CAVIAR - 28 GRAM JARS

AMERICAN SALMON

$35

American Salmon Caviar, or Ikura as it's known in Japanese cuisine, is a vibrant and popular choice for caviar enthusiasts. Harvested from various salmon species found in North America, particularly the Pacific Northwest, it's known for its appealing color and satisfying texture. American Salmon Caviar has a delicate, pure flavor with a touch of sweetness and a pleasant, balanced brine that is not overly salty.

PADDLEFISH

American Paddlefish caviar is a popular and sustainable alternative to traditional sturgeon caviar. This caviar boasts a mild and earthy flavor profile, often described as smooth and buttery. It offers a delicate touch of brininess without being excessively salty.

HACKLEBACK STURGEON

$75

Hackleback Sturgeon caviar, sourced from the Shovelnose Sturgeon, found in the Mississippi River system, is a delicious and sustainable option. It has a rich, buttery taste with a subtle nuttiness, similar to Ossetra or Sevruga caviar. A hint of sweetness balances the flavor, making it a mild choice for those new to caviar. Expect a pleasant earthiness and a balanced brininess, reminiscent of the river environment where the sturgeon live.

CALIFORNIA PREMIUM WHITE STURGEON

$87

Sourced from the Pacific White Sturgeon farmed in California, this caviar is a domestically produced luxury. It offers a delicate and refined flavor profile that's often compared to some European sturgeon caviars. Expect a clean and delicate flavor profile with subtle notes. The primary flavor is often described as nutty and buttery, with a creamy finish. A gentle hint of brininess compliments the rich flavor without being overwhelming.

ROYAL SIBERIAN OSSETRA

$96

Royal Siberian Ossetra caviar comes from the Siberian Sturgeon. It's a popular choice for caviar enthusiasts, appreciated for its nuanced flavor and smooth texture. This caviar offers a refined taste, with subtle notes of nuttiness and a creamy finish. Expect a delicate touch of salinity, along with an earthy quality, reminiscent of the sturgeon's river habitat.

IMPERIAL RUSSIAN OSSETRA

$117

Imperial Russian Ossetra is renowned for its complex and nuanced flavor profile. Expect a buttery richness, complemented by nutty notes (often reminiscent of walnuts or hazelnuts), hints of caramel, and a delicate touch of brininess. The flavor is often described as both bold and refined. This caviar features large, firm pearls that offer a satisfying pop when gently pressed, releasing a burst of flavor followed by a smooth, creamy sensation that melts in your mouth. Imperial Ossetra is distinguished by its golden hue, which can range from light amber to a rich, luminous gold. This prized color, historically reserved for royalty, contributes to its exclusivity.

Caviar is served with Homemade Blinis, Egg White, Egg Yolk, Shallot & Crème Fraiche
