

Erin Pick Director of the Pick School of Ballroom Dancing NC grew up in San Francisco dancing Jazz, Ballet, Tap, Hawaiian and Ballroom. Her mother Rhona Pick, a champion ballroom and Latin Dancer began her training her at a young age. After completing her college degree she was drawn to following in her mother's footsteps. She became a well respected teacher in the ballroom community competing both Professionally and with students in the Pro/Am categories.

She loves teaching students beginners through advanced. "I love to see the enjoyment students experience once they grasp a pattern or a dance. Learning patterns that fit a particular song or music style is both beneficial to mind and body"

Now living in North Carolina Erin offers her skills and love of teaching partner dance to the community of Sneads Ferry and surrounding areas.
