Quantum of the Seas

On 12th February, 2027, embark on an enchanting journey from Brisbane to the South Pacific.

This cruise offers a perfect blend of leisure and adventure, promising unforgettable moments and breathtaking vistas at every turn.

We will have a large group on board to make your cruise memorable.

The cruise has 2 port days and 4 sea days (plus leaving day).

Your instructor Vicky will teach 2 x 3 hour sessions on each of the 4 sea days over 7 different topics.

Your crochet pass includes all sessions plus our Welcome Event.

You can only buy the full pass, not individual days or sessions.

This is payable on top of your cruise fare, and payment plans are available.

Pricing Options

These are the generic starting prices that cruise lines advertise.

There are multiple options within each category. They are not significantly different, so use these prices to work out where you want to be, then Corina can go through all the options with you.

These prices are for guarantee cabins, which means the cruise line selects a cabin for you. For just a few dollars more you can select your own cabin, and we highly recommend doing that. Remember the guarantee cabins are the ones nobody paid to choose.

On most cruises there are deals and offers available, like drinks packages and wifi. Getting those included in your fare is usually way cheaper than adding them later. Talk to Corina.

SINGLES - one person in a cabin costs almost as much as a couple. Per person prices need to be doubled if you want to travel alone in a cabin. Talk to Corina for the actual prices.

Brisbane 08/02/2027 pricing as at 29/05/2025

Why choose our cruises over others?

Well, it's about numbers really. With over 1.35 million cruising each year in Australia how do we find the like minded people? Well we find them by narrowing down the number of cruises and putting everyone together 😊

Yes, we have cruised on all types from family cruises to full takeovers, and have been running hosted swinger cruises in Australia for 15 years, so we do know a thing or two.

We have always found going on cruises with a group of people is so much better than hopping on board with your partner and seeing if you meet anyone.

On vanilla cruises you can spend the time working a couple or single thinking "yes, we have found that elusive like-minded person/couple" only to find out that they are horrified and we have wasted our time.

You can put out feelers on various websites for lifestyle people who might be on the same cruise as you, but that rarely gets much response.

Our cruises give you the time, the people, the location, and the hosts. Because we are now coordinating a massive number of people interested in cruises, when we select a cruise as the one to go on, we get large groups. Large groups gives everyone a great chance to find someone they click with, and almost guarantees someone to party with even if you don't end up playing.

Then we lift the experience by being on board with you. We make sure everyone in the group gets constant chances to meet and talk to the rest of the group. We help you chat to each other before the cruise, extend the cruise with a dinner beforehand, and help with the whole process.

Brisbane

Founded in 1824 on the banks of the wide, meandering Brisbane River, the former penal colony of Brisbane was for many years regarded as just a big country town.

Many beautiful timber Queenslander homes, built in the 1800s, still dot the riverbanks and inner suburbs, and in spring the city's numerous parks erupt in a riot of colorful jacaranda, poinciana, and bougainvillea blossoms.

Today the Queensland capital is one of Australia's most up-and-coming cities: glittering high-rises mark its polished business center, slick fashion boutiques and restaurants abound, and numerous outdoor attractions beckon.

Brisbane is also a convenient base for trips to the Sunshine and Gold coasts, the mountainous hinterlands, and the Moreton Bay islands.

Nouméa

With its elegant urban infrastructure in a stunning natural setting, Noumea is a truly unique island and part of the New Caledonia archipelago.

Noumea started as a penal colony, but has since evolved to a lovely metropolis and today has almost two thirds of New Caledonia's population. While much of the archipelago of New Caledonia has a large percentage of Kanak people – the indigenous inhabitants who live in tribal areas across the country – Noumea is predominantly European with a strong French influence.

The city's center and Place de Cocotiers, the main park, are located close to the harbor and several churches date back to the late 19th century. Other attractions include a world-class aquarium at Anse Vata, several long beaches to the south, and a noteworthy collection of Kanak and South Pacific objects at the Museum of New Caledonia. The architectural gem of the city is the Tjibaou Cultural Center, the structure of which resembles sails, or the roofs of Kanak houses hidden behind mangroves.

