a good listener who will fall on his every word, not a mouthy Debbie Downer.

Pamper and Dote Over Him.

Men loved to be pampered in the privacy of their own home. Back and foot rubs while telling him how handsome and desirable he is will certainly bring a smile. Be sure he always has a cold beer or drink while you are doing this and never attempt this while out in public. Remember, he must maintain his manly appearance.

Appearance.

Want to get a proposal? Present yourself as marriage material. Be presentable enough to show off to his buddies yet also bring home to mama. Always attempt to look your best. Most men dream of super models half their age, but in reality they know this is just a dream. Do your best to be their real-life super model.

And finally, No surprise!

Great Sex.

Just one more thing before I close ladies. A good marriage serves the men far more than it does the women most men marry., But don't let that cat out of the bag until you have secured your husband.

Don't forget to get your very own Dear Steve's Wife Training School T-shirt at our local San Leon Liquor. It's a great way to let our single men know that you are now officially wife material.

Funny Bones

A chicken walks into a library, goes up to a librarian and says, "Book book book." The librarian decides that the chicken wants a book so he gives the chicken a book and the chicken walks away. About ten minutes later the chicken comes back with the book, looking a bit agitated, saying, "Book, book, book." The librarian decides the chicken wants another book, so he takes the old book back and gives the chicken another book. The chicken walks out the door. Ten minutes later the chicken comes back again, very agitated, saying, "Book, book, book!" so quickly it almost sounds like one word. The chicken puts the book on the librarian's desk and looks up - waiting for another book. This time the librarian gives the chicken another book and decides that something weird is happening. He follows the chicken out the door and into the park, all the way to the pond. In the pond is a frog sitting on a lily pad. The chicken gives the book to the frog, who then says, "Reddit, reddit."

The Devil whispered in my ear: “You’re not strong enough to withstand the storm.
I whispered back: “At least I didn’t lose my golden fiddle to some hillbilly in Georgia.”

A blonde sees a thermos in a store. She asks a clerk, "What is that and what's it for?" The clerk answers, "It's a thermos that keeps hot things hot and cold things cold." The blonde says, "I'll take it." When she gets to work, her blonde boss asks, "What is that?" The blonde worker says, "It's a thermos. It keeps cold things cold and hot things hot." "Whatcha got in it?" "A cup of coffee and a Popsicle."

Every ten years, the monks in the monastery are allowed to break their vow of silence to speak two words. Ten years go by and it’s one monk’s first chance. He thinks for a second before saying, “Food bad.” Ten years later, he says, “Bed hard.” It’s the big day, a decade later. He gives the head monk a long stare and says, “I quit.” “I’m not surprised,” the head monk says. “You’ve been complaining ever since you got here.”

How many men does it take to open a beer? None. It should be opened by the time she brings it.

Morris the loudmouth mechanic was removing the cylinder heads from the motor of a car when he spotted the famous heart surgeon Dr. Michael DeBakey, who was standing off to the side, waiting for the service manager to come take a look at his Mercedes. Morris shouted across the garage, "Hey DeBakey! Is dat you? Come on ova' here a minute." The famous surgeon, a bit surprised, walked over to where Morris the mechanic was working on the car. Morris straightened up, wiped his hands on a rag and asked argumentatively, "So Mr. Fancy Doctor, look at dis here work. I also open hearts, take valves out, grind 'em, put in new parts, and when I finish dis baby will purr like a kitten. So how come you get da big bucks, when you an' me is doing basically da same work?" Dr. DeBakey leaned over and whispered to Morris the loudmouth mechanic. "Try doing it with the engine running."

During a recent password audit, it was found that a blonde was using the following password: MickeyMinniePlutoHueyDeweyDonaldGoofySacramento. When asked why she had such a long password, she said she was told that it had to be at least eight characters and include at least one capital.

I hired a handyman and gave him a list of jobs to do. Of the jobs on the list, he only completed numbers 1,3,5 and 7. Turns out he only does odd jobs.

Billy Bob and his family decided to go ice fishing. So they loaded up all their tackle and headed up north and found a lake where they could go ice fishing with a tackle shop nearby in case they needed anything. When they got there the man behind the counter said they'd need ice picks for breaking the ice. After learning they were $10 each Billy Bob said they'd take 2. About an hour later Billy comes up to the shop and asks if he can buy another five ice picks. Confused, the man sells him the picks. About 4 hours later Billy staggers into the shop sweat pouring from his body and asks if he can buy the man's remaining stock of ice picks. Unable to contain his curiosity any longer the man asks what Billy could possibly be doing with so many ice picks? Billy looks and the man and says with a sigh that he never knew ice fishing was so much work. "We've been chopping and chopping for hours and we just now got the boat launched! "

San Leon MUD Update

Hurricane Season

There have been a number of new folks moving to San Leon, so for those not in the know, hurricane season is here! Atlantic hurricane season begins June 1st and lasts until November 30th, with peak season from mid-August to late October. Galveston County Office of Emergency Management (GCOEM), along with San Leon MUD and Bacliff MUD, held an informative town hall session last month, which is available to view on the San Leon Municipal Utility District Facebook page. GCOEM has several resources available on its website, www.gcoem.org, including preparation guides for adults and kids, as well as links to sign up for the State of Texas Emergency Assistance Registry, a free registry that provides local emergency planners and emergency responders with additional information on the needs in the community.

