Timeframe:

I understand by paying the $100 per kitten waiting list fee I am agreeing to purchase a kitten from the seller. I understand that a kitten with these preferences including price, is just a preference and not a promise or guarantee from the breeder to comply in any timeframe or combination. I understand that the deposit is non-refundable should the purchaser for any reason change his/her mind.

I understand by joining the 'waiting list' I will have priority selection of an available kitten based on date of deposit above. The breeder will do their best to accommodate preferences based on priority within the waiting list and best match of kittens available. Once I am offered a kitten or selection of kittens, I will have 48 hours to decide if I would like to place a deposit on the kitten or wait for a future litter. If I fail to respond or make a selection in the time given, the kitten becomes open for reservation to others. I may choose to transfer the deposit to another available kitten before rehoming with prior agreement from the breeder.

The fee paid will be applied towards the total purchase price of the kitten. The fee shall be refunded to purchaser if the seller fails to make the kitten available for reasons including, but not limited to, the kittens mortality. Seller has the option of offering a replacement kitten of similar quality within 1 year of mortality, which purchaser may accept or decline.

I understand the seller reserves the right to refuse to sell a kitten to the buyer should they feel at any time the family is no longer a good fit for one of their kittens. Should a family be removed for this purpose, a full refund of the deposit will be promptly issued.

This waiting list deposit expires within 2 years of the 'Date Paid' or three refused litter selections, whichever comes sooner and will not be applicable any longer. After this period, if the purchaser wishes to join the waiting list again, a new waiting list fee would be required.

I understand that once I take ownership of the kitten/cat I am responsible for the cat/kitten for the rest of its life. I understand I am responsible for all aspects of its wellbeing, including maintaining a proper diet, providing a safe home and all veterinary related costs. If for any reason I become unable to care for the said kitten/cat and suitable rehoming is not an option, I agree to return the kitten/cat to the seller at purchaser's expense. Under no circumstances will this kitten ever be abandoned, given to any pet shop, humane society, pound, shelter, research facility, or euthanized for behavioral problems.

I agree that the kitten/cat will not be declawed and is purchased solely as a pet, not be used as bait, fodder, or used for work or breeding purposes.
