					Principal is not friendly. She does not make my family and I feel welcome. Prior to enrolling in the school, we were informed from other families of the area IV community that she is a racist who only looks out for her kind. Truthfully, based off of what I've seen and heard in the school, rumors seem true. I have children in the school who get hurt by other students but there is a lack of consequences by the principal. Teachers of my children also feel like there is a lack of principal support when it comes to consequences for bullying behavior, especially among color. Her emails to families and stakeholders often come off as rude and disrespectful to the military community. I do not trust them principal of this school.

					However, I feel that my children and their peers are significantly disadvantaged by the lack of courses offered, staff shortages, and funding cuts. Students often are offered club activities instead of sports and classes such as football, robotics, and culinary arts. However, club activities do not qualify students to compete in a far East or KAIAC event.

					I know group work and cooperation is a big part of learning, but there is absolutely way too much of it. The majority of the time our student ends up doing more than her share of the work, often the entire project because she doesn't want her grade to reflect other students work. I think too much time is spent on peer assessments of work, especially in a core class, where students are still learning a skill. For example, for an ELA class, in which students are still learning how to write, students were told to write drafts. The drafts were only read by students, who are also learning to write. The comments were, as good. ☐ So basically, there was zero editing. The final draft was turned in with the teacher not having previously seen it. The paper was graded, but not returned before being given another writing assignment. How is a student supposed to learn from a number grade for the students next assignment? Writing especially requires educated feedback for improvement. So many of the assignments are marked for completion rather than quality of work.

229	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	Parents/Sponsors	We have considered making use of psychological services but it is clear there was not enough staff to meet the needs of such a large school population. The school seems to be constantly understaffed and the students suffer because of it. We had to go to find a private psychologist in the community.	My child has an IEP, but she has not met that IEP's goals for over 2 years. Instead of addressing this at the last IEP meeting the goals were made extremely broad and written in such a way that true progress will be difficult to measure. I requested a change and was told this is the way it is now done. I asked for my daughter to receive additional services since she has not met the previous goals and I was told the school didn't have the resources. My child is a hard worker in the services she receive and does as much with that support as possible and yet we have had to pursue support to meet her IEP goals outside of the school not because her disability is profound but simply because the school doesn't have the resources, primarily lack of staff, to give her the support she needs. We are not talking about a child that needs a lot of support from the staff she just needs a very little extra support to help her to meet her educational requirements.

I don't believe he has any issues, but I also doubt if he had any issues that it would be noticed.	It's not a participatory conversation. The instruction/curriculum is just "this is what it is." That's not a bad thing, educators should educate; but it's just not a partnership for curriculum.

(b)(3):10 still has not responded in any way as of 31 Jan 2023; she was moved to Osan HS for 2023 SY). A student in my child's Kindergarten class asked my child to suck his penis. I went to the school since nobody emailed/ called me back; psychologist laughed & said kids say the funniest things; the teacher said that boy wasn't in class on 27 Jan even though his mother said he was at school. The school counselor was the only employee that responded appropriately (that this is not a matter to laugh off or lie to parents about, but rather to learn about what happened and ensure the safety of all students). (b)(3):10 U.S.C. also refused to allow parents to enter the school to volunteer, help out, or eat lunch with their children without her express permission (which she never gave all yr).	The teacher missed a significant amount of time, rotating and random substitutes that just play videos, sending students home for allergies like a runny nose in the winter, mandating students stay home if a runny nose or dry cough from postnasal drip- all lead to missing 82 days / lack of basic foundation for education in Kindergarten.

Actually, all of DoDEA is disconnected from what is happening at the schools. My students says that when people other than the administrators come into the classroom, the students feel like rats in a lab being observed. These treatments do not exist in Korea. The same with asking about locating mental and health services. There isn't enough personnel and/or the treatment available or their are certain cultural beliefs in Korea regarding this. The armed service committee should already know this information. Thanks

					There are some great teachers and great administration but I think DOD school miss the point of supporting military students and somethings that should be easier because it is a DOD school are actually harder than for example a Fairfax County school. There are needs at the school that aren't being addressed and not because due to the principal but due to DODEA policy. Issues are escalated through the SAC and get lost ignore or dragged out so that the people wanting the change move and somebody else has to start the process again. As far as curriculum, even though AP classes are offered and depending on the class there is lots of busy work for the sake of busy work, and my child is bored and getting straight As. Dual enrollment isn't comparable to what it is in the states and the process is cumbersome and depending on the counselor you get it is discouraged. Many teachers give a ton of homework everyday which makes it hard for those doing sports or other activities to complete everything and get appropriate amount of sleep.

					Concerns for the lack of support for dual enrollment for students who thrive in this area instead of AP courses. No CTE opportunities, no ability to focus on programs that students are interested in for their future. As a high school I give it an F in ensuring that students are prepared for life after high school. They are significantly further behind the curve in this. AP courses are basically the only opportunity for students and basically students are forced to take them instead of gaining support for dual enrollment. Definitely not student success focused.

					I truly feel I have a partnership with HHS. However, curriculum and supports that are needed cannot be affected at the high school level. Administrators and teachers are not given the authority to make changes that stakeholders are asking for. So while the high school is willing to partner, this will not affect the change needed at the DoDEA Headquarters level. DoDEA Headquarters could learn a lot from HHS about how to work with parents, students and community members as partners. Our school administration does a fantastic job of listening to needs and attempting to affect change. DoDEA Headquarters needs to allow school level leadership more autonomy to make decisions for their school.

				HHS does a great job advertising available programs. DoDEA as a school system needs to offer more college help and information. In the 2017 CSS, 2/3 of parents did not feel DoDEA was helping their child with college applications, scholarships or helping prepare them for college. 				HHS does a great job advertising available programs. DoDEA as a school system needs to offer more college help and information. In the 2017 CSS, 2/3 of parents did not feel DoDEA was helping their child with college applications, scholarships or helping prepare them for college. DoDEA as a school system needs to improve their counseling program. Our counselors are overworked. Each DoDEA high schools should have one college and career ready counselor whose only job is to prepare students for life after high school. Our counselors also need better training. There should be a CIL for counselors. With how highly mobile counselors are moving between elementary and high, we need to do a better job of training and supporting our counselors. Our high school students have difficulties transitioning in and out of DoDEA schools. We should do transition better than any other school. And for schools who claim to be college and career ready, we NEED counselors dedicated specifically to this.	HHS is wonderful at partnering! They do not have the power to make the changes I am looking for. DoDEA as a school system is failing our children. HQ does not listen to parent needs. The school system is too bureaucratic. HQ only wants to hear from General Officers, not families ACTUALLY IN THE SCHOOLS. We have a lot to say. Please come visit our schools and meet WITH US, not with senior spouses. Hold town halls to listen to the people – this is what the military does. If you want to show good leadership, have DoDEA leadership hold town halls. Open all meetings to the public. We want to hear the decisions being made for our children. We need more and better surveys. Two surveys in the last decade are not enough. We need teachers in the classroom on the first day of school. We need more counselors. We need more options (honors, dual enrollment) in high school. We are NOT having an equitable experience to what our students could have if they stayed in the States.

355	Pacific West	Humphreys HS	Parents/Sponsors	We have had no information for how to work with Behavior Health or even MFLC within the school – no matter how many times asked.	Lack of consistency, lack of disciplinary policy that is consistently followed, lack of care or communication from teachers, or even common decency care from some.
					Last two questions are very leading. These questions also have a direct relationship with DoDEA Headquarters. If DoDEA HQ does not have a strong curriculum – for example the CTE Pathways, at the school level, this is a mute point. If DoDEA HQ changes the Credentials of Choice for CTE Pathways but then does not have Counselors proactively communicate the changes to the students, that is a mute point. If the DoDEA HQ Course Catalog has outdated, in accurate information, wrong prerequisites, that is a mute point. The local level is only as good as HQ as there is a severe disconnect. In many ways, HQ is not getting it done at the High School level for our kids. The Admin Teams, Teachers, and Counselors are left holding the bag when HQ fails.

					I feel the school lacks holding students accountable. Rules are not enforced. Cell phones are permitted in some class rooms. Teachers have not corrected that behavior repeatedly in my experience. Schools are more concerned about parents coming in and complaining, so teachers and staff appear scared to correct students because they worry about the parent complaining later. I understand that this can be a real worry, but your rules and policies are that and should be enforced. Raise the standard back up, please. If a student does not turn their work in, fail them. Students should get the grades they earn. Being continuously lenient is not helpful long-term. I understand making case by case adjustments and provider individualistic treatment. I mean how my very smart and capable child who is now senior had homework not turned in for months and I get emails from the teacher to tell my child to do her work. If she is MONTHS behind, then maybe the teacher should issues the appropriate and earned consequence instead of involving me. We, the parents, took our child out of AP classes a year ago, the child then gets the schedule and forges a parent signature to get back into AP classes. I went to the school to correct this and met with the assistant principal at the time, explaining what happened. The assistant principal then stated "the grades are good enough, she could go into AP classes." And did not even inquire about why the decisions were made to begin with. My response was "is forging a signature AP behavior to you?" And the child forging the signature, the rule breaking (in my eyes a serious offense), or at minimum an issue of integrity, was not even addressed with me or the student. I am very happy with the school-based behavioral health individual sessions. I would like to see more on media education for both children and the parents and how detrimental excessive media use can be and how parents can monitor their kids and for kids to understand risks. I always back the teachers and support education. I appreciate teachers for all of their hard work and putting up with our kids, especially teenagers. Thank you!

