Event Details

On Sunday, September 8, 2024, the Southern New Jersey LGBTQA+ community will come together for its 16th annual pride celebration. Each year, the Southern New Jersey LGBTQA+ Pride Committee takes this time to engage, entertain, and educate our community on prominent issues within the community.

The event regularly attracts thousands of individuals and families, community organizations, and neighborhoods throughout New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Delaware.

Last year, 200+ vendors registered for the South Jersey Pride Fest. These vendors include small businesses, community improvement, and religious organizations that promote this event internally and use it to display their programs and activities to the community.

Pride attendees are between the ages of 3 and 80 – including young children.

Our 2023 sponsors included Bayada, Renew, Wawa, Jefferson Hospital, CHOP, National AIDS Memorial Quilt, PSEG, Cooper LGBTQ+ Health Center, The Renfrew Center for Eating Disorders, and more.

Each year, Jersey Gay Pride's committee takes this time to engage, entertain, and educate our community on prominent issues within the community.

In addition, we supply a safe platform to community members who have been bullied, were bullied, and those with a loved one who has been forced.

OUT in the Park Festival is the only and most prominent event in Southern New Jersey featuring LGBTQA+:

- Access to free resources from 50+ governmental and non-governmental organizations.
- Anti-bullying program.
- COVID-19 testing.
- Cultural cuisine and favorite local eats.
- Focuses on supporting local entrepreneurs and small businesses.
- HIV/AIDS/STD testing.
- Induction and crowning of annual king and queen elects.
- Job recruitment and work readiness.
- Press coverage by international and local media outlets.
- Product vendors.
- Voguing contest with a cash prize and an extravagant crown.
- Wedding ceremonies.
- Wide variety of entertainment.
