Was it 120 dead cats or was it 50? Does the number matter?

Who really knows? It is a bad situation either way. How do you end up with 50 or 120 dead cats in and around your home? I was told that the neighbors called Galveston County authorities many times, but who knows what really happened?

What I know is a young lady named Kaylee, 23 years old, posted on Nextdoor for someone to foster two of her cats, Cheesecake, pictured here, and Oatmeal. She was preparing to move to Michigan and couldn't bring them along to her temporary home. Cheesecake was an older cat, while Oatmeal, a kitten, needed some special care due to health issues. Bobbie Medley, a rescuer, took in Oatmeal, and Julia Szebehely, also known as "Juliana Meyow," picked up Cheesecake.

Juliana always picked up cats, she never let anyone drop off cats at her house. She had been helping with cats in the area for years. She was known for picking up stray cats, getting them spayed or neutered, and returning them to their homes at no cost to the owners. People in the community trusted her.

Kaylee kept in contact with both Bobbie and Juliana, checking in on her cats regularly. But as time passed, Juliana's responses became less frequent. Eventually, Juliana told Kaylee she was in the hospital and assured her that a caretaker was looking after Cheesecake — which turned out to be a lie.

When it came time for Kaylee to pick up Cheesecake in early September, Juliana gave her the runaround, making excuses about why she couldn't pick up the cat. At that point, Kaylee reached out to Bobbie, who still had Oatmeal, and told her what was going on with Juliana. Bobbie, who runs Forgotten Pet & Wildlife Rescue and has a license from the state of Texas to rescue and rehabilitate wildlife, was not someone to cross when it came to animals. She decided to get involved.

On September 7th, Bobbie contacted Juliana and told her they were coming to get Cheesecake. After a lot of back-and-forth, Juliana finally gave them the address where Cheesecake supposedly was. When they arrived, the situation was far worse than anyone could have imagined. Dead cats in various stages of decomposition were scattered across the overgrown property. To make things worse, Bobbie noticed a horse on the property that was extremely underweight. That's when Juliana told them to leave.

Bobbie called the authorities and waited. When no one came quickly, she called in a welfare check for Juliana, which triggered a series of events that exposed the horror of the situation. Juliana was taken away in an ambulance, and Grizzly Hood News was called to document what they found. As Grizzly and another person walked through the house and garage, they remarked on the sound of bones crunching beneath their feet. They also noticed that nearby cows were skinny and living in muddy conditions.

The video that surfaced was gut-wrenching — one of the worst cases of animal cruelty I've ever seen. How did no one know what was happening? Juliana had been active on both Nextdoor and Facebook, posting regularly. I even reached out to her back in January, asking who managed animal control for San Leon and Bacliff. She was very helpful and informative then.

In this case, it's clear people did report what was going on, but nothing was done. Many people have asked, "Why isn't she in jail?" I don't have the answer. Animal cruelty was made a felony during Donald Trump's presidency, yet somehow, justice hasn't been served in this case.

As for Cheesecake, her story isn't over — she's still missing. I would say "If you see something say something."

If there's one takeaway from this, it's this: Don't post on social media if you need to rehome your pet. You never know where your animal might end up. Will your dog become a bait dog in illegal pit bull fighting? Will your cat fall into the hands of someone with a mental illness? Before bringing a pet into your home, understand the responsibility. If you can't commit to caring for that animal for 15 years or more, maybe it's best not to adopt.

The Seabreeze News would like to thank Bobbie Medley of Forgotten Pet & Wildlife Rescue for bringing attention to this tragedy. I visited her shelter recently, and she was caring for bottle-fed kittens, special needs cats, raccoons, and even squirrels — some of them victims of Hurricane Beryl. If you want to help, you can find her rescue on Facebook or email her at FPWR@myyahoo.com. Donations, cat food, litter — every bit helps.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

My daughter is moving to the San Leon area at the end of October. I asked a few of my buddies to keep their eyes open for a small house or an apartment. One of the guys mentioned that they just built new gated apartments off of 24th in San Leon, while another friend said that they are section 8 apartments, is this true?