					There have been a few instances of unacceptable behaviors on the part of teachers or students that have not been told to the parents for whatever reason. Parents hear rumors of sexual misconduct of teachers or students, students having sex in bathrooms, having drugs, ect that arenâ€™t addressed and only add more fuel to the rumors. I feel that sometimes the school/DoDea wants to portray themselves as being â€œThe bestâ€ instead of being humble and open about issues so that parents/teachers can address these issues with their children/students and work together to make/provide a safer learning environment for our children. More options for students who need assistance Anna have a 504 but arent bad enough for an IEP. 					It amazes us on the potential that DODEA schools have but do not utilize. We have brought concerns forward and have watched other do the same and are provided lip service time and time again. The mission at DODEA is not the children or the students, it is the administration, the bureaucracy and the status quo. There is absolutely no parental or even command oversight. Now are there individual teachers who stand out and provide their students everything they have, absolutely. The issue is there is a lack of leadership driven from the top down. Resourcing continuously gets pulled from student activities and events to support in-services and the like. The same with hiring practices, nothing has been done to improve or streamline the process to make it better...especially for those coming from the outside. On the inside, the cronyism is alive and well. Again, potential is there but poor leadership has resulted less than stellar results.

407	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Parents/Sponsors		I feel like if Im not involved with School Advisory Committee or PTSO, I would have little to no opportunity for input into how the school schedule and curriculum affects my child. For example: the lack thereof of a principal for almost half the academic school year, the abrupt change of daily schedule mid school year of 2021-2022, the general environment at the school (rampant misbehavior, bullying, etc), the abrupt dismissal of teachers mid school year with zero explanation, insufficient staffing of teachers, etc. Theres an overall lack of transparency of the issues plaguing Humphreys Middle School, and when issues are brought to light, theres just excuses being made with no real plans of rectification and resolutions.
408	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Parents/Sponsors		there has been a complete lack of communication; changes in teachers and service providers that I hear about from my child coming home telling me instead of from administration - this has happened multiple times; there has been a complete disregard with what is best for students and providing students the best learning environment; this is honestly the worst DoDEA school I have dealt with and I have dealt with others in Japan and Germany. The admin is the worst - often unprofessional, disrespectful to teachers in meetings, - I have to say I felt bad for how the staff members hearing how the administrators were talking to and treating them. the whole taking away of 5th grade recess without any parental notification or response to complaints is another big issue - 5th graders need time to play, research supports, teachers want it and support - admin took it away. my child is not receiving adequate IEP services because of the changes in staff, lack of consistency, another new person that has to take time to get to know my child... really??? half the year is over and the sped teacher can't tell me what my child's reading level is - and this is part of his IEP goals

This is simply a supply issue. There aren't enough teachers or resources here, and I realize that's a budgeting issue. You are doing the most with what you have, and I realize it's not enough, but it's very obvious DODEA is under-funded, under-staffed, and working with some mid-20th century levels of education theory. It's a model that only works for average students. Students who are gifted are bored, and students who need struggle have limited resources available because the classroom size is too large. There is no quick fix here. I'd love to see DODEA adopt an IB curriculum or something similar, but it won't happen because the funding isn't there. The support isn't there. This post is not ready to have families and it's very obvious that no one planned for families to be here. That's not a thing DODEA can fix.

					their needs to the DODEA program. We knew we were going to take an academic hit. We knew this school wouldn't be great because DODEA has a reputation of being underfunded and understaffed. But, this was worse than anticipated. My kid is doing work they did in 4th grade in 8th grade. They are bored and instead of finding a way to engage the student the teachers are so overwhelmed they're letting my kid fail. My student is entirely responsible for their own education. No reminders. No help. No nothing. When my kid gets home, they're overwhelmed and stressed because they're hungry. School starts at 8:25am and lunch is at 1pm. For a growing kid, that's nearly 6 hours of no nutrients and limited bathroom breaks. Six hours filled with repetitive lessons meant to engage the slowest students. Teachers don't follow up and send reminders. Teachers do not initiate conferences. Teachers are failing the older kids at the middle school because they have too many students in each classroom. I understand the teacher's perspective. I know they are underpaid and overworked. I get that they're struggling. I'm sympathetic. But my kid learned as much in first semester as they would have learned staring at a brick wall. Possibly less. Because the curriculum cannot adapt to students who have different academic needs or who are coming in from a better academic arena. I'm sympathetic to the challenge DODEA faces. You have hundreds of students coming in from all over the world. You're dealing with kids who have unstable home lives who, as middle schoolers, are experiencing puberty on top of military life. That's a lot to accommodate for. But that's also the DODEA mission. DODEA exists only to cater to the needs of military children who experience changes to their home and school environments, who are coming from a variety of academic backgrounds, and who have a range of emotional, social, and intellectual needs. Your mission is to Educate, Engage, and Empower military-connected students to succeed in a dynamic world. If you can't take care of all military kids, you can't take care of any of them. You're dropping the ball. If that is because of funding, then go to Congress and the DOD and explain you can't complete your mission with what you have. If you can't do it with a staff of 15,000, fine, hire more. Hire enough teachers that you can keep kids moving at the educational pace they came in at. Make your schools better. You have 70,000 students worldwide
439	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Parents/Sponsors	My 8th grader's teachers do not communicate with parents. Since she has left HMS, the tension has eased somewhat, but there is still a very real lack of partnership with parents. My student has mentioned on multiple occasions that when transitioning between classes, there are only a limited set of doors open. This leads to students pushing and shoving each other through one door. With the incident that happened in Itaewon, this needs to be addressed. My student has also informed me that a student was injured by getting trampled from the issue I previously addressed. 465	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Parents/Sponsors	The HMS does announce that the school offers these services, but the bottom line is that the school administrators always limits the service because of the school policy. I am not sure what policy they refer to, but if they don't want to deal with some matters, their answer is always and all the time, "The school policy does not allow to do that".	Administrator especially the assistant principle as well as the interim principle have no high expectations for my child to do well in school â€œ they don't push my child to do his/her best, but they push down to stay where they are. Some of the gifted children cannot advanced because the administrators always said "the school policy does not allow to do advanced classes." 472	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Parents/Sponsors		Some teachers don't care. They don't want to help and only want to look good for the wrong reasons. Some teachers are great and helpful and are making it slightly tolerable. Too many bad and low-quality teachers. Bottom of the barrel teachers who put in minimal effort. Poor hiring decisions and too many teachers leaving. DoDEA schools are no longer what they were. Becoming like any other stateside school. This is a broken system and I am no longer a proud DoDEA parent. It has become a joke.

				My student does receive services from a school counselor and I do believe it helps with social and emotional support. Setting up the support services was quick and easy. Iâ€™m grateful these services are offered and available to teens and pre-teens at HMS. I have concerns about students fighting and being bullied after school. Initially school leadership seemed supportive, but nothing was done to supervise or protect students on school grounds.	My student has had more than one class so far this year taught by a substitute. One teacher had such strict policies and difficult grading methods that most students were barely passing or were failing the class. Iâ€™m glad this teacher is now gone. The school doesnâ€™t even have a principal. Report cards were sent to parents a week late. Communication is lacking, either late or inconsistent. At the beginning of the year during orientation, it did not feel welcoming, it was chaotic. No maps are given, schedules were incredibly late. For a military school, you would think they understand that most of their student body is new to the school every year. Sending an invitation to meet for orientation â€˜in the courtyardâ€™ isnâ€™t very helpful when nobody knows where the courtyard is or how to get there. Families just arrived in Korea and donâ€™t even know where the school is. This is studentâ€™s first time on a middle school campus, they havenâ€™t had lockers, they havenâ€™t changed classrooms before, and the only help they get from the school is to be given their schedule late in the evening the night before the first day of school, and a rushed â€˜tourâ€™ with a grumpy staff member. Itâ€™s disappointing to feel like we are throwing our military kids unprepared into the fray on the first day of school when they may have just landed in Korea the week or two before. We should do better to welcome new students.

				The response from the school's psychological services are intermittent and inconsistent. Incorrect emails are listed on the school website and there seems to be minimal responses to inquiries for information. When our student needed help, it was slow in responding, then just stopped.	There is a significant disconnect in communication with the school. Teachers do not reach out to address academic problems, but do respond when parents reach out to them. It seems there is a lack of proactivity regarding academics, a failure to bring parent involvement early to assist in learning. There is an overemphasis on digital tools and a lack of direct communication.

					Some of the teachers in this school do not provide clear guidance on assignments, they will send homework with unreasonable timeliness that stress parents and students. There is very little teaching done by the teacher and more by YouTube. The assistant Principal is hard to work with, unprofessional and unreasonable. Keeping her in this school demoralise students and parents alike. Cameras don't work and when issues of bullying are brought to their attention there is very little done. Parents are not called in when there are problems between students, they assistant principal just makes her own determination and forces that as she is the law. Parent will never meet face to face to know what is actually going on between the kids. This school should close and allow parent to place their kids in international schools. There at least the education should be much better than this school. This is why this schools test scores are so low.

