The Coldwater Mill is a registered not for profit organization and multi-purpose museum and cultural centre with gallery space that welcomes applications from community groups and both emerging and professional artists in a variety of mediums. The term “community” refers to our local community of Coldwater, regional community of Simcoe, Ontario and beyond. Please note that every consideration will be given to your application.

All applications are accepted by email (coldwatermill@gmail.com).

To be considered as an Individual Artist or for a Group Exhibit please:

1. Complete the attached application form to ensure that we have all your contact information for our database and email list.
2. Email us with “Artist for Consideration” – (Your Name) in the subject line OR
3. Email us with “Exhibition Proposal: - (Name of Group Show) in the subject line.
4. Email 3 sample .jpegs of recent artwork. Include a corresponding list with title, date of art work, medium, size and sample price for each piece of artwork.
5. Provide a brief description of the proposed exhibit, your curriculum vitae, web address or social media page and a brief artist statement. It would assist us in the process if you can include why you believe your proposed idea will inspire visitors of all ages to make a personal and emotion connection to arts, culture and heritage.

Thank you for your interest. If your proposed application is selected to be part of our gallery programme, you will be notified of the next step by Gwen Robison, chairperson or Kathleen Rodgers, Gallery Manager.