I wish I had the resources that The Seabreeze News does.

Signed A Concerned Dad in San Leon

Dear Concerned Dad,

As soon as we got your letter we got right on it!

This is what we found out: The apartments are 2 bedroom 2 baths with a security gate. They rent for $1,300 - $1,400 a month with a $250.00 pet deposit and yes they will accept section 8.

Because you are a concerned Dad, I will give you this resource: I got in my car and went to the apartment complex and called the number posted on the security gate.

Dear Editor,

What the hell is going on with the trash service in San Leon? Some people are getting trash picked up and some are not. I am confused on these days, as many of us are.

Signed The Wondering Trashy Guy

Dear Trashy Guy,

Let me try to help you out with this. It was time for the San Leon MUD to take bids on our trash service and Decker won the bid over Texas Pride. There were other trash companies that turned in bids. This was not a pissing match between Decker and Pride.

Decker won and Pride walked and left their contract. Decker had to step up within a few days. They rented trucks and hired a bunch of people to try to fulfil the rest of Pride's contract. I did put the pick up areas in the September issue and I did personally hand out maps to many businesses.

The new trash cans should be in soon.

Property Address Reminder

Part of San Leon's rate order requires that all residential and commercial buildings in the district have the property address posted on the building. The letters and numbers used to mark addresses should be at least three inches high and should be placed on the building, so they are visible from the street. This is to the residents' benefit as well since any EMS responders will be better able to locate your property with the address visible.

San Leon Don's FISHING TIPS
Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

It sure looks like an early fall to me, as some years are earlier than others. I see the humming birds are moving south for the winter and the cold weather is usually not far behind. Fall fishing starts when the water cools off. Some say the flounder have already started to move.

The fishing action has been good at the jetties, where they are catching Reds, Sheepshead, Drum, and Speckled Trout. Take advantage of the really nice weather and take a kid fishing, they will never forget it and will always be thankful to you.

Be safe and courteous on the water,

SAN LEON CEMETERY & COMMITTEE

Michael Eugene Stewart

Michael Eugene Stewart, of San Leon, Texas, passed away on July 29, 2024 at Houston Methodist Clear Lake Hospital, at 71 years of age. Born in Houston, Texas on March 7, 1953, to Emery Eugene and Viola Mae Stewart, "Big Mike" as he was known by many, was a graduate of Dickinson High School, class of 1971 and attended Southern Bible Institute. He retired from Turnaround Construction after 35 years of service.

Mike was a member and later, a minister with the Assembly of God from childhood to 1998. He was a long-time volunteer with the American Legion and served as Commander of the Sons of the American Legion Squadron 291, in San Leon, Texas. He also served as President and coach of Bayshore Little League in honor of his mother for whom the field is named after. He enjoyed taking weekly drives around San Leon and visiting local watering holes where he would sit for hours and talk with friends. His hobbies included watching the Astros of which he was a lifelong fan and Texans football. Most of all, Mike loved spending time and showing off his grandson.

He is preceded in death by his parents and survived by his daughter Wendy Wright, her spouse Daniel Wright, daughter Sheena Stewart, her spouse Joseph Moss, and his grandson Ian Michael Moss. The other joys of his life were his three dogs, Dixie, Sugar, and Tootsie. "Big Mike" will be missed by his family and the community that he loved and called home. Memorial services will be held on Saturday, October 19, 2024 at 4:00 pm, at Pacific Seafood, 137 21st Street, San Leon, Texas.