				Camp Humphreys MS advertises a gifted program; however, there is no gifted program at the school. Administrators and teachers do not offer a tailored education to meet needs of gifted students. Communication with school administration is limited. When issues are raised by parents and the community, middle school administrators rarely take action and are dismissive of parent's requests. Teachers regularly switch out during the school year and temporary teachers are routinely utilized to fill gaps in permanent teachers – this prevents continuity in learning for students.	Middle school administrators do not listen, are often rude and dismissive of parents, and take no action to address parent concerns. Communication from the school is limited and ineffective. A revolving door of temporary teachers limits consistency and predictability in learning. Gifted students or student requiring additional assistance are ignored and teachers are unable to tailor educational needs to the student. Children are bullied between classes and administrators fail to act. This is the worst school my child attended.

They also drop classes that student needed due to lack of staff. The communication is terrible big changes are done last minute and parent are not informed.	504 plan means little to this school. The classes are way to big they don't have enough teacher for this school. The amount new teachers coming and going is crazy for anyone to track.

				I have been very disappointed with Humphrey's Middle School. The provide no AAP for students – administration has been horrible! My daughter has had 5 social studies teachers, 3 science teachers, 3 language arts teachers, 2 math teachers. There has been so much inconsistency it has been very frustrating as a parent – & the administration has not been helpful in keeping parents informed & updated. This middle school is a disgrace to DODEA	The administration confirmed that they do not have an advance academic program for my child who is a level 3 from Fairfax county Virginia & the counselor confirmed DODEA doesn't come close to giving the students the advance push needed – very disappointing

				The fifth graders at the middle school, do not get developmentally appropriate downtime for their age group. The fifth graders universally across-the-board do not receive a minimum of 20 minutes outside recess time or 20 minutes indoor brain break time daily. This wears on them physically, as well as mentally/emotionally. It affects their well-being and is not being addressed. In the three months that parents have raised a concern, nothing has changed. 					My children attended DODEA schools in Kentucky, Germany and Italy. I have heard great things about the elementary schools. The middle school feels toxic from the moment you walk in the door. There is a severe lack of teachers and subs, and yet, teachers are being fired in the middle of the school year. There is no transparency with parents about why. I feel that this creates an environment where teachers do not want to be here and that impacts their interactions with students and parents. The principal position has also been vacant, and the leadership seems unqualified to lead at this school. Class scheduling has been last minute and has not considered input of students. This is a very poorly run school, and it impacts the quality of life of families on Camp Humphreys. If I were asked if a Soldier with a middle school aged child should take a command sponsored tour here, I would say NO! A strong supporter of DODEA schools, but not happy with HMS!

					From top to bottom this school is a complete disaster. There is no communication from principals or teachers when parents try to address concerns regarding their children. Iâ€™ve heard many accounts of bullying where there was no disciplinary action taken, no follow up from the principals, they do nothing to protect the victim. Personally there was a serious incident involving my child- I didnâ€™t hear anything from the school. No one thought it necessary to report to me. My child informed me about the incident that afternoon, I was shocked that no one cared enough to call me earlier in the day. I called the front desk straight away and they took down my information for (b)(3):10 to respond. Not only did she NOT RESPOND. But when I called back several times later to track her down she scoffed and downplayed the incident. She was defensive before I could even get a word out. She was blatantly rude, disrespectful, and condescending. The leadership is toxic, unprofessional, and entirely incompetent. They are negatively impacting the morale of teachers and staff and ultimately students quality of education and school experience. The worst part of all this is that we donâ€™t have any other options outside of DoDEA.

					The school is doing a good job curriculum and instructions wise but the communication with this school is terrible. They don't send emails regarding cancelled after school activities. The also only email the student directly during school hours, but the children do not have dedicated computers to check this information. I would like to see more information about updates on after school activities. My child is in 5th grade and does not have a cell phone as hes too young. The only way I know that the meetings are cancelled is when he ends up at home when Im supposed to be picking him up. I would also like more communication on major school assignment deadlines so that I am tracking them.

				Lost all trust in the school. School principal and vice principal are draconian. Implemented assigned seating during launch, forcing my daughter to sit next to her bully. My daughter ended up eating in the bathroom to avoid being bullied. Suicide prevention training of 12 year olds was conducted by amateurs; my daughter begun cutting herself after the training introduced the idea to her. Vice principal conducted social experiment, separating kids to pro and against-slavery groups to argue each side. Kids who were instructed to give arguments FOR slavery were admonished for "holding" such beliefs.	Lost confidence in school leadership. Ridiculous behavior of principal and vice principal in front of students.

This school has very limited computer for students during the class. That makes students have to spend lot of time for the homework something is not efficient. if the school can not provide computer for each student. At least, they should let student to bring their own and use it for the class or homework. and submit the homework online. not like old style. If the students are lower grade, they still need to do hand writing and submit the paper on site. but for 8 grade, it looks like very unprofessional and not efficient compare to other school in States.

My child was held far back because the teacher had to accomodate the least prepared and most disruptive student. Students should be tested for their abilities and assigned to teachers based on abilities so they can flourish. 				I have brought several concerns to the Principal at Osan ES in regards to the safety of not only my child but all the children and staff in the 3rd grade neighborhood. There is one particular student who has repetitively physically assaulted my son but multiple other children in the 3rd grade. Examples are smashing my son in the mouth with a full metal water bottle causing my sons tooth to go through his lip, smashing my son in the head with a wooden dowel, smashing my sons head off the floor, biting a chunk of skin out of another students back, etc. these are all intentional behaviors from this student to the point where they have to seclude this student from all the others. He also disrupts class time and learning on a regular basis. When I brought these concerns to the principal, she dismissed my concerns and gas lit me acting like she had no idea what I was talking about despite our several conversations. Resulted in them moving my son, not fixing the issue with the other student.

				My personal opinion is that "counseling" services and classes should not be mandatory. My child has informed me that Counseling is a class they have to attend just like math and social studies. If you're reading this survey because you truly care and truly want to make things better, then consider this... Have you ever noticed that the more we all sit around talking about our feelings and suicide...the more people kill themselves? Talking about suicide makes people depressed, and gives depressed people ideas...about suicide. The more you focus your attention on such a dark, dreary subject the worse it gets. I've heard students in third grade have shown pornography to other students at school using their phones...absolutely unacceptable! 2) The weekly emails about my students progress is pointless. They simply list the tasks, NOT what my child has scored on them...useless info 3) Why do you make the kids line-up outside before school? It's either freezing cold or uncomfortably hot at all times...and almost always has bad air quality. "Back in the day" when I got to school, I simply went in...crazy concept. 4) Stacking cups in PE is an absolute joke. ARE YOU SERIOUS? This is by far the absolute dumbest thing I've ever heard (and I've heard Joe Biden give a speech). What kind of stupid millennial is running your PE program? UNBELIEVEABLE! Get the kids outside and make them run, exercise, be a kid. The person who came up with stacking cups in PE should be fired. 5) The school lunch options are garbage. No, I'm not advocating for pizza, fries, ice cream and cookies everyday, I prefer healthy options. I'm talking about the most random, oddly assorted meals one could devise. Example: Broccoli with yogurt, a bread stick with a carrot, and a chicken wing with slice of tomato. Who comes up with the meals? Obviously someone who's never eaten them. Obviously someone without any kids. A (normal) American kid would eat something like: chicken nuggets with mac'n'cheese along with an apple or grapes, and a dinner roll. Then wash it down with a carton of milk. 6) I can't count the number of times we've met a parent that just moved to Osan who just found out, after a month or two into school, that their kid is several months behind in online school work, myself included. The school does a horrible job at relaying the homework requirements to new students (and their parents) when they arrive mid-way throughout the school year. People are oblivious that they're supposed to be doing online work, because nobody ever told them. 7) I've been informed that Osan ES has a student (who I believe is named (b)(6)) ..not 100% positive about the child's last name) who is in some way, shape or form "special needs" and should be in the EFMP and getting some sort of special education. I've been told he has assaulted other children,

703	Pacific West	Osan ES	Parents/Sponsors	The staff at OES has no patience nor any idea how to help children with ADHD. The classrooms are packed with children and the learning environment is distracting, especially for someone with learning issues. Why are there so many children packed into a massive classroom? The teachers are impatient and do not keep parents informed of student issues until it's too late.	The teachers have no idea how to help guide and assist children with ADHD. I feel like my child is a burden and no one informed me about my child's needs until it was too late.

My child has informed me that Counseling is a class they have to attend just like math and social studies. If you're reading this survey because you truly care and truly want to make things better, then consider this... Have you ever noticed that the more we all sit around talking about our feelings and suicide...the more people kill themselves? Talking about suicide makes people depressed, and gives depressed people ideas...about suicide. The more you focus you attention on such a dark, dreary subject the worse it gets. Focus on something positive instead. Suicide rates steadily increasing over the years...the more we talk about it, the worse it gets. https://www.cdc.gov/nchs/products/databriefs/db362.htm Send my kids outside to get some fresh air and have fun instead of counseling them into depression
709	Pacific West	Osan ES	Parents/Sponsors		Teachers don't flag parents early enough if there is academic issues, on multiple instances with 2 of my children I didn't know my child was struggling academically until it was close to report card time, teachers say check grades and google classroom but teachers aren't reaching out directly to parents when they see the first signs of students falling behind, I believe we lean too heavily on electronic systems instead of traditional means to communicate with parents

					The teachers did not care my child was failing even though prior they had been an all A student. They never communicated with us about his drop in grades. We had to contact them. At parent teacher conference they inferred they were going to do nothing to assist and my child was responsible for his grades and it was up to then to fix things. They knew he could do the work and decided he was just lazy. This was not the case. He needed help. We asked for his work to be sent home, so we could help and were told that was not allowed. We were given no options. Teachers were unwilling to support my child or provide a supportive learning environment. They were not very pleasant at the conference and were not concerned that since joining their class my son went from loving to learn and school to hating it and dreading everyday, faking illness to stay home. We removed our child because of the environment provided by the teachers. He is back to all A's and loving to learn.

