CERT ACADEMY 2022-23 AT BAYSIDE REGIONAL PARK

The third CERT Academy of 2022 will take place at the Bayside Regional Park Community Center located at 4833 10th Street, Bacliff, TX 77518. This training is completely free of cost! The training dates and times are as follows:

September 16 (Friday) from 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm
September 17 (Saturday) from 8 am to 5:00 pm
September 18 (Sunday) from 1 pm to 5:00 pm
September 23 (Friday) from 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm
September 24 (Saturday) from 8 am to 5:00 pm

You need to attend all the class session and times to complete the academy. Some missed time can be made up by turning in an outline of the material missed in class, but you cannot make up the work on Saturday, September 24th in the afternoon. If you have to miss the class and drill on the 24th, it can only be made up with another CERT Academy in the near future.

All materials will be provided for you, and you will receive emergency supplies and personal protective equipment.

You are welcome to bring snacks and drinks to class with you.

Minors, 13 and older, are welcome, but must be accompanied by an adult or parent, unless the student possesses a valid Texas Driver's license.

The CERT Program educates citizens about disaster preparedness for hazards that may impact their area and trains them in basic disaster response skills, such as fire safety, light search and rescue, team organization, and disaster medical operations. Using the training learned in the classroom and during exercises, CERT members can assist others in their neighborhood or workplace following an event when professional responders are not immediately available to help. CERT members also are encouraged to support emergency response agencies by taking a more active role in emergency preparedness projects in their community. All citizens are encouraged to take the CERT training. There is no requirement to join the active CERT team. The philosophy is that a trained citizen is a better-prepared citizen.

On August 31st, 2022, not only did your fishing license expire, but if you were fortunate enough to be on the Houston and Galveston Ship Channel from La Porte to Galveston most of you were able to watch history in the making. People literally lined the coast to get a glimpse of the Battleship Texas pass. O'Neals On the Water had people started to show up at 6:30 am to get a view of the ship. They estimated about 150 people were there to watch her pass by. She made it past O'Neals at 8:45 am moving at about 5 knots.

The internet had a lot of information, but there was also a lot of untrue information, so The Seabreeze News reached out to Bruce Bramlett, the Chief Operating Officer for the Battleship Texas. Mr. Bramlett told me that if anyone wants to know the facts about the Battleship Texas, they could go to their website www.battleshiptexas.org. The Battleship Texas is 110 years old. Construction started in 1911 and was commissioned into the Navy in 1914. She was docked at the San Jacinto Battleground for 70 years, and the move to the drydock in Galveston was out of necessity. They were pumping 2,000 gallons of water a minute out of the hull. Bruce Bramlett said the overall move went very well and they were ahead of schedule. Along with about 30 people, they had many pumps and generators in place in case they were needed.

The plan for the Battleship Texas is that it will be in the drydock at Gulf Copper Manufacturing Corporations for 12 to 14 months with 35 million dollars to do the work needed. However, if the Battleship Texas Foundation can raise more money, they will get as much work done to the battleship as possible while in drydock. Bruce Bramlett said that hopefully in October they may be able to have people visit the battleship on Sunday due to work being done Monday through Saturday. You will find any information on the website. Bramlett also stated that nobody currently knows where the battleship's next home will be.

In recent years, the Battleship Texas Foundation has raised money by selling beautiful commemorative firearms. In the past, I have seen Henry Repeating Arms, Browning 1911, and Colts. They are currently taking orders for a commemorative Colt Python engraved by Barron Engraving. These firearms are shipped from Barron Engraving to 3rd Coast Ordnance located in San Leon. The Seabreeze News will keep up with what's going on with Battleship Texas, and when they start selling tickets for Sunday tours I will probably be on one of the first tours. What a beautiful battleship. I am looking forward to watching the progress. And please remember, if you want to know what's going on with her, visit the website for accurate information.

Battleship Texas sails from its former home in La Porte to dry dock in Galveston for much needed repairs.