Jesse Duckett

It is with utmost sadness that we, as an American Legion family, share the loss of our dear friend, Sons Squadron 291 member, and Sergeant at Arms, Jesse Duckett, on August 24, 2024. We, at Post 291 are shocked and saddened by this loss. Jesse was a devoted servant to those who served our country and he was constant in our post, often referring to himself as "the furniture". Many may know him by his trucks filled with treasures and trinkets. We knew him by his big heart and willingness to do whatever was needed of him, to support our Veterans. Anyone stopping by to visit during the day was sure to meet Jesse, with his larger-than-life greeting and stories that knew no end, but usually had an interesting lesson. Jesse was born February 11, 1953, but he was a man born out of his time. He loved to reminisce about his adventures, over the years, and friends he met along the way. Jesse loved the outdoors, fishing, and hunting, and was a true man of the south. He had many curiosities, loved to learn, and was certain to be in the middle of a good book. His passing will be felt by all who encountered him drinking his Coca-Cola, sitting in "his spot" at the end of the bar. Our heart goes out to his brother, Guy Duckett, sister Dare Moore, and the rest of his family. To our dear friend, we say "Good travels". We pray that your next adventure is your greatest and that you are enjoying good times with old friends and family, from the stories you shared with us over the years. We will miss you.

Please join us as we celebrate the life of our friend, on Saturday October 5, 2024, at 2:00 pm, at American Legion Post #291, 1402 FM 517 S, San Leon, Texas. We ask anyone who would like, to please bring a side dish or dessert to share with others. You may sign up at the post, or bring it with you.

Words of Encouragement

Ecclesiastes 3:1

[1] There is a season (a time appointed) for everything and a time for every delight and event or purpose under heaven—

[11] He has made everything beautiful and appropriate in its time. He has also planted eternity [a sense of divine purpose] in the human heart [a mysterious longing which nothing under the sun can satisfy, except God]—yet man cannot find out (comprehend, grasp) what God has done (His overall plan) from the beginning to the end.

FUNNY BONES

A lady went into a bar in Texas and saw cowboy with his feet propped up on a table. He had the biggest boots she'd ever seen. The woman asked the cowboy if it's true what they say about men with big feet are well endowed. The cowboy grinned and said, "Shore is, little lady. Why don't you come on out to the bunkhouse and let me prove it to you?" The woman wanted to find out for herself, so she spent the night with him. The next morning she handed him $200. Blushing, he said, "Well, thankee, ma'am. Ah'm real flattered. Ain't nobody ever paid me fer mah services before.." "Don't be flattered. Take the money and buy yourself some boots that fit."

A woman from New York was driving through a remote part of Arizona when her car broke down. An American Indian on horseback came along and offered her a ride to a nearby town. She climbed up behind him on the horse and they rode off. The ride was uneventful, except that every few minutes the Indian would let out a 'Ye-e-e-e-h-a-a-a!' so loud that it echoed from the surrounding hills and canyon walls. When they arrived in town, he let her off at the local service station, yelled one final 'Ye-e-e-e-h-a-a-a!' and rode off. "What did you do to get that Indian so excited?" asked the service-station attendant. "Nothing," the woman answered "I merely sat behind him on the horse, put my arms around his waist, and held onto the saddle horn so I wouldn't fall off." "Lady," the attendant said, "Indians don't use saddles."

THE TEACHER WAS TRYING TO TEACH HER KINDERGARTNERS TO USE 'BIG PEOPLE' WORDS

A group of kindergartners were trying to become accustomed to the first grade. The biggest hurdle they faced was that the teacher insisted on no baby talk. "You need to use 'big people' words," she'd always remind them. She asked Chris what he had done over the weekend. "I WENT TO VISIT MY NANA." "No, you went to visit your GRANDMOTHER. Use big people words!" She then asked Mitchell what he had done. "I TOOK A RIDE ON A CHOO-CHOO." SHE SAID, "NO, YOU TOOK A RIDE ON A TRAIN. Use big people words." She then asked Bobby what he had done. "I read a book," he replied. "That's WONDERFUL!" the teacher said. "What book did you read?" Bobby thought about it, then puffed out his little chest with great pride and said,..."Winnie the Shit."
