

Hi Hannah

Our names are Belle and Renae and we talk to kids and young people just like you about what might be happening in their family.

If you come and see us, we might chat, draw and use cards to talk about how things are for you right now and how you are feeling about it.

Our job isn't to find out who is right or wrong but to give you a chance to say what's on your mind, how you feel about what's going on with your family and maybe what's worrying you. Our job isn't to ask you where you want to live either.

We are interested to hear what is important to you and what you have to say!

We usually see kids for about an hour and afterwards, you don't have to tell anyone what we spoke about

Before we speak with your parents, we will ask you if there is anything you said that you aren't comfortable with your parents knowing.

We won't share anything you don't want us to. Your parents will then hopefully talk about how they might work together to make things better for you and your siblings.

We really love working with families to hopefully help them work together and get along better.

We are looking forward to hopefully meeting you soon.

From Renae and Belle
