

Handjob in Shower

(By: Unknown)

I had broken both my wrists in a climbing accident when I was 25 and was ready to be discharged from the hospital. During my stay I was told not to get my casts wet, so of course that meant sponge baths from a nurse. Sorry, but that wasn't as exciting as it sounds. I had the oldest, ugliest nurse on the ward and the thought of her did nothing for my sex drive. I was glad to finally get home, and in all the excitement of my homecoming, the thought of personal hygiene never crossed my mind.

I laid in bed watching some TV for a couple of hours and but began to get restless and was wishing I could take a shower because I still felt pretty grungy from being in the hospital. I decided I was going to try to see if I could just sit on the side of the tub and shower myself with the detachable showerhead.

I went to the bathroom and, with a little difficulty, turned on the water in the bathtub. I then removed my shorts and was getting ready to sit on the side of the tub when I heard the doorbell ring. Cursing the timing of this unexpected visitor, I unsuccessfully attempted to wrap a towel around my waist, using only my thumbs and forefingers, and finally just held it in place with my casts and went downstairs to answer the door. When I opened it I saw it was my sister's best friend Amy in her swimsuit top and some cutoff shorts holding a towel and a beach bag. She said she had come over to swim with Lisa in our pool. As I struggled to keep the towel in place I told Amy that Lisa was at our friends and would be back tonight. I could see Amy giggling and sneaking glances at my attempts to cover myself. She asked if, as long as she was here, could she get some clothes of hers that she had let Lisa borrow. I told her that was okay and that I was going to take a shower and just to make sure the front door was locked when she left.

I went back to the bathroom, stepped into the tub and reached up to remove the showerhead so I could finally get myself clean. Because of the way my casts were built up between my thumb and forefinger, however, I was not able to hold onto the showerhead and kept dropping it, causing it to clatter loudly against the tiled wall and spray water all over the place. About the time I realized it was going to be next to impossible for me to give myself a bath, I heard a knock on the bathroom door. Knowing it was Amy, I stepped out of the tub and went to the door and asked through the door what she wanted. She said that she had heard a lot of clanging noises and was just checking to make sure I was okay. I kind of laughed to myself and then cracked the door open just a bit and thanked Amy for her concern and told her that I was not having much success at giving myself a shower.

Now, Amy has always been Lisa's best friend since they were about four (both are now 17) and she is at our house so often it is almost like she is a family member.

As such, I was only mildly shocked when she laughingly replied " Why don't I just help you out? I have my swimsuit on and so I could just join you in the shower" We both laughed for a minute and then I suggested maybe that was the best solution, I would just keep my back to her so all she would see is my butt.

I think the thought of seeing me naked turned her on a little, she blushed and thought for a second then said " OK, but you better not try anything and not a word of this to ANYONE", I agreed she slipped inside the door.

Amy was taking off her shorts as I got in the shower with my arms resting on the towel rack to keep the casts from getting wet, I was facing the back wall with the water hitting my back and ass.

"I'm ready", I yelled to Amy. I couldn't see her, but I felt the cold room air when she opened the glass shower door. I handed her the new bar of Safeguard soap and tried to make small talk to take our minds off the awkward situation but Amy told me not to say anything for the rest of the shower or she would stop. I felt her warm soapy hands on my shoulders first, and I must admit I felt a tingle in my cock. Amy started rubbing my shoulders and then worked her way down my back slowly, I think she was enjoying this. Safeguard smells so sexy, we were getting turned on by the soap. She was close enough to me that I could feel her legs on the back of my knees, and then I gasped loudly as, to my utter surprise, I felt her nipples lightly grazing against my back! She had removed her bikini top! I wondered if she had removed her suit bottom as well but I didn't dare turn around to see!!!

Then the big surprise! Her hands began to wash and massage my ass cheeks! One soapy hand went slowly from beneath my balls all the way up my butt crack! My ass was full of lather, wow! My cock was now hard as a rock. If I wasn't there I wouldn't believe what happened next. Amy, lathered her hands with the soap and reached around my body and took my cock in her wet soapy hands! Her tits pressed into my back, I then I could feel her pubic hair on my soapy ass, one hand cupped my balls and fingered them, the other began to stroke my cock up and down! I went to talk but she reminded me that any speaking and she was going to make me pay. She knew I needed to keep quiet, so she did just that, by stuffing the big bar of lathered Safeguard soap in my mouth. I tried to hold my mouth closed, but she held my nostrils closed until I had to breath, Oh boy in went the slippery bar of soap into my mouth. Oh! I was quiet now, and she was turned on.

I couldn't believe it! Amy was now jacking me off in the shower, rubbing the length of her body along my back and really enjoying herself, I was having a pretty good time too! I began to like the soap in my mouth. Amy took me by the hand and turned me around... man was she beautiful!. She was very soapy and so sexy. I'd never seen a girl totally naked, she had beautiful breasts that almost pointed upwards, the pink area around her nipple was about the size of a quarter, and her nipples were standing erect. Between her legs she was bare, her pussy was almost completely bald and the only hair was a little tuft right above her clit.

I wanted to touch her but couldn't because of the casts, she knew that and started to wash herself for me to watch. She put soap all over each tit and let her fingers run over her nipples again and again, she squeezed her breasts and let them slip through her soapy hands, one hand went to her pussy where she quickly found her clit and began to massage it, while the other hand found my cock. What a sight!

My sister's friend wet and naked with me in the shower, one hand on her pussy, the other tightly wrapped around my soapy dick doing both herself and me! She stroked me like that, her hand rapidly pumping up and down my warm soapy shaft, my cock building up with cum ready to explode. Then her hand that she had been fingering herself with went to my ass crack and one finger found my hole, my ass was still soapy from her cleaning me earlier. As her finger entered me I pushed my cock against her pistoning fist! She began stroking faster and faster as her finger in my ass slid in and out fucking me wildly sending shivers up my spine. Before long I couldn't take anymore, I arched my back and let out a guttural roar as I shot load after load of cum onto Amy's face, hair, tits, the wall of the shower, and even into her open mouth!! She looked up at me as she swallowed the cum that sprayed into her mouth, some of it dripping from her smiling lips onto her tits and nipples, she rubbed it in and licked my soapy cock clean, then leaned forward and sucked out the last few drops until I was done pumping cum. She finished the shower with me removed the soap from my mouth, let me rinse out my mouth and we went to my bedroom and had even more fun for the next several hours until Amy left just an hour before my family returned. I'll tell you those stories another time.