				My child was bullied relentlessly, on more than one occasion they vocalized feeling that everyone would be better off if they were not alive. My child approached their teacher and sought advice on how to proceed, after this the bullying continued with no further intervention by the classroom staff. The bullying moved to the lunchroom until a lunch monitor stepped in. From there it went to the playground where it went unchecked/unmonitored until we approached school administration. After this the bullying continued and my child was made to continue sitting next to the child who had been bullying them. The only relief came when the other child said they were tired of my child & was allowed to move seats. My child doesn't trust the staff to help them. They routinely ask to be allowed to stay home out of dread for how they will be treated at school. Witnessing their teacher call a student a baby has only added to their fear of being bullied and made to feel less than.

I felt like this was a preparation for kindergarten but nothing gets sent home to work with the child and I feel like it is seen more lime play than learn. 4th grade curriculum needs some revising. My child has come to me stating she feels she is being held back from potential of learning and lacks preparation for upcoming grade. Granted blended learning is new to us but 80 students to three teachers is not ideal. My student feels as if it is chaotic and can not go to the teachers for help especially for fear of being turned away and told "to figure it out on her own ". Front desk personnel, principal, and health staff are always friendly but educational areas in this school need more work or a better hiring process for those who teach or substitute.
736	Pacific West	Osan ES	Parents/Sponsors		The neighborhood system isnt working. 4 teachers try to know 100 third graders, but they have little to no specialized training in how to educate effectively in this environment. Its not their fault. Its a bad system that is not working. Parent teacher conferences only underscore this point. None of the teachers can give a coherent answer about where my child is in their learning. They do not connect with my child - theyre too busy trying to keep some semblance of order with 100 other kids. They have no idea what my child is capable of, and they seem uninterested in hearing my inputs because they know they are unable to provide the kind of personal instruction it would take to challenge my child again mostly due to the completely chaotic environment in the classroom. Efforts to control the classroom environment are draconian or futile. 					This school does not properly prepare students for "real world" school. They are so far behind and the teaching is subpar at best! My mother worked for the school system for over 20 years and this school is a disaster compared to other schools. There is no communication. No homework. They don't teach kids how to study, take notes, or do basic research to answer questions. I am not exactly sure how struggling students are to seek help when parents know NOTHING about what they are learning because nothing is sent home. Like I said, no homework. There, at the very least, should be math at some point. I have two masters and am working on my doctorate. This school is a joke. Had I known and it wasn't for the social aspect, I would have kept them in private online school. Forget about communication regarding sports and practices. They use "word of mouth" from student to parent. Half the time the student doesn't even know when a practice or the game/meet will end; when and where to pick them up or any other important information!

				I think there is a zone size fits all attitude toward the schools in Korea. We are a comparatively small school. We are the furthest away from the other schools. This attitude allows for policies that negatively impact our students with regard to access to academic counselors (based on population), ability to hold events off post, sports and academic travel. In our community there is a lack of trust in the District and DoDEA leadership. There is an attitude that they dont care that our kids are being taught core classes by substitutes for extended periods of time. Each school has a unique culture and the feeling is the District and DoDEA Leadership dont care to learn the culture at our school. There was a DoDEA leadership visit recently, and they didnt care to hold a school town hall to meet with and hear from parents. That would have gone a long way to build good will. Additionally the inaction on the AAFES school lunch program is shocking. It is not nutritious or filling food.

				The SOP acts as a tool for "standard operating procedure," however when the situation is below standard, we need to reevaluate circumstances and keep the students' welfare priority. The level of preparation, communication, and respect concerning Far East travel when hosting military dependents needs to be reevaluated, especially concerning students who are traveling farther than 200 miles from the host school. We always advocate for the safety and welfare of our students but in the moment when the decision needs to be made we hesitate in favor of the SOP...where are the priorities? 140	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	Parents/Sponsors	The transition between long term substitutes and incoming teachers was handled poorly. There was no introduction of the long term substitute and her credentials, no updates from the school when the teacher my child was expecting was moved to a different classroom leaving my child to go even longer without a teacher certified to teach her grade. We recieved no communication when the new teacher arrived either from the school or the teacher. The teacher told us after the fact that my email was incorrect but previous communication from the school had come through and continued to come through during the transition. The school does a wonderful job at communication in other aspects but this particular area was handled poorly. This school is understaffed. From teachers to support positions they don't have enough bodies. Things like I mentioned above are bound to happen as the overwhelmed staff can only do so much.

One teacher is leaving part-way through the school year for my 3rd grader, while my kindergartener has only had a long-term substitute THE WHOLE YEAR while the classroom aide (who is more qualified than the "teacher") has been bounced around. Kindergartners need stability. Having an unaccredited "teacher" in the classroom for a whole year is not acceptable. Partial-year teachers happen, but there's NO SOLUTION figured out after she leaves. 				I highly recommend establish a CCTV since they are working with kids. Last scholar year 2021-2022 my son had an incident with one of his teachers. She grab my son by his arm roughly to move him from one side to the other letting a red mark on his arm. And letting him embarrassed in front of his classmates. There was students as witnesses at that time and when I complained at school, the principal at that time didnt response to my concern. It was just a back and forth of emails and despite I asked to talk to her this was not possible. She absurdly justified that the teacher didnt use too much force. How did she compare the force level between an adult against the kid force level? And finally we didnt have the CCTV as resource to review the situation which for me as a parent it a very sensitive subject. Most of the institutions working with kids have cameras for safety reasons.

215	Pacific West	Humphreys HS	Parents/Sponsors	I believe this is widely known but new leadership is what is needed. The toxicity makes the school unwelcoming and not the happy memories it should be. This school will for some be the last year of childhood before the reality of being an adult with adult responsibilities. This time should be cherished and wonderful, not seem like a prison sentence like I've heard it described.	Since my child has several teachers I cannot answer this completely. Most teachers are fair and others seem to think their jobs are secure with what I hear comes out of their mouths.
				DoDEA Headquarters is not hearing the school level needs. These schools are built specifically for military members, yet our needs are not heard. You need to allow ways for us to contact you directly. Using 5 levels of bureaucracy does not work. Starting issues at the school level that are intended for Headquarters in Virginia does not work. There is no two-way communication with this. It is a giant game of telephone where the message is distorted by the time it reaches you. You need to hear directly from your customers. This would include a Headquarters Advisory Committee where we have elected parent representatives that we could contact that could raise our issues. This would allow for discussion, not writing back and forth & misunderstanding issues. This would also include town hall meetings where you travel around to different areas and listen to the needs. 				The lack of and frequent turnover of qualified teachers is a concern that impacts the quality of education our student receives. Improve the background checks and provide incentives to keep quality educators in the classrooms. Why is this survey more about how our students are treated rather than focusing on what our students are learning? The role of a school is to educate and as the DoDEA school system is incredibly unique in that the diversity of the student body is almost guaranteed. It is a reflection of the services DoDEA serves. 				PLEASE come talk to parents and students throughout DODEA. I know that DODEA leadership often talks to "senior leaders" when they make their rounds to get a pulse on how DODEA is supporting the combatant commanders; however, I'm not sure that senior leaders always have a complete view of the issues that matter most to parents. Parents also lose trust in DODEA leadership when that leadership never stands in front of and speaks directly to them or is willing to honestly answer their questions. Additionally, when decisions are made at DODEA HQ it seems that too many one-size-fits-all decisions for a world-wide school system are made without parent or student input. There are a lot of good ideas that are being generated from parents and students at the school level and those ideas often don't seem to make it to DODEA HQ...or at least the ideas are not properly communicated because of the layers of bureaucracy that exist between the school and DODEA HQ.

				Get out of your offices and talk to the students and parents but challenge yourselves - yes you DODEA - to Listen to Understand and not simply to Respond. Get to understand the challenges military families face in DoDEA that they do not face in public schools in the United States. Give students and parents a seat at the table, if not, why have a table at all? It would be better to contract out all the schools. Invest more in Special Education. DoDEA is FAILING to monitor compliance and data on progress, There has to be better tools. Assign Special Education CSC chairs that just do that. Train para's. Per 2017 CSS Survey 61% of teachers said the paras needed more training. Pay DoDEA aids more than Subs. Train subs adequately. Give Families Exit Surveys. So many decades-old issues that never get resolved - for all that money. Who holds DoDEA accountable? ROI is more than the expenditures listed on the DEC Slide June 2022. What is the real ROI? 				Resign. You have not adjusted the bureaucracy to solve many of the problems DODEA faces. The teacher hiring system is a mess, has been a mess and all you have done for the last several years is make excuses. You refused to take any risk the last few years. You pulled student activity funds and used it on yourselves. You have a bloated administrative side that is the largest I have ever seen and the least effective. You cannot maintain a principle at a school and change them like folks change clothes. You are unapproachable, surround yourself with folks who tout your agenda, mislead senior leadership obfuscating problems with some of the few minor wins and have absolutely no sense of the military mission you support. You were given the Ferrari and drive it like a rental.

