

Shower Surprise at Work

(By: Karen Murray)

I went to work one Saturday knowing that I should be able to get some work done. Sure enough, the parking lot was empty and I got right to work.

I only took a couple of short breaks and was feeling very sore by mid-afternoon. I decided that I had earned a break and went to the men's room to use the shower facilities.

I was had just finished shampooing my hair when I saw someone enter the dressing area. He was one of the engineers from upstairs who often showered here after his daily runs.

He undressed and came toward me saying that he didn't expect to find any one at work. I couldn't seem to find my voice as I watched his long cock swaying as he approached me. I looked up feeling my face get very red as I was caught staring at his manhood.

He pushed back the shower curtain all the way and came in to the shower stall. He got wet and washed his hair. I was now soaping my cock, which was very erect. He asked me to soap up his chest, so I did and I also found my way to his not so private area and made sure to get his cock very clean and soapy. Then, I knelt as he closed the curtain, taking his soapy cock into my mouth, sucking greedily. He leaned against the wall, legs spread apart as I moved my head up and down, licking his shaft as I moved. He put his hands on my head to guide me as his hips started to piston into my soapy hungry mouth. He came with a grunt sending a delicious ribbon of sperm into my mouth as I masturbated on the floor.

We rinsed off and he stepped out of the shower, pulling me by the ear to get me to follow him. I crawled over to him as he sat on the bench and started to suck his cock again. He leaned back and told me to lick his balls and I relished the taste of soap since he didn't rinse completely clean. I licked past his scrotum and tongued his asshole, tasting the bitter while I stroked his cock lightly with my hand. His cock started getting hard again as I fucked his ass with my tongue.

When he was good and hard again, he had me get oil from one of the lockers and I lubed his cock. I was breathing very hard as his cock glistened before me, knowing that it would soon be delving into my ass.

As soon as I thought he was oiled enough I knelt on the floor, putting my ass as high up as I could. He suddenly stuffed the bar of soap into my mouth to keep me quiet as he knelt behind me and put the head of his big cock against my hole and teased me, barely putting any pressure against me. I tried to lean back into him but he smiled and would lean away, frustrating me until I started to eye him to fuck my ass. I was jacking off as I tried to get him to cornhole me, and finally he grabbed my hips and thrust mightily into me. I felt the soap sink into my teeth as I bit down as my butt was torn open, feeling the blazing heat spread through my insides as I collapsed to the floor.

He held on tight as he fucked me ruthlessly, forcing his cock to the hilt with every lovely stroke. The pain subsided as the warmth spread through me making me feel so completely full as my ass tried to adjust to his penetration. Soon his hips were a blur as he approached another orgasm. His hands gripped my shoulders as he lay across my back pounding into my ass. As he came I could feel his cock spasm in me as his loads of sperm flew into me. He kept grinding against my ass until every drop had been spent.

He pulled out and pulled the soap from my mouth, I crawled back after him into the shower. I rinsed my mouth and I soaped him down and sucked him back into my mouth. He started to moan as his legs started to shake. He slid down as I continued my assault on his dick until he was sitting on the shower floor. The water was pouring over us as he started to moan, his breath coming in harsh gasps as he thrust up toward my mouth. I kept my head stationary letting his cock fuck my mouth as I sucked on him and started to push two fingers against his wet asshole. I got my fingers up to the knuckle in his tight ass as he started to really squirm and his breathing became very irregular.

He grabbed the back of my head and gagged me as he came again with a strangled yell as I got my fingers completely into his bum. I kept pushing my fingers in and out as I sucked him dry. When he collapsed on the floor I slid up behind him forcing my cock between his cheeks.

He tried to push me away but his strength was quite low and I wrapped my arm around his waist as I thrust with my hips. I felt his virgin asshole give way as he cried out, his head up against the corner of the shower, and I ran my free hand up his muscular back as I thrust into him again. I had about half my cock in him when he started to push his ass toward me, his hands braced against the wall. I pulled us up to our knees and started to hammer away at his lean runner's ass. He was so tight and gorgeous that I couldn't take it for long and I impaled him as I burst.

We kissed until our breathing reached normal, and he kept looking at me lovingly. I realized that I had a new convert on my hands and couldn't wait to break him completely in.