Brush Bundling & Debris Removal

With hurricane season here, be sure to clean up your property, removing any debris that may block drainage or become projectiles in the event of high winds. While Galveston County is not responsible for picking up brush or debris, Texas Pride will pick up brush that's placed in clear, individual piles measuring no larger than 3' x 3' x 3' or tied and bundled and under 50 pounds.

The MUD meetings are open to the public & are typically held on the third Tuesday of every month at 6:30 PM. Agendas can be found three days before the meeting at the MUD office or online at www.slmud.org

Meet Oliver. He is starting his journey of being hooked on fishing. Little does he know that by age 13, he will be mowing yards to buy fishing tackle and fishing in the SHS tournaments. By age 16, he will have a full time summer job to buy that flat bottom aluminum boat with a trolling motor. Take your kids fishing. As Dear Steve use to say, if they have a fishing pole in their hand they don't have room for stolen property.

Hospice + Care

Serving the San Leon and Surrounding Communities!

What is Home Health?

- If your physician sees a need for ongoing treatment after your visit, then an order may be written for home health.
- Your doctor may suggest an agency but remember, it's your choice! Choose CHARTER HEALTH!
- Services may include skilled nursing, therapy such as physical, occupational, and/or speech.
- The patient must be homebound. However, you may go to the barber, family event, church, etc.
- Most, if not all service is covered by Medicare or your insurance agency.

What is Hospice Care?

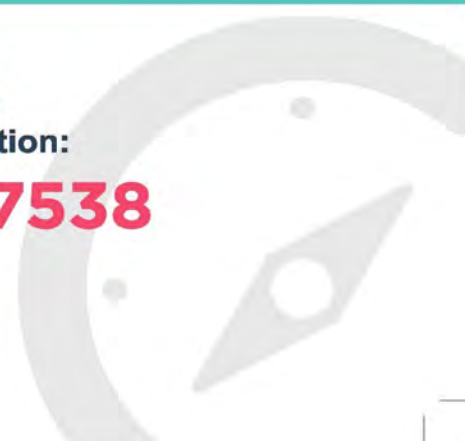

- It begins when a physician certifies that the patient qualifies and is appropriate.
- It is comfort care without curative intent; patient is no longer responding to curative treatment or has elected not to further pursue such treatments.
- All expenses related to the terminal diagnosis are covered by Medicare, Medicaid and most private insurance. This includes medication.
- Care is given wherever the patient calls home.
- Can a patient get better on hospice? YES!

IN MEMORIAM

JO NELLE (COLLINS) DRODDY

Jo Nelle (Collins) Droddy, age 81 passed away early in the morning on Sunday, May 22, 2022 with her family by her side. She is preceded in death by her doting husband, Joseph Albert Droddy, and parents, Herbert Lee and Crystal Pauline Collins and her brother, Charles Lee Collins.

Jo was a devoted wife, and mother to her three children; son, Lee Droddy; daughter, Tammy (Brent) Halvorson; daughter, Teri (Jeff) Mack. She was also beloved "Nanny" to Sam Illgen (Samantha Pettet), Crystal (Charlie) Landis, Madison (Austin) Greco, Weston Halvorson, Jennifer (Brandon) Russell, Becca Mack (Stephanie Abarca) and great grandchildren, Jonathan, Aubrey, Adrien, Adelyn, Austin, and Gracie.

She had many varied interests over the span of her full and active life including traveling, camping, playing Keno, quilting, and mastered too many crafts to name. She enjoyed a long career as an accountant and retired from AstroWorld after more than 20 years where she cultivated many lasting friendships. She loved the work that St. Jude's did; feel free to make a donation to them in her honor and in lieu of flowers.

We would like to thank the many family members and friends who have supported us over the last several weeks. With special thanks to Joyce Vervalin, Pam Tudor, Peggy Madray, Lynn Edwards, Crystal Greg Drake, Mandy Allen, Kerri Droddy, Madison Greco, Tanya Marks. And we would not have made it over the last several weeks without Crystal Landis by our side, your presence has meant so much to us.

A kind friend set up a memorial fund at St. Jude's for mom also if you are so inclined. <https://fundraising.stjude.org/.../TR/GiftFunds/GiftFunds>.

FEMA's Ready Campaign

educates and empowers Americans to take some simple steps to prepare for and respond to potential emergencies, including those from natural hazards and man-made disasters. Ready asks individuals to do three key things: get an emergency supply kit, make a family emergency plan, and be informed about the different types of emergencies that could occur and appropriate responses. Everyone should have some basic supplies on hand in order to survive several days if an emergency occurs. This list of emergency supply kit items is only a starting point. It is important that individuals review this list and consider the unique needs of their family, including pets, for items to include. Individuals should also consider having at least two emergency supply kits, one full kit at home and smaller portable kits in their workplace, vehicle or other places they spend time.