Letters To The Editor

The Seabreeze News would like to say Good Job!! to the Pearland Little League

Dear Editor,
I pick your paper up at the Big Store each month and I will admit it's a unique read. I have never written a letter to an editor and you might toss this in the trash. I am a waitress at one of the restaurants in Crystal Beach and have been for years. That's how I make my living and I like what I do. Since the pandemic all the restaurants have been short staffed so if you want to work, there is plenty of work in the service industry. Most days in the summer I work doubles but, hey, that's when I make my crazy good money. It slows down a little after Labor Day and gets real slow in the winter months. Almost every day I have a customer say, "Do you live at the beach?" In my mind I'm thinking, no, I commute from Beaumont. I smile and say, "Yes, I live here." Then I hear "Wow. you are so lucky." And now this is the reason for my letter. The housing here is terrible. You can't find a decent two bedroom house here for less than $2000 a month. And if you do, it will be right in the middle of the "The Vacation Rentals" and it will be a run-down shack on the inside. It is tough to work doubles all summer and live in the middle of vacation rentals. The people are loud, don't give a crap about anyone or their property. I would never rent out anything for a short-term rental.

I am a single gal with a little dog. $2000 a month for rent is not practical for me, not to mention water, lights, and garbage. What I did is I bought a nice-sized travel trailer that I paid $350 a month till I paid it off, then I had a customer that had a lot with water, sewer, and power on it and he rented that to me for $350 a month. Of course I have to pay water and power. I just wanted to let the people in the service industry know that there are choices out there besides having two roommates to afford living in Crystal Beach or spending every dollar you make on rent. I'm not complaining, just trying to be helpful.

Signed,
Trying to be helpful in CB

Dear Helpful,
Oh trust me, I know you're not complaining or you would have touched on the horrible traffic on holiday weekends or shopping. Shopping on a holiday weekend is completely crazy! I go get my shopping done on Wednesday before the weekend. I do not take the Ferry across to Galveston. I get my shopping done at The Big Store and the Dollar Store. If The Big Store doesn't have it, you probably don't need it.

Dear Editor,

It's Bob from Bacliff, the guy that is too cheap to pay for cable. I have not written in a while due to all the important elections going on. I didn't want to take up space in my local paper with my TV crap. Now that it is summer and elections are over, I thought I would drop a few lines about the annoying part C commercials! I think they are trying to rip the elderly off. I could be wrong, but when you watch a commercial about the part C coverage and the man is in the dental chair and the assistant says, "Mr. So-and-So, I noticed since you were here last you got part C insurance." He is laying in the dentist chair with his mouth wide open and can't speak, but she says we need to take x-rays. What? They didn't need to take them before he got part C? I call BS! They didn't need x-rays till he had insurance! That's like saying now that we can bill your insurance, we will be scheduling you for a lot more procedures.

Signed,
Bob in Bacliff

Dear Bob in Bacliff,
I wondered what happened to you. My mom had a plan called Texan Plus and she was very happy with the plan. She got free over-the-counter meds, so much a year in dental and eye care and I believe her prescriptions were $1.97 I don't recall if it was part A, B, C, D, E, F or G.

Dear Editor,
I am a 35 year old man and I have spent the last 15 years paying off my student loans. I did get a great education but at a great cost. Now I hear Biden is planning on forgiving $10,000.00 of student loans. Personally, I think that is a bunch of crap! I worked my butt off to pay my loans off and now my tax dollars are going to pay someone else's loan off.

Signed,
Educated in Dickinson

Dear Educated,
There are many people out there that feel your pain. Most of the people out there that have student loan debt are between 25 and 34 years old. The average student loan is about $28,000.00 so a small family of three probably owe $56,000.00. That is a substantial amount. They also got an education to put them in a specific field to pay these loans off.

San Leon Don's FISHING TIPS
Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

The weather has really improved from what it was a month ago and fishing has also improved. Just keep an eye on the rain as it can change even after a forecast.

Fishing has been good in East Bay and around the oil wells in the middle of the bay. Most of the trout I've seen were legal but not monsters. Most fishermen are using shrimp on popping cork rigs, with long leaders.