Today the Queensland capital is one of Australia's most up-and-coming cities: glittering high-rises mark its polished business center, slick fashion boutiques and restaurants abound, and numerous outdoor attractions beckon. In summer, temperatures here are broilingly hot and days are often humid, a reminder that this city is part of a subtropical region. Wear SPF 30-plus sunscreen and a broad-brimmed hat outdoors, even on overcast days. Brisbane's inner suburbs, a 5- to 10-minute drive or 15- to 20-minute walk from the city center, have a mix of intriguing eateries and quiet accommodations. Fortitude Valley combines Chinatown with a cosmopolitan mix of clubs, cafés, and boutiques. Spring Hill has several high-quality hotels, and Paddington, New Farm, Petrie Terrace, West End, and Woolloongabba are full of an eclectic mix of restaurants and bars. Brisbane is also a convenient base for trips to the Sunshine and Gold coasts, the mountainous hinterlands, and the Moreton Bay islands.

ATTIRE

Casual

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

Great apps are guaranteed when you dine at Jamie's Italian. The creamy burrata is a no-brainer — it comes garnished with slow-roasted tomato, carta di musica bread, and arugula. And you definitely can't miss the ultimate garlic bread — warm artisan buttermilk buns served with herby garlic butter, veggie parmesan and rosemary. If you like truffle, try the homemade truffle tagliatelle, served in rich a truffle cream with a hint of nutmeg. Or satisfy your craving for seafood with Jamie's famous prawn linguini, tossed with garlicky prawns, vine-ripe tomatoes, shaved fennel, saffron, chilli and arugula. Another fan-favourite is the chianti-braised short rib. It's cooked slow and low to perfection and served with parmesan mash and horseradish gremolata.

PRO TIP

Want to pair your meal with some vino? Ask your waiter to suggest a wine pairing.

Main Dining Room

GOURMET COURSES

In the Main Dining Room, you can experience flavours that take you from Jamaica to Jaipur, a rotating menu of delicious dishes always offering something unexpected. A multi-level restaurant that in the morning is the perfect spot to enjoy a hearty brunch paired with refreshing mimosas, at dinnertime transforms into a world class dining experience with a menu that invites you to taste your way around the world course by course.

ATTIRE

Smart Casual

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

Many of the dishes on the Main Dining Room's menu rotate each night, which means you could go an entire week without ever repeating a course. Every meal here begins with something delicious from the starters section of the menu — like savoury duck terrine layered with apricot chutney on toasted sourdough bread, a flaky Vidalia onion tart baked with whipped eggs, cream, and smoked bacon, or spiced eggplant and Kalamata olive tartare prepared with red pepper hummus and served on crispy garlic bread. Then, choose from international entrees like Moroccan spiced ahi tuna served over mint couscous, sautéed spinach and tequila peppers with a cool yogurt vinaigrette. Or mojo-marinated bone-in pork loin paired with sweet potatoes, broccoli and a cumin-citrus reduction. Dessert is also worth getting excited about, with options like sweet cream-soaked tres leches, home-style carrot cake with cream cheese frosting, and a light and fluffy Grand Marnier soufflé.

NOTE

Food offerings may differ by ship and sailing.

Izumi

THE HOTTEST SUSHI SPOT AT SEA

From delicious sushi rolls to fresh sashimi and nigiri, Izumi serves up an exotic Asian-inspired dining experience. Savour izakaya-style appetisers and rolls that range from classic to imaginative. No matter what you order, you're in for a far out, Far East feast filled with incredible flavours from Tohoku to Tokyo.

HOW TO PURCHASE

Cruise Planner or Onboard

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

From the appetiser list, don't miss the shrimp and vegetable tempura, served golden-fried to perfection and paired with savoury tentsuyu bonito stock for dipping. From the carpaccio section, the octopus yuzu chimichurri is also a fan-favourite. It comes drizzled with the house ponzu olive oil, course kosher salt, yuzu citrus chimichurri, and masago smelt eggs. If you're dining with an appetite, try the yaki udon. It spotlights thick, stir-fried udon noodles topped with tender grilled chicken, beef, shrimp or tofu. And get your sushi fix with one of the chef's signature rolls — foodies love the baked snow crab and salmon dynamite roll, which fuses cool cream cheese and cucumber with spicy mayo, garlic-chilli oil, citrus, and a decadent champagne sauce. For dessert, choose between an assortment of creamy, chewy mochi and crispy sesame balls served with red bean and strawberry sauce.

PRO TIP

Dining with little ones? Ask for a kids' menu. It's got plenty of smaller-sized versions of Izumi's sushi, tonkotsu ramen, and even teriyaki.

