First International Bank & Trust Selects Fusion CRS™ as its new Consolidated Delinquency Collection and Recovery Software Platform

We are very pleased to announce that First International Bank & Trust has selected Fusion CRS™ as its collection and recovery software platform.

First International Bank & Trust will take advantage of Fusion's automated daily import module to integrate with their Fiserv Premier core processing platform.

After evaluating several alternatives, First International Bank & Trust selected Fusion CRS primarily because of its robust capabilities and the company's reputation for providing high-level, personalized support and service after the sale. Scheduled to be implemented later this year, Fusion CRS will help the bank meet its objectives to reduce delinquencies, increase recoveries, and reduce expenses by streamlining collection and recovery operations, improving resource productivity, and automating the production of advanced reporting. Fusion CRS will also provide First International Bank & Trust many advanced features and capabilities for tracking and managing recoveries and charge-offs, including repossessions, bankruptcies, foreclosures, OREO property management, and charge-off recovery financial management.

In addition, the bank will also implement Fusion's Web Access Module to provide easy enterprise-wide access to collection status and history information on Fusion CRS along with early stage collections capabilities for branch loan officers.