				This survey is terrible and doesn't get to the heart of the issues. It is designed to point fingers at schools and teachers so they become the scapegoat for Virginia's abuse of power and spending while earning bloated salaries, pretending to know what military families need, and not taking into consideration the unique needs of overseas schools. DoDEA spends a disproportionately small amount of time and resources on the Middle and High schools that are an afterthought. Establish Pillars of Character that create a common language in all DoDEA Grade Schools and remain the same but continue to scaffold up for Middle and High schools. Leadership does not attempt to connect with stakeholders - you just ribbon cut. If you are not going to problem-solve the systemic and pervasive issues, what do you all do? This survey is another example of a Check the Box mentality. Where does the Blueprint factor in? Why don't you align all DEC Meeting Agenda Items to the Blueprint.	Given that the Military represents a widely diverse population, this thought has never been a concern. 				The bullying referenced in the survey was not by peers, but was done by adults in positions of power towards students. It occurs in the library & the lunchroom. It carries over into lunch/recess availability. The fifth graders at the middle school, do not get developmentally appropriate downtime for their age group. The fifth graders universally across-the-board do not receive a minimum of 20 minutes outside recess time or 20 minutes indoor brain break time daily. This wears on them physically, as well as mentally/emotionally. It affects their well-being and is not being addressed. In the three months that parents have raised a concern, nothing has changed. Recess is being used as a tool for punishment - lack it recess appears to be due to laziness of monitor and unwillingness to go outside with the children. 469	Pacific West	Humphreys West ES	Parents/Sponsors	It is highly unfair that military children who have to move every few years must undergo EFMP analysis to get into Humphreys West, but contractor's kids do not. A contractor's kid made it impossible for my child to learn. My child's academic performance has measurably declined during their tenure at Humphreys West. The child that caused acute disruption to the class was given a pass, but all of the other kids had to suffer. Do not invite contractor's children with acute mental health issues into educational environments with military children. Our military children suffer enough already. If you don't have the psychological or educational resources to accomodate disturbed children of contractors, do not allow them to come to Camp Humphreys. It is a policy that makes no sense and is able to persist because DoDEA seems to have no accountability and only give lip service to entrenched problems.	Teachers are afraid of elevating situations with students of color because they are afraid of being labeled racist. So, even if a student of color is creating dangerous situations for other students, they are allowed to persist.

531	Pacific West	Osan ES	Parents/Sponsors	Communication is severely lacking from this school/district. Parents are often planning things week to months in advance and need to know about school schedules/days off and other important events. Standardized discipline needs to be put into place. Students should not repeatedly be harmed by the same student day and day. Turnover and lack of resources at this school is absolutely unacceptable. I honestly cannot even count how many teachers one of my kids has had this year, especially if you count substitute teachers. The lack of continuity for students is so detrimental to their learning. The school seems to be getting by at a bare minimum for staffing rather than being proactive and having staff and resources available. I appreciate the differentiated learning but hate that it seems my student is just a number in an extremely large classroom.

				Provide schools with resources needed to educate students. Schools are not adequately staffed. Several substitute teachers have been used to fill the gap, however students are typically left with subpar education as most of the substitutes are not fully trained, or qualified. Introduce STEM to all students. Majority of minority students are blocked from enrolling, or not enrolled in STEM classes. Minorities deserve and need opportunities. It starts in the school system. There is a disproportionate gap in education for minority students. Discipline is unequal amongst minority. Reform DODEA practices.

					Children with learning disabilities are not cared for in the classroom. They are treated like a barrier to teaching and throwing them into a segregated Special Ed class is the only solution they can come up with when trying to "help" students.

				I do not think the large volume classrooms are an effective learning space. It comes off as chaotic and difficult to manage. Every parent wants smaller classroom sizes with lower ratios and some even pay out of pocket to get this. I have never heard anyone say they wish there were more children in the classroom. It also robs the children from celebrating birthdays, holiday celebrations, or any other activities that require more concentration.

				Recruitment & Retention in South Korea A top priority needs to be that DODEA ensures our schools are fully staffed before the first day of school with certified teachers (not long term subs) with experience in the subject they will be teaching. You continue to fail kids through poor hiring processes. Another issue with hiring is the background check procedures. Compared to other school systems I and others have worked at, the DODEA background check to be in the classroom takes an inordinate amount of time. Why can't DoDEA run the background checks like other districts? It would be very low risk for DoDEA to do an FBI database check and provide a conditional employment offer, get the teacher/substitute in the classroom, and continue the more extensive background check. In most cases, this would be done in 3 days! Especially for military spouses and DoD ID card holders, it seems like a low-risk proposition that would fill classrooms while still allowing DODEA to do the full check.

				If blended learning is ideal for DoDEA schools can we make sure we have the proper teacher to student ratio? Granted times are a bit different now and hiring may not come as easily. But, students after 2020 need assistance for next grade level and not constant revising of the things learned in the prior grade level. I really enjoyed DoDEA schools in the past I think it has taken a slump downwards.

				Teachers are trying hard but the neighborhood system is flawed and is not working. End this now.	Events like twin day encourage kids to celebrate homogeneity rather than differences. After school clubs and other opportunities are structured in ways that favor students with affluent, stay-at-home parents who are exquisitely tuned in to the school. This tends to underscore racial, ethnic, and socioeconomic divides.

632	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Parents/Sponsors	The process for hiring and keeping teachers NEEDS to be improved. Our students are not getting the education they need. We have high-level courses being taught by substitutes or online programs. This is not preparing students for success.	My son has experienced bias against him and all the other boys in his class from his ELA teacher. He reports the teacher frequently making comments about how "girls would never" do this or that. She favors the girls with class participation, grading, behavior and even who gets to go to lunch first. I have talked with other boys in his class and they all report the same bias.
633	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Parents/Sponsors	School start times for elementary and middle high school should align so that the younger children with older siblings who babysit them are home at the same times as the younger sibling. The staggered time makes zero sense and affects mission by requiring parents to take time away to plan other means of childcare. This added stress takes away from mission effectiveness. Even if the member is at work they are only there physically and are distracted from the task at hand. Thereâ€™s no reason a parent should be forced to pay childcare if the child could be safe at home with their older sibling. Additionally, all job titles do not allow for the member to be off by 5pm or whatever time the after school programs end in order for the parent to pick the child up and buses do not run for after school programs.

				I think there is a one size fits all attitude toward the schools in Korea. We are a comparatively small school. We are the furthest away from the other schools. This attitude allows for policies that negatively impact our students with regard to access to academic counselors (based on population), ability to hold events off post, sports and academic travel. In our community there is a lack of trust in the District and DoDEA leadership. There is an attitude that they dont care that our kids are being taught core classes by substitutes for extended periods of time. Each school has a unique culture and the feeling is the District and DoDEA Leadership dont care to learn the culture at our school. There was a DoDEA leadership visit recently, and they didnt care to hold a school town hall to meet with and hear from parents. That would have gone a long way to build good will. Additionally the inaction on the AAFES school lunch program is shocking. It is not nutritious or filling food.
45	Pacific West	Daegu MHS	Our family appreciates all your hard work. We see you doing more with less. We see you stretched thinly. We see you encouraging our students in the face of disappointments. Thank you. I would ask that you continue to bring more rigor to the classroom and hold students accountable for behavior and academic work. Please consider having less group work.

				Work out the issues with travel for sports. Our children often get treated worse than Soldiers when travelling for sports events up to Camp Humphreys, Osan and Seoul. An example. Our volleyball team had an event at a School in Seoul on a Friday afternoon. They then had to drive down to Osan to sleep on cots in a gymnasium, then get up and drive back to Seoul to play at a different school early the next morning. Needless to say, they were exhausted and played horribly in the Sat. morning game. Use some common sense. They could have stayed at the Dragon Hill Lodge, doubled up in rooms. Parents were willing to pay...but DODEA said no. When sports schedules are made for coming sport seasons, more thought should be put into accommodations, feeding and etc. Don't put it all on the coaches.
54	Pacific West	Daegu MHS	You must do a better job commun icating to parents in a timely manner. Many times we get notice of events just a few days before. A big pet peave, when teachers communicate to us there are often spelling and punctuation errors in their communications. These are the people teaching our children? Please, please review your communications before sending them out.

69	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	Some teachers there, they care more about how much they earn but dont love teaching kids. They get angry or annoyed so easily. They dont have the patient and love to work with kids. Also these teachers are not taking seriously the kids concern.	Take a psychology test to teachers before they start working.

89	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	Teachers are doing amazing work with what they are given but students suffer because of the lack of staffing for a school this size.	This school is understaffed in every way. We have been in DODEA Pacific schools before and even as recently as last year none had the shortages we have encountered at Central. Leadership does not communicate the plans to fill these gaps with parents we are only told the support is not available when it is needed.