In the CCA tournament I don't think all the tagged red fish have been caught and registered so keep trying to find that red fish if you are registered. If not registered, just keep fishing and take a young person with you and teach them to fish.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

The A to Z's for Modern Day Brides to Be

Well readers, a month has gone by and I'm happy to say the wedding plans are still a go. As many of you know, my daughter is enrolled in classes at Dear Steve's Wife Training School preparing for the big day that she will become a wife. She has moved on to many of the intermediate classes and is spending much time practicing the skills she is learning. She seems to be happy most of the time, but I occasionally pass by her room and the conversations I overhear concern me. When I ask if everything is okay, she simply says, "Yes, Mother. We are just communicating our feelings."

Now, I know these are different times and this generation doesn't really think like us older folks. They seem to want to question everything. Analyze every situation. Get all in their feelings. I hear her asking questions that would have never occurred to me to ask a future husband. Old school traditions are fading away and young women are becoming more independent, even equal, one might say. The days of your husband coming home after a few beers with the boys and dinner being warm on the table are dwindling away. Laundry is not finished and the house is a mess because the day is spent on the internet reading sissy articles on how to tell if your husband loves you.

This led me to do some internet research myself. I wanted to take a look at what these young girls were being fed. I am here to tell you what I found would have set our beloved Dear Steve into turmoil! There actually is an A to Z questionnaire for young brides to be to ask their future husbands! It goes against almost every rule Dear Steve lived by and most certainly against everything in his Dear Steve's Wife Training School rulebook. All I can say is I'm glad he's not here to see it. I do, however, feel inclined to share it with you. You might need to grab a cold one.

- A. Are you sure you want to spend the rest of your life with me?
- B. Where do you see us in another 15 to 20 years?
- C. Will you be able to tell the truth and share everything with me? Is communication essential for you?
- D. How would you like me to show you my love?
- E. Would you prefer to go out alone with your friends or want me to accompany you everywhere?
- F. Do you enjoy watching porn?
- G. Should we divide the housework?
- H. How much personal time do you think we should have?
- I. Do you keep in touch with your exes?
- J. Do you meditate?
- K. Do you want to have children?
- L. If yes, how soon after marriage?
- M. How many children do you want to have?
- N. Will you have time to give me the attention I need?
- O. How many times a week do you think we might have sex?
- P. What are your sexual fantasies?
- Q. Are you comfortable talking about sex or matters of the heart? Could you listen and support me if I have problems?
- R. What turns you off?
- S. Are you a communicator or the silent treatment type?
- T. How should we express our anger and sadness?
- U. Do you need to spend time alone?
- V. How should we maintain a balance in the house?
- W. Once we have children, would you change diapers and feed them?
- X. Do you like my family?
- Y. Why do you love me?

Can you just imagine the answers my Ole Buddy Steve would have had to those questions? Anyhow, I am interested in your opinions of these readily available questions. Please send me some mail and give me your thoughts. I might even include you in my next month's column.

Until then wish me luck,

Funny Bones

A radio host was taking a break during his podcast when he realized that someone stole his motorcycle from the station's parking lot. The radio host took the mic and started yelling:

"To the people who stole my motorcycle this morning, you have 4 hours to bring it back to me or I'll do to you the same thing my dad did in 1999 when someone stole his car!" Only 30 minutes had passed when 2 guys showed up to the radio station with the bike.

Thief: Sorry about that, I don't know what we were thinking, it won't happen again.

Radio host: You brought my motorcycle back so that's all that matters.

Thief: I'm curious though, what would you have done if we hadn't brought back the bike?

Radio host: Oh, well like I said, I would've done the same thing my dad did. I would've walked back home.

Teacher: "Kids, what does the chicken give you?"

Student: "Meat!"

Teacher: "Very good! Now what does the pig give you?"

Student: "Bacon!"

Teacher: "Great! And what does the fat cow give you?"

Student: "Homework!"

A wealthy man was having an affair with an Italian woman for a few years. One night, during one of their rendezvous, she confided in him that she was pregnant. Not wanting to ruin his reputation or his marriage, he paid her a large sum of money if she would go to Italy to have the child. If she stayed in Italy, he would also provide child support until the child turned 18. She agreed but wondered how he would know when the baby was born. To keep it discreet, he told her to mail him a postcard, and write "Spaghetti" on the back. He would then arrange for child support. One day, about 9 months later, he came home to his confused wife. "Honey," she said, "you received a very strange postcard today." "Oh, just give it to me and I'll explain it later," he said. The wife handed the card over and watched as her husband read the card, turned white, and fainted. On the card was written "Spaghetti, Spaghetti, Spaghetti. Two with meatballs, one without."

