The judge has set a court hearing (court date) for the request to renew restraining order.

The Restraining Order After Hearing (Order of Protection) stays in effect until the expiration date on that order or the end of the hearing below, whichever is later.

Date: _____ Time: _____
Dept.: _____ Room: _____

Name and address of court, if different from above:

④ To the person in ②:

- You must continue to obey the current restraining order until the expiration date on the current order or the hearing date, whichever is later.
- At the hearing: The judge can renew the current restraining order for at least five years or make it permanent. You can tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the request to renew the orders.
- If you do not attend the hearing, the judge can still renew the restraining order. If the judge renews the order you should receive a copy of the order at the address listed in ②. If your address is incorrect or not listed, contact the court.
- If the restraining order is renewed, you must obey the orders even if you do not attend the hearing. If you did not attend the hearing and want to know if the judge renewed the order, contact the court.
- If you want to respond in writing to the request to renew the restraining order, fill out form DV-720, Response to Request to Renew Restraining Order. File the original with the court, and have someone 18 or over—not you—mail a copy of it to the person in ① before the hearing. Also file form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail, with the court before the hearing, and bring a copy to the court hearing.