99	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	The transition between long term substitutes and incoming teachers was handled very poorly. This is not our first time in this situation in a DODEA Pacific school but this was the roughest transition so far. There was no introduction of the long term substitute and her credentials, no updates from the school when the teacher my child was expecting was moved to a different classroom leaving my child to go even longer without a teacher certified to teach her grade. We recieved no communication when the new teacher arrived either from the school or the teacher. The teacher told us after the fact that my email was incorrect but previous communication from the school had come through and continued to come through during the transition. The school does a wonderful job at communication in other aspects but this particular area was handled poorly.	The transition between long term substitutes and incoming teachers was handled poorly. 101	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	The school needs better hiring practices! (I realize this is probably out of the school staff's hands). One teacher is leaving part-way through the school year for my 3rd grader, while my kindergartener has only had a long-term substitute THE WHOLE YEAR while the classroom aide (who is more qualified than the "teacher") has been bounced around. Kindergartners need stability. Having an unaccredited "teacher" in the classroom for a whole year is not acceptable. Partial-year teaching happens, but there's NO SOLUTION figured out. This is not unique to my family... if it was a one-off then you can chalk it up to military lifestyle, but when it's SYSTEMIC, you need to: Fix the process!	The school needs better hiring practices! 106	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES		I highly recommend establish a CCTV since they are working with kids. Last scholar year 2021-2022 my son had an incident with one of his teachers. She grab my son by his arm roughly to move him from one side to the other letting a red mark on his arm. And letting him embarrassed in front of his classmates. There was students as witnesses at that time and when I complained at school, the principal at that time didnt response to my concern. It was just a back and forth of emails and despite I asked to talk to her this was not possible. She absurdly justified that the teacher didnt use too much force. How did she compare the force level between an adult against the kid force level? And finally we didnt have the CCTV as resource to review the situation which for me as a parent it a very sensitive subject. Most of the institutions working with kids have cameras for safety reasons.

111	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES	There shouldn't be any turmoil between staff and parents. I shouldn't walk in the front office to hear a nurse screaming at a parent with children nearby. I shouldn't see staff ignoring parents seeing if their student had already come out of the building. I wasn't going to fill out the survey, but then I seen this behavior.	The staff here need to be better trained and lack etiquette. It's always social hour when we enter the building. They're "friendly" until you come in because you have a problem at the school. I overheard a conversation with an upset mom whose daughter was hurt and sent back to class with a blurry eye. The woman at the front desk found this funny.

130	Pacific West	Humphreys Central ES		Requiring parents to have a note from a doctor in order to return to school after being absent for anything from a runny nose/ postnasal drip due to allergies forces parents to go to the ER because the hospital doesnt have any available appointments for 6 weeks. This is a gross misuse of the ER and a huge problem for parents & students to contend with post-covid. This DoDEA policy must be changed so that students can attend school & learn what they need to.

157	Pacific West	Humphreys HS	Your continued efforts across many areas is greatly appreciated. -Not a fan of a class period that has no planned instruction in it (seminar). Students should do homework at home, not school. They should be getting active instruction at school that should make their homework easier.	The school staff should be more empowered to engage the military community to get positive control on disciplinary issues in the school. Teachers should not have to consistently spend instructional time on disciplinary issues. Parents should be responsible. When they are not, the military chain of command should be engaged and forced to take action. We are all here on orders and serve as ambassadors of our nation. 161	Pacific West	Humphreys HS	Why does it matter if someone uses the elevator vs stairs? With as many student athletes that are injured each semester, why are teachers constantly yelling at these students for using an elevator? The nurse is aware of it. They have an elevator pass. Why is it my student comes home every single day talking about a new teacher hassling kids in the elevator? It's ableist and unproductive and it doesn't make the school year easier. Especially for a kid who is already struggling with an injury that's messing up their season.	Our student was an incoming senior and it was a rough transition trying to meet the military requirements of a full course load so they could keep their dependent status and actually finding classes for the student who was 3 credits shy of graduation at their old school. More could be done for incoming seniors.

			Overall, we are satisfied with the level of communication the school provides, however our reception and arrival to the school was underwhelming. It took multiple attempts to reach anyone prior to our arrival to get enrollment information. As a supporting element for service members, your focus must include easing the transition for incoming and outgoing students. This requires effective and continued communication. Since our arrival however, we are satisfied with the support our student receives.	Of the schools in the Humphreys district, the high school is a much better run organization than the middle school. Why is there such a disparity between organizations within the same district? The lack of and frequent turnover of qualified teachers is a concern that impacts the quality of education our student receives. While it was a cute play, I found it frustrating and hypocritical that the very things students are supposed to get into trouble for is on display and even the focal point in this school sponsored event. Namely drinking alcohol throughout the entire play and even directly from a whiskey bottle. Community play, yes. School sponsored, no.	I recently attending the play put on by the drama club. 216	Pacific West	Humphreys HS	Sorry DoDEA HQ leaves you cleaning up their messes like the DSIS rollout and progress reports. Sorry for all the substitutes that come and go. Sorry that the ISSs make so much money and yet are not as supportive and helpful as they could be. Seems like so much time is wasted because HQ is a hot mess. Sorry for all changes you feel are necessary but yet if you open your mouth you will get a TARGET on your back. Sorry for all the times you have to work harder and not smarter. DoDEA HQ has no idea how much you all take on because they don't. Locally are schools are trying but HQ fails to understand and support the unique needs of overseas locations.	Sorry, you have no power to affect REAL change. Sorry that you will be perceived as rocking the boat if you advocate for your district. Sorry that HQ has not delivered on the Hiring and left you holding the bag. Pretending that hiring is only an issue because of COVID.
217	Pacific West	Humphreys HS	Thank you for showing up every day, despite the changing and increasing demands put on you. Thank you for caring for our children, who go through so many changes as military children. Thank you for being the village that is here when we had to leave villages behind. I am sorry for all the parents who make your life harder. Those of us who support you also see how much you do. In our children's growth and their excitement when they talk about you giving them that extra attention and that extra boost in their day. Keep being awesome!	Empower your school staff to stick to their policies and guidelines and support them to the point that they do not have to worry about the entitled, baseless complainers in this world.

We dont need to be coddled, we are a military community that deals with unpleasant issues routinely and our children have endured more than the average American while moving around the world. Give them and us the benefit of the doubt that we can handle the issues and help you make positive changes.	Develop a policy encouraging schools to communicate openly about issues. 			It is clear that the school leadership is leading by example and modeling the Excellence they are striving for! It is a complete 180 from the prior leadership. The Admin team and teachers are striving to listen to understand and adjust if needed. The School Counseling staff is overworked. In order for them to stop being simply order takers during course selection, they need more support. They are so amazing but have no wiggle room to get to know the students' college and career aspirations and give support in an equitable way. Lack of time and too many other duties reduce their role to simply order takers at course selection time when this time could be spent getting to know the student and their dreams.	Having High Schools in the same district with differing amounts of opportunities for seminar/advisory/academic enrichment is not equitable. Also differing recess and lunch. Get better recreation areas for middle school - Pavers in a courtyard is ridiculous. Thank you for elevating Dual Enrollment. Revisit Long Haul Travel Policy.

			More transparency regarding the schools deficiencies! Here are some of the issues that have come to light: (1) inadequate staffing of both administrative staffs as well as teachers. Over utilization of substitutes with what is seemingly a lack of oversight in their teaching methods and adherence to curriculum taught/lesson plans. The abrupt dismissal of qualified teachers with no explanation provided to parents and no transitions period. Issues of bullying. Inclement weather procedures: late arrival of school buses which results in students waiting for ~30min in 5 degree Celsius frigid winter weather, the housing of all students in the auditorium/gymnasium/cafeteria in the event of inclement weather which resulted in 1 child being crushed and taken to the hospital. Change of school schedule and lack of input by teachers/parents/students into what an ideal schedule could look like.	Hiring timelines need to be revised in order to sufficient amount of teachers before the start of the school year. 299	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	You're doing as well as you can with what you have. I'm sorry you do not have the support from DODEA to do your jobs well, or at all, in some cases. You're the last line of defense in educating these kids and your best is not currently meeting mission standards. Good luck.	Hire a registered dietician or nutritionist to help you sort out the calorie requirements of growing teens. Six hours without food is bad for growing bodies. Hire more teachers and bring down the classroom sizes.
300	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Create an inclusive school. You have the power to do that, and to change the future of your students through inclusive practices. Inclusion benefits all students. "Inclusion is a right, not a privilege for the select few." -Oberti v. Board of Education	(b)(3)(10) was a nightmare. I have never experienced an educator with such a lack of empathy and caring. 			Thank you for your continued work striving for excellence even when DoDEA Virginia fails to get the teachers in place for our kids for the first day of school. Thank you for giving up or being required to give up your prep time to cover the deficits created by DoDEA Virginia's lack of planning for hiring. Thank you for giving so much while having the unenviable job of getting more tasks assigned that take the teachers away from teaching our kids. Thank you for supplementing the curriculum because DoDEA Virginia does not give you a complete curriculum. Thank you for working so hard for our kids.	DODEA is a System of Schools and NOT a School System when schools in the same district or better yet, across all regions have different amounts of time for lunch, recess, and seminar at middle school and high school levels. This is an EQUITY issue (equity to instruction time and equity to a fair amount of study time and remediation) and needs to be addressed ASAP. It would be great if you would promote safe environments for teachers to work in so they have more to give to our kids rather than spend energy working in a hostile work environment brought on by the interim principals and inexperienced assistant principals. Our kids can only thrive when the toxicity stops flowing down from leadership. Time to understand that leadership violating Trust of the teachers is a recipe for disaster. How

			Cell phones need to be removed from the school. They are not only a distraction, but a tool for bullying. Teachers need to uniformly enforce this in all classrooms and hallways. It has been inconsistent, with some teachers themselves unable to put their own cell phones away during class.	Bark monitoring services can detect bullying, suicidal ideation, and other risky behaviors communicated between students in their school Goolge accounts. As a parent, I am unable to install the extension to the student Chrome browser because Dodea restricts it. Bark provides this service to school districts and I think it should be implemented Dodea-wide.

