What's this story about?

Chip goes shopping for some sugar but comes home without it.

Talk together

Look at the cover picture and guess what Chip is doing. Ask, "What is he going to use?" Read all the labels. Talk about any cooking the child has done.

Read the story

W = Word recognition C = Language comprehension

- C Read the title and talk about what the story might be about.
Ask, "Should it be called 'Cooking'?"
- C Read the story together.
- W Page 2, work out 'supermarket' by helping the child sound out and blend the letters from left to right.
- C In each shop look for packets of sugar.
- W Page 5, work out 'comic' using each letter sound: c-o-m-i-c.
- W Page 8, guess what Chip said. Ask, "What do you think they did next?"

Chip wanted some sugar.

He went to the supermarket.

He got some crisps.

He went to the shop.

He got a comic.

He went to the market.

He got a ball.

He forgot the sugar.

Play a game

Don't forget!

This game is to help the child remember a list of things.

- Say, "I went to the supermarket and I bought..." (e.g. some sugar)
- The child repeats the sentence and adds another item: "I went to the supermarket and I bought...some sugar and some crisps."
- Take turns, adding to the list.
- Go on until you start to forget.

Other ideas

You can use these ideas straight away, or on another day.

- Find 'He' as often as you can in the story. Practise spelling 'he'.
- Together make a shopping list for a meal.