Chops GrilleSM

CLASSIC AMERICAN STEAKHOUSE

For more than a decade, the chefs at Chops Grille have specialised in serving up quality, hand-cut meat. Dinner at this hallmark Royal Caribbean specialty restaurant goes far beyond the typical steakhouse experience, though, with reimagined classics like succulent Maine lobster, gruyere cheese tater tots, white truffle-scented mushroom soup, and of course, expertly prepared prime beef.

ATTIRE

Smart Casual

INSIDER TIP

Open for lunch on sea days only.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

The best way to begin a meal at Chops Grille is with the charred beef carpaccio, sliced thin and served rare with fresh arugula, Parmesan cheese, and truffle mustard dressing. If you're a seafood lover, upgrade your menu with one of the restaurant's chilled seafood towers — each comes with jumbo shrimp, green-lipped mussels, clams, Jonah crab claws, and Maine lobster. As far as entrees go, the tender filet is one of the most popular items on the menu. If nine ounces is a bit too much for you, opt for the smaller 6-ounce petite filet — it packs in just as much flavour as the standard cut. If you're a traditionalist, complement your meal with an order of steaming Yukon Gold mashed potatoes and creamed spinach, or change things up with Chops' signature gruyere cheese tater tots and truffled French fries. And don't forget to save room for a refreshing slice of tart key lime meringue pie or classic New York cheesecake, served with raspberries and lemon confit.

PRO TIP

The chefs at Chops Grille will hand cut, season, and grill each steak to your specifications. When in doubt, don't be afraid to ask for the chef's recommendation.

The Café @ Two70

GOURMET MARKETPLACE

The Café@Two70 is a gourmet marketplace where every meal comes with a side of captivating views. Choose from a variety of savoury hot-pressed sandwiches, crisp custom-made salads, homemade soups and more – all packed up picnic-style, so you can enjoy them while looking out of floor-to-ceiling windows in Two70® or anywhere else onboard.

ATTIRE

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

If you're looking to fuel up for a day filled with adventure, stop by the Café@Two70 in the morning and order a breakfast burrito. The original comes with scrambled eggs, chilli con carne and mozzarella cheese, but you can ask for a vegetarian version if you prefer. If you're craving something crisp and refreshing, the Thai chicken noodle salad is a winner. It's got tender grilled chicken served over mixed greens with peppers, mandarin oranges, toasted almonds and glass noodles, all tossed in a tangy sesame-peanut dressing. Grilled cheese lovers can choose from three different riffs on the classic, including a three-cheese melt that layers gruyere, aged white cheddar and blue cheese on rye, a harvest version with smoked ham, juicy green apples and brie on raisin-multigrain, and a B&B that's loaded with crispy bacon, creamy blue cheese, and crunchy green onions on sourdough.

PRO TIP

The Café@Two70 also offers some tasty sweet treats — see what's available at the counter.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

The menu at North Star Bar offers something for every wine lover, but it's the cocktails that really steal the spotlight. If you want something sparkling, you have several options to choose from. Like the Errai, which blends Patron Silver tequila and strawberry puree with Domaine Chandon and a sprinkle of black pepper. Or the Lodestar, a refreshing mix of Belvedere pink grapefruit vodka and melon liqueur topped with sparkling wine. If you prefer classic, spirit-forward cocktails, try the Dark N' Stormy, made in the traditional style with Gosling's dark rum, fresh lime and ginger beer. Or go for the Manhattan, made by cooling Maker's Mark bourbon over ice and then pouring it into a vermouth-misted glass. If you like your cocktails on the sweeter, fruitier side, order a Passion in the City. It's a winning combination of passion fruit puree, Chambord raspberry liqueur, and Belvedere vodka.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

The English Pub is best known for its wide and diverse selection of beers, but you can also order up a mean cocktail here. If you want something smooth yet strong, go for the James Bond Martini. It's a powerhouse triad of Belvedere vodka, Beefeater gin and Lillet Blanc. If you love bourbon, try the Buffalo Manhattan, which swaps whiskey for Buffalo Trace with sweet vermouth and a splash of Angostura bitters. And if you're having trouble deciding between spirits, order the Boston Iced Tea Party, made with Tanqueray gin, Bacardi Superior rum, Absolut vodka, triple sec, and sweet and sour mix. Want to try something really different? Ask for a beertini or cockt-ale – mixed drinks infused with brews to create one-of-a-kind libations you can savour slowly.