Help them succeed in things they will encounter in the US!
				I plan to send my child to a different school next year due to the following issues/concerns. 1. There are too many long-term substitutes. 2. There is no principle. 3. My child has maintained the honor roll, been accepted to NJHS, and at this point is overwhelmed by the disobedient students in nearly every class. From what I hear the teachers can't control the students and eventually just ignore the behavior. 4. 90min classes are too long for children to remain focused. 5. 15min for lunch is not adequate. 6. The lockers don't secure properly. my child has had things stolen multiple times. If the gauge of metal on the lock isn't thick enough, the locker will open even when locked.
358	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	To the school: 1. Please stop allowing the teachers to bombard students with homework. My child spends hours every night (including the weekends) working on homework. It is difficult to comprehend why this much homework is necessary. 2. 5min does not seem to be adequate enough time for all the students to transfer between classes. The halls are overcrowded and often teachers require students to leave their backpacks/jackets in their lockers. This requires them to go from one class to their locker, and then to the class without running.
359	Pacific West	Humphreys MS
360	Pacific West	Humphreys MS
361	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	My daughter is in 7th grade. She comes home from school overwhelmed by the amount of homework she has to do. My daughter is afraid of raising her voice about her concerns to the teachers at her school because she is afraid of being retaliated by them.
362	Pacific West	Humphreys MS
363	Pacific West	Humphreys MS
364	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	If a student is struggling academically in a class, the teacher must reach out to parents to create a plan to address the issue. Parents can help at home and reinforce lessons taught in the classroom. They cannot be left out of the loop if any expectation of success is to be seen. Hold students accountable for their actions - stop letting the indiscipline disrupt the learning experience for the rest.	The lack of primary administrator is clearly evident in how the school is running. There is an issue with retaining qualified teachers and the high turnover rates throughout the year disrupt students' progress. We were also disappointed in how the school handled a bullying incident earlier in the year - limited communication and very slow response indicated that the school's stance on bullying is just a poster with no action behind it.

368	Pacific West	Humphreys MS		This school needs to have monthly reviews of their staff to include teachers and their use of YouTube as a teacher
369	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	While many teachers are skilled and trying to support the students, I am frustrated with the lack of communication and caring exhibited by school administrators. A lack of systems and poor communication prevents this school from excelling. If I could go back in time, I would not choose to send my child to this school.	Humphreys Middle School requires district and DoDEA intervention / oversight. I am frustrated with administrators failing to take parent requests seriously and failing to meet education needs of students. A revolving door of temporary teachers is damaging to a student's ability to learn.

				The bullying referenced in the survey was not by peers, but was done by adults in positions of power towards students. It occurs in the library & the lunchroom. It carries over into lunch/recess availability. The fifth graders at the middle school, do not get developmentally appropriate downtime for their age group. The fifth graders universally across-the-board do not receive a minimum of 20 minutes outside recess time or 20 minutes indoor brain break time daily. This wears on them physically, as well as mentally/emotionally. It affects their well-being and is not being addressed. In the three months that parents have raised a concern, nothing has changed. Recess is being used as a tool for punishment - lack it recess appears to be due to laziness of monitor and unwillingness to go outside with the children.
374	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	The librarian is nice, but needs in service in positive discipline, and classroom control. She struggles to control children in a classroom setting without using humiliation as a tool. Our student has witnessed at least three separate incidences, for this is their perception to be true.
375	Pacific West	Humphreys MS	Middle school can be a tough time as children grow into teenagers. Bullying and the environment would be our only real concern. The curriculum is good and we like our teacher. My son and some of his friends have experienced bullying and being taken advantage of by older students in the school. Our teacher did a great job in addressing one specific issue. However, this issue seems prevalent in the school and seems to be a topic of discussion among several of the parent that I know. He is in 5th grade because DODEA does not have enough room in the elementary schools. I think that adds to the opportunity for this to happen. When he graduated 4th grade, he was already afraid of going to the middle school and how mean the kids were. I think the middle school has a bad reputation among some students and parents because of this. This will definitely be a factor in if we stay at this location.	Middle school can be a tough time as children grow into teenagers. Bullying and the environment would be our only real concern. 			My survey is a bit mixed. My son struggled with an incident earlier this yr which I felt like wasn't followed up with or taken seriously. However it was readdressed the beginning of this year and the new principal not only addressed it but also made sure I was aware of all the supportive programs that were available to assist my son as well as informing me of all our rights in addressing this matter. Im not a fan of the online system . I prefer to see papers and worksheets come home so that I can follow up. My son hides behind a computer does his work and then says he submitted and is done. However his grades have fluctuated leaving me to believe he is rushing through and doesn't understand everything.
389	Pacific West	Humphreys MS		Please change the system regarding what information is released to parents during an incident . Im running out of time to submit this survey so I will leave it at that.

				Sometimes, I wonder if there is sub teacher in the class for long term. They should be proper teacher. For example, her Spanish teacher was in maternity leave for about 3 months, I expected Spanish sub teacher. But for three months, just adult in the class, there is no academic plan anything. They didn't teach students but the school expects students to meet the standard. That is so absurd. When you hire the teacher, you should check teacher's capability. For example, Band teacher can not teach the string until they can do both. I was shocked this school orchestra teacher doesn't know the string but the actual run by a few prodigies in the class. I hope high school is not like chaos.

			Work on promoting a positive school atmosphere. Many staff (cafeteria supervisors, teachers) threaten students with punishment for minor infractions instead of promoting positive, supportive relationships.	Long term substitutes and some full time teachers are sometimes not effective teachers. Some of these teachers have been with DODEA for years and continue to be ineffective year after year with nothing being done. Ineffective staff members should be given coaching and an improvement plan. Students' education should not suffer due to incompetent staff regardless of their years of service.

One of my initial concerns when I first arrived was the time school starts for elementary kids. Having to get up around 5am to get ready and get on the bus seems so early especially given how many students come from a previous school that started much later. Its a tough adjustment but I am sure this isnt an easy change or even a possible one.
417	Pacific West	Humphreys West ES
418	Pacific West	Humphreys West ES		The schedule of this school is terrible. Kids this age should not be getting up so early. Plenty of research showing the bad effects on their learning and mental health. The school schedule should be based on supporting the kids, not bus drivers or busy parents. There need to be other options for parents who need to work early.

			the 21st century schooling is not working. My child feels lost in the shuffle and doesn't get adequate time with teachers. It is hard to answer questions about a teacher when my child has 4 and each one is different. The times I have had notes sent home by one of the teachers, when I ask a teacher about it, that teacher then has to confer with the other teachers because he/she doesn't know what the note is about. It is frustrating to experience this run around to a simple question. Recess should never be used as a form of consequence. There are extremely limited opportunities for any of the children to be able to expell energy. Taking away that one chance only makes the situation worse. Find a different way to control the classroom other than yelling. My child feels like he/she is yelled at more often than not and it is diminishing his/her desire to learn. Do not make me feel like a guest to my child's education. Work with the parents. When a meetin	Listen to the teachers, go to the classroom and experience a day in 21st century learning through the eyes of the students and how it feels like being shuffled around; that keeping the schedule seems more important than helping a child learn and understand; how the classrooms are so full and so open that the teachers are constantly having to yell, which affects the environment of the classroom. It is ridiculous how many long term subs fill the classrooms. Re-evaluate the hiring process and the incentives to bring teachers here. Do something about the lack of permanant teachers because it is hurting the children's education.

			Teacher communication is inconsistent. It takes several emails on the same topic before a response by the teacher is provided. School or class information for special events is never received when parents in the same grade and class receive emails. Lack of coordination from the teacher when a conference is scheduled. Receiving meeting times the week of or cancellation notices minutes before the meeting occurs. And only via email. There is no clear standard or expectation of execution and I believe it is directly impacting how well my student is progressing because we cannot help at home if we have zero information. Additionally attention to detail when it comes to sending kindergarten students home is subpar. As several times a student has been placed in the wrong transportation lines and without intervention could have been placed in an unsafe situation.