An old man is met by his attorney and is told he is going to be audited. He rides to the IRS office with his attorney, and when he gets there, he begins to talk with the IRS agent. "I bet $2,000 I can bite my own eye!" The IRS agent agrees to the bet, believing it an impossible task. The old man laughs, pulls out his glass eye, and bites it. The IRS agent is dumbfounded. The old man bets $3,000 he can bite his other eye. The IRS agent knows there's no way possible to do this, so he once more agrees. The old man cackles, pulls out his dentures, and bites his eye. Then the old man finally wagers, "I bet $20,000 I can stand on the far side of your desk, pee over the desk, and get it into your wastebasket, without missing a single drop." The agent knows he won't be able to, so once more he agrees. The old man indeed misses, peeing all over the desk, and on the paperwork. The IRS agent jumps for joy, but then notices the attorney over in the corner moaning. "Are you all right?" asks the agent. "No! On the way over here, he bet me $400,000 he could pee on your desk and you'd be happy about it!"

Q: Why do pilgrims pants fall down?

A: Because their belts are on their hats.

A completely inebriated man was stumbling down the street with one foot on the curb and one foot in the gutter. A cop pulled up and said, "I've got to take you in pal. You're obviously drunk." The wasted man asked, "Officer, are ya absolutely sure I'm drunk?" "Yeah buddy, I'm sure," said the cop, "Let's go." Breathing a sigh of relief, the wino said, "Thank goodness. I thought I was crippled."

Once there was a farmer that was very protective of his three daughters. When they told him they were going to go out on dates one night, the farmer decided to wait outside with a shotgun. The first boy arrived for the first daughter, and he said, "Hi, my name is Freddy. I'm here for Betty. We're going for spaghetti. Is she ready?" The farmer decided he was decent enough and let them go. The second boy arrived for the second daughter, and said, "Hi, my name is Joe. I'm here for Flo. We're going to a show. Is she good to go?" Again, the farmer decided he was decent enough and let them go. Finally, the last boy came, and he said, "Hi, my name is Chuck..." and the farmer shot him.

San Leon MUD Update

Drought & Water Conservation

Due to ongoing drought conditions throughout the State, San Leon MUD is asking for voluntary water conservation. What is conservation exactly? It's the efficient use of the resources we have to ensure we have those resources in the future. Things you can do to help are limiting the use of water outdoors, only using your dishwasher when there's a full load, and checking your water lines to make sure there aren't any leaks. While the District does not have any concern that we'll run out water at this time, proper stewardship of our natural resources like water ensures we'll have them for many years to come!

Dates to Remember

Burn Ban Still In Effect

The unincorporated area of Galveston County is still under a burn ban due to ongoing drought conditions. All intentional outdoor burning is prohibited.

Water Weekly

For the week of 08/22/22

Water conditions

The drought map for August 16 conditions shows two categories of improvement in parts of South Texas after Invest 98L, a low-pressure system from the Gulf of Mexico, brought significant rain to that region. The area of the state in drought contracted three percentage points from the previous week.

Drought conditions

IN MEMORIAM

HOWARD “DALE” SEWELL

Howard “Dale” Sewell was born on January 20, 1955, to Glenn and Isabel Sewell. Dale was preceded in death by his beloved wife Peggy Sewell; his sister Brenda Pinson and nephew Brad Stevenson. Dale is survived by his parents, Glenn and Isabel Sewell; sister Glenda Womack, husband Cecil; sister Lisa Strom, husband Kenneth; and brother Harold Sewell. Dale leaves behind many nieces and nephews, great-nieces and nephews; great-great nieces and nephew; friends and family.

Dale was a long-time resident of San Leon, Texas. Dale was married to the love of his life for 34 years. They were inseparable since the day they reconnected after high school.

