From the Pastor's Desk... "The best "No" vote I ever got..."

8 years ago, this month, my friend Alba was diagnosed with what Duke University Hospital called inoperable cancer—and she was given no more than 1 year to live. As her husband Steven said to me this week, they've had 8, not easy, but wonderful years together since then—because "God is Great!"

Steven holds a special place in my heart, not only for his friendship & brotherhood in Christ Jesus, but because of a "No" vote he once cast. It happened this way—when God called me to leave my NC churches, I presented my resignation to the church, and Steven voted, loudly & clearly, "No." Now, that seems like a harsh thing to do, maybe even a disrespectful or unpleasant thing to say—but I can tell you that, both in that moment in 2015, and even now more than 4 years later, I can hear that "No" even today as one of the most blessed encouragements in my ministry and in my life. That "No" warmed my heart and reaffirmed—in that brief moment—God's calling, God's love, and God's grace in my life.

I thank God, and will always thank him for Steven's "No."

When do we need a "No" in our lives? That doesn't sound like the sort of answer we'd want to get. When we guys bend on one knee, open that box—is it "No" we want to hear? When we look wistfully at the car, pick up the keys, and head for the door—is it "No" we hope our parents say? When we pick up the phone on Saturday evening, dressed & ready to go—is it "No" we expect to ring in our ears? When is "No" a good answer? And that's just humanly speaking! Doesn't the Bible say—"And he will supply every need"? Doesn't the Bible say—"He has graciously given us all things"? Doesn't that sound like God would be the last person to ever say, "No"? How could he do that to us? How could he bless us through a "No"? Is it even possible?

Well—to answer that question, we've got to realize what God actually says, compared to what we think he says, or what we want him to say. So, what does God say? So does the Bible actually say, "He will supply every need"? Yes—in Philippians 4.19-20: "And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in Christ Jesus—to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen." Wait a minute—did you see that? Paul (writing this from PRISON), tells us, as he closes his letter to Philippi in prayer, that God will give us our NEEDS... through & in the person of Jesus Christ, for God's own glory.

Huh. I wonder what sort of NEED we might have for which Christ is the only provision?

How about "He has graciously given us all things"? That comes from Romans 8.31-33, "If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies." Hey— isn't this saying the same thing as Philippians 4? God will give us everything we NEED... through & in the person of Jesus Christ, for God's own glory. And this time, it's not Paul who's being persecuted, "led like sheep to the slaughter daily"—it's the Roman Church!

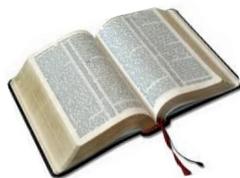

God doesn't always say "Yes"—but he always gives us what we need in Jesus. And sometimes—and this is as hard to write as it is to hear—sometimes what we need in Jesus is for God to tell us "No." The same Paul—imprisoned when he wrote Philippians, writing to the persecuted faithful when he wrote Romans—this same Paul, in his second letter to Corinth tells us about a time God told him "No": "The Lord said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me" (2 Corinthians 12:9). Look at that—Paul asked to be healed, something he thought he needed, something that would seemingly improve both his quality of life and the quality of his ministry, and God said, resoundingly, "No—this is not what you need in Christ Jesus."

Paul needed his "thorn", his weakness. Peter needed to be humbled—and drenched, when he leapt boldly out of the boat. Mark needed to be left behind when Paul took off to visit the churches. Titus needed to be left in Crete (Titus 1.5), Trophimus needed to be left in Miletus (2 Timothy 4.20), John needed to be exiled on Patmos—because in those moments of God's saying "No", he was blessing each of these men with what they NEEDED in Christ Jesus.

Where are you? What do you need from God? A "Yes"—sometimes (many, many times, in fact) God is indeed saying "Yes" to you in amazing, beautiful, wonderful ways. Sometimes—more times than you could imagine, in fact—he's said "Yes" by denying Satan's influence over you, by his Holy Spirit's restraining those who would or could harm you, by healing you or preventing you from injury. But sometimes—sometimes, don't you need God's glorious, gracious "No"—a "No" like Paul's, that thrust him entirely into the everlasting arms of Jesus? Don't you need God's glorious, gracious "No"—a "No" like Steven's vote, an affirmation, a blessing, even when you think you're finished? Sometimes nothing is sweeter, nothing is better than God—in his infinitely immeasurably good love—saying, "Child—I love you. No."

Blessings & Amen! -Pastor Chris

Dear friends and prayer partners,

Oh come let us adore Him. Christ the Lord. Let all that has breath praise the Lord. Let us praise, give thanks and worship the Lord because of His very best that He has given us.

From my house I can hear the seminary choir rehearsing for the December 5 concert which marks the end of first semester. It is also the end of my teaching until August because I cannot distinguish the printed notes for the students in the spring. There are now about 50 students on campus, not counting the expansion centers and the biblical counseling program or the youth program.

I continue visiting villages about two hours away most weekends, depending on if I can find a driver/preacher. In Yalcobá, the leader of the congregation is in need of surgery due to a hernia on his spinal column. Personal family and congregational concerns become my prayer concerns also. The people in these villages have been friends for many years and are almost like family to me. In Temax, Debbie and I recently went to say goodbye to some very dear Korean missionaries who have retired and will not be able to come back due to health concerns. Dave and I worked extensively with them. My Merida church recently celebrated its 133rd anniversary. In November, I played for a wedding there, accompanying a young man who plays flute and a girl who plays the violin. There are many avenues of service open to me.

Looking to the new year, the Sac Be presbytery will be meeting here in Merida, January 7-9. A friend is going to take me and help sell books with me. I will be able to come home to sleep at night which solves a big problem because everybody here sleeps in hammocks and I now can only use a bed. On February 4, the seminary reopens and Dr. Will Ackles and his wife will be coming to teach again. I look forward to their presence at my house.

My grandchildren are all occupied in applying to colleges and thinking about their future while the younger ones are still in school. Diego will be five January 1 and he loves reading the Jesus Bible story book every day, and playing with dinosaurs and cars. He and I go swimming at the same pool, although it is becoming a little cooler now.

My health is generally all right, although I still have some problems related to the accident. Low vision and impaired mobility have taught me a lot about patience and accepting what the Lord brings into our lives. I still am thankful for what I can do, and try to accept what I cannot do.

Let us face 2020 knowing it is in His hands and therefore will be for our good and His glory.

Your servant for Jesus' sake,

Jean Legters