489	Pacific West	Osan ES		Your hiring / on-boarding process is terrible. Very slow and NOT responsive. Our children suffer due the lack of qualified teachers and lack of qualified subs.
490	Pacific West	Osan ES		Communication is severely lacking from this school/district. Parents are often planning things week to months in advance and need to know about school schedules/days off and other important events. Standardized discipline needs to be put into place. Students should not repeatedly By harmed by the same student day and day. Turnover and lack of resources at this school is absolutely unacceptable. I honestly cannot even count how many teachers one of my kids has had this year, especially if you count substitute teachers. The lack of continuity for students is so detrimental to their learning. The school seems to be "getting by" at a bare minimum for staffing rather than being proactive and having staff and resources available. I appreciate the differentiated learning but hate that it seems my student is just a number in an extremely large classroom.
491	Pacific West	Osan ES		From my understanding the curriculum offered at Camp Humphreys' elementary differs from Osan's. As in Humphreys doesn't do the combined classroom (neighborhood) method. So why are there two different types of elementary school curriculum offered in the same district?
492	Pacific West	Osan ES	After school programs/clubs are needed.	After school programs/clubs are needed.
493	Pacific West	Osan ES	Thank you for helping my kids and working so hard in a sometimes thankless job.	Parents like me want to be informed if and when the curriculum involves subjects like human sexuality and gender identity. There has been no issues that I know of yet in this district, but plenty of news stories from other districts of going behind parents' backs with those types of things. Please help us make informed decisions about our children's education. Thank you!
494	Pacific West	Osan ES
495	Pacific West	Osan ES	Treat all students as if they were your children. Educate with love. All children need to feel heard and understood. They are highly intelligent little humans. Treat them with respect.	My children experienced bullying on several occasions without interventions, and parent notification, by the staff and faculty. The children displayed mental and physical symptoms from the persistent verbal and physical bullying. Intervention by teachers was instituted after several emails, face-to-face and virtual conference were accomplished. The children experienced such severe and traumatic bullying that they were afraid to leave their residence. The teachers did a poor job of communicating what was occurring at school in regards to the bullying and extensive nature of the issues that were happening. They did not take care to protect the interest of the children getting verbally and physically bullied. The children experienced mental and physical trauma due to staff lack of training with handling bullying in school and how to protect the victims of bullying. Multiple students experiencing the same issues signals a trend.
496	Pacific West	Osan ES		OES needs to be trained on how to handle children with learning disabilities and helping these children feel cared for, heard, and integrated into the classroom. The school psychologist, counselors, and SPED Assessor are cold and rude. The SPED Assessor couldn't even be bothered to learn my child's name even after having been corrected multiple times. My child did not feel incorporated into the classroom and was ostracized enough times that other students began to also join in and exclude my child and go out of the way to aggravate and push buttons for a reaction. I would never recommend this school to anyone, especially parents of children with disabilities.
497	Pacific West	Osan ES	I do not think the large volume classrooms are an effective learning space. It comes off as chaotic and difficult to manage. Every parent wants smaller classroom sizes with lower ratios and some even pay out of pocket to get this. I have never heard anyone say they wish there were more children in the classroom. It also robs the children from celebrating birthdays, holiday celebrations, or activities that require more concentration.	I do not think the large volume classrooms are an effective learning space. 				There needs to be a discussion and procedural outline shared with parents regarding the escalation and disciplinary process for students who are endangering the safety of other students i.e. via physically assault resulting in nurse visits or teasing. It is unfair to other students that a student who has documented evidence of being physically violent is allowed to attend school and continue this behavior.

				Teachers in 5th grade are often harsh to my student who is shy and they don't try to find ways to work with her but rather just tell her she needs to not be shy, I think individual students have individual personalities that the teachers should understand which impacts learning style and question asking, teachers are often telling us parents to use electronic systems to check progress, it's a lot on the parents especially when my student is falling behind the teachers aren't reaching out personally and staying we think your student could use extra help, they simply expect a 5th grader to be responsible enough to inform parents, I'm frustrated at the lack of personal communication outside of all the electronic systems that monitor assignments and grades, a note home or a phone call would be appreciated months in advance of report card/grade time, if I knew earlier that my student was struggling I could have helped in a more productive way.

			Thank you for all you do. It's tough work being an educator. Also, please change the traffic pattern at OES for drop off in the morning and pick-up in the afternoon, so that drop-off and pick-up is in the back of the school and drivers have to go around the back perimeter and around the big playgrounds and come out on the other side of school (next to that hill with the higher officer's housing). And please train all the traffic patrol airmen in the morning to actually help direct traffic instead of just stand there. Some do and some don't. Thank you.

COMPLETELY UNACCEPTABLE. Stop with the long term subs and oversized classroom in open style classrooms. This is the 6th elementary school that I have had a child at, it is hands down the worst education. 			I wish that teachers could directly inform parents whenever there's a significant change in the students' behavior. Case in point, we reached out a couple of times to the teachers to ask for feedback on our child when his grades went down by a good margin. We do appreciate the teachers being timely in responding back, but there was an instance when one of our child's grades from a main subject dropped from an A to a C in between the preliminary report and the final report, which was only a 2-week period. We do think the teachers give the students plenty of opportunities to make up and that students do know how to keep track of their performance in Aspen, but timely feedback would have been important for us to make sure we keep our child focused in school work.

				You have a hiring problem and it affects the support you give to students. A recommendation: The hiring process is abysmally slow and bureaucratic. It takes months for the hiring process to play out and anecdotally, because it takes so long, people don't even apply or by the time they get through the security process, they don't take the job offer because they are already settled into the rhythm of their new lives. Here are some ideas to make the process less ponderous: â€¢ Allow spouses to apply once the military member receives a RIP instead of waiting until orders are completed. Even without changes to the hiring process, the applicant could have been interviewed by the school, offered employment, and done the initial paperwork by the time they arrive in Korea. While the remaining steps (fingerprinting at Camp Humphreys and eQIP investigation) still are very slow, this could get a teacher/substitute/staff member into the school months earlier than the current process.

528	Pacific West	Osan ES	Be more passionate on teaching. Yes, it's frustrating to teach at times but attempt to make a connection with students regardless of blended learning being in place. My child feels like she can not connect with teachers for fear of being turned away when asking educational questions; which may have been silly to answer as an adult but sometimes the kids genuinely do not know and need guidance. Front staff personnel thank you for the warm welcome into the facility.	Do more activities for kids. Perhaps some after school clubs and more involvement for the parents. I feel like there has not been much this year. There has been some activities but some ideas that we would be interested in seeing would be more of what they do in music class and them hosting a show, an art show for earth day, science fair...etc

562	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Thank you for what you do, please listen to students when they bring up concerns!	Look into the school as a whole, why they're not social clubs and why are some sports favored over others.
563	Pacific West	Osan MHS	I haven't heard or experienced anything negative with any of my child's teachers.	You need to hold parent of disruptive children accountable.

568	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Communicate with the parents. Show them what their children will be learning. Send homework, even if it is nothing more than something for the parents to sit down and review with the kids. It is a talking point and it will allow parents to offer any additional help for their child if needed.	You need organization and communication BADLY. There should be structure and consistency throughout the schools. That is something that is very lacking, I've noticed. You send out all these newsletters and eventually they just become spam with no real, useful information - because it's the same thing over and over again. People tend to ignore it after a while. Important information should be handled as such and not distributed in a newsletter! Team sports should have a legit schedule with times for both games and practices - not just "guestimates." I would like to know when to pick my child up and not have you completely time-zap my family's entire weekend because you couldn't relay information or be organized in your planning. It's not fair to us or my other kid.

569	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Monitor hallways, bathrooms, open outdoor areas. Less homework online. I am concerned with their eyesight.	Follow through on problems that may arise in school.

575	Pacific West	Osan MHS	The courses are not sufficiently rigorous. My child has not written one out of class essay all year. The pacing is also slow. There is not sufficient differentiation within the classes to hit the needs of all students.	My child really appreciates the Vice Principal: she's out and about, interested in the students, a no-nonsense but caring attitude. The principal—on the other hand—is never really over in the middle school according to my child. He describes her as "prowling around the school" looking for "gotch yous" rather than authentic opportunities to connect with the students. They find her aloof. As a parent, I don't find her to be an effective listener, I frequently find the conversation centers around her not the topic at hand. In short, the principal does not seem to effectively connect with middle and high school kids.

581	Pacific West	Osan MHS		(b)(3):10 is amazing. She is so present, approachable, and invested in the school. We see her at many sporting events supporting the students and are grateful she is apart of the OMHS community. The principal is rarely present and does not seem approachable at all so any needs are brought to (b)(3):10 U.S.C. attention.
582	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Be more consistent. No one seems to know what the rules are.	Allow 8th graders to take normal Algebra stead of combined 8th grade/Algebra. It is not preparing students for Algebra II.
583	Pacific West	Osan MHS		We are extremely disappointed that there are only 2 honors classes available. That is unacceptable for students that transfer to a non DoD school. Why arent more practical classes offered such as accounting?
584	Pacific West	Osan MHS	You guys are doing good.	Why is it taking so long to get teachers? We have had so many long term subs!
585	Pacific West	Osan MHS
586	Pacific West	Osan MHS
587	Pacific West	Osan MHS
588	Pacific West	Osan MHS
589	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Please work to standardize how you communicate with students / parents. My child often has conflicting guidance on what is due and when. It is very frustrating. What is said in class and what is posted on virtual platforms has been different way too many times.
590	Pacific West	Osan MHS
591	Pacific West	Osan MHS	Consistency with communication or classroom processes would be so helpful. Knowing that the due dates or course information is consistently in the same place or done the same way would be helpful. My son has some teachers who write the due dates for assignments as the day they are assigned versus the day they are due. My son has other teachers that don't provide any information at all.	There needs to be more support for incoming 6th graders. Going from the elementary environment to the demands of middle/high school with A/B days and multiple teachers is tough. Even providing a day-planner would have helped, especially since the BX does not carry them.

			School start times for elementary and middle high school should align so that the younger children with older siblings who babysit them are home at the same times as the younger sibling. The staggered time makes zero sense and affects mission by requiring parents to take time away to plan other means of childcare. This added stress takes away from mission effectiveness. Even if the member is at work they are only there physically and are distracted from the task at hand. Theres no reason a parent should be forced to pay childcare if the child could be safe at home with their older sibling. Additionally, all job titles do not allow for the member to be off by 5pm or whatever time the after school programs end in order for the parent to pick the child up and buses do not run for after school programs.