Dale always stepped up to bolster his family, especially in times of need, from coordinating a weekly breakfast after the loss of his nephew to helping family after the hurricanes. He was quiet but comforting with his advice and help. Although, he could be stubborn and did have a temper if you crossed him or his family.

Dale was a master finish carpenter and built Peggy and him a beautiful home after Hurricane Ike destroyed theirs. He took great pride in his home and yard. Dale and Peggy always threw the best 4th of July parties for all of their friends and family.

Dale built lasting lifelong friendships. He could be found hanging around his house with his buddy Levi and many of the neighbors. He always had time to drink a cup of coffee with anyone.

He loved all of his fur babies, from Buddy Bear, Festus to his new little Bubba. He also enjoyed feeding all of the neighborhood cats and the white squirrels that came to his door for peanuts.

Dale was loved and he will be greatly missed by everyone he touched. Rest in Peace.

REMEMBER WHEN

By Joe Sullivan

Bryce's Fruit & Vegetable stand used to be where the Jack-in-the Box is now

Remember when there was no McDonalds

Remember when the Lighthouse Christian Ministries use to be Maples Furniture Store

Remember when Dr. Chacko was in the vacated building next to the Chinese Wok

Remember when FM 646 was not there and you had to turn at Strom Road to get to Dickinson or if you were coming from Dickinson you had to travel down FM 517 and turn left on Strom Road to get to Bacliff, or go straight to get to San Leon

Remember when the Old Clifton by the Sea restaurant was there and there was a long Community Pier where everyone went fishing and swimming because the water was deep there

Remember when what is now Noah's Ark was Ruth's Beacon Inn, a hamburger joint with a juke box and a shuffleboard

Remember when Medicine Man Pharmacy was on Grand down from Lou's Grocery on the left in a double wide mobile home next to the little beauty shop then moved to what is now the Liquor Store that was once occupied by Hugh Ward Insurance until he died and his wife Bertie moved away

Remember when the Spillway Park was a field, no pavilion, no lights, no parking. We used to have Cook-Offs in the field

Remember when the Spillway RV park was there on Bayshore Dr with the long fishing pier and RV spots. Good Fishing

Remember when Topwater Grill was not there only a Bait Camp where Capt. Wally sold shrimp and launched boats

Remember when Eagle Point Fishing Camp was Gelanek's and you could rent a little 12x12 cottage for $10 a week and rent a boat if you had a motor. If you look closely the old concrete slabs are still there where the RVs are on the right as you drive to the Office.

Remember the House at 1140 Grand Ave with the little dog grooming building out front. Current site of Sullivan Pharmacy

Remember when the few businesses on Grand Ave consisted of Lou's Grocery, Bacliff Builders Supply, Louis' Barber Shop, the old Bacliff Post Office, and Clifton by the Sea at the end of the street

Remember when the Bacliff Fire Station was on Jackson Street instead of Grand Ave

Remember when we didn't have a U.S. Flag at the corner of HWY 146 and Grand (FM 646)

Remember when the Donut Shop use to be called Miss Pat's

Remember when Dr. Hanby was in the mobile home next to Sullivan Pharmacy

Remember when there was a church located on the now parking lot of Lou's Grocery where the Gas pumps are

Remember when San Leon Elementary school was NOT there

Remember the JUMBO GUMBO Cook-Offs at the Spillway Park before the Pavilion was built

Remember when a Time Capsule was buried at the Spillway Park on July 4, 1995

Remember when the water from heavy rains drained to the bay instead of up Grand Ave and homes didn't flood

Remember when there were no Game Rooms or Firework stands on Grand Ave

Remember when the Galveston County Deputies were not located on Grand Ave but at the North Galveston County Bldg. on FM 646

Remember the Bacliff VFW on FM 646 now occupied by a Church

Remember when there was no Bayside Lions Club and the many wonderful things it does for the communities

Remember the old San Leon Fire Station

Remember Hurricane Ike and Constable Pam Matranga got the FEMA trucks filled with ice and bottled water to come to the Spillway Park

Remember when there were no Street Lights in Bacliff or San Leon

Remember when the Circus used to come to the Spillway Park

Remember when there was NO Flag Pole on HWY 146

Remember when there was a San Leon-Bacliff-Bayview Chamber of Commerce
